

MOVIES CLOSE DOOR OF MUSEUM OF FREAKS

The museum of freaks has lost all of its appeal in this day of moving picture activities. For instance—what little boy or girl will not get a thrill from seeing this two-headed calf—born on the farm of J. B. Battle, of Nichols, S. C.? It was perfect in every way except for the two heads. It was photographed at Washington, where it was being stuffed and mounted.

TURKEYS EAT GRASSHOPPERS

Fowls Take Bulk of Their Food From Field Insects, Devouring Millions of Bugs.

Turkeys range far afield and prey upon insect forms that escape hens. From the time the young are old enough to begin foraging for themselves, perhaps early in June, until near frost, turkeys take the bulk of their food from field insects, devouring millions of grasshoppers and other injurious forms in meadow and pasture, says the United States department of agriculture.

In regions where wooded areas are still fairly extensive mast is an important item in the diet of the turkey. When the insect stores begin to fail, Turkeys Must Have Free Range to Thrive.

the mast larders are beginning to be filled. Feeding on acorns, chestnuts, beechnuts, and the like, turkeys will go a long way toward fattening themselves for the Thanksgiving or Christmas market and will not require much feeding of corn or other grain to finish them. Generally speaking, turkeys will require a larger feeding of grain than chickens to fit them for market, but, as they utilize forms of waste that hens and their broods would not reach, the keeping of a fair number of turkeys is good economy.

Lines to Be Remembered.

"Along with the figure head of Hope," said the captain, "there's a anchor but what's the use of my having a anchor if I can't find no bottom to let it go in."—Charles Dickens.

A Domestic Mystery.

Pete postcards a little problem: "How is it a man's wife can haul him over the coals when there isn't a speck in the house?"—Boston Transcript.

SELECTING GOOD LAYERS

Keep as good layers:

1. Hens which have been the best layers during the past year should be kept over for breeders for next year.
2. Hens which have not started to molt.
3. Hens that have bright red combs and wattles and bright eyes.
4. Well spread pelvic bones, good depth from lay bones to keel bone and vent soft and pliable.
5. Pale shanks, beak and vent on all breeds which have yellow shanks and skin. Use all of the test to be sure you get the good layers.

SEXES SHOULD BE SEPARATED

As Soon as Young Males Begin to Grow They Should Be Fattened for Market.

The young stock should not be reared among a flock of old birds. They should be kept separate. As soon as the young males begin to grow the females (which is about the time they start to grow) the sexes should be separated, and the males fed an extra allowance of food. The cockerels can be mated to the hens without fear of bad effects from inbreeding.

Foolish Waste.

Doing a thing poorly now with the intention of doing it over later, wastes not only time and effort, but character as well.

Free Governments.

All free governments, whatever their name, are in reality governments by public opinion, and it is on the quality of this public opinion that their prosperity depends.—Lowell.

Sunlight for Malaria.

Dr. G. Viala reports to Pottolite (Rome) that cases of long rebellious malaria improve rapidly when the nude trunk is exposed to the sunlight for several hours after each dose of quinine.

And Still Doing It.

A man in Abingdon was fined by a magistrate for sleeping and snoring in church. Nothing was done to the clergyman for putting him to sleep.—Richmond Dispatch, May 17, 1870.

LIVE STOCK NOTES

One of the biggest drawbacks to the sheep industry is the stomach worm.

Pigs that have not been vaccinated should not be placed on infected premises.

Prolonged confinement upon a concrete or dry board floor often induces foot-sore lameness in heavy hogs.

The best results come in keeping the young calf in a clean place in the barn until about three months old.

Sheep ticks cause great annoyance to sheep of all ages, but more especially to the lambs after the older sheep have been shorn. In extreme cases they cause loss in body weight.

Leather in Cow and Horse Hides.

The hide of a cow represents thirty-five pounds of leather, and that of a horse a little more than half that amount.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912, OF THE BEND BULLETIN, WEEKLY EDITION, PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT BEND, OREGON, FOR OCTOBER 1, 1920.

STATE OF OREGON.

County of Deschutes. I, Robert W. Sawyer, a Notary Public in and for the State and County aforesaid, personally appeared Robert W. Sawyer, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the editor of the Bend Bulletin, Weekly Edition, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in Section 433, Postal Law and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:
Publisher, The Bend Bulletin, a corporation, Bend, Oregon.
Editor, Robert W. Sawyer, Bend, Oregon.
Managing Editor, Robert W. Sawyer, Bend, Oregon.

2. That the owners are:
Robert W. Sawyer, Bend, Oregon.
Mary Sawyer, Bend, Oregon.
Henry N. Fowler, Bend, Oregon.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more, of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

ROBERT W. SAWYER.
