COULD NOT STOOP TO TIE HIS SHOES

Gets Rid of Rheumatism and Gains Twenty-four Pounds by Taking Tanlac.

"Tanlac not only added 24 pounds to my weight, but put me in as good health as I ever was in my life," said Augustus Heib, a well known farmer of Morton, Ill.

"For four years I was troubled with rheumatism and indigestion," he continued, "and many a day I gave clean out while working in the field and had to lie down until I got strength enough to get back to the house. My rheumatism was so bad that every morning I had to rub my legs before I could stand up, and my back was so stiff and painful that it nearly killed me to stoop over. My joints, too, were so stiff and sore that I could not bend over to tie my shoes. My appetite was very poor and when I did eat anything I was in misery for hours afterward. I was hardly ever able to get a good night's rest because my kidneys were so badly out of order, and last spring my condition got so bad I wasn't able to work and for several weeks I could hardly get out of the house.

"The man I hired to take my place recommended Tanlac so highly that I began taking it, and, to make a long story short, I haven't a pain in my body now and can do as hard a day's work as any man. I eat three square meals a day, digest them perfectly, and sleep like a top every night. In fact, I couldn't ask to be in better health, and all the credit is due to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Bend by the Owl Drug Co., in Sisters by George F. Aitken, and in Bend by the Horton Drug Co.

E. A. Bussett had occasion to use a big log chain that he had left at Jake Brix's place while heading and, on going over after dark to get it, found an automobile standing in front of Mr. Brix's granary. ## GIVE GROWING CHICKS ROOM

Youngsters Do Not Recover From Evil Effects of Crowding in Brooders or Coops.

Very often the growing chicks are crowded in little out-of-door brooders or chick coops; or some other mistake is made in brooding. Later they are transferred, but the harm has been done; and although they may seem to grow all right afterwards, they do not recover.

FURNISH SHADE IN SUMMER

Chicks, Poults, Ducklings and Goslings Must Have Ample Shade During Hot Weather.

If the ground that the chicks, poults, ducklings and goslings range over during the summer is grass land browned by the heat of the sun and affording no tender green food, be sure that the youngsters have ample shade and one good feed of fresh, tender green food every day.

Wanted to Be "Parked."

Mother, aunt and little Etta were downtown shopping. Etta was quite tired, and they still had many places to go to before they had finished their purchasing. Presently they happened to pass through the restroom and the leather-covered chairs looked inviting to Etta. Turning to her mother, she remarked: "Couldn't you park me here while you and aunt do the rest of your shopping?"

The Wise Wife.

A smart wife won't let her husband get up and give one of the children a drink after he goes to bed, because if she does, he will go around all the next day complaining that he was up all night and never got a wink of sleep.—Arkansas Thomas Cat.

"You'll Always Find" says the Good Judge

That you get more genuine satisfaction at less cost when you use this class of tobacco.

A small chew lasts so much longer than a big chew of the ordinary kind. And the full, rich real tobacco taste gives a long lasting chewing satisfaction.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

CREED FOR EVERY AMERICAN

Undeniable "Good Thing" to Which All Citizens Should Subscribe and Pass Along.

Nearly every reader is familiar with the expression, "It's a good thing, pass it along." The other day attention was attracted by a "good thing" which is here passed along. It is a "financial creed" for every man, woman and child suggested by the savings directors of the 12 federal reserve districts. Read it carefully. It is as follows:

I believe in the United States of America.

My opportunity and hope depend upon her future.

I believe that her stability and progress rest upon the industry and thrift of her people.

Therefore, I will work hard and live simply.

I will spend less than I earn.

I will use my earnings with care.

I will save consistently.

I will invest thoughtfully.

To increase the financial strength of my country and myself, I will buy government securities.

I will hold above barter the obligations my country thus incurs.

I will do these things to insure the greatness of America's future.

Spines of Porcupine.

The spines of a porcupine, in the usual position, lie nearly flat, with their points directed backward, but when the animal is excited they are capable of being raised. The quills are loosely inserted in the skin and may, on being violently shaken, become detached, a circumstance which probably gave rise to the purely fabulous statement that the animal possesses the power of actually ejecting its quills like arrows or darts at an enemy.

Juvenile Wisdom.

The essays of school children frequently impart very curious information. One boy wrote, "Sugar is made from turning sour you should leave it in the cow." A third youngster, "To make butter we must beat up some eggs in some milk and set it to the sun. When the eggs come to the top, scum it off."

10 Billion Potatoes From One.

If there were but one potato left in the world, a careful cultivator might produce 10,000,000,000 from it in ten years and thus supply the world with seed again.

Economy and Empire.

As much wisdom may be expended on a private economy as on an empire, and as much wisdom may be drawn from it.—Emerson.

EVERYTHING THAT IS BIG HAS HAD ITS SMALL BEGINNING

At some time the large fortune was small, but it grew. Your fortune may be now in its infancy; you may not have more than a dollar that doesn't need to be spent at once for some necessity. But put that dollar away, in a safe place; let it draw interest; by and by put another dollar with it, and then another and another. Like a child your fortune will grow—steadily, surely. In time, what you have put aside, added to what your savings have earned, will amount to enough to make a good investment. You have made the beginning of your fortune.
