WOODS KNOCKS OUT PAISLEY BATTLER

Drum Takes Count in the Second Round—Victor To Train Under M. C. Hill in Portland.

It took Speck Woods just two rounds to knock out Battling Drumm of Paisley in their bout there last week. E. C. Brick, who was in Speck's corner during the fight, reported on his return to Bend this morning. Speck too a sound drubbing during the first round, but toward the end of the second he shot his left to Drumm's solar plexus, following with a right to the jaw. Drumm was carried out of the ring.

Woods not only won his bout, but on the day of his arrival at the Lake county fair, took second money in one of the auto races, driving his red "bug," Mr. Brick stated.

Tonight Speck will leave for Portland, where he will train under M. C. Hill. Woods is the second Bend boy to go under Hill's management, Kid Taylor being the first to be sent down this year.

Children and Books.

It does the child no harm to make the acquaintance of books which were not written for children. In a home where the great books that have inspired or amused successive generations are accessible an active-minded child is likely at some time to get at them. If we want our children to fall in love with the better kind of books let us provide them with opportunities for meeting such books without too much formality.

Apostle-Spoons.

"Apostle-spoons," called also "gossip-spoons," were gilt spoons given by the sponsors, or "gossips," to a child at its christening. They were so called because each spoon had a figure of an apostle on the handle.

That Is, Some Men.

Before marriage a man has been known to declare himself unworthy of his sweetheart's love, and after marriage to spend about two-thirds of his time proving it.—Chicago News.

Mannheimer Brothers

Significant Borders.

On certain fete days in some parts of Brittany the marriageable girls appear in red petticoats with white or yellow borders around them. The number of borders denote the portion the father is willing to give his daughter. Each white band denotes 100 francs per annum; each yellow band represents 1,000 francs a year.

Figuring on a Crowd.

In designing structures which are liable to be subjected to stress from crowds, engineers commonly figure on a load of about one hundred pounds to the square foot.

Fifteen Years Ago

(From the columns of The Bulletin of October 15, 1905.)

Henry and Felix Linster within the past week made a bargain for the purchase of the sawmill and timber interests of Steidl & Reid. The transaction included the sawmill at Lytle, about 900 acres of land, logging equipment and lumber on hand. The price agreed upon is $14,000.
