

ALIEN ENEMY PLEA PROVES BAR IN COURT

CITIZENSHIP REQUEST DENIED

MUST WAIT 5 YEARS

Gustav Hirsch, Deschutes County Farmer, Claimed Exemption After Taking Out His First Papers.

Before the United States was at war, Gustav Hirsch, Deschutes county farmer, German born, wanted to become a citizen of America and made his declaration of intention. After the war started, Hirsch claimed exemption from military service on the grounds of being an alien enemy. These were the facts brought out in an examination of government records Monday afternoon when naturalization proceedings were held before Circuit Judge T. E. J. Duffy on the opening day of the November term of Circuit court.

Hirsch was perfectly willing to go on with his plans for naturalization, but the court was not. Hirsch's application was denied with prejudice, a ruling which prevents his attempting to gain the privileges of citizenship for five years. In his brief testimony, Hirsch stated that he did not remember on what grounds he had claimed exemption, other than that of his agricultural occupation.

Grand Jury Called

The calling and instruction of the grand jury was the chief business in court on Monday. T. W. Marshall E. P. Brosterhous, W. R. Davidson, George Paddock, L. F. Orrell, T. W. Triplett, and Bert Torkelson are the members of the indicting tribunal. Mr. Triplett was designated by Judge Duffy as foreman, and after receiving instructions consideration of evidence in the list of criminal cases held from Justice court was begun. Calling of the November docket followed immediately afterward.

EARL HOUSTON NAMED WARDEN

EX-SERVICE MAN SUCCEEDS H. McDONALD IN DIRECTING THE GAME LAW ENFORCEMENT IN CENTRAL OREGON.

(Special to The Bulletin)

PORTLAND, Nov. 4.—Earl B. Houston, of Bend, has been appointed district game warden Central Oregon, succeeding H. McDonald, resigned, it was announced today from the headquarters of the state game commission. Mr. Houston is now in Portland, but will return to Bend immediately to take up his new duties.

The new game warden for the Central Oregon district has been a resident of this city for a number of years. Before enlisting in the army for protracted overseas service, he frequently served as a special officer in both city and county work. He is adjutant of Percy A. Stevens Post No. 4 American Legion.

Up to the time of his appointment, Mr. Houston had been employed here by the R. M. Smith grocery.

H. McDonald, Mr. Houston's predecessor, the first district game warden to make his headquarters in Bend, left here early in the fall to attend the University of Washington, at Seattle.

PRESIDENTIAL VOTE IN COUNTY OVER 3000

Many Cast Ballots for National Candidates, but Failed to Vote for County Officials.

Although indications during the election were that greater interest was being aroused by the contest for county offices than by the presidential balloting, the reverse proved to be true when a total of votes cast was struck off. Presidential electors received 3025, candidates for county, judge 2875, seekers for the sheriff's office 2763, and candidates for district attorney 2611.

CAVALRY SIRES MAY COME HERE

SURVEY IS MADE BY REMOUNT OFFICER

Introduction of Better Blood on Central Oregon Range Possibility Following Visit of Lieutenant P. H. Hudgins.

The possibility that the remount service of the U. S. army may play an important part in vastly improving the type of horses raised in Central Oregon was intimated here on Friday just before his departure by Lieutenant P. H. Hudgins, after several days spent in and near Bend. Lieutenant Hudgins' headquarters are in Boise.

The plan which the lieutenant outlined involves the establishment of breeding stations at points where a demand is evidenced, and where the stock approximate closely enough the cavalry type to warrant the introduction of thoroughbred sires. The stallions which the remount service has available are of the best blood in the country, Lieutenant Hudgins stated.

Partly as a result of the war, the true type of cavalry horse is rare indeed, the remount officer said, and to remedy this, the establishment of breeding centers has been decided on. The use of government sires would produce a type of colt large enough for ordinary draft purposes, and, by means of records kept, the army would have the advantage of knowing where animals of the kind best adapted for cavalry could be found and purchased in case of need. The crossing of the army sires with selected range stock would not, however, obligate ranchers to sell the colts for army use, Lieutenant Hudgins emphasized.

Announcement will be made later in case it is decided advisable at headquarters in Boise to designate Bend as a breeding center, he stated.

MOORE NOT ALLOWED TO AID PROSECUTION

District Attorney Barred From Taking Part Against Father-in-Law, Charged with Murder.

The Oregon laws will prevent District Attorney A. J. Moore from taking part in the prosecution of his father-in-law, A. J. Weston, charged with the murder of Robert H. Krug, of Sisters, in the spring of 1919. This was the announcement of Circuit Judge T. E. J. Duffy. Mr. Moore had previously stated that if his father-in-law should be indicted, he would be associated with the prosecution during the trial.

"I guess I'm listed for a seat among the spectators," he commented after accepting the court's ruling.

Judge Duffy stated that he would appoint H. H. DeArmond to conduct the case for the state from now on.

SUCCESSOR FOR NIXON IN DOUBT

Mayor-Elect Has Made No Decision, He States, in Commenting on Chief's Resignation.

Who will be named to succeed L. A. W. Nixon, whose resignation as chief of police was accepted Friday night by the city council to take effect on December 31, is entirely a matter of conjecture, E. D. Gilson, mayor-elect, stated Friday. "I have several applications for the position," he said, "but I have made no decision, and would not do so until I had first conferred with the council. Anyway, it's a long time between now and the first of the year. Lots of things can happen in that period." Mr. Gilson gave no evidence of surprise at Chief Nixon's withdrawal, but said that up to the time he received word of the chief's act, he had made no plans for replacing him. No application from Frank Kulp, whom rumor had named as Chief Nixon's successor, has been received, Mr. Gilson said.

FUNERAL IS HELD FOR TED STAUFFER

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stauffer of Bend 17 Years Old at Time of Last Illness.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Niewonger chapel for Ted Stauffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stauffer, of this city. The funeral sermon was pronounced by Rev. J. Edgar Purdy, and interment was made at Pilot Butte cemetery. Ted Brookings Stauffer was born in Tekamah, Nebraska, on January 8, 1903, and with the family moved to a homestead on the high desert in 1917. In March, 1919, they moved to Bend. When taken ill last Monday, the boy was in the employ of The Shevlin-Hixon Company. He was brought at once to the Lumbermen's hospital in Bend, where he died Friday morning.

MANY CALLS FOR NURSES RECEIVED

Need for practical nurses in Bend was emphasized Friday morning by Mrs. V. A. Forbes, home service secretary for the American Red Cross chapter here. Mrs. Forbes has received many calls for nurses during the last few days, and is anxious that women who are qualified for work of the kind call her at Red 2531, or communicate with Mrs. E. Stockwell at Red 1491.
