

What's Doing In The Country

AUTOIST ESCAPES SERIOUS DISASTER

POWELL BUTTE, Jan. 4.—J. A. Riggs took his guests, Mr. and Mrs. White, and sons to Prineville last week to show them the country. While coming up the grade—the new grade—a connecting rod broke and they narrowly escaped a more serious accident. He sent for a car from the garage and was towed, backward, down the grade and to the garage, where he left his car and hired another to take his party home, where they arrived much later than had been planned. Mr. Riggs was glad to have escaped without anyone being injured. He said it was a close call.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Flint are building a comfortable new bungalow on their ranch. It will be completed soon.

There was a watch night meeting at Community hall New Year's eve. A large crowd attended and enjoyed the evening very much. Songs, addresses and games helped the time to pass away until the midnight hour ended in the new year. A fine supper was served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts gave a delightful car party New Year's eve. The following guests were invited to spend New Year's eve with them: Mr. and Mrs. Eli Hugh Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Agee, Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Carl Charlton. Just before midnight Mrs. Roberts served a chafing dish supper.

Rev. Brown, pastor of the Redmond-Powell Butte M. E. churches, attended the watch night meeting at Powell Butte and delivered an address.

C. M. Charlton returned Tuesday morning from Salem and Portland, where he went on business before the holidays.

Lloyd Bussett, Fred McCaffrey, Miss Fay Bussett and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reynolds attended the New Year's ball in Redmond.

Grandma Spray visited with Mrs. Martha Foster last week.

Miss Gladys Pauls has returned to her school at Lone Pine Gap.

Roy Oliver and family have rented Mrs. Sue Wilcox's ranch and will move on it soon.

Mrs. Roy Roberts was hostess to the Powell Butte Ladies' Aid last Thursday. She was assisted by Mrs. Naomi Flint Agee and Mrs. Anna Jackson Stewart. It is planned to hold a bazaar in the near future at which many useful articles and cooked food will be sold.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Flint are building a new home on their ranch. It will soon be completed.

Mrs. Mary V. Charlton has gone to Salem, where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ila Foster, for the next two months. This is Mrs. Charlton's first vacation in four years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stewart and Carl Charlton went to Bend last Wednesday and returned the same day. They report the roads in bad condition.

Bulletin "WANT ADS" Bring Results—Try Them.

WATCH PARTY HELD AT DESCHUTES HOME

PLEASANT RIDGE, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Cathrine Johansen and Rasmus Peterson entertained a number of their neighbors on New Year's eve at dinner. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hanson and baby, Hans Hanson of Deschutes, Anton Ahlstrom, Miss Hilma Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson. The evening was spent in conversation and playing games, the guests remaining to watch the old year out and the new year in.

Oswald Pedersen has been confined to his bed for several days with a cold.

Ole Hanson of Deschutes came over Saturday to help Rasmus Peterson weigh his sheep.

Ed Swalley and Everett Johnson repaired the telephone line where a loaded truck, passing along the highway, had torn it down.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peterson had as their guests at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hanson, Hans Hanson of Deschutes, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanson of Tumalo, Mrs. Cathrine Johansen and Rasmus Peterson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Petty left Wednesday evening for Portland after spending their Christmas vacation here.

Alfred Pedersen was a business visitor in Redmond Friday.

Antone Ahlstrom went to Bend Friday.

Alfred Mikkelsen visited Hans Hanson, near Deschutes, Friday afternoon.

Antone Ahlstrom was a business visitor in Redmond Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mikkelsen entertained the following guests at dinner Tuesday evening: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Petty, W. J. Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pedersen, Oswald Pedersen and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams, Billy Durand, Miss Ethel Williams and Mrs. Minden went to Prineville Friday to spend New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Williams' daughter, Mrs. Frances Durand. Miss Ethel Williams remained in Prineville to visit her sister, the others returning home Saturday afternoon. They report the roads between Redmond and Prineville as being in very bad shape, owing to the recent rains.

Mr. Wagener went to Redmond on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams and daughter, Ethel, Billy Durand and Mrs. Minden were Bend shoppers Tuesday afternoon.

Alfred Pedersen and son, Oswald, and H. T. Mikkelsen made a business trip to Redmond Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Petty at luncheon at the Pilot Butte Inn in Bend Tuesday.

J. A. Chase, Andrew Nelson, Roy Miller, J. W. Peterson, Antone Ahlstrom and Rasmus Peterson attended the mass meeting held at Redmond Saturday evening to discuss the voting on the bonds for the irrigation district.

Several of his neighbors called on W. J. Shannon Saturday evening. The evening was spent playing cards. The ladies brought refreshments.

with them and near midnight a lunch was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mikkelsen, Alfred Mikkelsen, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pedersen, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson and W. J. Shannon.

Rasmus Peterson and Mr. Olson were business callers in Deschutes Friday morning.

IT'S GOOD FOR CHILDREN
Mrs. C. E. Schwab, 1007 14th St., Canton, Ohio, writes: "We use Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs and find it is one of the best remedies on the market. It is especially good for the children's coughs, as it does not contain any drug that is harmful." Foley's cures coughs, colds and croup. Quick to act. Sold everywhere.—Adv. 45-47c

TERREBONNE WINS BASKETBALL GAME

TERREBONNE, Jan. 4.—The Terrebonne-Redmond basketball game was won by Terrebonne by a score of 23 to 7. Negotiations are under way for a game between Terrebonne and Culver, to be played at Redmond. This is to be the "rubber," as Culver won the first game and Terrebonne took the second.

Mrs. Whitels returned from Portland in time to take up her school work Monday.

Miss Hazelton returned to Terrebonne last Sunday after spending the holidays with her parents in Washington.

HAS DONE A LOT OF GOOD
Robert Gibbs, 153 Colfax St., Lexington, Ky., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is all right and has done my family a lot of good." This time-tried remedy for coughs, colds, croup and la grippe acts quickly, cuts phlegm, eases coughs and covers raw, inflamed surfaces with a healing coating. Sold everywhere.—Adv. 44-47c

WEDDING DINNER IS GIVEN AT SISTERS

SISTERS, Jan. 5.—The wedding of Miss May Triplett and Sterling Fryrear was an event of unusual interest to the people of Sisters. The bride is the daughter of Millard Triplett, a prominent farmer of this community, and the groom comes from one of the oldest families in this neighborhood. The ceremony was performed in Bend last Wednesday, after which it was celebrated by a wedding dinner at the Fryrear home. A large number of friends and relatives attended.

A surprise party was given Miss Cecil Robbins at her home last Monday evening, the affair being in honor of her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Miller returned to their home in Sisters last Monday. For the past three months they have been living on the Metolius river, where Mr. Miller has been employed.

Mrs. Millard Triplett has been spending the past two weeks in Bend with her daughter, Mrs. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Spoo of Lebanon, Ore., have been spending the holidays with Ed Spoo of Sisters.

A Christmas program was given at the school house Saturday evening, December 25. It was a community affair. Each child got a present and everybody received a bag of candy. After the exercises Santa Claus appeared on the scene and presented many amusing gifts to the townpeople.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly returned from Clatskanie, Ore., Saturday, where they spent the holidays with their parents.

Miss Lucille Snyder of Bend spent the holidays with her parents at Sisters.

School reopened Monday. The high school had a two weeks' vacation and the grades a week. From now on work will continue steadily until the close of the term, some time in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Farthing have spent the last two weeks in Bend, where the latter is receiving medical attention.

Jack Stidham and son, Vine, spent Christmas with relatives in Bend.

Thomas Harrison has returned to school after having been confined to his home a number of days with the flu.

Frank Bacon and mother, who have spent the summer and fall here, returned to their home at Prescott, Oregon, just before the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Roach of Sisters are celebrating the coming of a new daughter to their home.

sent many amusing gifts to the townpeople.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly returned from Clatskanie, Ore., Saturday, where they spent the holidays with their parents.

Miss Lucille Snyder of Bend spent the holidays with her parents at Sisters.

School reopened Monday. The high school had a two weeks' vacation and the grades a week. From now on work will continue steadily until the close of the term, some time in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Farthing have spent the last two weeks in Bend, where the latter is receiving medical attention.

Jack Stidham and son, Vine, spent Christmas with relatives in Bend.

Thomas Harrison has returned to school after having been confined to his home a number of days with the flu.

Frank Bacon and mother, who have spent the summer and fall here, returned to their home at Prescott, Oregon, just before the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Roach of Sisters are celebrating the coming of a new daughter to their home.

WHEN WORKING FORCES ARE CUT.
In times of business depression the poorest workers are laid off first and efficient men and women retained. Backaches, stiff muscles, aching joints, swollen hands and feet, rheumatic pains and other symptoms of kidney trouble keep many persons below par. Foley Kidney Pills help tired, weak kidneys. Sold everywhere.—Adv. 44-47c

ALFALFA FARMERS COMMENCE PLOWING

ALFALFA, Jan. 5.—Evelyn Crow, Orville Shultz and Clarence Merting spent the holidays at their homes.

Mrs. Shultz sent a fine shipment of turkeys to Portland recently.

Mrs. Crow and daughter, Lora, spent New Year's eve with Grandma Baker.

Many farmers are starting to plow, as the frost is gone.

Vacation has ended and Alfalfa young people have returned to their classes at school.

Mrs. Hossel entertained Tuesday evening in honor of the birthday of her brother, Clarence Merting.

Mr. Hardy presented Mrs. Hardy with a new sedan as a Christmas gift.

Marshall Roberts has spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shultz.

Mrs. Dean Covert's mother, Mrs. C. L. Rogers, spent a few days with her daughter between Christmas and New Year's day. Mr. Rogers, who accompanied her, did some surveying on the Covert ranch.

The watch party at the hall New Year's eve was an enjoyable affair.

Grover Caldwell is still hauling baled hay from the Crow ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Barber have received the sad news of the death of their son, Austin, who had gone to Los Angeles in hope of being benefited by the change. He lived but 24 hours after reaching his friends there. Tuberculosis caused his death.

An epidemic of grippé is making the rounds of the valley, so far, nothing serious has developed.

Gene Ferguson returned to his home at Heppner, Ore., December 27, after a 10 days' visit with the family of J. N. Crow.

The Jolly Neighbors club met with Mrs. M. H. Crow Thursday. Mrs. Ruffe will entertain at the next meeting of the club, January 13.

The Farm bureau will hold an open session next Wednesday evening, when the ladies will serve supper.

Gus Berry has returned home and is busy plowing, getting ready for spring seeding to alfalfa of the farm he recently bought.

Lynn Covert is suffering from eye trouble, which necessitates a trip to Portland for special treatment. His mother is accompanying him.

HE WILL TELL ANYBODY
"I had a severe cold," writes Forest Thomas, R. R. 3, Box 29, O'Fallon, Mo., "I'll tell anybody Foley's Honey and Tar can't be beat for colds and coughs and ought to be kept in the house all the time. It pays to do so." Be sure and get the genuine Foley's. Contains no opiates. Sold everywhere.—Adv. 43-47c

Old Schooners Become Barges.
Disposal of large numbers of old schooners, to say nothing of an oversupply of new wood ships, has been a problem for the past few years. River and canal men, meanwhile, have been facing a shortage of barges. Putting these two facts together, Eastern shipbuilders have now evolved a new form of schooner barge, made by removing the upper works and the below-deck cabins and bulkheads of the schooners. Such barges are capacious and have the advantages of speed in towing and seaworthiness for coast work, and if lost from a sea tow can make port with a jury rig. In South America as well as the United States, rebuilt schooners for barge work already are at a premium.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Italians Melt Up Small Change.
The second-hand dealers all over Italy have cornered the bronze 10 and 5 centime pieces, which they have melted down and sold as ingots for soldering at two and three times the price the pennies cost them. This has caused a great deal of annoyance, as small change is scarce, and in some of the cafes stamps have been given as change. The government has reduced the size of the new 10 and 5 centime pieces, but even that has done little good, so it has now decided to coin the new pennies out of a composition metal which cannot be used as solder if melted.

Old Schooners Become Barges.
Disposal of large numbers of old schooners, to say nothing of an oversupply of new wood ships, has been a problem for the past few years. River and canal men, meanwhile, have been facing a shortage of barges. Putting these two facts together, Eastern shipbuilders have now evolved a new form of schooner barge, made by removing the upper works and the below-deck cabins and bulkheads of the schooners. Such barges are capacious and have the advantages of speed in towing and seaworthiness for coast work, and if lost from a sea tow can make port with a jury rig. In South America as well as the United States, rebuilt schooners for barge work already are at a premium.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Italians Melt Up Small Change.
The second-hand dealers all over Italy have cornered the bronze 10 and 5 centime pieces, which they have melted down and sold as ingots for soldering at two and three times the price the pennies cost them. This has caused a great deal of annoyance, as small change is scarce, and in some of the cafes stamps have been given as change. The government has reduced the size of the new 10 and 5 centime pieces, but even that has done little good, so it has now decided to coin the new pennies out of a composition metal which cannot be used as solder if melted.

Old Schooners Become Barges.
Disposal of large numbers of old schooners, to say nothing of an oversupply of new wood ships, has been a problem for the past few years. River and canal men, meanwhile, have been facing a shortage of barges. Putting these two facts together, Eastern shipbuilders have now evolved a new form of schooner barge, made by removing the upper works and the below-deck cabins and bulkheads of the schooners. Such barges are capacious and have the advantages of speed in towing and seaworthiness for coast work, and if lost from a sea tow can make port with a jury rig. In South America as well as the United States, rebuilt schooners for barge work already are at a premium.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Italians Melt Up Small Change.
The second-hand dealers all over Italy have cornered the bronze 10 and 5 centime pieces, which they have melted down and sold as ingots for soldering at two and three times the price the pennies cost them. This has caused a great deal of annoyance, as small change is scarce, and in some of the cafes stamps have been given as change. The government has reduced the size of the new 10 and 5 centime pieces, but even that has done little good, so it has now decided to coin the new pennies out of a composition metal which cannot be used as solder if melted.

Old Schooners Become Barges.
Disposal of large numbers of old schooners, to say nothing of an oversupply of new wood ships, has been a problem for the past few years. River and canal men, meanwhile, have been facing a shortage of barges. Putting these two facts together, Eastern shipbuilders have now evolved a new form of schooner barge, made by removing the upper works and the below-deck cabins and bulkheads of the schooners. Such barges are capacious and have the advantages of speed in towing and seaworthiness for coast work, and if lost from a sea tow can make port with a jury rig. In South America as well as the United States, rebuilt schooners for barge work already are at a premium.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Italians Melt Up Small Change.
The second-hand dealers all over Italy have cornered the bronze 10 and 5 centime pieces, which they have melted down and sold as ingots for soldering at two and three times the price the pennies cost them. This has caused a great deal of annoyance, as small change is scarce, and in some of the cafes stamps have been given as change. The government has reduced the size of the new 10 and 5 centime pieces, but even that has done little good, so it has now decided to coin the new pennies out of a composition metal which cannot be used as solder if melted.

Old Schooners Become Barges.
Disposal of large numbers of old schooners, to say nothing of an oversupply of new wood ships, has been a problem for the past few years. River and canal men, meanwhile, have been facing a shortage of barges. Putting these two facts together, Eastern shipbuilders have now evolved a new form of schooner barge, made by removing the upper works and the below-deck cabins and bulkheads of the schooners. Such barges are capacious and have the advantages of speed in towing and seaworthiness for coast work, and if lost from a sea tow can make port with a jury rig. In South America as well as the United States, rebuilt schooners for barge work already are at a premium.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Italians Melt Up Small Change.
The second-hand dealers all over Italy have cornered the bronze 10 and 5 centime pieces, which they have melted down and sold as ingots for soldering at two and three times the price the pennies cost them. This has caused a great deal of annoyance, as small change is scarce, and in some of the cafes stamps have been given as change. The government has reduced the size of the new 10 and 5 centime pieces, but even that has done little good, so it has now decided to coin the new pennies out of a composition metal which cannot be used as solder if melted.

Old Schooners Become Barges.
Disposal of large numbers of old schooners, to say nothing of an oversupply of new wood ships, has been a problem for the past few years. River and canal men, meanwhile, have been facing a shortage of barges. Putting these two facts together, Eastern shipbuilders have now evolved a new form of schooner barge, made by removing the upper works and the below-deck cabins and bulkheads of the schooners. Such barges are capacious and have the advantages of speed in towing and seaworthiness for coast work, and if lost from a sea tow can make port with a jury rig. In South America as well as the United States, rebuilt schooners for barge work already are at a premium.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Italians Melt Up Small Change.
The second-hand dealers all over Italy have cornered the bronze 10 and 5 centime pieces, which they have melted down and sold as ingots for soldering at two and three times the price the pennies cost them. This has caused a great deal of annoyance, as small change is scarce, and in some of the cafes stamps have been given as change. The government has reduced the size of the new 10 and 5 centime pieces, but even that has done little good, so it has now decided to coin the new pennies out of a composition metal which cannot be used as solder if melted.

Old Schooners Become Barges.
Disposal of large numbers of old schooners, to say nothing of an oversupply of new wood ships, has been a problem for the past few years. River and canal men, meanwhile, have been facing a shortage of barges. Putting these two facts together, Eastern shipbuilders have now evolved a new form of schooner barge, made by removing the upper works and the below-deck cabins and bulkheads of the schooners. Such barges are capacious and have the advantages of speed in towing and seaworthiness for coast work, and if lost from a sea tow can make port with a jury rig. In South America as well as the United States, rebuilt schooners for barge work already are at a premium.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Italians Melt Up Small Change.
The second-hand dealers all over Italy have cornered the bronze 10 and 5 centime pieces, which they have melted down and sold as ingots for soldering at two and three times the price the pennies cost them. This has caused a great deal of annoyance, as small change is scarce, and in some of the cafes stamps have been given as change. The government has reduced the size of the new 10 and 5 centime pieces, but even that has done little good, so it has now decided to coin the new pennies out of a composition metal which cannot be used as solder if melted.

Old Schooners Become Barges.
Disposal of large numbers of old schooners, to say nothing of an oversupply of new wood ships, has been a problem for the past few years. River and canal men, meanwhile, have been facing a shortage of barges. Putting these two facts together, Eastern shipbuilders have now evolved a new form of schooner barge, made by removing the upper works and the below-deck cabins and bulkheads of the schooners. Such barges are capacious and have the advantages of speed in towing and seaworthiness for coast work, and if lost from a sea tow can make port with a jury rig. In South America as well as the United States, rebuilt schooners for barge work already are at a premium.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

OLDEST OF STATE MOTTOES

That of Maryland Was Adopted in 1648—Enshrined in History of the Commonwealth.

The Maryland suffragists who propose altering the state's motto, "Fatti Maschi Parole Femine" (to use the old spelling), are proposing to put rough hands to what should be sacred. The offensive translation, "Deeds are masculine, words are feminine," is not the only one possible. The secretary of state could readily be directed to give official approval to "manly deeds and womanly words," which would give women a recognition they enjoy in no other state motto.

But the best reason for jealously guarding Maryland's motto is that it is the oldest the nation can boast—the date of its adoption is placed in 1648—and is enshrined with Maryland history to a remarkable degree. Throw away the Baltimore motto and Maryland might as well turn the portrait of George Calvert, first Lord Baltimore, to the wall.

There are other state mottoes that are open to attack. Alabama's "Here We Rest" suggests an obvious joke. So does Washington's "By and By." Virginia's motto recalls John Wilkes Booth, New York's the rather tawdry declamation by Longfellow which it inspired, and those of several other states—like Kansas' "Ad Astra Per Aspera"—the rhetoric of commencement.

While these states cleave to their mottoes Maryland may well be boastful of hers and its associations. —New York Evening Post.

HOT "SHOT" FOR NEIGHBOR
Probably Woman Wished She Had Not Irritated Mr. Dobson While He Was Worried.

Mr. Dobson came home early in the evening, but 17 sheets in the wind. He negotiated the steps to his front door on his hands and knees. Finally, when he reached the top, he fished his keys from his pocket without much difficulty, but the keyhole, of course, could not be found.

After several attempts to locate it, in which he failed miserably, he happened to look over his shoulder, and discovered the woman next door watching him.

"Wash you wan't?" he demanded.

"I don't want anything," she replied, but didn't go away.

The man made another attempt to find the keyhole, but being again unsuccessful turned in disgust and asked the neighbor if she had borrowed the keyhole.

"Of course not. I don't know anything about your keyhole except that you can't find it," said she.

"Well, you've borrowed everything else we've got, so I thought maybe you borrowed our keyhole," came the reply.

Peter and Paul Were in Rome.
According to the evidence and discoveries of two famous archaeologists of Rome, Professors Grossi Condi and Orazio Marucchi, there no longer remains any doubt that the Apostles Peter and Paul both went to Rome and suffered martyrdom there.

That doubt has been raised several times in controversies between various schools of archaeologists.

"The Apostles Peter and Paul," professor Marucchi said, "did go to Rome. I have found traces of their burial in a catacomb hewn out of the rock on the Appian Way, behind the ancient church of St. Sebastian."

"There are graves in this underground burying place, which of course prove nothing. But there are also writings on the wall, and these writings all invoke the aid of Peter and Paul, described as lying there."

Famous Mine May "Come Back."
The Comstock lode, once known as the richest silver mine in the world, and from which millions of dollars were taken during the height of its fame, is about to come back to its own. For years the lode was almost deserted, and Virginia City, Nev., lived along in a lethargy that included the slow crumbling of its buildings and the rotting of its sidewalks, until what was one of the most colorful, blazing, excitement-gathering towns in the United States, became a monument to dead hopes and a mockery of its former self.

It has been discovered that thousands of tons of low-grade ore now are standing in giant dumps, and yet other thousands of tons resting in the mines themselves, can be made to yield as high as $10 a ton under modern methods of extraction.

Bulrushes Found of Value.
As a result of a German professor's discovery that the roots of the ordinary bulrush contain as much as 30 per cent of cane sugar, special dredges are now being built for the purpose of harvesting them, reports Popular Mechanics Magazine. The roots grow in thick horizontal masses, and in one part of Germany are believed to underlie everywhere a tract of marshy land comprising 500,000 acres. Though sugar is the product chiefly sought, secondary processes yield alcohol and a nutritive cattle food. From the juice there is made, also, a strong beer resembling porter.

Frivolous Personalities.
"I wonder if Mrs. Gadder knows anything about Plume?"
"You'd better not mention the subject to her."
"Why not?"
"She may think you are talking about something that can be made in a chafing dish."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

PIONEER HEEDS DEATH'S CALL

MISS IDA YOUNG, WRITER, AND SECRETARY OF OLD WATER USERS ORGANIZATION, KNOWN BY MANY IN COUNTY.

Miss Ida Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Young, pioneer ranchers in the Grange Hall section, died on Monday as the result of heart disease. She is survived by her parents and by a brother and sister.

Miss Young had been clerk of the Grange hall school district ever since its organization, and at one time a teacher in that section. Out of respect to her memory, classes were dismissed Monday.

One of the most widely known women in Deschutes county, Miss Young was secretary of the old Water Users' association, which preceded the present C. O. I. irrigation district. She was a frequent contributor to magazines and farm papers.

NAVY REFUSES TO ACCEPT FERGUSON

Lieutenant Commander Declares His Branch of Service Has No Place For Men Charged With Crime.

PORTLAND, Jan. 3.—R. A. Ferguson of Bend, first charged with burglary, then paroled on a reduced charge of larceny, presented himself at the Portland naval recruiting office for enlistment, only to be refused.

Ferguson was arrested after robbing a cigar store in Bend.

"The navy has no place for men of that ilk," Lieutenant Commander F. K. Elder, commanding officer of the local office, said, "for there is nothing worse aboard a ship than a thief that preys on his shipmates. The practice of magistrates sentencing men to serve in the navy is one the navy department looks on with disfavor. The morals of the navy are such that men undesirable to civilian authorities are more so to us. We simply will not take them, and no judge has the right or authority to give a man such a parole."

Feet.
To dream you bathe your feet denotes trouble in collecting money which is due you. To dream of large or deformed feet foretells a journey which will cost you many tears. To scratch the bottom of your feet denotes treachery and flattery. To have no feet at all is an evil omen; it foretells some great calamity. Cold feet foretells a quarrel with a friend.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Classified advertising charges per line 10 cents for 20 words or less. One cent per word for all over 20. All classified advertising strictly cash in advance.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—160 acres of land, fenced; 50 to 60 acres fine brick clay ground; samples of brick at Bulletin office, made from this clay; 3 springs; house, barn and out-houses; 25 acres cleared; fine timber; 2 1/2 miles northeast of Sisters. Sisters is going to have a railroad; we will need brick; good brick clay at the above address. P. J. Leithauer, Sisters, Oregon. 13-42-45c

WANTED.

A TAILOR and dressmaker will do some sewing again, very reasonable; have had a shop in Portland for years; will guarantee my work. Call Tumalo on the phone. Mrs. H. Mamero, Tumalo, Ore. Pine Larson ranch. 84-45-46p