

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Sheriff H. E. Roberts is ill today with tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Scammon left this morning for Seattle.

Al Gibson of Plainview was a business visitor in Bend yesterday.

A six-pound baby boy was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Moore.

W. F. Fryrear and Sterling Fryrear of Cloverdale were in Bend yesterday.

John Taylor left this morning for Madras, where he is operating a barbershop.

Clarence Mannheim returned this morning from a business trip to Portland.

Lucian Sadler of the A. C. Dutton Lumber Co. of Spokane was in Bend yesterday.

Jack Smith, formerly located here, but recently of Stanfield, is in the city again this week.

W. C. Birdsall was expected to return today from Portland, where he has been on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mamero and little son of Plainview were in Bend yesterday on business.

Clement E. Sloan of Portland is visiting his brother, William, manager of the Hub store.

Paul Hosmer, who has been seriously ill at his home in this city, is reported to be recovering.

G. Birdett to Silver Lake and P. W. Berlin to Fort Rock were the passengers this morning on the Silver Lake stage.

Mrs. B. J. Benson of Portland, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson, returned to her home last night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Murrow of Redmond are the parents of a 7 1/4-pound girl baby, born at St. Charles' hospital in this city.

E. Sundquist, a former resident of Central Oregon, was here yesterday as a tourist, leaving last night for Portland, later to go south.

Mrs. A. H. Deute, who has been visiting with Miss Jessie Burton at the Pilot Butte Inn, left last night for her home in New York city.

Mrs. B. C. Scott and two sons of La Pine passed through Bend yesterday on their way to Seaside, where they will make their home.

Mrs. O. J. Poe returned this morning to her home at Marysville, Wash., after visiting with her daughter, Mrs. L. T. Dawson, for some time.

H. B. Mayers went to a portland hospital last night under care of James A. Harris for treatment for a disability incurred while in the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Orewiler came in to Bend from their sawmill at Sisters yesterday. Mr. Orewiler going on to Portland last night to purchase a new engine for the mill.

The Baptist Women's union will hold its regular missionary meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Lawrence. All members and friends of the congregation are urged to be present.

Dr. R. A. Parsons, inspector for the bureau of animal industry, left this morning to inspect the band of sheep belonging to D. E. Verges at Powell Butte. Mr. Verges was in Bend this morning, returning with Dr. Parsons.

The last of the interesting series of lectures on the Old Testament by Dr. George B. Van Waters, Episcopal archdeacon for eastern Oregon, will be delivered tonight in the Little Brown Church, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock. All are invited.

Tuesday—

P. J. Cook of Deschutes was in the city yesterday on business.

John Minter left this morning for Portland, where he will stay for some time.

Mrs. S. S. Shell and son Glen went to Portland last night to make their home.

L. C. Smith left this morning for Port Orchard, Wash., to spend two months.

J. Steringer left this morning for Yakima, where he will visit for a short time.

Harry Reingold returned this morning from Portland, where he went last week.

County Clerk J. H. Haner returned from a business trip to Madras yesterday afternoon.

Mike Mayfield, cattleman of near Prineville, went to Fort Rock on the stage this morning.

Mrs. M. Jackson Kelley went to Portland last night to attend a meeting of the Rebekah lodge.

County Superintendent J. Alton Thompson is visiting the school in district No. 20 this afternoon.

A 9 1/2-pound boy was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hudson of Tomah at Mountain View hospital.

Frank Long returned to his home in Portland last night after visiting here with his sister, Mrs. R. Wallace.

Mrs. H. J. Hinds of David City, Neb., arrived in Bend this morning to visit with her sister, Mrs. Henry Seide.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Royce went to Portland last night, expecting to return with new cars for the Pioneer garage.

Miss Annie Labiske, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Torkelsen, left last night for her home at Astoria.

F. L. Wester, who was a witness yesterday in the Mathews-Angland case, returned last night to his home at Terrebonne.

A. G. Clark returned to Portland last night after spending Sunday and Monday in Bend. He will be here permanently after May 1.

J. M. Sappington returned last night to Portland after being in Bend for several days in connection with a homestead near La Pine, on which he recently filed.

J. H. Meister returned this morning from Spokane, where he went last week. With him came Mrs. Meister's sister, Mrs. Sheridan, who will visit with the family here.

Harry Seidel went to Portland this morning for further treatment for the leg which was broken over a year ago when a load of lumber fell on it in the Shevlin-Hixon yards.

George M. Post, secretary of the state board of architect examiners, and expert witness in the Thomas-Dugan case in circuit court, returned last night to his home in Portland.

Mrs. E. B. Ballinger, daughter-in-law of former Secretary of the Interior Richard A. Ballinger, and Miss Gertrude Horton, both of Seattle, arrived in Bend this morning to spend several weeks as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Brooks.

E. E. Woodcock, sheriff of Lake county, passed through Bend last night with his wife, en route to South Bend, Wash., where Mr. Woodcock will take into custody two men recently arrested there on charges preferred in Lake county.

Large attendance featured the first of the week night services being conducted by Dr. Milo Bentley at the Baptist church. The hour tonight and hereafter will be 7:45 instead of 7:30 o'clock for beginning the song service. The sermon will be at 8 o'clock. Rev. W. Norton Ferris has returned from Prineville, where he spent Sunday.

Monday—

W. A. Hill went to Terrebonne on business today.

County Clerk J. H. Haner is in Madras today on business.

H. Reed went to Redmond this morning to spend the week.

H. L. Plumb and W. F. Sloan were fishermen on the Metolius yesterday.

S. R. Peoples has begun construction of a six-room house on River drive.

F. E. Sunday of Burns passed through Bend on his way to Portland last night.

N. L. Downing went to Redmond last night, where he is working on the highway.

G. W. Brown left last night for Gold Beach, where he will make his home on a farm.

Clarence Mannheim went to Portland last night to make purchases for his fall stock.

Fred Shonquest left this morning for Omaha to attend the funeral of his father, who died Saturday.

E. A. Sather returned yesterday from Silver Lake and Paisley, after spending a week in that vicinity on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Matchett have returned to Bend by auto after spending the winter in the Imperial valley, California.

An 8 1/2-pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Long, of Shevlin-Hixon camp No. 1, at the Mountain View hospital Saturday.

Miss E. Le Brun returned last night to her home in Portland, after visiting for two weeks with her brother, Peter Le Brun, and family.

Mrs. Harriet Beach, who has been visiting her son, Harry E. Beach, here after a trip to California, left this morning for her home in Spokane.

Mrs. L. W. Wells and child left last night for Portland to spend the summer. Mr. Wells went to Madras, where he is operating the Working Men's store.

E. H. Das, general superintendent of The Shevlin-Hixon Company, returned last night to Minneapolis af-

Saturday—

A. C. Clark went to Portland last night to spend the week end.

A. G. Cholick and family of La Pine were in Bend yesterday.

Mrs. R. H. Janz went to Redmond last night to spend the week end.

Miss Nellie Tift went to Redmond last night to spend the week end.

Robert Keyes went to Portland to spend the week end with friends.

Miss Eva Roche is spending the week end with friends in Redmond.

George W. Brown is leaving for Gold Beach, Ore., to make his future home.

P. E. Taylor, of the Carman Manufacturing Co., was in Bend yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Enloe left last night to visit in Portland for a short time.

Mrs. Cecil Childs left this morning for Baker, where she will visit for two months.

J. A. Knight of La Pine passed through Bend today to spend the week end at Redmond.

Miss Rose Hunnell, who is teaching at La Pine, is spending the week end with her family here.

J. W. Foster, A. C. Larrabee and H. A. Larrabee went fishing yesterday on the Deschutes below Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Staats went to Portland this morning, called by the illness of Mr. Staats' brother.

J. Ryan went to Portland this morning, expecting to return Monday. He will go to St. Paul, Minn., next week.

H. I. Stearns, of Prineville, passed through Bend last night, taking a herd of cattle to La Pine for summer range.

H. O. Neville, salesman for the Independent Cracker Co., returned to Portland last night after spending the day here.

Robert Ingeman went to Culver this morning for a visit. He expects to leave for Alaska for the summer in a few days.

District Superintendent F. H. Pemberton returned to The Dalles this morning, after spending the week in Bend and Redmond.

Mrs. J. P. Keyes has as her guests her mother, Mrs. Robert Dudgeon, her sister, Mrs. Frederick Bloxon, and the latter's three sons, who are spending the week in Bend.

Friday—

W. O. Austin of Deschutes was in Bend yesterday on business.

A. P. Sowards went to Prineville last night to visit his daughter.

Charles Morris went to Prineville this morning to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Vaughn went to Deschutes this morning to spend the day.

City School Superintendent S. W. Moore was taken ill yesterday with tonsillitis.

Mrs. L. A. McFadden and Mrs. T. W. Larson of Terrebonne visited in Bend yesterday.

Miss Emma Lou Myers went to Culver this morning to visit with Judge Roegli and family.

Miss Ethel Travis, special music and arts instructor in the public schools, is reported ill today.

Mrs. Anna Haines and two daughters of Burns passed through Bend yesterday on their way to Portland.

J. H. Meister, logging superintendent of The Shevlin-Hixon Company, left last night on a trip to Spokane.

V. H. Haines and Glen T. McFadden, Portland salesmen, are in Bend on a combined business and fishing trip.

H. D. Hamilton of the Cent-Ora

Motor Co. went to The Dalles last night to return with a new Ford truck.

Mrs. John A. Range and infant daughter returned to Bend last night after spending the past six weeks in Denver.

Ernest B. Nichols, former logging superintendent for The Shevlin-Hixon Company here, is visiting here with friends.

George Cawfield of Narrows passed through Bend last night to Portland, where he will spend a month.

Miss Jessie Stookley returned last night to Redmond, where she is attending high school, after spending two days in Bend.

The Royal Neighbors will hold a special meeting tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Moose hall. All members are requested to be present.

C. X. Dickman, engineer for the Lyman Locomotive works, left Bend last night for Portland after visiting the lumber companies here on business.

Mrs. P. H. Seidenbecker and mother, Mrs. M. A. Brook, will arrive in Bend this evening from Terre Haute, Ind., to visit at the home of Mrs. C. H. Brook.

Mrs. Henry S. Royce and daughter, Miss Harriet A. Royce, left last night to visit for two months with Mrs. Royce's mother and Mr. Royce's father in Wisconsin.

Ranger Roy Mitchell and family of Fort Rock are in Bend today, coming in for the ranger meeting which will be held in the office of the Deschutes national forest Monday.

George Parkins, sales manager for the box department of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co., arrived in Bend this morning after visiting a number of eastern cities on a sales trip.

Mrs. S. A. Chisholm and N. C. Myrtle to Paisley, William Wilson to La Pine, Ed Kerrigan and O. Kleith to Fort Rock, were passengers on the Silver Lake stage this morning.

Charles H. Barns and Anna W. Buchter of Crook county were married yesterday afternoon in the court house by Circuit Judge T. E. J. Duffy. J. H. Haner and Vernon Paxson were witnesses.

The Klamath Falls stage will run daily, beginning today, leaving Bend at 10 o'clock every night, so as to meet the train which leaves Kirk for Klamath Falls at 9:45 o'clock in the morning. Later, when the roads improve further, the trip will begin at 12:30 a. m.

Earl Gardner of Portland, toll line engineer for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co., was in Bend yesterday and this morning on a trip of inspection, covering all lines in Central Oregon. He came here from Prineville and returned today, going through Redmond.

Through an oversight in the account of the trial of James T. Carter, exonerated by the jury early in the week on a statutory charge, the name of Mrs. J. J. Gardner, a witness for the state, was omitted, she has called to the attention of The Bulletin. Mrs. Gardner, mother of the girl whose name was mentioned in the case, testified regarding her daughter's age.

Thursday—

William Mackey of Pine Mountain left last night for Woodlawn, Wash.

Miss Jennie Creighton went to Portland last night to spend a week.

Herbert Angell, alfalfa rancher of Crooked river, is in Bend today on business.

T. G. Lawrence of Portland, salesman for Chanslor & Lyons, is in Bend today.

Harry Reingold left last night for Portland on business, expecting to return Monday.

R. W. Sawyer was operated on for appendicitis this morning and is reported to be doing well.

Mrs. A. Fisher of Minneapolis arrived in Bend yesterday to visit with Mrs. E. Wagner, 606 Congress.

Mrs. P. T. Randall and children of Burns passed through Bend last night on their way to Portland.

Miss Dora Orcutt of Shevlin-Hixon camp No. 1 was operated on yesterday at Mountain View hospital.

The Klamath Falls stage this morning carried R. W. Miller, Andrew Ingeman, Eric West and Clyde Masterson.

Oscar Franks went to Portland last night, taking with him his brother Walter, who is going to the Portland Convalescent hospital.

J. L. Galtner returned this morning from Portland, where he went on business for the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Co.

Jesse Earl Armstrong of Deschutes and Miss Bertha Stevens were issued a marriage license yesterday afternoon by the country clerk's office.

H. C. Weaver and Martin R. Irwin were given the first rank in the Knights of Pythias lodge at last night's meeting of Deschutes lodge No. 103.

Mrs. E. D. Wilson and daughter, Mrs. W. D. Barnes, will entertain the ladies of the Episcopal guild at

SUITS THAT LOOK NEW LONG AFTER THE DAY YOU BUY THEM

Models that reflect tailoring of the highest sort; a simplicity of style possible only where fabrics of the better qualities are fashioned by tailors who are really artists in their work.

Fabrics that have service, as well as style and hold their shape.

Rich linings of which one may be proud. All these qualities are yours in the very smart suits you will find at $27.50, $35.00 and $37.50.

And if you want an exclusive style you will find some ultra-fashionable models here priced at $47.50 to $62.50.

Fashionable Sport Dresses at $25.00 and $39.50

We are offering a special purchase of dresses in Canton Crepe and Crepe de Chine. There are a variety of styles to choose from, braided and embroidered bodices with various styled skirts. They are fresh and most attractive for the summer months. They are excellent values. We offer them at $25.00 and $39.50.

Silk Lingerie at April Sale Prices

Ever so many charming styles in Crepe de Chine, Georgette, Satin, exquisitely trimmed with lace and ribbon, an assortment from which a trousseau may be most satisfactorily and economically selected.

Gowns at $5.45 to $7.95.
Camisoles at 98c to $3.25.
Envelopes at $2.75 to $6.75.
Petticoats at $2.98 to $8.50.

It Always Pays to Stop and Shop at

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Mrs. Barnes' home.

J. W. Taggart, representative of the New York Life Insurance Co., who has been in Bend and vicinity for several weeks, returned last night to his home in Portland.

Passengers on the Silver Lake stage this morning were: J. A. Colek to Paisley, S. Berry to La Pine, Joe Anderson to Silver Lake, and Roy Walston to Fort Rock.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Douglas B. McFadyen of Deschutes and Mary Stuffer of Bend. Miss Stuffer is a graduate of Bend high school and has been teaching at Hampton.

C. Barrell, jr., of Portland, territorial representative for the Ford Motor Co., is in Bend today visiting the Cent-Ore Motor Co., and is giving the managers practical advice in regard to rearranging the garage.

L. L. Nonchester, dealer in furs here during the past winter, passed through Bend on his way to Mount Angel from Burns last night. He will return Monday with his children, who have been in school in the valley.

Dr. George B. Van Waters, archdeacon of the Episcopal diocese of Eastern Oregon, will preach at a union service of the Episcopal and Methodist congregations at the Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening.

J. E. Waggoner, field representative of the Oregon Social Hygiene society, will leave tomorrow morning for Redmond, where he will make arrangements for a similar series of lectures to that which will be offered here in a few weeks.

J. A. Circle, pioneer blacksmith of Bend, is in the city today on his way to Lakeview. He came to Bend some 26 years ago, and did the blacksmithing work for the first construction crew on the C. O. I. ditch. Since leaving here, 16 years ago, he has lived in San Francisco, Portland, The Dalles and Calgary, Alberta. He is now headed for San Francisco.

There are several islands in Great Salt lake. On these islands, which, like the lake's shores, are whitened by salt, immense flocks of gulls, ducks, geese and pelicans breed each year. On Antelope island, the largest, alfalfa is cultivated and cattle are raised. Antelope island, also known as Church island, is about eighteen miles long.

Ben Franklin's Parents.
Benjamin Franklin's father, Josiah Franklin, emigrated to America from England about 1685. His mother, a second wife, was the daughter of Peter Folger, a leading settler, noted for his philanthropy and tolerance.

Hint for inventors.
If I were an inventor, I should try to invent something the public wants, but is unable to get, rather than something that the public might like after getting used to it, but would have to be educated "up to it."—The Nation's Business.

CALL FOR WARRANTS.
I will pay school district No. 6, Deschutes county, warrants Nos. 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, on April 30, 1921. Warrants named cease to bear interest after above date.

C. N. SORENSON,
S-9c Clerk School District No. 6.

Synopsis of the Annual Statement of the Richmond Insurance Co.
of N. Y.

of West New Brighton, in the State of New York, on the 31st day of December, 1920, made to the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Oregon, pursuant to law:

	Capital.
Amount of capital stock paid up	$ 200,000.00
Income	990,721.12
Net premiums received during the year	63,366.43
Interest, dividends and rents received during the year	275.13
Income from other sources received during the year	$1,054,362.68
Total income	$1,054,362.68
Disbursements.
Net losses paid during the year (including adjustment expenses)	$ 434,698.77
Dividends paid on capital stock during the year	20,000.00
Commissions and salaries paid during the year	335,967.63
Taxes, licenses and fees paid during the year	52,957.78
Amount of all other expenditures	30,166.71
Total expenditures	$ 873,790.89
Assets.
Value of real estate owned (market value)	$ 3,500.00
Value of stocks and bonds owned (market value)	1,047,170.83
Loans on mortgages and collateral, etc.	217,750.00
Cash in banks and on hand	155,315.70
Premiums in course of collection written since September 30, 1920	113,017.28
Interest and rents due and accrued	7,689.32
Total admitted assets	$1,544,443.23
Liabilities.
Gross claims for losses unpaid	$ 186,728.22
Amount of unearned premiums on all outstanding risks	668,573.61
All other liabilities	28,500.00
Total liabilities, exclusive of capital stock	$ 883,801.83
Business in Oregon for the Year
Net premiums received during the year	$ 12,186.00
Losses paid during the year	7,697.04
Losses incurred during the year	7,916.29

RICHMOND INSURANCE CO. OF N. Y.
J. F. Smith, President.
David G. Wakeman, Secretary.
Statutory resident attorney for service—
Frank E. Dooler.