

What's Doing In The Country

Wednesday—

John Helfrich of Brothers was in the city yesterday.

A. M. Pringle went to Portland last night for a short trip.

Bert Meeks of Maupin was in the city yesterday on business.

Bert Shuey of Redmond spent yesterday on business in this city.

E. P. Brosterhous returned this morning from a trip to Portland.

H. H. De Armond returned this morning from a trip through Washington.

A carload of roofing material was received yesterday by the Bend Hardware Co.

Miss Jennie Creighton was confined to her home yesterday on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Enders are the parents of a 16-pound girl, born yesterday.

Mrs. E. A. Smith went to Portland last night to visit her husband for a short time.

Charles Gist and George Wilson of Sisters were spending the day in the city today.

Dorsey Dent of Burns was in Bend today on his way home from Willamette university.

Irving B. Horner returned to Portland last night after visiting with his family here.

R. B. Mutzig returned to Portland last night after spending yesterday here on business.

J. P. Plover went to Redmond last night to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Stella Broughton.

E. P. Jech and family will leave tomorrow for their new home in Washington, north of Seattle.

B. Kelley, who has been in Bend for several days, left this morning for his home at Boone, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith of Millikan were here yesterday on their way to Corvallis, where they will visit.

Mrs. Oscar Ingebretsen went to Portland last night, where an operation will be performed on her eye.

Miss Kathryn Day returned this morning from Eugene, where she has been attending the University of Oregon.

E. O. Stadter and wife went to Portland last night to return with a Hudson Super Six, which they have purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Stapleton were in Bend yesterday on their return trip to Heppner, having been at Lake for two months.

Mrs. J. Edward Larson has returned to Bend from Portland, where she attended the convention of the Order of Eastern Star.

H. S. Royce and J. T. Gagen went to Portland last night to bring back cars for the Pioneer garage, Mr. Royce's agency in Klamath Falls.

Miss Marion Lawrence, who has been studying at the Art Institute in Chicago, returned last night to spend the summer vacation in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gard of Madras were in the city yesterday on business. Mr. Gard is president of the North unit irrigation district.

Frank Rogers, representing the Roycrofters of East Aurora, N. Y., is in town again today taking orders for Elbert Hubbard's "Little Journeys."

Mrs. Catherine Westover left last night for her home at Dallas. She has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Davis, and her niece, Mrs. E. J. Moore.

Miss Dolores Catlow, who has been attending the University of Oregon, has returned to Bend to spend the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Catlow.

Mrs. Mary J. Lawrence and Mrs. S. A. Waterback of Modesto, Cal., mother and sister of J. M. Lawrence of Bend, left this morning for their home after visiting a month here.

The Royal Neighbors will next Tuesday evening hold a "calico ball" in the lodge hall, to which the public is invited. All who are not dressed in calico or overalls, or in rural style, will pay a fine.

C. E. Myers, formerly of Bend, and still a property owner here, is in the city demonstrating the U. S. auto gear shift, which is attached to the steering wheel. Much interest is being shown in the device, exhibited here for the first time.

Dr. J. H. Rosenberg of Prineville, president of the Oregon Elks' association, Jay H. Upton of Prineville, and Denton G. Burdick of Redmond were among the out of town visitors attending the meeting of Bend lodge No. 1371, B. P. O. E., last night.

Mrs. A. G. Clark went to Portland last night to prepare for the wedding of her son, A. C. Clark, to Miss Gladys Farrell of that city. They will be married next Tuesday night. Miss Farrell is a graduate of the University of Oregon. They will come to Bend to live.

Tuesday—

G. W. Sedgwick of Redmond is a visitor in Bend today.

Mrs. V. A. Forbes is confined to her home with a bad cold.

C. M. Redfield of Deschutes was in Bend today on business.

Odren Lambers of Culver was in the city yesterday shopping.

Mrs. August A. Anderson and son of Redmond visited in Bend today.

Perry South, forest ranger in the Sisters district, was in the city today.

James Sizer and Mr. Caldwell were passengers to Silver Lake this morning.

Dr. John Beason left last night for Portland. He will return in a few days.

I. S. Strauburger returned this morning from a short visit to Portland.

Mrs. Don Robertson left last night for Missoula, Mont., to spend the summer.

J. A. Coos went to McMinnville last night on a business trip, to return in a few days.

Miss Daisy Carter left last night for Portland. From there she will go to Chicago on a visit.

H. Naldrett of Summer Lake arrived in Bend this morning from Portland on his way home.

Mrs. George Bager left last night to attend the national Mooseheart convention at Toledo, Ohio.

George L. Huston, local representative of a Portland real estate firm, left last night to visit the home office.

Joseph Helfert and family of Emmett, Idaho, are at the city camp ground, on the way to San Francisco.

Joe Benz has returned to his position in Carmody Bros. store after spending a month with his family in Portland.

J. G. Sebley, a visitor from Canada, who has been looking at land in this vicinity, left last night for Prineville Junction.

Charles Jenks and family are camped at the city auto park on their way to Washington from their home at San Diego.

Donald Hudson is reported to be recovering from a bullet wound in the heel, inflicted by a .22 rifle which was fired prematurely.

Louis Turpin arrived this morning from Hillsboro to work on the farm of his brother-in-law, six miles from Bend, on the Burns road.

Mrs. W. G. Manning went to Portland last night to join her husband, who has been attending the trapshooting tournament at Astoria.

W. L. Minugh and family and H.

T. Redmond and family of Choteau, Mont., are at the city camp ground. They are on their way to California. H. C. Weaver yesterday sustained a broken foot when a keg of white lead was accidentally dropped on it while he was working in the Bend hardware store.

According to Postal Guide order No. 9995, which will supplement the official Postal Guide, rural and star route mail carries will hereafter report forest fires to forest rangers.

Mrs. Anna E. Curry, school nurse, left last night for Portland to attend the public nurses' convention, being held this week. She will go from there to San Francisco to the convention of registered nurses of the Pacific coast.

Glenn H. Slack returned from Portland this morning, where he was called several days ago by the serious condition of his daughter, who is in a hospital there. The girl is improving, he reports, but is still very weak. Mrs. Slack is still in Portland.

At the Methodist church next Monday night, Miss Margaret Thompson will give a concert recital, assisted by Mrs. M. H. Horton at the piano. Miss Thompson has had special voice training at the University of Oregon and is favorably known for her musical ability and the quality of her voice.

Marriage licenses issued yesterday afternoon from the office of the county clerk were to Lauren R. Kingsbury and Nina E. Elliott, both of Terrebonne; Leslie W. Davis and Edith Van Tassel, both of Bend, and Lyman A. Fitzhugh of Silver Lake and Charlotte Cole, of Deschutes county.

C. A. Warner, Bend merchant, who left here recently to spend the summer in the middle west and east, is now in Washington, D. C., according to a postal card, showing a view of the senate chamber, received this morning by H. J. Overturf. "Will try to get a room here for you," Mr. Warner writes. "Going to see Harding now, and will give him your best regards."

Mrs. M. J. Kelley, with her three children, Hugh, Harold and Catherine, have gone to Enterprise to spend the summer on their farm in that section.

L. S. Leach, state sanitation inspector, is in the city today and has been examining the restaurants, meat markets and grocery stores with respect to compliance with the pure food laws.

A carelessly driven car, climbing the curb in front of the N. P. Smith hardware store on Wall street, smashed the gasoline pump maintained by the store, and sustained a broken windshield. Before the pump can be used again, parts must be sent from Portland.

Monday—

J. Toothman of Two Springs was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McClure drove to La Pine yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Winters and baby left last night for Camas, Wash.

J. K. Condon left last night for Fallbridge. He will return today.

Mrs. J. P. Keyes and family went to Seattle last night for a short trip.

P. Frederickson and family went to Portland last night to visit for two weeks.

Clarence Gould went to Madras this morning. He will return this evening.

Miss Marie O'Brien left last night for Portland, where she will spend two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Swayze of Portland were in Bend today on their way to Silver Lake.

Mrs. Richard Fuller of Redmond visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Silvis.

Caesle Flynn and family spent the week-end at Prineville Junction with Mrs. Flynn's sister.

G. F. Worley and family of Forest Grove passed through Bend today on their way to For Rock.

Mrs. Stella Broughton returned to Redmond this morning after spending the week-end here.

Father Gabriel Harrington of the Catholic church left this morning for Baker to spend a week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ellis and a party of friends visited La Pine and Pringle Falls yesterday.

J. M. O'Neil and wife have gone to Walla Walla to visit with Mr. O'Neil's parents for a week.

Mrs. I. B. Searey started last night for Seattle, where she will attend summer school for six weeks.

H. M. McGuire returned last night to his home at Albany after visiting with his brother, C. S. McGuire.

Mrs. J. H. Balzhiser returned last night from Portland, where she has been visiting for several months.

Mrs. Oscar Ahlert of Minidoka, Idaho, left for her home this morning after visiting here for some time.

Henry Russell was in Bend yesterday from Burns, where he has been

Another Shipment of New Sassy Jane Summer Dresses Just Received, at $9.50, $10.50, $11.50, $12.50

We have assembled a wonderful collection of Summer Dresses and announce a special showing of over fifty beautiful new Dresses. All the newest models are here from a score of New York's best dress makers—in sizes for misses and women, and extra sizes for big women.

Dainty figured voile Dresses in the pretty Georgette designs, silk plaid tissue Dresses and fine zephyr gingham Dresses in a large variety of styles.

The assortments are now complete and we urge those interested in Summer Dresses to see this splendid collection. Very special values are priced at $4.95, $5.50 and $6.75.

Dresses of voiles and dotted Swisses and many other new wash materials are shown at $9.50, $10.00, $11.50 and $12.50.

A Special Showing of Silk Sport Dresses, For The Fourth, at $25.00

FETCHING NEW IDEAS IN SUMMER NECKWEAR--

Just now the vestee is one of the most popular feminine fashions—and the vestee may be finished with a collar. There are others with horizontal tucks—other with frills and ruffles, some lace trimmed and others finished with tiny pearl buttons.

They are of batiste, net, organdy and lace and prices go from 50c to $1.25.

YOUR SUMMER CORSET--

Perhaps you want just the least possible support in your vacation girdle; perhaps you want a typical corset, but in lighter weight than your winter one.

Our recognized corset department can show you just about what you want.

The Girdle Top is for the girl or woman who wants the least possible support; it is made of flesh coutil with side elastic inserts and front lacings; with four garters; priced at $1.25, $2.00 and $3.50.

A Special Gossard Corset at $3.50.

It Always Pays to Stop and Shop at

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

for two months. He was en route to Portland.

Miss Marie Brosterhous left last night for Portland to attend summer school for six weeks at St. Mary's academy.

S. Ray Peoples left last night for Monmouth, where his marriage to Miss Mabel Lorence will be solemnized this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Timbrell of Crane went to Portland last night after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Weittenhiller.

Mrs. E. E. Matthews and Miss Jane Matthews returned to Toppenish, Wash., last night after visiting for several weeks with A. J. Woolsey and family.

Dr. H. C. Dodds, who returned yesterday from The Dalles, reports the wheat crop looking fine, and the people enthusiastic over highway developments.

John L. Crozier, formerly principal of the Bend high school, arrived in Bend Saturday night from his home in Washington to look after property interests here.

Miss Oral Naldrett, who has been visiting with Mrs. Adella Cook for a week, left last night for Monmouth, where she will attend normal school. Her home is in Summer Lake.

Mrs. Margaret Bozorth returned this morning from Portland, where she spent the week-end. With her came her sister, Miss Juanita Gilman, to visit in Bend for a week.

D. H. Peoples, his two children and Mrs. C. J. Nicholson started yesterday to drive to Reno, Nev., where the children will visit their grandparents. They will return in two or three weeks.

Clarence W. Ogle and Nellie Powell, of Lakeview, were married last evening at the Cozy hotel by County Judge Sawyer. Witnesses to the ceremony were Mr. Ogle's mother and brother. They returned to Lakeview today.

Miss Birdie Morgan, Miss Viola Bell, Miss Grace Mitchell, Mrs. Emma Broderick, Fred Degner of Culver, and Charles Trone of Portland were members of a fishing party which spent the week-end at Heising's, on the Metolius.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Turner of Portland arrived in Bend this morning to visit with Mrs. Turner's parent, Mayor and Mrs. E. D. Gilson.

Mrs. Peter Byberg is leaving for Portland, intending to go from there by boat to San Francisco. The trip to Portland is being made by auto.

Mrs. R. H. Muncy and her granddaughter, Miss Margaret King, leave tonight for a month's visit with friends in Portland and Vancouver.

William Boegli, wife and daughter are in Bend shopping today from their Cove orchard. Mr. Boegli states that early cherries will be ripe within a week.

Framework on the front part of the Miner building is going up rapidly, following the removal of the wooden building formerly occupied by the American bakery.

W. H. Hollinshead of La Pine left last night for Marcola, called by news that his sister there was weaker than when he left several days ago. At that time she had been improving.

Otto Olson, who has a ranch on the new Central Oregon highway, reported this morning that his herd of dairy cattle had just been inspected and reported free from tuberculosis.

D. H. Peoples will start soon to drive to the home of his family in Nevada, to be gone two weeks. He

Saturday—

Jess Harter is in Bend today on business.

C. E. Johnson of Alfalfa is in the city today.

C. E. Parks of Deschutes is spending the day in Bend.

H. M. McGuire returned last night to his home at Albany after visiting with his brother, C. S. McGuire.

Mrs. J. H. Balzhiser returned last night from Portland, where she has been visiting for several months.

Mrs. Oscar Ahlert of Minidoka, Idaho, left for her home this morning after visiting here for some time.

Henry Russell was in Bend yesterday from Burns, where he has been went last night to Portland, to return with his daughter, starting immediately on the trip south.

The Bend Stamp club elected officers at a meeting held this week, as follows: Robert McKee, president; Robert Keyes, vice president; Franklin Toomey secretary-treasurer. Meetings are being held each Wednesday night.

Fred Van Matre returned last night from Silver Lake, where he is doing contract work on the school house. The stone construction is progressing, he reported, being completed up to the windows. He returned today to Silver Lake.

Friday—

Dr. L. W. Gatchell was in Madras yesterday on business.

Dan Heising was in yesterday from his ranch on the Metolius.

F. H. Morgan, who has been ill for several days, is recovering.

Alphonse Aya of La Pine was in Bend yesterday on business.

W. O. Austin of Deschutes was in Bend yesterday on business.

Miss Edna Rapp arrived in Bend last night to visit Miss Cova Fultz.

The Shriners of Central Oregon will picnic on the Metolius Sunday.

Charles Saylor went to Redmond last night, expecting to return today.

C. M. Frazier was in the city yesterday from his ranch east of town. Forest Supervisor Plumb is on an official trip to Sisters this afternoon.

Myrl Hoover is the owner of a new Ford touring car, purchased yesterday.

Dr. H. C. Dodds will leave tomorrow for The Dalles, returning Sunday.

Walter G. Coombs left last night for Portland to return within two days.

The Episcopal guild met this afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. David Kelley.

Bill Williams left yesterday for Terrebonne, where he expects to work during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Blakeley and Miss M. McCloud are on a 10-day trip in the Willamette valley.

Mrs. G. J. Addink and daughter returned this morning from Portland, where they have been for several days.

Mrs. E. A. Sather and son Ted returned last night from Portland, where they have been for a week and a half.

J. T. Staffer of Tillamook, who has been look over the country for several days, left last night for Pendleton.

Mrs. M. Berg left this morning for Enumclaw, Wash., after visiting for some time with her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Stenseth.

Mrs. Margaret Biddle, who has been visiting with Harry Corbett and family at Metolius, was in Bend yesterday, leaving last night for her home in Portland.

Outings or Picnics

When You Go for Your Picnic or Outing Let Us Serve You With Your Needs

Paper Plates, 3 doz. 25c	Tin Cups, 3 for 25c
Paper Cups, per doz. 5c	Tin Plates 10c
Paper Napkins, per 100 20c	Bread and Cake Boxes
Paper Spoons, per doz. 6c	all sizes
Paper Ice Cream Dishes, per doz. 5c	Small Fry Pans
Lunch Baskets 25c	Enameled Cups
Covered Lunch Baskets 75c	Enameled Plates

Notions and Hosiery THE FAIR Dishes and Kitchenware