ABILITY DISPLAYED IN VOCAL RECITAL

The large crowd which Sunday night attended the recital given by Miss Margaret Thompson, assisted by Mrs. M. H. Horton, at the Methodist church, was more than pleased with the various numbers. Miss Thompson's clear enunciation to a pure and pleasing tone, and her numbers were very well selected. Mrs. Horton also displayed unusual ability. District Superintendent F. H. Pemberton of The Dalles spoke between the two parts of the program.

The program was a repetition of a previous recital.

72ND BIRTHDAY IS KEPT AT DESCHUTES

Many friends of Jack Brula, including Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parks, and Mr. and Mrs. George Holton, helped him celebrate his 72nd birthday Monday. Gifts of home prepared viands were presented. Although the birthday cake was a large one, its area was insufficient to allow for the number of candles which Mr. Brula's age indicated.

Mr. Brula is known at Deschutes as "Dad" Brula, and has a reputation as a crack wood chopper. Despite his age, he can cut a cord a day, just as well as he could 25 years ago.

He intends to start farming next year, if his health continues, intending to raise poultry and garden truck.
