

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Albert Schedel of Metolius visited in Bend yesterday.

Mrs. Mas Phillips left last night to visit at Chehalis, Washington.

Mrs. W. H. Leet left for Portland last night to spend a few days.

P. D. McNamee left last night for Seattle, to visit with relatives.

Mrs. O. S. Peterson and daughter left last night to visit at Portland.

A. C. Clark and wife went to Redmond last night to return with a car.

There will be a special meeting of the fire department Sunday at 4 o'clock.

E. F. Foren returned to Prineville last night after visiting in Bend since Saturday.

C. McCauley returned from Lakeview last night on his way to his Portland home.

H. W. Scheerlin of Wallowa was in Bend over night, leaving this morning for Paisley.

H. A. Ray of Elma, Washington, was in Bend yesterday on his way home after visiting at La Pine.

Mrs. S. Raper of Shevlin-Hixon Camp No. 2 was brought to a Bend hospital last night for treatment.

Joe Steringer and family and Arthur Metke and family are at East lake, camping and fishing. They will return Thursday or Friday.

Fred Littlefield will leave tonight for Portland, where he expects to enter Benson Polytechnic Institute, taking a course in electrical engineering.

Speck Woods returned from Portland this morning, on his way to Burns, where he is matched with Abe Weinstein of Sacramento to fight the night of July 27.

Al Linster and a party of friends drove through Bend yesterday on their way to East lake, where Mr. Linster's father and brothers operate the camping resort.

A dancing party to which the public is invited will be given by the Moose at the lodge hall Saturday evening. Music will be furnished by Zumwalt's orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Pitts of Portland are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Larrabee. The two men were together in France, and both won the Croix de Guerre.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon H. Manny arrived in Bend yesterday to make their home. They were married in The Dalles Sunday. Mrs. Manny was Miss Doris Foster, teacher in the Bend schools.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Washburn and two sons have arrived in Bend, and expect to locate in this city. They were former residents of Henryetta, Oklahoma. Washburn is a brother-in-law of C. J. Leverett of this city.

H. Cato is today moving his tailor shop equipment from its location on Wall street. He is going out of business for the time, going to his farm east of town. He may enter the tailoring business again later.

Tuesday—

Mrs. E. L. Cook left this morning to visit her mother in Albany.

A. M. Bartholomew went to Portland this morning, to return this week.

Mrs. Kathleen Mercer left for Hood River this morning, to visit her son.

J. J. Doyle, who has been fishing at East lake, returned last night to Redmond.

Mrs. J. L. Henderson returned to Redmond last night after spending several days here.

A. J. De Vaney returned last night to his home at Albany, after being in Bend for some time.

J. H. Vidritts, who has been employed here for a short time, left last night for Portland.

Mrs. E. P. Brosterhous left for Portland last night to visit for several weeks with relatives.

Mrs. M. J. Markart, who has been visiting here, left this morning for her home in San Diego.

Walter Allison and E. Magnuson went to Prineville this morning, where they are employed.

Mrs. J. W. Campbell and son left this morning for Portland, on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Myron Powell went to Vader, Washington, last night to take a position with the Long Bell Lumber Co.

Mrs. M. Malcolm is on her way from Dayton, Washington, to visit with her sister, Mrs. T. J. Sanders.

Mrs. Flora Hartley returned to Hood River this morning, after visiting here with her son, T. J. Hartley.

John Vadjensky, who has been working at La Pine for three months returned last night to his home at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McReynolds went to Portland last night, where Mrs. McReynolds will undergo an operation.

J. H. Devlin of Portland was in Bend today on his way to Silver Lake where he will look over the country as a prospective settler.

The chicken pie dinner to have been given by the Methodist ladies Friday night, has been postponed. The date will be given later.

Warren Birdsall returned this morning from Portland, where he went last week to be with his father, recovering from an operation.

Mrs. C. J. Sly returned last night to her home at Seaside, after visiting at La Pine for a week with her daughter, Mrs. Amy Cavanaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Allison left this morning for their home in Watsenburg, Colorado, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eaton, near La Pine.

Mrs. C. P. Niewonger will be taken home Thursday from the hospital, where she is recovering satisfactorily from an operation performed last week.

Norman W. Rupp and wife, E. S. Hartwell and S. M. Mears returned today from a camping and fishing trip to Odell lake, and are on their way back to Portland.

Leslie Crouch of Portland and a party of campers in two cars were in Bend this morning on their way to East lake. They will visit some of the other lakes in Central Oregon before leaving.

J. B. Schroeder, T. J. La Brie, Oliver Osmundson and George Marvin of the Silver Lake irrigation district, went to Portland last night to close the contract, their district certification being finally allowed last Tuesday. Work will be begun in 30 days, they thought.

Harle J. Sanders went to Portland last night, where the arm which was injured over a year ago while working in the Shevlin-Hixon box factory will be amputated. All treatment has failed to renew the use of the arm, and its removal is necessary in order that an artificial arm may take its place. Sanders expects to enter college in the fall.

Monday—

E. O. Logan and family spent Sunday at Lost lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cowles spent Sunday at Lost lake.

Harvey Winslow and wife spent yesterday at Lost lake.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. McPherson spent yesterday at Lost lake.

Dr. E. E. Gray and a party of friends spent Sunday at East lake.

J. T. Carlson of Paisley is in the city, today with a truck load of wool.

O. C. Henkle and family drove to Lost lake yesterday, to spend the day.

B. A. Stump returned to Redmond last night after spending two weeks here.

J. R. Harvey left last night for Toppenish, Wash., to visit with his daughter.

C. F. Green and W. Smith went to Prineville last night to work in hay fields.

A. E. Anderson and family and W. D. Evans and family spent Sunday at Crescent lake.

B. Wallock, of Portland, returned to that city last night after spending a few days here.

M. H. Madison returned to Bend this morning after staying in Redmond over night.

Mrs. C. H. Bertrand left this morning for Welsch, Idaho, after visiting in Bend for two weeks.

Miss Lucille Snyder of Portland arrived in Bend this morning to visit for two weeks with Mrs. E. T. Snyder.

Word has been received in Bend of the death at Astoria of H. C. Hilton, formerly a rancher in this section.

F. S. Wallin, superintendent of the West Coast chautauqua, arrived yesterday and is stopping at the Altamont.

G. L. Steer and Ed Lewis, of Oregon City, are in Bend on their way to work on the highway at Paisley.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Edgar Purdy and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Erickson are camping at Elk lake, spending a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Dora Gillis has returned home from the hospital after an operation performed last week. She is improving slowly.

Dr. W. G. Manning and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Douthit spent Sunday fishing at Crane Prairie, reporting a good catch.

Mrs. S. H. Stockmon and daughter Alice left today for Portland, Seattle and Tacoma, to visit with friends at each place.

Mrs. J. Charles Smith left today for New York City, to purchase the fall stock for the Parisian. She will be gone 5 or 6 weeks.

William Jay and family of Portland are in Bend today, on their way

Every department of our store is taking part in this price reducing event of the season. We are quoting prices that will not be equalled soon. Every thrifty woman will make this an opportunity to supply her family's present and future needs, for by comparing these prices she will readily see what a saving they offer.

Ready-to-Wear Way Underpriced

Just what a remarkable saving you can make at the prices quoted can be realized when you examine the garments, noting their excellent style, the splendid tailoring, and superior fabrics.

Silk and Wool $16.75 to $22.50 Dresses, now priced at ..... $13.39

Silk and Wool $25.00 to $36.75 Dresses, now priced at ..... $19.89

Silk and Wool $39.75 to $45.00 Dresses, now priced at ..... $28.69

$42.50 to $52.50 Suits at ..... $26.75

$24.75 to $39.75 Suits at ..... $20.75

The cream of our Blouse stock is offered here, including the regular blouse and the over-blouse styles, and the prices range from ..... $2.98 to $4.95

Piece Goods at Special Savings

Perhaps we over bought or perhaps the sale was not as heavy as we expected, but in any event the outstanding feature is, we are overstocked and must clean up. At these prices we know we will accomplish our aim.

35c Lingerie Crepe, white, pink and blue, at, per yard ..... 27c

36 inch White Wash Skirting, values up to 95c, per yard ..... 69c

36 inch White Cross Bar Voiles, values up to 75c, per yard ..... 33c

40 inch Dark Figured Voiles, values up to 59c and 79c, per yard ..... 39c

32 inch Renfrew Gingham, regularly priced at 35c, per yard ..... 28c

36 inch Colonial Cretonnes, regularly priced at 50c and 39c, per yard ..... 29c

Quality Shoes at Popular Prices

A quick clearance of the best styles in low cuts. A wonderful opportunity to buy quality merchandise at greatly reduced prices.

Odd lots of Ladies' kid and calf Oxfords, black and brown, very good quality, medium weight soles and military heels, worth $9, for only ..... $4.95

Ladies' Pumps, plain and with straps of kid, patent leather and satin; Louis heels, hand-turned soles and medium vamps, regular $7.50 and $8.50 sellers, for ..... $4.95

One lot of Ladies' White Shoes at ..... $2.98

Children's Elk Strap Scuffer Slippers
 Sizes 5 to 8 at ..... $1.29
 Sizes 8 1/2 to 11 at ..... $1.59
 Sizes 11 1/2 to 2 at ..... $1.89

Underthings of Silk and Muslin

We are showing a most beautiful assortment of underthings for summer and every article is reduced.

Silk Camisoles, reduced to ..... $1.59 to $2.29

Silk Combination Suits, prices now reduced to ..... $3.39 to $6.50

Silk Night Gowns, the prices are now reduced to ..... $5.95 to $10.50

Muslin Night Gowns and Combination Suits, reduced to ..... $1.98 to $3.95

Hand Maderia Night Gowns and Combinations reduced to ..... $2.69 to $3.95

The Domestic Department

Is enthusiastically sharing in this sale and has numerous lots of merchandise to offer to its many friends. In its search it has found many articles of immediate use for the summer camp. For instance:

Japanese Blue and White Goods.
 One piece Hemstitched Lunch Cloths, 72 inches square; underpriced at ..... $1.99

The same cloth 60 inches square; clearance special at ..... $1.39

15x29 Turkish Towels, bleached, each ..... 12 1/2c

Double Thread Turkish Towels ..... 25c, 35c, 48c and 65c

9/4 Bleached Wearwell Sheeting at ..... 47c

9/4 Brown Wearwell Sheeting at ..... 45c

Bed Spreads, 72x84 inches, at ..... $1.98

Fancy Cretonnes, floral and striped design, so much in demand for box covering and draperies for the camp.

Women's Knit Vests (Sizes 36 & 38) 19c

It Always Pays to Stop and Shop at

Mannheimers

to Odell lake for a fishing trip. They expect to come here to live soon.

Mrs. R. E. Wood, of Seattle, left Bend last night after spending several days here. She represents the Pacific Northwest Manufacturing Co.

E. P. Brosterhous returned to Silver Lake this morning to resume direction of the construction of the new Silver Lake school building. He spent the week end in Bend.

Mrs. W. C. Birdsall returned this morning from Portland, where her husband is recovering after an operation. Mr. Birdsall is improving satisfactorily. Mrs. Birdsall reports.

H. C. Ellis and wife, and Mrs. G. Perkins and daughter, Mrs. Margaret Bozorth, Dr. Grant Skinner and C. T. Terril spent Sunday at Suttles lake and other resorts in the mountains.

C. J. Keefer, who spent Sunday fishing at Lost lake, says the road will be open for cars to drive all the way to the lake next Sunday. A walk of three quarters of a mile over the snow is now necessary.

B. Dias, proprietor of one of the largest sporting goods houses in Los Angeles, spent yesterday in Bend. He and his wife are at East lake today, expecting to return tomorrow and start for Portland by way of McKenzie pass.

George Vandever arrived in Bend yesterday, and will enter the practice of medicine here. He has just completed an auto tour of the state, after taking the examination for a state certificate in Portland. He will spend a few days at the Vandever ranch.

Raymond DeLaney returned to his home at Portland last night, after visiting with George and John Brick. DeLaney caught a 30 inch trout at East lake, the boys say. Others who fished with them at East lake were Robert and Ernest Fulton.

Dr. Charles F. Bloom was unable to leave last night for Bremerton, as he had planned, because of the illness of his niece, Catherine Bloom, who was suddenly worse. Dr. Bloom has wired for leave of postponement of his attendance at the practice cruise, which he was to have begun this week.

Saturday—

George Thanks was a passenger to Fremont this morning.

Henry Miller left last night for Chicago to make a visit.

A. H. Olson went to Powell Butte last night to visit for two weeks.

C. W. Brown, representing Armour & Co., is in Bend on his first trip.

M. W. McEachern, Goodyear tire salesman, left last night for Portland.

Rev. C. Murphy left last night for Victoria, B. C., after visiting Rev. Luke Sheehan.

H. E. Walther returned last night to The Dalles, after spending several days in Bend.

Dr. Charles F. Bloom will leave Sunday night for Bremerton, Wash., to start on a training cruise.

Mrs. S. F. Giddings and Mrs. C. M. Robbins, of Redmond, were in Bend yesterday on a visit.

G. R. Fuller, of the Marshall-Wells company, returned last night to Portland, after a visit here.

Mrs. E. L. Clark, of La Pine, was in Bend yesterday on her way to Portland, to return with her daughter.

Frank Crabtree and Tobe Smith returned to Pendleton last night after visiting in Bend for several days.

W. L. Crowe, Portland wool buyer, returned to that city last night after attending yesterday's sale here.

Dr. J. C. Vandever returned last night after spending the day at Crane Prairie. He reported a good catch of fish.

J. B. Sparks has returned from a trip to Portland, where he purchased new equipment for the Liberty and Grand theaters.

P. J. Lee returned to Vancouver last night, after spending some time working in the freight yards here, relieving J. H. Elliott.

H. Summers, who has been relieving Roy Thompson in the railroad yards, returned last night to his home at Vancouver.

Ted Povey left for Portland last night with his family, to purchase a truck to replace the one which was burned several days ago.

C. V. Knox, of the Howard Auto Co., Buick distributors, was in Bend yesterday, spending the day with Walter Coombs of the Bend Garage.

E. L. Stevens, formerly engineer of the Bend fire department, has arrived in Los Angeles and is again employed as a fireman there, according to a letter received by the department.

Dr. J. T. Fox of Prineville, acting physician at Warm Springs reservation, who is on sick leave, was in Bend today shopping with his daughter, Mrs. Alvin Peterson of Bear Creek butte.

Contributions of articles suitable for sale in the Red Cross shop are solicited by the home service section of the Bend chapter. The shop is located above the Larson jewelry store on the corner of Wall and Oregon.

Dr. J. T. Fox of Prineville, acting physician at Warm Springs reservation, who is on sick leave, was in Bend today shopping with his daughter, Mrs. Alvin Peterson of Bear Creek butte.

Contributions of articles suitable for sale in the Red Cross shop are solicited by the home service section of the Bend chapter. The shop is located above the Larson jewelry store on the corner of Wall and Oregon.

Dr. J. T. Fox of Prineville, acting physician at Warm Springs reservation, who is on sick leave, was in Bend today shopping with his daughter, Mrs. Alvin Peterson of Bear Creek butte.

Contributions of articles suitable for sale in the Red Cross shop are solicited by the home service section of the Bend chapter. The shop is located above the Larson jewelry store on the corner of Wall and Oregon.

Dr. J. T. Fox of Prineville, acting physician at Warm Springs reservation, who is on sick leave, was in Bend today shopping with his daughter, Mrs. Alvin Peterson of Bear Creek butte.

Contributions of articles suitable for sale in the Red Cross shop are solicited by the home service section of the Bend chapter. The shop is located above the Larson jewelry store on the corner of Wall and Oregon.

Dr. J. T. Fox of Prineville, acting physician at Warm Springs reservation, who is on sick leave, was in Bend today shopping with his daughter, Mrs. Alvin Peterson of Bear Creek butte.

Contributions of articles suitable for sale in the Red Cross shop are solicited by the home service section of the Bend chapter. The shop is located above the Larson jewelry store on the corner of Wall and Oregon.

from there to Portland.

N. G. Wallace and wife of Prineville passed through Bend yesterday on their way to Elk lake for an outing.

A. W. Miller, who has been visiting in Bend for several days, returned last night to his home in Terrebonne.

B. L. Slyver and wife and W. C. Slyver and wife were in Bend yesterday on their way home to Spokane from California.

Ted Mandrones returned last night to The Dalles. He has reopened the fruit store here, Theodore S. Peterson being in charge.

Jack Horton, grazing examiner for the Deschutes National forest, went to Prineville this morning to spend several days on range appraisal studies.

Miss Gertrude Sargent, advance agent for the Cadmean Chautauqua, arrived in Bend yesterday to make preparations for the coming entertainments.

Paving of the alley west of Wall street between Oregon and Franklin was completed yesterday. A six-inch section in the center had to be tamped down by hand.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Norton Ferris returned to Redmond last night after spending Wednesday and Thursday in Bend. Dr. Ferris, formerly Baptist pastor here, is now in charge of the church at Redmond.

In the last number of the Crescent, the official Shrine publication, appears the picture of W. L. Stevens, of Bend, who is mentioned as one of the few Nobles who have taken life subscriptions to the magazine.

An old-fashioned chicken pie supper is planned for Friday evening, July 22, at Epworth Hall by the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society. It will begin at 5:30 o'clock and will continue until all are served.