BURGLAR KNOWS WHERE TO LOOK

FINDS KEY AND MONEY AT RESTAURANT

$20 Hidden in Savoy Cafe, but Thief Gets It With $10 From American Bakery Till—Crime Reminds Officers of Pastime Burglaries.

Police have given up hope of finding the burglar who last week looted the till at the American Bakery of $10, and who took $20 in change from a cup hidden among the dishes in the Savoy cafe in the same room with the bakery on Oregon avenue. From the manner in which the crime was committed, officers are confident that the man they want is familiar with the interior arrangement of the building. It is considered that he may be the same man who twice burglarized the Pastime lunch room, each time leaving with some $20 taken from the cup which was the restaurant's hiding place for money taken in after banking hours. The burglar is believed to have entered the bakery and restaurant between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock last Wednesday night. Removing boxes from a trap door in the rear of the building, he went down stairs, found the key near the door, entered with its aid, went up stairs, took the loose change in the place, made his exit through the trap door leaving the restaurant door locked and the key where he had found it. He even covered the trap door on departure.
