

What's Doing In The Country

15 YEAR OLD BOY BAGS FIRST DEER

GRANGE HALL, Oct. 5.—Leroy Smith is the proudest 15 year old boy in the county. He brought down his first deer this season. He accompanied his father on a deer hunt to Diamond lake. Each was successful in getting a deer.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pedersen Oct. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Helgesen and young daughters and Master Harold Pedersen visited the school Monday.

The poultry demonstration at the R. M. Chase ranch Thursday was well attended and the flock of Barred Rocks failed to contain any culls. There was time for only one demonstration in this community.

The managers of the Park brothers were calling in the Grange section this week.

Rev. Stenseth visited at the P. J. Young ranch Friday evening.

Geo. Erickson is helping Mr. Grimes with his haying.

L. C. Young and Chris Stock cemented P. J. Young's stock cistern for him Friday.

Many have begun digging spuds in this neighborhood.

Gertrude Nickerson is employed at the Warner store in Bend.

O. P. Dahle hauled a load of lumber from Deschutes Wednesday.

E. E. Butler is painting his house.

Mrs. George Erickson accompanied E. E. Butler to town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Olansen spent Sunday with Mrs. Olansen's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Dahle.

Mrs. Rasmussen is driving to school from her home this year.

The school girls were making new curtains for the windows of the school room last week.

Mrs. Dutt is staying in town with the children this winter.

Max Mecklenberg and family from Brothers spent last week visiting at the Selde ranch.

Mr. Mecklenberg is an expert bee trailer. He and Mr. Selde were successful in securing several tubs of honey from trees which they located.

The Ladies' Aid was held Thursday at Mrs. H. Helgesen's home.

The county nurse, Miss Clock, and the county demonstrator were present. The previous meeting was held with Mrs. Fred Reynolds.

Katherine Helgesen and Mable Dahle, who are attending high school in town, spent Sunday with their parents in this neighborhood.

K. A. Nelson butchered a yearling last week.

Four pupils from this neighborhood entered first year high school this year. They are Katherine Helgesen, Dorothy Young, Herbert Nelson and Anna Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George Erickson spent Sunday evening at the E. E. Butler home.

O. P. Dahle is finishing a root cellar.

The sixth, seventh and eighth grade girls are learning to stencil at school this week. Some are stenciling sofa pillows, others are working on scarfs.

Rev. Stenseth called in the Grange Hall vicinity Saturday morning.

Fred Hettman is building a new cistern.

J. W. Smith has finished his new cistern, from which he expects to pipe water to the house.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Young and Mrs. C. W. Jensen and daughter, Lucille, called at the C. M. Rasmussen home September 25.

Miss Clock visited the school last week.

R. M. Chase and his brother-in-law, Mr. Davis, purchased a truck in partnership.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Selde and daughter, Helene, visited at the C. M. Rasmussen home Sunday.

Gladys Dahle and Esther Erickson took music lessons Saturday in town from Miss Walters.

Seven new pupils have entered the school from the Bend school. Although they have a greater distance to travel, they are delighted with the change.

Martin Pavit presented the school library with a book entitled "Stories of the Frozen Lands."

Monday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Kline.

Black Bros. & Harrison took two loads of hay to one of the association camps in the mountains last week, preparatory to the cattle ride which will start Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchison, of Portland, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Peck. They drove over Tuesday in their Studebaker six.

While here Mr. Hutchison closed a deal for the H. C. Miller place, Mr. Miller securing some property in Vancouver, Wash., in the transaction. The deal was made through E. M. Peck.

R. O. Andrews and wife were business visitors in Bend Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hilleary were business visitors in Bend Monday.

Mrs. Earl Ralston is spending a few days in Terrebonne with her parents this week.

Mrs. Lund and Mrs. Bränbridge were guests of Mrs. G. L. Parberry Monday afternoon.

Jess Evans, of Sherman county, spent Monday at W. T. Harrison's.

W. F. Arnold, E. M. Peck and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Hutchison were Bend visitors Saturday.

Miss Eilers went to Terrebonne Sunday with friends from Bend and spent the day.

OATS ARE HARVESTED AT PLEASANT RIDGE

PLEASANT RIDGE, Oct. 5.—Antone Ahlstrom cut the oats belonging to T. S. Lawrence on the Williams place the last of the week.

Alfred Pedersen and H. T. Mikkelsen made a business trip to Redmond on Saturday.

Fred Seiling, of Bend, was a caller in this neighborhood Sunday.

H. T. Mikkelsen, O. E. Anderson and Alfred Pedersen finished their haying this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Debing and baby were callers at the home of Antone Ahlstrom one day this week.

Mrs. Alfred Pedersen went to Deschutes Monday to work for Mrs. Glen Cox.

Those attending the dance at Scott's on Saturday night from this neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley, Lois and Edith Swalley, Watt Jones, Harold Cook, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg, Dan Day, Miss Lillian Van Matre, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mikkelsen and W. H. Gray. A good time was enjoyed by all. A lunch consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served by the ladies.

Antone Ahlstrom made a business trip to Redmond on Wednesday.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg to Redmond Friday afternoon.

Roy Miller was around peddling fruit in this neighborhood this week.

W. J. Shannon went to Bend Sunday evening to remain a few days to attend to some business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mikkelsen and son, Alfred, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hanson near Deschutes, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray, W. J. Shannon and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson spent Sunday up on Tumalo creek near the headgate.

Claude Mallory made a business call on Antone Ahlstrom Saturday.

Dan Day and Miss Lillian Van Matre, of Redmond, visited over Sunday at the Brandenburg home.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson made a business trip to Redmond on Thursday.

F. T. Miller and son, Roy, were business visitors in Redmond Friday.

E. P. Mahaffey and H. M. Stephens, of Bend, accompanied by Mr. Baldwin, of Prineville, were callers at the Anderson ranch on Thursday afternoon.

NEVER WANTS ANYTHING ELSE

The season of coughs, colds, croup and bronchial troubles is at hand. Every mother will be interested in this letter from Mrs. E. K. Olson, 1917 Ohio Ave., Superior, Wis.: "I never want anything else than Foley's Honey and Tar. I used it for all my children and also for my grandchild." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

POWELL BUTTE HAS BIG WHEAT YIELD

POWELL BUTTE, Oct. 5.—E. N. Hall threshed the banner crop so far this year. Mr. Hall last year bought the Dan Hourigan ranch and annexed it to his former holdings here at Powell Butte. He plowed the Hourigan land and sowed wheat. One field of 20 acres threshed 1,009 bushels, while the yield for the entire place was 40 bushels per acre.

E. C. Charlton is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ida M. Foster, and attending the state fair at Salem.

J. F. Rice, well known Powell Butte rancher, is quite seriously ill at his home. Mrs. Rice has been ill all summer with rheumatism, and the anxiety and worry because of his wife's illness has brought on a nervous breakdown.

Mrs. Anna Evans, teacher at the Shepard school, has moved to the Lloyd Bussett house, which is much nearer school and a more pleasant location.

A barley beard lodged in one of Mrs. T. Oliver's tonsils and she was obliged to go to Redmond to have it removed.

The M. E. presiding elder held services at Community hall Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There was a good attendance.

Mrs. Lavine, housekeeper at the Wurzweller ranch, visited over the week end with her home folks near Terrebonne.

Jacob Watson had a narrow escape with his life when his team ran away while hitched to the binder, throwing Mr. Watson off and bruising him badly. Otherwise he was not hurt, no bones being broken. The binder was badly smashed.

D. A. Yates has been hauling grain to Redmond from his dry land threshing.

Mrs. Martha Foster has been enjoying a visit with her brother, Mr. Critter and wife and son Lou, of Oregon City. They were looking for a large ranch to rent where they could do dairying and poultry raising on a big scale.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stewart and baby daughter, Marion Francis, with F. Jackson, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Agee on Sunday.

Mrs. Gladys Milner reports 12 pupils at the Edwards school where she teaches.

Mrs. Anna Evans, the teacher at Shepard school, has enrolled 11 pupils, while Miss Ida Knox tells the reporter she has 26 on her register at the Wilson school.

Mrs. Henry Beard, of Redmond, came over Monday to visit her husband, who is operating the threshing in this vicinity.

Mrs. Jap Ireland and her sister Miss Cora Pindexter, visited at the C. M. Charlton home the first of the week.

Earl Twest has been at home this week, not feeling well enough to attend high school in Redmond, where he is a pupil.

A large crowd attended the sale at the Shaw ranch Monday, many from Bend, Prineville and Redmond being among the bidders. It was noticed that the stock was the chief attraction.

P. B. Gile and Rolla Sumner of Bend took a load of hay to Bend Tuesday.

Mr. R. L. Brandenburg of Deschutes was in Bend on business Thursday.

Mr. G. W. Bales of Tumalo was in Bend on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Debing were in Deschutes on business Thursday.

Bulletin "WANT ADS" Bring Results—Try Them.

Put it in The Bulletin.

Prices Below 1914

Sensational Reductions on All Sizes of Guaranteed

PHILADELPHIA DIAMOND GRID BATTERY

With the PHILCO Slotted Retainer THE "CORD-TIRE" BATTERY

MAKE OF CAR

Buick, Model D Lexington

Chevrolet 490 Liberty

Cleveland Mitchell

Columbia Oakland

Dort Oldsmobile

Ford Overland

Hupmobile Scripps-Booth

Buick Chevrolet

Baby Grand Nash

Chandler Paige

Cole Reo

Essex Velie

Grant Studebaker

Haynes Westcott

Dodge Franklin

$27.00

$32.50

$41.00

Bend Battery Station

140 Greenwood Ave. Telephone 125-J

ECONOMY and EFFICIENCY

The refined Chevrolet "Four-Ninety," possessing features of unquestioned merit, represents real economy with efficiency.

The new Chevrolet is efficient. The powerful valve-in-head motor, the new and improved rear axle, the added hand brake lever, and other refinements are all signs of excellent service.

The "Four-Ninety" Model, either touring car, roadster, coupe or sedan will serve economically, efficiently, and well.

See these models today, and be convinced of the superior merits of the Chevrolet.

CHEVROLET

for Economical Transportation

$675

Delivered in Bend

Chevrolet "F-B" Models

Touring Car or Roadster$ 975

Coupe or Sedan 1575

Prices F. O. B. Flint, Mich.

The Bend Garage

Deschutes County

FAIR

at REDMOND

OCT. 12-13-14-15

More Exhibits Than Ever
$4,000 Premium Money

10 RACES DAILY

INDIANS --- WILD HORSES

For Information, Address Fair Manager, Redmond, Ore.

CLOVERDALE HAS POULTRY COURSE

CLOVERDALE, Oct. 5.—Mr. Crosby, of the O. A. C., held a very instructive demonstration at Miss Winifred Aldrich's poultry pens on Wednesday. The demonstration was well attended and much interest taken in the methods of culling out the non-laying hens. Mr. Jamieson, of Redmond, accompanied Mr. Crosby.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mackey of Terrebonne were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lantz Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Peck and guests spent several days picnicking at the Metellus and Suttles lake last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchison left for their home in Portland Tuesday morning.

R. O. Andrews and wife were Bend visitors Tuesday.

Mr. Hobson, of Salem, who has been here looking after property interests, left for home last week. J. Hilleary accompanied him, returning Sunday evening.

Harold Kline, of Bend, spent