

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Father Francis of Burns is visiting in Bend today.
Lee A. Thomas has returned from a trip to Lakeview.
W. C. Hollinshead of La Pine was in Bend this morning.
Paul Brookings of Lower Bridge was in Bend yesterday.
Clyde Lamb went to Redmond last night on a business trip.
Joe Wilson went to Redmond last night, to attend the fair.
Carey Stearns of La Pine was in Bend early in the week.
W. A. Pickett of Terrebonne was in Bend today on business.
S. R. Johnson of Prineville was in Bend yesterday on business.
Max Canning of Redmond was in Bend yesterday on business.
John Clapp went to Redmond last night to work during the fair.
Frank McCaffrey of Redmond spent the day in Bend Tuesday.
Mrs. Suzanna Melster went to Redmond last night to attend the county fair.
L. S. Edgington and E. H. Harrington of Sisters visited in Bend yesterday.
George H. Davis left last night for Oregon City, to return later in the week.
W. J. Jordan of Silver Lake was in Bend yesterday on his way to Prineville.
Pat Mulcare of Pendleton was in Bend yesterday, leaving last night for Redmond.
Jack Coyle, manager of the diatomite mine at Terrebonne, was in Bend Tuesday.
Meredith Bailey and his mother were in Bend yesterday from their home at Sisters.
The county library will be closed all day Thursday on account of Bend day at the county fair.
H. K. Neel of Silver Lake was in Bend yesterday. He is driving south on his way to California.
The regular meeting of Deschutes Lodge No. 103, Knights of Pythias, will be tonight at 8 o'clock in the Moose hall.
Howard Young of Bend, who entered the University of Oregon this fall as a freshman is a pledge of the Sigma Chi fraternity.
A. L. Jean and family left last night for Tacoma, to make their home. Mr. Jean has been employed in the railroad yards here.
The Episcopal guild will hold a musical tea at the home of Mrs. C. A. Hayden, 545 Congress street, Friday afternoon. Everyone is cordially invited.
Miss Cecil L. Schreyer, who has been in Bend several days on business with Miss Julia D. Clock, county nurse, left last night for her home in Portland.
Mrs. J. D. Bowman will be hostess to the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church at her home at 1545 West Fifth street tomorrow morning.
Members of the Methodist Ladies Aid society are making extensive plans for their annual fall sale and supper to be held at Epworth hall November 15 and 16.
L. T. Dawson, formerly cashier of the Bend Water, Light, & Power Co., left last night for Portland, where he expects to make his home. He will return to Bend in two weeks to spend some time before going to Portland permanently.

Tuesday—

F. C. Donovan, Rolyat sheepman, is in the city today on business.
J. R. Kellogg and E. Miebus were passengers to Silver Lake this morning.
George Crowley of Diamond was in Bend yesterday on his way to Portland.
W. S. Smith of Diamond passed through Bend yesterday on his way to Eugene.
Mr. and Mrs. G. Richardson are parents of a 12 pound baby girl, born yesterday.
C. Van Tassel went to Salem last night, where he will undergo an operation on his leg.
N. H. Gilbert and family returned to Bend from a month's auto tour through California.
L. W. Franks went to Portland last night for an examination in connection with a service disability.
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hollinshead of La Pine are parents of an eight pound baby girl, born this morning.
Mrs. Catherine Smith of Eugene, who has been visiting near Bend all summer, went to Portland last night.
M. R. Matthew and R. A. Crooks of The Dalles and H. M. Stephens of Bend left this morning on a deer hunt in the Deschutes National forest.
The body of Dr. Isaac B. Wilson of La Pine, who died here Saturday night, was shipped last night to Lebanon.

banon. The funeral will be at Sweet Home.
R. R. Scheurer of Redmond was in Bend today on his way to Crescent from which point he will start driving his sheep back from the summer range to the home ranch.
County Superintendent J. Alton Thompson, A. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McKay and Gordon McKay have started on the trip to La Grande, going by way of Burns.
Miss Laura Ziegler has accepted a position with the Gelman-Bader Drug Co. of Portland. She will leave for that city about October 20. Miss Ziegler has been in the employ of the Horton Drug Co.
J. R. Suttler was badly bruised yesterday evening at the freight warehouse, when a 500 pound section of a concrete mixer which he was helping to load on a truck came loose from the load and landed on top of him. No bones were broken. W. C. Hollinshead is hauling the mixer to Silver Lake for the Otto Hansen Co.

Monday—

Miss Trixie Hewitt of Seattle is visiting with Mrs. B. P. Royce.
L. A. Stewart was a passenger to Paisley on the stage this morning.
Mrs. J. W. Ashe went to Portland last night to spend about a week.
T. H. Foley returned this morning from a business trip to Wallace, Idaho.
W. Brockbank, who has been working in Bend, left last night for Fallbridge.
Miss Cora Dick has returned from Corvallis, where she has been attending O. A. C.
Mrs. H. K. Brooks returned last night from Seattle, where she has been visiting for several weeks.
Carl A. Johnson and C. J. Dugan went to Portland last night, expecting to return Tuesday morning.
Dorsey Dent of Burns was in Bend yesterday on his way to Portland, where he expects to find employment.
Mrs. C. M. Frazier returned last night from Prineville, where she had been since Wednesday, attending the fair.
The Wright Hotel dining room has reopened under the management of the hotel proprietor, G. W. Foster and his wife.
N. A. Cobb drove to Edison ice cave yesterday with his mother, Mrs. Rose Cobb, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miles.
Miss Elizabeth Evans was in Bend last night on her way from her home on the Bend-Burns road to Culver, where she is teaching.
Mrs. Grace Buckmaster, who has been living on the High Desert for two years, left last night for Whittier, Calif., to make her home.
Mrs. Lida L. Leet of Omaha arrived in Bend last night to visit with her son, William A. Leet, and his wife. She will spend several weeks in Bend.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Huntley of Yamhill are expected to arrive in Bend soon on their honeymoon. They will visit with Mrs. James Quigley and family.
J. S. Innes and H. H. De Armond went to Portland last night as delegates to the Knights of Pythias convention, from Deschutes lodge No. 103 of Bend.
James Fisher, Miss M. J. Money, A. Whisnant and family, Clyde McKay and family and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Watson visited the Edison ice cave yesterday.
Miss Cecil L. Schreyer, assistant director of the state bureau of nursing is in Bend today for a conference with Miss Julia D. Clock, Deschutes county nurse.
Sergeant G. A. Rowinsky left last night for Olympia, where he will spend a few days before returning to Camp Lewis, where he is attached to the 4th Engineers. Sergeant Rowinsky has been in Bend on a furlough.
Miss Mary A. Ewing, head of the normal department of Crook county high school, returned to Prineville last night after visiting in Bend with Mrs. W. P. Myers, with whom she was acquainted in Oklahoma several years ago. Miss Ewing was well pleased with Bend, and may make her home here some time in the future.
The library car at Brooks-Scanlon camp No. 2 was filled to overflowing at Saturday night's dance, with nearly everyone from camp No. 1 and many from Bend present. The three piece Innes orchestra furnished the music and a lunch was served by the entertainment committee at midnight in the dining car. A flash light picture of the dancers was taken by C. G. Seward of the Elite studio.

Advertisements in The Bulletin. It gets results.

Saturday—

Mrs. F. H. West left on last night's train for Portland.
E. N. Cavanaugh of La Pine is in Bend today on business.
J. H. Melster has returned from a business trip to Spokane.
G. Roberts went to Metolius last night, where he is employed.
Arthur Siler left last night for Portland to spend several days.
Mrs. W. H. Luten went to Portland last night, to spend the winter.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson went to Prineville today to attend the fair.
Mrs. W. P. Downing and daughter went to Prineville today to attend the fair.
C. A. Hayden went to Portland last night on business. He will return Monday.
Miss E. T. Hiller left last night for Vancouver, Wash., to attend her niece's wedding.
M. W. Knickerbocker is in Bend today from La Pine, where he is supervising road work.
W. R. Speck drove to Gap ranch on the Burns highway yesterday, returning the same day.
Pat Reilly and his sister who have been visiting in Bend for several days will return to Lakeview today.
W. Nord, who has been in Bend for several days, returned last night to his home in White Salmon.
H. E. Derrick of Fort Rock is in the city. He was fire lookout during the past season at the Fox Butte station.

D. E. Webster, L. Mosen, J. A. Smith and John Luther were passengers to La Pine on this morning's stage.
Mrs. F. D. Warnstall, Miss Erma Lehmann and Miss Dorothy Taylor went to Prineville last night to attend the fair.
Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Williamson, who have been visiting relatives here, started last night on the return trip to San Francisco.
Peter Faherty, who has been working for Tom Connolly at a sheep camp in the Deschutes forest, went to Maupin last night.
A. M. Bryant, O-W agent at Madras, brought his small son to Bend last night, seriously ill. The boy is now in a local hospital.
Mrs. Laura T. Coe is visiting her son, Montelle G. Coe, at his new home, 224 East Kearney, where he has moved from his ranch to spend the winter.
The Rev. Hillis, of Tumalo will preach morning and evening at the Bend Presbyterian church. A duet will be sung by Mrs. Ashley Forrest and Mrs. Gene Goodman.

Misses Eunice Catlow and Lois Kellogg went to Portland last night to spend the week end. They will drive back with E. J. Catlow, who was recently operated on in Portland.
Mrs. W. H. Hudson went to Portland last night to attend the Pythian Sisters convention Tuesday and Wednesday. She will visit with a sister in Hood River before returning to Bend.
G. A. Rowinsky returned last night from Terrebonne, where he visited several days this week. Rowinsky is still in the army, being here on furlough. He will leave Sunday for Olympia.
Miss Frances Thompson, teacher at the Black Butte school, and Miss Ruth Hansen, one of her pupils, are spending the week end at the home of Miss Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Alton Thompson.
J. R. Suttler of Sherman county arrived in Bend last night on his way to his homestead at La Pine. He reports that the wheat crop, which is now harvested and in the warehouses, is up to average this year.

Friday—

Hardy Allen of Sisters is spending today in Bend.
August Krug, of Sisters, is in the city today on business.
Sam Lochrie of Brothers is in Bend today on business.
Mrs. V. A. Smith went to Portland last night for a short visit.
Miss Leola Fisher of Burns is visiting with Miss Lorena Phelps.
George W. Duke, garage man of Crescent, is spending today in Bend.
Mr. and Mrs. O. Hansen left last night for Long Beach, to return in the spring.
F. H. Finnerelson and Harry Clemens, left last night for Portland, to make a short visit.
T. O. Ander left last night on a trip to Cascade Locks. He will return in a few days.
Norman Cobb and Ray Golden went to Prineville today to attend the fair being held there.
Miss Marie Clarno returned last night from Portland, where she has been for several months.
W. H. Bissell and W. G. Lewis went to Prineville. They have been in Bend for a week on business.
The Concrete Pipe Co. today received a new cement mixer, to be used in sidewalk construction.
Harold Baldwin, cashier of the First National bank at Prineville, was a Bend visitor yesterday.

New Fashions New Low Prices New Values

Keeping in close and constant touch with the best sources of supply. Taking advantage of every opportune buying condition, keeps a steady stream of new goods coming into the store at lower prices.

New Winter Coats built for warmth, service and wear at $37.50

These coats have more than the usual degree of warmth, service and style. In addition, they're so very unusual at their moderate pricing that every woman in need of a new coat will seriously consider purchasing at her first inspection of them.

Made of such lovely materials as Bolivia, Yalama, suede and velvet; many have large fur collars of sealene, opossum or black opossum and racoon. Belted all around models are shown; others with or without belts, have loose backs, at $37.50.

Coats for Older Sisters of 6 to 16 years

They often have collars of sealene, kit cone, and nutria dyed cone. They are silvertone, Bolivia, heather and plain or silvertip velours.

$13.50, $14.95, $19.50 to $23.50

Petticoats, $3.45 to $6.75

Here is a group of all silk petticoats, especially notable for value. Featured are all saffeta, all jersey, or jersey topped petticoats with silk flounces. Flounces are tucked, hemstitched or plain. Heavy elastic and strong snaps finish the top. Choose one of these desirable petticoats while our assortment is complete. Priced $3.45 to $6.75.

Jersey Bloomers at $3.48

Coverall Aprons

Designed after a principle that becoming apparel makes for a happy frame of mind. These Coverall Aprons are made of sturdy gingham and percales in pretty striped patterns, collar, cuffs and belt of plain material in shades that match well.

A Splendid Value at 98c

Other Styles in Coverall and Polly Ann Aprons
85c, $1.15, $1.29, $1.48, $1.69, $1.98

It Always Pays to Stop and Shop at

MANNHEIMERS

The Quality Store of Bend

WARNER'S

Centemeri Gloves

Athena Underwear

Pictorial Patterns

Merite Jewelry

Arch Preserver Shoes

Burlington Hosiery

Educator Shoes

Justrite Corsets

Pearl Infants' Wear

Wearwell Blankets

Bridal Sheeting

and many other Nationally famous lines of merchandise are here shown in

NEW GOODS

AT

NEW LOW PRICES

Chief of Police R. H. Fox has returned from The Dalles, where he attended the trial of Abe Evans.

Attorney W. P. Myers, who appeared for the defense in the trial of Abe Evans for murder, returned to Bend last night.

Among Bend people attending the Crook county fair today are James Fisher, Frank R. Prince, H. J. Overturn, and Dr. L. W. Gatchell.

Recent marriage licenses issued from the county clerk's office are to Herman Wittwer and Mrs. Ruby Fuller, and to Carl A. Dungan and Velma Boring.

Dee McRoberts left last night for Salem, where he will enter high school, making his home with a sister who lives there. He was student body president at the local high school and was considered a fixture on the football team, so that his loss will be felt.

Thursday—

T. H. Foley has gone to Spokane on business.

Edward Dean of Tumalo was a visitor in Bend today.

C. W. Elkins of Prineville is in Bend today on business.

C. S. Hudson went to Portland last night for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Gilbert are on a visit with relatives at Rolyat.

W. H. Frantz went to Portland last night to visit with his family.

D. St. Ores and family left last night for San Francisco, on a visit.

Mrs. Lenore Hole went to Portland last night to spend a few days.

Prior Barnes of Burns was in Bend last night on his way to Prineville.

Mrs. C. M. Frazier, and son went to Prineville last night to attend the fair.

K. C. Kaufman left last night for Portland after being here for several days.

Mrs. J. T. Carlson and Mrs. Janey Bryan of Paisley were in Bend yesterday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Murphy were in Bend yesterday on their way from Burns to Sheridan.

B. Miller, freight and passenger agent for the C. B. & Q. Railroad Co. was in Bend today on an official visit.

Mrs. M. E. Cunningham returned to her home at Madras last night after visiting for several days with her son, G. C. Cunningham.

F. F. Fisch returned to his home in The Dalles last night after spending yesterday in Bend. He was formerly in business here with C. J. Leverett.

Volunteer workers for the Red Cross shop are requested to signify their willingness to assist, to Mrs. V. A. Forbes at the home service office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rolston of Terrebonne were in Bend today. Mr. Rolston is returning one of his bands of sheep from the mountains to the home ranch.

C. A. Knowles and sons of Tygh Ridge, who have been hunting deer in the Deschutes National forest, returned to Bend yesterday, leaving again on a similar quest in the Crooked river country.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Niswonger, who have been attending the Funeral Directors' association convention at Portland, will return tomorrow morning. Mr. Niswonger was reelected a member of the board of directors of the association.

TORKELSON DAIRY HERD ACCREDITED

One of the first dairy herds in Deschutes county to be accredited as tuberculosis free is that of Bert Torkelson, who has a ranch east of Bend. He has just received papers certifying the fact that his cows have been examined annually for three years, and found healthy. Torkelson has six purebred cows and 10 grade animals.