HONOR IS PAID W. C. BIRDSALL BY ELKS LODGE
 What Wallace C. Birdsall's place had been in the community was well attested last Thursday by the number who attended the impressive services provided by the Elks' ritual, held in the lodge hall. In addition to the friends of the man for whom the last tokens of respect were offered, many schoolmates of Warren Birdsall, the son, attended. Brief graveside services at Pilot Butte cemetery concluded the ceremony.
 Rev. J. Edgar Purdy, pastor of the Methodist church, delivered the funeral sermon, and a glowing tribute to the virtues of the "absent brother" was paid by H. H. De Armond, after Secretary C. T. Terril had called the name of Wallace C. Birdsall. Exalted Ruler T. E. J. Duffy presided at the services, and each of the hundred lodge members in attendance, filling by the casket, murmured a "peace be with you," as he added the purple flower he had worn during the services to the mass of floral offerings.
 The Elks entered the hall to the strains of "Auld Lang Syne," and in the march past the casket, "Nearer My God to Thee" was played. "Lead Kindly Light," by a mixed quartet composed of Louis Bennett, Mrs. Glen Goodman, Mrs. M. E. Bonnalle, and Charles G. Wilson, "Abide With Me," sung by Miss Virginia Stewart, and "The Vacant Chair," by a male quartet having as its members Dr. L. W. Gatchell, Charles W. Erskine, Mr. Bennett, and Mr. Wilson, were other musical numbers given during the service.
 Pall bearers were H. K. Brooks, E. P. Mahaffey, H. E. Allen, C. A. Hayden, L. O. Taylor, A. M. Pringle, H. J. Overturf, S. E. Roberts, J. A. Eastes, T. H. Foley, J. Edward Larson and A. Whinnant.
