

FOUR DOLLARS PER DAY MADE CITY MINIMUM

COUNCIL RECOGNIZES DOWNWARD TREND

EFFICIENCY IS SOUGHT

Work of Budget Committee Brings Praise From Mayor—Wire Screening On Footbridge To Safeguard Children.

Following the downward trend of wages, the rate for common labor in Bend dropped a dollar a day when the city council, at its regular meeting Friday night, made four dollars for eight hours the standard. During the previous months of the administration five dollars had been the minimum.

Councilman Lon L. Fox suggested the change, referring to recent downward revisions at La Grande, Pendleton, and Klamath Falls, in each of which cities the wage is less than Bend's new rate. Council members agreed that the pay for city work—for the most part not continuous—should be more than the minimum for labor in the mills where employment is steady. N. H. Gilbert's motion fixing four dollars a day as the minimum was unanimously passed.

Greater efficiency, particularly in street work, through careful selection and training of labor, was suggested by City Engineer R. B. Gould, and was discussed at length by the council.

Budget Wins Praise

Mayor E. D. Gilson, who had been absent from the city early in the week, remarked on the budget for 1922, adopted by the council and advisory committee Tuesday night, congratulating the two bodies on their excellent work.

Four fires occurred during the month of October, Fire Chief Tom Carlon reported. R. H. Fox, police chief had six arrests listed, all the result of liquor. He had handled 20 juvenile cases. Recorder Ross Farnham reported $286 as the receipts of his office. Births for the month were 11 and deaths were five, showed the report of Dr. C. A. Fowler, city physician.

To Pay Street Deficit

Chairman J. S. Innes of the streets committee, mentioned the need of a wire screening to protect small children crossing the river by way of the main footbridge. Authorization for such work had been already given.

N. H. Gilbert, head of the police committee, stated that the police lights recently installed have proved entirely successful.

The last official action to provide for the payment of Bend's recently laid paving, came with the introduction of a resolution providing a $1,504.08 deficit assessment for the Delaware avenue contract. The resolution passed without debate.

COUNCIL BACKS PORTLAND FAIR

LETTER FROM BAKER PROMPTS RECOGNITION OF ADVANTAGES — PORTLAND SHOULD PAY BILL IS DECLARED.

The city of Bend is officially on record as supporting the 1925 exposition. Responding to a letter from Mayor George L. Baker of Portland to E. D. Gilson, mayor of Bend, setting forth the plan for financing the coming world's fair and explaining the statewide advantages expected to be derived, the city council at its regular meeting Friday night voted in favor of a motion by Councilman N. H. Gilbert endorsing the fair and authorizing the mayor to write the Portland executive, announcing the stand taken by the local administration.

As a matter of fact, only two councilmen voted, Gilbert and H. E. Nordeen, who seconded the motion. Nordeen emphasized that while he favored the fair and considered Portland the proper place for it, he considered that Portland, getting the credit and the greater part of the benefit for the exposition, should stand the expense. A similar stand was taken by J. S. Innes, and C. J. Leverett merely stated that he was not ready to vote on the question.

"We should do all we can to get the fair for Portland," declared Gilbert in introducing his motion. "It will help the entire state, and we will be well repaid for what we are doing. It will mean higher taxes but it will be in a good cause."

Mayor Baker's letter was devoted chiefly to an explanation of the plan whereby Portland will raise two million dollars by direct taxation, one million by private subscription, and will pay one-third of the state levy, leaving two millions to be paid by the state at large.

Religion Defined.

The word religion is defined by the Standard dictionary as "a belief binding the spiritual nature of man to a supernatural being on whom he is conscious that he is dependent; also, the practice that springs out of the recognition of such religion, including the personal life and experience, the doctrine, the duties and the rites founded on it; any system of faith and worship, such as the Christian religion, the religions of the Orient, etc." The word catholic means "of or pertaining to the whole Christian church, in accordance with the decrees of the seven general councils; not heretical; not schismatic."

Used Automobiles

The man who is in the market for a used car has much better prospects this year than for many seasons past. The used cars that are on the market are far better both in appearance and in mechanical condition. The extreme drop in the price of new cars has caused the sale of used cars that were in perfect condition.

HELP OFFERED BY CREDIT MEN

WEIGHT OF DEBT IS LIFTED THROUGH EXPERT ADVICE—THE ASSOCIATION CONDEMNIS WORTHLESS CHECK PASSING.

That material assistance can be extended to persons heavily in debt by helping them to arrange their affairs so as to be most easily able to discharge their obligations was emphasized, when the members of the Bend Credit association held their annual dinner and business meeting at the Pilot Butte Inn. Instances of individuals who have been and who are now being helped by the advice of the association, were cited. Several members spoke on the value of the association to the members, and of the need for greater cooperation among the membership.

Condemning the practice of issuing checks when insufficient funds for payment, or none at all are on deposit, speakers urged that the association make worthless check passing unpopular by referring all cases to the authorities.

A vote of thanks to the retiring officers was unanimous, as was the vote to continue the organization for another year.

New officers are: A. G. Clark, president; D. G. McPherson, vice-president; and R. S. Hamilton, secretary-treasurer.

C. W. Hayes, outgoing head of the association, presided during the early part of the evening, Clark taking the chair during the latter part of the session.

TWO PLEAD GUILTY AFTER SCHOOL RAID

Fred Shuey And Lee Wright Got Off On Larceny Charge—To Pay District For Damage Done.

Cases resulting from depredations committed at the Bend high school on Hallowe'en when the domestic science room was entered and quantities of provisions stolen are now completed. Fred Shuey and Lee Wright, mill employees charged with burglary in connection with the affair being permitted to plead guilty to the lesser charge of larceny. Each will pay a fine of $25, and in addition will turn over $5 to the school district in payment for his depredations.

Of the students mentioned in connection with the looting of edibles, Chester Wright, 19 years of age, was not cited to the juvenile court, but appeared before the judge and agreed to pay $10 as a combination of fine and reimbursement for damage done.

The four other students, all juveniles, were considered not delinquent by the court. After being lectured on the subject, they agreed to take part in no more Hallowe'en activities of the kind, and to dissuade others from similar depredations.

ENTRY FORCED TO LAW OFFICE

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE TEMPTS, BELIEVES E. O. STADTER—DOOR "JIMMIED" OPEN, BUT NO LOSS IS NOTED.

Belief that persons interested in a circuit court case now pending forced an entrance into his law offices in the First National bank building with the intention of stealing documentary evidence, was expressed Tuesday by E. O. Stadter following the discovery of marks on the door casing showing that the door had been "jimmied" open. A similar instrument had been used to force the transom, the wooden frame of which had been split and the glass broken as a result. Numerous finger prints were found on the door casing.

After carefully checking up, Stadter could find nothing missing, and attributes this to the fact that the prowler was probably unfamiliar with his filing system.

The case has been referred to the authorities for investigation.
