

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Albert Kitchin went to Portland last night to spend some time.
 J. H. Cummings of Fort Rock was in Bend yesterday on his way to Portland.
 R. L. Jackson, Portland salesman, spent yesterday in Bend, returning last night to his home.
 B. A. Stover, former bank employe of this city, is now in the motion picture business in Seattle.
 D. W. Mulcare of John Day, who has been visiting his brother here, left last night for Portland.
 F. W. Sterry, clothing salesman for Mannheim Bros., was ill yesterday and confined to his home.
 "String" Fleming, prominent sheepman of Crook county, was a business visitor in Bend today.
 Mrs. E. A. Street and mother, Mrs. E. J. Stevenson, left yesterday morning for Los Angeles to spend the winter.
 Mrs. Frances E. Metz has come to Bend to live with her son, Claude Metz. Her former home was in Chesham, Wash.
 Miss Ida Niswonger, who is attending Willamette university at Salem, will be home Sunday for the Christmas holidays.
 Miss Helen Philbrook of Portland arrived in Bend yesterday to visit during the holidays with her brother, Phil Philbrook.
 An 8½ pound baby boy was born last night to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jensen of La Pine at the home of Mrs. G. Eng on Aubrey Heights.
 Magill & Erskine are using the window of the room east of their store for Christmas window display in addition to that in their own windows.
 Members of the Episcopal guild will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. K. Brooks on Drake road. Friends of the guild are invited to attend.
 Dr. George B. Van Waters, of the Episcopal church, will hold communion services at Sather's hall at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The public is cordially invited.
 R. B. Yates, butter maker for the Central Oregon Farmers' creamery, left last night for Portland, to attend the state butter makers' convention at the Multnomah hotel.
 Charles Carroll, matchmaker for the Bend boxing commission, will leave tonight for Portland to confer with some of the men who will appear here in his next smoker, which is set for the afternoon of December 26.
 Mrs. J. H. Corbett of Vancouver, Wash., visited in Bend yesterday with her mother, Mrs. E. Bedient. Mrs.

Tuesday—

Corbett was formerly Miss Evelyn Bedient, and served as student body president of the local high school during her senior year.
 P. J. Cooke of Tumalo was in Bend yesterday on business.
 Mrs. Mary L. Beasley of La Pine was in Bend yesterday on business.
 A six pound baby boy was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wiekstrom.
 Norman A. Cobb left last night for Portland on business. He will return tomorrow.
 Miss Mary Brown, daughter of Mrs. E. Brown, was operated on Saturday at a local hospital.
 J. S. Hunter, who has been employed here for several months, left last night for Portland.
 Mrs. B. J. Deadmond of Silver Lake was in Bend yesterday, returning to her home this morning.
 J. W. Saxton of Opal City was in Bend yesterday on business, returning to his home last night.
 The Baptist ladies will hold a food sale Saturday beginning at 3 o'clock at the Heyburn Hardware store.

Monday—

S. E. Leehrie of Brothers spent Saturday in Bend.
 O. O. King of Millican was in Bend Saturday on business.
 Jack Gudmonson left last night for Portland for a short visit.
 Gus E. Stadig of Lower Bridge is in Bend on business today.
 D. F. White of Culver was in Bend Saturday and Sunday on a shopping trip.
 Mrs. E. G. Rourke of Crescent was in Bend last night on her way to Portland.
 District Attorney F. V. Galloway of Wasco County and his wife are in Bend today.
 The Pioneer Garage has received a carload of new Essex cars for distribution here.
 C. E. Elmquist has purchased a sport model Velle car from the Pioneer garage.
 W. B. Crawford left last night for Portland, where he will spend a few days on business.
 Miss Hazel Weeks of Long Creek was in Bend yesterday, leaving this morning for Paisley.
 Mrs. Mary Eckton, who has been visiting in Bend for some time, left last night for her home in Portland.
 J. F. Taggart, who has been at a health resort on the Columbia for some time, returned to Bend yesterday.
 Charles Herr, barber who has been working in Bend for several months, left last night for Vancouver, Wash., to make his home.

 County Commissioner M. W. Knokebocker left last night for Portland to attend the meeting of the highway commission.
 Bids will be opened Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock at the office of Lee A. Thomas, for the erection of the S. W. Hubble service station.
 Ross Farnham is expected to return to Bend tomorrow from Portland where he is visiting his wife, a patient at one of the hospitals in that city.
 Miss Viola Belyea will leave Wednesday night for Everett, Washington and New Westminster, B. C., to spend the remainder of the month visiting relatives.
 Tom Wheeler, who has been trucking Bend mail from Shaniko to Gateway, returned to Bend Saturday night. He reports that mud is "up to your neck" on the road between those towns, but that the Bend trucks did not mire down often.
 Miss Florence Berg, until recently a stenographer for the Central Oregon Abstract Co., was to be married Saturday to B. H. Conn of that city. After a honeymoon spent in California, the couple will make their home in Portland. Miss Berg was accompanied on her trip to Portland by her father, Chris Berg.

Saturday—

R. H. Bailey of Tumalo is in Bend today on business.
 Mrs. H. K. Brooks returned this morning from a trip to Portland.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Percivall of Millican are in Bend today shopping.
 Lee A. Thomas has returned from Portland, where he has been for over a week.
 Dr. Paul Woerner and family will leave tonight for Portland, to make a short visit.
 P. J. Barres, cattleman, and L. J. Young, wheat rancher, of Madras are in Bend today.
 M. P. Cashman returned this morning from Portland where he went Thursday night.
 Howard Davis of Prineville is in Bend visiting with his brother, Leland Davis, for a few days.
 Carey Stearns of Prineville passed through Bend today on his way to his ranch on the upper Deschutes.
 Mrs. Richard Doran, who underwent a serious operation here Thursday, is now improving. It was reported today.
 Rev. C. W. Du Bois of Cove is in Bend, and will conduct Episcopal services Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Sather's hall.
 C. N. Christopherson, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Great Northern railway, was in Bend yesterday on business.
 Miss Naomi Hoskins of the high school faculty left last night to spend the week end with her parents at their home near Redmond.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hudson and son

Xmas Gift Suggestions

PHOENIX HOSIERY Makes Good Gifts

They are always useful, therefore always welcome. Complete assortments at prices indicative of truly good value.
 Phoenix Silk Hose in navy, cordovan, black and white, at $1.10, $1.45, $1.65, $1.95, $2.35, $2.65

GIFT BLOUSES

If I only had another blouse.
 How often a woman has thought these very words in the silence of her own dressing room when a costume had to be chosen on short notice. This Christmas Blouse showing embraces a complete range of favored styles, offers an excellent opportunity to select that much desired extra blouse and incidentally suggests a happy solution to many a perplexing gift problem. Priced from $3.95 to $10.50

Had You Thought of a Sweater?

Whether the gift is for a man, woman, a girl, a boy, or a little tot, a Sweater is always a safe selection. Nowadays, everybody wants several Sweaters, of various weights and colors, and a new one receives a warm welcome. Priced
$1.95, $2.75 up to $8.50

GLOVES ALWAYS PLEASE

If Gloves are on your Christmas list, then you want to buy them at this store, where assortments are broad and diversified, where quality is trustworthy, styles are the newest, and where prices are moderate. In this unsurpassed collection you will find Kid Gloves, Silk Gloves, Long Gloves, Short Gloves and Gloves with strap at wrist as well as every other wanted kind. Let us show them to you tomorrow.
Pettins Kid Gloves, $2.75 to $4.95
Holeproof Silk Gloves, 95c to $1.50

A Silk Petticoat Makes Pleasing Xmas Gift

It looks so handsome when the box is opened. The silk or satin is so rich—the colors are so effective—the platings and ruffings are so impressive; and it is always gratifying to any woman to have a liberal supply of these useful garments. Priced most reasonably.
$2.95, $3.25 up to $6.75

NECKTIES GALORE

Is what one finds in the Men's Store. One will immediately notice the good taste in the selections; the excellent qualities and the endeavor to please every taste.
25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00

Waving a Happy Christmas With The Pretty Gift Handkerchiefs

And such delightfully different sorts of gifts handkerchiefs are to be found here—dainty squares, made with the most painstaking care, and priced to moderately withal.
 The smartest are the linen square sporting curious drawnwork patterns and exquisite embroidery. In gay patterns and striking color combinations at 19c to 75c

MANNHEIMER'S THE QUALITY STORE OF BEND

Silk Hosiery WARNER'S Kid Gloves

Fill your Wants from our ample stock of Christmas Gifts. The sooner the better, as each day assortments are broken.

Give Ivory

Every woman loves White French Ivory. There is always a place for more. Our stock includes all the wanted articles.
 Brushes, Mirrors, Powder Boxes, Trinket Boxes, Jewel Boxes, Hair Receivers, Files, Trays, Picture Frames—as well as regular Toilet Sets, Priced $2.95 to $15.00

Present the Home With a New Supply of These Fine Towels

Real Useful Gifts.
 Fancy Turkish Towels.....50c, 75c, 98c
 Cotton Huck Towels.....15c, 20c, 25c, 35c
 Linen Huck Towels.....50c, 65c
 Wash Cloths; a big line; each.....10c

Give her Silk Hose. We have all the wanted colors and styles. A full range of qualities.

Let Us Help Solve Your Gift Problems.

Donald left last night for Portland. Hudson will return soon, his wife and son making a longer stay.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Douglas left last night for Marshfield, where they will live during the rest of the winter, returning to Bend in the spring.
 J. H. Prewill, who has been working for the Deschutes Garage Co., left last night for Portland to take a position with the Servu Motor Co.
 J. C. Bond and wife left last night for Portland, to visit for a short time. Bond has been working with the snow plow in the Deschutes canyon.
 Mrs. George Borrowman and son left last night for Portland, where the little boy will be operated on. They will return after visiting during the holidays.
 Miss Noma Fultz returned this morning from Portland, where she went previous to the recent storm. She has been waiting for a return train for over two weeks.
 August Kakuschky, who has been stormbound in Bend for three weeks, left last night for Coquille, Wash., to stay for a short time before returning to Port Ashland, Wis. He came to Bend to look over the country.
Friday—
 Roy Mitchell, forest ranger in the Deschutes forest, went to La Pine this morning.
 E. C. Parrott and wife left last night for Vancouver, where they will make their home.
 Mrs. E. C. Rainey left last night for San Francisco, where she will visit for two months.
 Clyde M. McKay returned this morning from Portland, where he has been for a week.

W. L. Stephens returned this morning from Portland, where he went Wednesday night.
 Mrs. Cassie Flynn left last night for Portland. She will visit in that city and in Seattle for some time.
 Ed Lane and Ed Daly of Silver Lake, who have been in Bend for some time, left yesterday for their homes.
 R. D. Morton, for many months pharmacist at the Owl Drug store here, has accepted a similar position in Dufur.
 Miss Mildred Klein, formerly of Bend, is in the city for a vacation with her family. She is now employed in Portland.
 W. H. Fish and wife, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Cassie Flynn, left last night for their home at Portland.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Sprague left for Cello last night. They have been living south of Bend on the highway, where Sprague has been working.
 J. Alton Thompson left this afternoon for Millican by auto. He will return with his daughter, Mary, who is teaching this winter at the Millican school.
 Miss Amelia Ineas started last night for Sacramento, where she will make her home.
 Mrs. J. W. McDonald, formerly a resident of Bend, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McKenzie, returned last night to her home at Montesano, Wash.
 E. H. Dea, general superintendent of The Shevlin-Hixon Company, arrived in Bend this morning from Minneapolis on one of his periodical visits of inspection.
 Miss Fey Connell arrived this morning from Portland, where she is employed, to visit with her family. She was formerly a student at the Bend high school, being graduated last spring.

 Dr. E. Rea Norris, who has been seriously ill as a result of blood poisoning, returned to Bend this morning from Portland, where he has been under treatment. His wife accompanied him.
Thursday—
 R. D. Morton and wife left last night for Portland for a visit.
 W. L. Stephens left last night for Portland, planning to return Friday.
 Miss Julia D. Clock, county nurse, visited the Richardson school today.
 S. C. Seeds, assistant postmaster, is confined to his home today by illness.
 M. P. Cashman, local clothier, left last night for Portland to spend a few days on business.
 Mrs. Audrey Crisp, who has been visiting with Mrs. Chester Carroll, left last night for her home in Portland.
 Mrs. Ralph Wickham left last night for Montana. She has been here awaiting an opportunity to leave since the Sunday on which the tie-up occurred.
 A. Wolfe, salesman for Parks Bros., wholesale grocers of Portland, left last night for that city after spending some time here. He will return to Bend soon.
 Nick Boich and E. Salovich, who have been working at Silver Lake, left last night for Portland. They have been in Bend for over a week awaiting the first train out.
 J. R. Daly and B. M. Jenkins, Portland salesmen who have been in Bend during the tie-up, left last night for Portland. They once got within 15 miles of Shaniko on an attempt to leave Central Oregon, but were forced to return to Bend.