

What's Doing In The Country

HARD TIMES PARTY AT TUMALO HALL

TUMALO, Jan. 25.—The girls' Sunday school class taught by Miss Adelaide Wilson, entertained with a hard times party, the senior boys' class in the Tumalo hall on Friday evening, January 20. The evening was spent in playing games after which refreshments consisting of fruit salad, cake, sandwiches and cocoa were served by the teachers, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Janard and Miss Wilson.

A prize was given to Miss Edith Swalley and Henry Lumburg for the best hard time costumes.

Chauncey Becker was a Tumalo visitor on Thursday.

G. W. Jones and Ed Swalley were business visitors in Bend on Wednesday.

Miss Freida Yeager of Bend, was visitor at the Junior high school room on Thursday.

Mrs. Burton, and daughter Ingrid, visited Mrs. Burton's son, who is confined in the Bend hospital on account of a bad cut on his foot.

The past week has been a very cold one. The thermometer dropped to six and seven below zero on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. This being the second period of zero weather for us.

One of our school busses were unable to run on Thursday on account of the cold weather, and the other two were troubled with frozen radiators.

Many pupils were absent from school this week due to weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Bullard and daughter Ada were Bend visitors on Saturday.

Mr. George Sandal was a Tumalo visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phelps were visitors at the Bullard home Friday evening.

Mrs. Mayfield and little daughter Esther and Mrs. Roscoe Mayfield and daughter Darline were callers on Aunt Mollie Nichols Sunday.

Miss Kate Rurer spent Friday night with Miss Gertrude Jarrard.

Mrs. Marion was an afternoon caller on Mrs. Harry McGuire on Friday.

Miss Inez Short visited Miss Ruth Griffin Friday night.

James Harter was a Saturday visitor in Bend.

Miss Ingrid Burton and Miss Eva Jones visited the Misses Wilson over night on Friday.

Mr. Mayfield and son's Roscoe and Dudley were Tumalo visitors Saturday.

John Beel of the Coast Culvert & Flume Co. of Portland is here on business and is the guest of F. N. Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frisby and children of Bend visited Mrs. Walter Lowe of Deschutes on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross who have been visiting at home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Ray near town, have returned to their home in Salem. The Ross' visited with Mrs. Fred N. Wallace at her home in Redmond on their return home.

Mrs. Minnie Lowe and son Dee were visitors at the W. Lowe home on Monday.

The hard time dance given at the hall Saturday evening, January 21, was well attended and a good time was enjoyed by all. The music was furnished by Newcomb and Moore.

Mr. Carl Hatch was in town on Monday.

The grading work on the Tumalo highway will commence in a few days.

The parent teachers association will meet in the high school building to hold their once a month meeting at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening.

HEAD ACHE AND BODY ACHE

There are various symptoms of kidney trouble — rheumatic pains, backache, sore muscles, stiff joints, and "always tired" feeling. Mrs. Geo. Morgan, E. Fairfield, Vt., writes: "My head ached and my whole body ached so I could not sleep. Foley Kidney Pills gave me relief." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

POWELL BUTTE HAS HIGH LAMB RATIO

POWELL BUTTE, Jan. 25.—Many of the small flocks of sheep kept on ranches here at Powell Butte are lambing. A good per cent of lambs are being saved in spite of the snow and cold weather. All small flock owners are provided with sheds and plenty of shelter for the ewes.

All Powell Butte men are looking forward to the banquet to be given Thursday, night in Community hall at the Commercial club of the three neighboring towns, viz. Bend, Prineville and Redmond. The members of the Sorosis club will serve the banquet and all are looking forward to a pleasant evening. Tickets are one dollar a plate.

Mrs. Otto Pauls, formerly Miss Ada Sears is seriously ill at her home here of tonsillitis following a severe attack of quinsy. Mrs. Ila M. Foster is nurse. Her sister, Miss Ora Sears, a trained nurse from The Dalles, is also in attendance and her father Guy Sears is at her bedside. Mrs. Pauls is a bride of a few months and with her pleasant personality and charming manners has endeared herself to all Powell Butte, who hope for her speedy recovery.

George Truesdale has recently put up a neat building that he calls a shop and a brick home, but George says he "builds no more on his ranch until the question is settled about the Japs invasion of Crook county" and if they are coming, he says, he "will move out."

Mrs. Charley Parrish was called to The Dalles Tuesday morning in answer to a telegram that her father George Gibson was dead. Mr. Gibson was a pioneer resident of Crook county and many people will grieve to learn of his passing.

Mrs. Bussett and son Lloyd visited Grandma Brown at Prineville again Sunday. They report her condition as gradually growing worse.

C. M. Charlton visited Prineville last Sunday and spent the time with C. M. Charlton Jr., who is a student at Crook county high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Johnson of Alfalfa are visiting with Mrs. Johnson's parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindquist.

Mrs. Mary V. Charlton came out from Prineville last week to look after the sick in her home here.

Miss Fay Elliott visited Sunday at her home below Prineville. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott of that place.

Wesley Whitsett, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Whitsett, has been quite ill but at present seems much improved.

Dominee Verges has bought another band of sheep, and has rented pasture land from C. M. Charlton and Mrs. Ila Foster and will herd on the Buttes for the present.

Samuel Tweet has been on the sick list but is back in school again.

Uncle Jack Perry has moved across the road to spend the winter with his daughter Mrs. Mary Beard. The old gentleman has been failing in health for some time and while he clung tenaciously to his own home, yet he was obliged to give it up, for the winter, and move in with his daughter.

A. W. Bayn made a trip to Prineville Friday with cream. Mr. Bayn says "cream has raised in price but that a pound of cream does not yet pay for one gallon of gasoline."

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

Mrs. George Whitsett gave a delightful party recently in honor of her little daughter Marie's sixth birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing games and the fun ran high. A peanut hunt resulted in the first prize going to Gladys Kissler and Catheryn Truesdale who tied for first place. The delectable of luncheons was served consisting of jello and whipped cream and a wonderful birthday cake, sandwiches and cocoa. The children invited were Maxine Wurzweller, Gladys Kissler, Hugh Alden Miller, Catheryn Truesdale, Evelyn Kissler, Harriett Agee, May Alise, Fay Foster, Verleen and Katherine Oliver, Oran Charlton Foster.

business caller in Deschutes and Tumalo Friday.

W. C. Cooley of Tumalo is having some dental work done in Bend this week.

Mrs. F. S. Stanley and Mrs. H. Wall of Deschutes were visitors at Mrs. O. E. Anderson's home in Pleasant Ridge Tuesday.

C. M. Redfield of Bend was a caller in Deschutes Saturday.

G. W. Jones and Edith and Lois Swalley were visitors at the W. C. Cooley home Sunday.

A. L. Saye of Bend was a business caller in this neighborhood Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe and children were visitors at the Debing home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nelson and children attended Sunday school in Deschutes Sunday.

Wade Short and Jack Brula of Deschutes were visitors in Bend Friday.

Mrs. G. M. Holten, Mrs. S. Debing and daughter Margaret of Deschutes were Bend business callers Friday.

Edith Swalley of Deschutes spent Friday evening in Tumalo.

Miss Velvora Phillips, who has been visiting her parents in Tumalo, returned to Columbia City, Oregon where she is attending school.

Mrs. C. W. Nelson of Deschutes was a visitor in Bend Wednesday.

Mr. L. Scott who has been on the sick list is improving.

Miss Marvel Cooley who has been on the sick list returned to school Thursday.

Walter Lowe of Deschutes was a visitor in Bend Friday.

Miss Freida Jeager of Bend visited the Tumalo school Thursday.

FOLEY'S HAS NEVER FAILED

January is a bad month for influenza, grippe and bronchial troubles. It is unwise to neglect the slightest cough or cold. Mrs. F. A. Gibson, 1547 College Ave., Racine, Wis., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar has never failed in giving immediate relief and I am never without it." Children like it. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

COYOTE PACK ROAMS IN GRANGE SECTION

GRANGE HALL, Jan. 25.—This neighborhood is accustomed to seeing bands of sheep and herds of cattle passing through but their eyes met an unusual sight Wednesday when a pack of coyotes yelping defiance to civilization came tearing down the P. J. Young road. No one seemed inclined to argue the question of right of way with them.

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. O. P. Dahle Thursday. The new officers elected were:

President, Mrs. Fred Reynolds; Vice President, Rolla Chase; Secretary, K. A. Nelson; Treasurer, E. E. Butler.

Mrs. O. Olanson of Bend attended the Ladies Aid Thursday at Mrs. O. P. Dahle's.

The Fred Hettman, Clarence Smith, Fred Reynolds and Julius Pedersen families enjoyed skating at the water hole Sunday.

Mrs. A. Kozman visited with Mrs. H. Selde Wednesday.

Dorothy Young, a freshman in the Bend high school spent her vacation with her grandparents on the farm.

Mr. Mosier is hauling hay to town this week.

The children in this neighborhood are anxiously looking about for English setter dogs which were lost from the owner Monday in the vicinity of the Horse cave, and whose master announced at the schoolhouse Monday that he would pay $10 reward for their return.

Mr. Boardman called at the L. C. Young home on business Monday morning.

Helene Selde has recovered from her severe illness.

Irene Van Tassel of Bend was a week end visitor with Esther Erickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Teeters of Bend were dinner guests at the H. Selde home Sunday.

Joe Peschka helped K. A. Nelson haul hay Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Young visited with the P. J. Young family Sunday.

Helene Selde visited Mable Boardman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Erickson and daughter, Esther and Irene Van Tassel dined at the Ellington home Sunday.

Bennett and Edward Young visited Frank Nelson Sunday.

Dorothy Young visited the school in this neighborhood Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Condon is spending a few days at his home four miles north east of Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dickey called at the Carter home Sunday.

Charlie Lowe called on Mr. Selde last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Chase spent Saturday at the ranch where they expect to move soon.

Mr. Carter cut a bee tree Saturday which he located last summer. He not only got a nice lot of honey but was also able to save the bees.

Mary McClain visited at the Pavick home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Young visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rasmussen Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Carter and his son, Freddie went to Bend Saturday.

Mable and Laurine Boardman called on Mary McClain Sunday.

Mrs. William Reynolds accompanied her son Fred and family to town Saturday.

Adolph Kozman was a business visitor in Bend Wednesday.

WATER FAMINE FELT AT PLEASANT RIDGE

PLEASANT RIDGE, Jan. 24.—Several of the farmers in this neighborhood are running short of water and are obliged to take their stock to the river. On account of the long spell of cold weather it has been impossible to run any water in the Swalley ditch.

Mr. Spencer of Tumalo was a business caller at the Anderson ranch on Wednesday.

Rasmus Peterson started buling hay again Saturday after being held up several days by the cold weather, but had the misfortune to break down so will be unable to do any more baling until repairs can be obtained for the machine.

Ed Swalley was in Bend on business Wednesday.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson spent Friday visiting Mrs. F. S. Stanley at Deschutes.

Mrs. H. T. Mikkelsen was called to Deschutes Saturday evening to take care of Mrs. Ole Hanson who