A MENACE TO GOOD GOVERNMENT

In any list of the newspaper men of the nation the name of William Allen White, editor of the Emporia (Kansas) Gazette would stand well near the top. Ever since the day, some 20 years ago, when he wrote his famous editorial on "What's the Matter With Kansas," containing the phrase about the state's raising less hell and more wheat his development as a leader of American thought has been rapid. All this being so his opinion of the Ku Klux Klan is very much worth while.

That opinion as recently set forth in his newspaper and clipped by us from the Pendleton Tribune is as follows:

"An organizer of the Ku Klux Klan was in Emporia the other day and the men whom he invited to join his band at $10 per join turned him down. Under the leadership of Dr. J. B. Brickell, and following their own judgment after hearing his story, the Emporians told him that they had no time for him. The proposition seems to be anti-foreigners, anti-Catholic, anti-negro.

"There are, of course, bad foreigners and good ones; good Catholics and bad ones, and all kinds of negroes. To make a case against a birthplace, a religion or a race is wicked, un-American and cowardly. The whole trouble with the Ku Klux Klan is that it is based upon such deep foolishness that it is bound to be a menace to good government in any community. Any man fool enough to be Imperial Wizard would have power without responsibility and both without any sense.

"That is social dynamite. American institutions, our courts, our legislators, our executive officers are strong enough to keep the peace and promote justice and good will in the community. If they are not, then the thing to do is to change these institutions and do it quickly, but always legally. For a self-constituted body of moral idiots who would substitute the findings of the Ku Klux Klan for the processes of law to try to better conditions would be a most un-American outrage, which every good citizen should resent.

"It is to the everlasting credit of Emporia that the organizer found no suckers with $10 each to squander here.

"Whatever Emporia may be otherwise, it believes in law and order and absolute freedom under the Constitution for every man, no matter what birth or creed or race he may claim, to speak and meet and talk and act as a free, law-abiding citizen.

"The picayunish cowardice of a man who would substitute clan rule and mob law for what our American fathers have died to establish and maintain should prove what a cheap screw outfit the Klan is."

WHAT A NURSE DID

Every now and then there comes a story of the devotion to duty and the self sacrifice displayed by a physician or a nurse in bringing help to those in sore straits. This is not to say that in their every day work they are not doing just that sort of thing but there are occasions when their ministrations stand out in especial relief. Of such was the horse back trip from Lakeview to Silver Lake by the late Dr. Bernard Daly at the time of the Silver Lake Christmas eve fire. The trip and the succeeding hours spent by the physician in caring for the sufferers stand out as the biggest thing in the life of that remarkable man.

Another such story has just come to hand from the Klamath country, possibly not entirely so striking, but in its way just as big and fine. It is of the Klamath county nurse, Miss Lydia Fricke.

Receiving the news that a family on Klamath marsh, 23 miles from the railroad at Kirk, was in a sick and destitute condition, the intrepid woman started to aid them. From Kirk she expected to cover the remaining distance by sled or other conveyance but found the roads impassible and was advised to abandon the venture. This she refused to do and securing the aid of five men, and armed with provisions they set out to cover the weary miles on snowshoes and skis. This was the first attempt at skiing by the nurse, and she was well worn out at the end of eight miles, so the party found a cabin with a stove where they camped Friday night. Meantime two of the members who could make more speed on snowshoes went on ahead with provisions. Miss Fricke and the rest of the party reached the Lenz ranch Saturday night, and made their way to their destination on Sunday.

"They found," continues the Klamath Record, "several of the children ill, no medicine, the most meager personal clothing imaginable, and no food with the exception of a few beans and biscuits. The family consisted of the mother, four children, one uncle and one boarder. Such relief as could be given was furnished, and Miss Fricke has again returned safely to Klamath Falls!"

Hats off to Miss Fricke, we say.

Apparently the Ku Klux Klan intends to try to gain its ends by whatever means it can put its hand to. The menace of its activity to the American institutions of religious freedom and tolerance and to our national solidarity goes far beyond the personal fortunes of any individual. The Bulletin will fight it to the last.

George Currey, who does a good job editing the Baker Herald, says that if he were running for governor it would be on a platform creating what would amount to a commission-manager form of government for the state and the counties. It may come some day.

Thirty nine cities in Oklahoma recently engaged in a competition to decide which was the best one in the state in which to live and rear a family. There's an idea for the cities of some other state to act on.

Fifteen Years Ago

(From the columns of The Bulletin of March 22, 1907.)

F. E. Dayton of Laidlaw has been appointed deputy assessor for the west side of Crook county and has begun the regular yearly canvass.

The extension of the phone line into Sisters will be completed this week.

The Columbia Southern Irrigation Company is apparently up against the real thing at last. The trouble that has existed between that company and the state land board and the settlers has come to a head and Attorney General Crawford has been instructed to bring proceedings against the company to force it to fulfill its contract, failure to do which will result in forfeiture.

Joe Bucholz this week received a scraper for use on his ranch.

Henry Linster recently purchased 40 acres of ditch land opposite the Wilkinson place east of town, and is now having it cleared. He is building a bunk house and barn.

Misses Ruth Reid and Merion Weist were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Smith at their home on the Tumalo over the week end.

A. B. Estebenet has made application to the city council for a saloon license.

SNOW 8 FEET DEEP AT LAKES, REPORTED

Ice Thick, But Soft, Says Henry Linster, Jr.—Predicts Early Season at Newberry Crater.

Snow at East and Paulina lakes is eight feet deep, while ice on the lakes is from a foot to four feet thick, but already soft, reports Henry Linster, Jr., who with his brother, Will, returned Monday from the Newberry crater. He predicts a fairly early season at the lakes.

Linster started from Bend last week to investigate a report that fire had been seen over the crater rim, indicating that the summer hotel or cabins at East lake might have been destroyed. He found no evidence of any trouble on his arrival, and neither his father nor his brother, who have been at the lakes for some time could give any explanation of the basis for the report.

No travel by auto is possible after leaving the La Pine road, Linster said. The return trip from the lakes was especially difficult as the snow was soft allowing the hikers to sink in at every step.

SPECIAL EQUALIZER AIDS BOX CAMPAIGN

Cover Design Showing Box End, And Two Page Cut of Printed Boxes Feature Issue.

As the Shevlin-Hixon Equalizer's contribution to the campaign for the use of wooden shipping containers a special number of the magazine has just been issued featuring the advantages of using wooden boxes to prevent injury to goods.

As a novel and attractive cover design a finely detailed copper half tone of a shipping box is presented. A shipping tag, "To the users of Shipping Containers, Anyplace, The World, from The Shevlin-Hixon Equalizer, Bend, Oregon," gives the title. The tag also bears the inscription, "Use Only Good Wood Boxes." The cover as well as a two page cut of boxes manufactured and printed by The Shevlin-Hixon Company, was worked out by Frank R. Prince, editor of the magazine.

$4,344.48 IS SECURED IN BANKRUPT SALE

With the filing of a report by Frank M. Davis, trustee in bankruptcy, showing $4,344.48 cash in hand from realization on the assets of the Farm Products Distributing Co., bankrupt, a meeting of creditors is announced to be held at the office of G. C. Morgan, referee in bankruptcy, at 10 o'clock in the morning, March 27. A dividend will be declared and allowances made to the trustee and referee, and to the attorneys in the case.

PRINEVILLE ROAD CONDITION GOOD

The highway to Prineville is already in almost perfect condition, according to Clarence Irby, who made the round trip Saturday and Sunday, transporting a part of the cast of "The Gypsy Trail," presented at the Lyric Saturday night. Irby made the trip to Bend from Prineville Sunday in an hour and 10 minutes, in the Oldsmobile car belonging to J. B. Sparks.

ELEVEN WOULD BE AMERICANS

Naturalization Applicants From 10 Countries Including U. S.

Eleven applicants for naturalization who will appear before Judge T. E. J. Duffy in circuit court here April 7, are natives of 10 different countries, their applications show. On April 5, naturalization hearings will be held in Madras, and on April 6 in Prineville.

Those from Deschutes county seeking American citizenship and the lands of their birth are: Hendrick J. Craner, Holland; Carl Hansen, Denmark; John Rikkenberg, Norway; Clifford T. Cline, United States; Dragan W. Mirich, Austria; Antonio Zompelli, Italy; John McKenzie, Scotland; Oscar E. Martinson, Sweden; Dan M. Angland, Ireland; Norman W. Boles, Canada; and Merle D. Enloe, United States. With the exception of Zompelli who lives in Redmond, and Hansen, a rancher of the Tumalo section, all give Bend as their place of residence.

CENTRAL OREGON PIONEER CALLED

Mrs. Bertha Pedersen, aged 67, died Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of her son, Julius Pedersen, north of Bend. Cause of death was given as myocarditis, rheumatism being a contributing cause.

Mrs. Pedersen, born in July, 1854, came to Central Oregon with her husband, for 26 years a minister in the Lutheran church, and her son, Julius, in 1903, locating in what is now the Grange Hall district. A few months after, her husband, for whose health the move from Butte, Montana, was made, died. Mrs. Pedersen had continued to make her home with her son for the remaining years of her life.

Funeral services were held from the ranch home at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Stenseth of the Lutheran church, officiating. Burial was at Pilot Butte cemetery.

1922 LICENSES FOR ANGLERS ARE HERE

The law abiding Bend fisherman who starts on April 15, the opening day of the season, in quest of trout, will carry in his pocket a white slip of paper, printed with brown ink, with a green serial number in the corner. That's the description of the new fishing licenses received at the R. N. Buchwalter sport store. Last year the paper was colored. This year it's a white and costs three dollars. So does the hunting permit, while the combination cuts the total of the two by one dollar. Aside from the difference in figures they all look alike this year.

Free School of Experience

Several of the largest manufacturers in the U. S. have joined in a campaign of free education, taking in the entire country. Educators with moving pictures will conduct a program in Bend for two days—

Friday and Saturday, March 24 and 25

Each day from 3 p. m. to 9:30 p. m.

Subjects of vital interest to the owners of FORD CARS, TRUCKS and TRACTORS, and of equal interest to those who contemplate the purchase of same. Such subjects as the following will be included:

Ignition—Magneto, vibrator coil, difficulty in starting motor, commutator troubles, advanced and retarded spark, adjustments under various conditions, etc., etc.

Carburetion—Combustion, compression, perfect and imperfect mixtures, how to eliminate grief, etc.

Lubrication—Wasting oil, cooling system, causes of overheating, changing oils, stopping motor, etc., etc.

Implements—Operation and purposes of all kinds, obtaining traction, cutting costs of operation, seeding, cultivation, etc.

Power Farming and Other Utilities—Widening the margin between cost and selling price and thus producing greater profit for man who cultivates soil.

Trained experts will discourse on the above subjects and answer questions. Every person attending these meetings is sure to be well repaid for the time spent.

This is not a scheme or plan to sell you something. It is simply a sincere effort to be helpful to owners of Ford equipment—to broaden their knowledge and thus eliminate expense of operation.

The meetings are open from 3 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. on both Friday and Saturday, March 24 and 25.

The public is welcome—ask any of the Ford dealers shown below for tickets if you have not received one.

Meeting will be held at Salesrooms of Central Oregon Motor Co., corner of Bond Street and Greenwood Avenue, Bend, Ore.

The "IF" in life is either a triumph or a defeat... IF we are prepared for a situation, we triumph. IF we are unprepared, it means defeat.

Now there is one essential in which every business, or individual need be prepared. It is in a good banking connection.

Many folks (even some business firms) think of a bank only as a place to deposit money for safe keeping. This, of course, should be the last consideration.

First, good banking connections place at the command of the customer valuable knowledge and experience of men specialized in business affairs.

They also put him in a position to receive the financial assistance and active cooperation of all departments of a commercial banking service.

So be it either a small individual saving deposit—or the opening of a new business account, we welcome you and place at your convenience all the modern banking facilities of this institution.
