

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

C. W. Nelson of Deschutes is spending the day in Bend.
 C. E. Erwin of Redmond was in Bend yesterday on business.
 E. B. Williams of Powell Butte is a business visitor in Bend today.
 P. P. Schmidt was a passenger on the stage for Silver Lake this morning.
 Miss Maybelle Boyer returned this morning from a short visit in Portland.
 F. W. McCaffery of Powell Butte returned this morning from a trip to Portland.
 Carl A. Johnson returned this morning from a short business trip to Portland.
 Mrs. J. P. Koyas left last night for Portland, to attend the grand opera concert this week.
 C. E. Davis, local plumber, was taken seriously ill last night while on his way to Bend from Portland.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Tanaka are parents of a girl baby, born last night. Tanaka is a railroad section foreman.
 J. H. Meister, logging superintendent for The Shevlin-Hixon Company, returned this morning from a trip to Portland.
 The Boy Scout basketball team will play against the B. A. A. C. Juniors Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the gymnasium.
 Illness has caused the postponement of the tea which was to have been given by the ladies of the Baptist church at the J. S. Ayres home tomorrow.
 Rev. C. W. Du Bois of the Episcopal church, will be in Bend Sunday, March 26, and will hold services at the Adventist church at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.
 W. L. Dutton, grazing examiner for the Blue Mountain group of national forests, left last night to return to headquarters in Baker, after spending a day in Bend.
 R. S. Hamilton left last night for Salem, to represent the Bend school board in the appeal of the Paulson case before State Superintendent of School J. A. Churchill, this afternoon.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Schachterle have named their baby boy, born Sunday, Chester Leroy. He weighed 7½ pounds. Schachterle is a machinist, employed by the Central Oregon Motor Co.
 Paul C. King went to Salem last night to represent Mark A. Paulson in his appeal against the decision of County Superintendent J. Alton Thompson, upholding the Bend school board's action in discharging Paulson for insubordination.

Tuesday—

Harry Heising of Sisters is in Bend today on business.
 W. L. Harnan of Portland is in Bend today on business.
 Regular music assemblies were held at the high school Monday.
 Don A. Slaughter of Deschutes is a business visitor in Bend today.
 N. G. Jacobson is spending the day in Bend from his home at Sisters.
 A. F. Larson returned this morning from a short visit to Portland.
 A junior high school assembly was held at the high school auditorium today.
 W. A. Dawson was a passenger to Silver Lake this morning on the stage.
 Mike Merg is a business visitor in Bend today from his ranch north of town.
 The Bend Study club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Carl A. Johnson.
 Mrs. J. M. Herbert left last night for Portland, to attend the grand opera concert.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warren are the parents of a seven pound girl baby, born yesterday.
 Mrs. John Besson went to Portland last night to attend the concert of the Chicago Grand Opera company.
 W. P. Myers, local attorney, went to Portland last night on business, expecting to return Thursday or Friday.
 Mrs. W. B. Armstrong returned last night from Geneseo, Ida., where she was called by the death of her father.
 The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jackson, who has been seriously ill with grippe, is reported to be improving today.
 Miss Alice D. Spalding, manager of The Altamont hotel, returned last night from a visit of several weeks in California.
 Carl A. Johnson, sales manager for the Sixped Transmission Co., went to Portland last night on a short business trip.
 Harle J. Sanders, who went to Portland last week for an operation on the arm which was injured over a year ago, returned this morning.

Bob Lewellen has returned from Portland where he went to consult an eye specialist. He will have to make another trip shortly, he states.
 H. A. Gillis, manager of the shipping department of The Shevlin-Hixon Company, left last night for Portland to spend a few days on business.
 Mrs. Amelia Aya returned last night to her home at Everett, Wash., after visiting with her daughter, Mrs. William Montgomery, since the holidays.
 Mrs. W. A. Carnog went to Portland last night to visit for two weeks. Her husband is a fireman on the night switch engine in the local yards.
 Miss Helen Titzel arrived in Bend this morning from Portland, where she has been attending St. Mary's academy. She is ill, and will be under the care of a physician here.
 The ladies of the Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. P. Myers, 34 Portland avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.
 Mrs. Agnes Sheridan left last night for Seattle, where she will visit during the spring vacation with her daughter, Mary Agnes Sheridan, who is attending the University of Washington.
 W. S. Fleming of Portland, plumbing and heating contractor, was in Bend yesterday on business in connection with the construction of the St. Charles hospital. He returned last night to his home.
 Mrs. G. A. Garske has returned to Bend from Seattle where she has been since Christmas visiting her son Ben, a graduate of the Bend high school, now a student at the University of Washington.
 Mrs. M. G. Coe will have charge of the Home Service office of the Red Cross during the remainder of the week. Mrs. V. A. Forbes, secretary, leaving tonight for Portland on business. The office will be open from 1 to 5 o'clock each afternoon.
 Mrs. S. L. Hagen and her daughter, Miss Lulu Hagen, returned this morning from Salem, where they were called by the death of Mr. Hagen Friday in a hospital in that city. He had been an invalid for many months. Funeral services were held Sunday in Salem.
 Mrs. Mary Bonnell and Miss M. L. Breagan, who has been visiting her, left last night for Portland to attend the concert of the Chicago Grand Opera company. Mrs. R. A. Parsons will take Mrs. Bonnell's place as head nurse at the Lumberman's hospital during her absence.

Monday—

J. M. Stone of Deschutes spent today in Bend.
 G. H. Sedgwick of Redmond is in Bend today on business.
 S. L. Yancey of Prineville is in Bend today on business.
 L. L. Noncheater left last night for Portland, to spend a week.
 R. N. Buchwalter went to Portland last night on a short business trip.
 A. F. Larson local jeweler went to Portland last night to spend today on business.
 Mrs. Lee Downey went to Portland last night to spend several days on business.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lawlor made a trip to Prineville Saturday, returning that night.
 W. P. Vandeventer of Harper has returned from a two weeks trip to Portland and Salem.
 Mrs. Mabel Connolly of Redmond visited over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Fox.
 Warren Hirsall and Howard Davis spent the week end visiting with Davis' parents at Prineville.
 Mrs. Ethel Hill and children went to Portland last night to spend several weeks visiting with relatives.
 C. Ewert of Prineville returned to his home last night after spending several days here on business.
 J. H. Meister logging superintendent for The Shevlin-Hixon Company, went to Portland last night to spend several days.
 Ruth Shearer returned to Redmond last night, after spending the week end visiting in Bend. She is attending school in Redmond.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Staats, who have been spending a vacation in San Francisco, are expected to return to their home in a few days.
 Miss Maybelle Boyer went to Portland last night to attend the Chicago Grand Opera company's concert. Miss Boyer is employed at Mannheimers'.
 Jack Henson, who has been working in Bend for two months, left last night with his family for The Dalles, where they will make their home.

N. S. Olson and family of Redmond spent yesterday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Black, Mrs. Olson's parents. The Olsons formerly lived in Bend.
 Evelyn Lynes, who is attending school at Prineville, spent the week end visiting in Bend with her father, Pearl Lynes, manager of the Tumalo state fish hatchery.
 R. D. George left last night on a trip to Los Angeles for his health. He expected to be there for two months. George has been a resident of Bend for over 10 years.
 E. P. Mahaffey, vice president of the Central Oregon bank, who has been ill with pneumonia in Portland for several weeks, has returned to Bend, practically recovered.
 Rev. J. F. Huckleberry will begin tonight a series of revival meetings at the Baptist church, the service opening at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Ketchum will furnish special music. The public is invited.
 Mrs. A. M. Pringle went to Portland last night to attend the concert of the Chicago Grand Opera company. She was accompanied by Mrs. Guy Dupes, who has been visiting at the Pringle home for several days.
 Mr. and Mrs. Grant Swalberg, who were married in La Grande Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, arrived in Bend last night to spend their honeymoon, visiting with the bride's brothers, J. L. Carter and J. E. Carter.
 Dr. Ralph Matson, who has been in Bend for some time for his health, left last night for Portland, considerably improved. His brother, Dr. Ray Matson, came up from Portland to accompany him on the trip down. Both were in service in the recent war as medical officers.

Saturday—

Miss Lucile Van Matre of Redmond is visiting with friends in Bend today.
 Sterling Fryrear, W. F. Fryrear and B. Clark of Sisters are visitors in Bend today.
 A. P. Tauscher, physical director of the B. A. A. C., is in Portland on a short visit.
 Howard Rainey returned this morning from Portland, where he has been for over a week.
 Mrs. C. M. Rasmussen, teacher of the school in the Grange Hall district, was a visitor in the city today.
 R. N. Buchwalter will leave tomorrow for Portland to add to his stock of anglers' supplies. He will also be present at a showing of camping equipment.
 Mrs. E. C. Alexander and children arrived this morning from Hillsboro to join Mr. Alexander, who has recently purchased a ranch near Bend. He is an ex-serviceman.
 Recent purchasers of Ford cars and trucks in Bend are W. E. Redman of the Bend Dairy store, and T. A. Brennan, employe of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co.

Friday—

Ray Armstrong of Tumalo is in town today on business.
 A. M. McKinley returned this morning from a trip to Portland.
 J. M. Nye of Tumalo has returned from a visit of some months in San Francisco.
 Mrs. A. M. Pringle and son returned this morning from a visit in Portland.
 Myron Powell is expected to return today or Saturday morning from Portland.

L. W. Franks left last night for Marysville, Cal., to begin the sheep shearing season.
 Miss Helen Koopff, who has been employed as bookkeeper for the new St. Charles hospital, arrived in Bend last night from Spokane.
 The monthly meeting of the teachers of the Bend schools was scheduled for this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the high school building.
 J. H. Haner and R. D. Moore returned today from The Dalles, where they have been attending a meeting of the state tax investigation commission.
Thursday—
 Blaine Devers of Tumalo was in Bend yesterday on business.
 Mrs. B. D. Steffin visited in Bend yesterday from her home at Tumalo.
 M. R. Matthew, who has been in Bend several days on business, returned last night to The Dalles.
 Mrs. R. M. Wood returned last night from Salem, where she has been visiting for several weeks.
 C. J. Onley of Portland arrived in Bend yesterday to install an ice machine in the Oregon Meat Market.
 Dr. and Mrs. George B. Van Waters returned last night to Portland after spending several days in Bend.
 Mrs. S. L. Hagen left last night for Salem, called by the critical illness of her husband, who is in a hospital there.
 G. C. Morgan is moving his offices today to the room in the O'Neill building, on Minnesota avenue near Wall, next to the Commercial club offices.
 Dr. B. D. Stowell was given the second rank in the Knights of Pythias order at last night's meeting. J. L. Downey of the Spokane lodge was a visitor.
 E. Jackson and H. R. Holmes were passengers to Summer Lake this morning. They are to be employed in the construction of the irrigation system of the Summer lake district.
 The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church will hold their banquet at the Christian church on Newport avenue on the evening of Friday, March 17. All members and their husbands are requested to attend. An interesting program has been prepared.
DRINKS ONE PINT, LOSES HIS MEMORY
 Gus Nelson Regains It In City Jail — Tells Story To Judge And Pays $20.00 Fine.
 Gus Nelson purchased a pint of moonshine Friday. Then he drank it, all of it, as rapidly as possible. It was potent stuff for the next thing he knew it was morning and he was looking out of the city jail window. Officer Fox had made the arrest at 2 o'clock Saturday, but Nelson had not the slightest recollection of it.
 Nelson told his story to Recorder Ross Farshaw in the afternoon and paid a fine of $20.
OVERCOATS STOLEN AS OWNERS DANCE
 Four overcoats were stolen Saturday night from the ante room of Sather's hall while the Pocahontas dance was in progress, the police were informed. A number of other articles of wearing apparel were reported missing.

New Fashions for Easter

The Spring presentation of the new fashions in women's wear is now going on in our store. Only those styles which have been sponsored by exclusive manufacturers are offered to our customers.
 And coming with the new Easter season of fascinating creations, are the new low prices which will help you realize your dreams.

Spring Is Partial to Coats and Capes

You will naturally turn to Spring Wraps after selecting your new frock, not only for protection, but because such charming models are to be had, and at prices noticeably lower.
 The cape coat is unusually smart and the new cape sleeve is a Spring innovation. For sports and utility year, you will like the Polo and Velour topcoats. Prices range from $10.75 up to $39.50

Tweed Suits--The Vogue for Spring

The smartness and utility of a tweed suit can't be surpassed. Fashions may come and fashions may go, but the simple Tweed Suit will always hold its place in fashion's favor. It always retains that smartness of style, that characteristic utility that gives it an indispensable place in every wardrobe.
 What a wonderful selection we have to offer in these splendid groups at

$23.75, $28.50 and $39.50

Shoes to Set Off Spring Frocks and Suits

The new footwear displays for spring offer innumerable selections for the replenishing of your needs in smart and tasteful modes that are characteristic of the latest style developments.
 New Spring Pumps and Oxfords from Utz & Dunn, of Rochester, N. Y.
 New Patent Strap Pumps $6.75 and $6.95
 New Brown Suede Oxfords at $8.00
 New Black Suede Oxfords at $7.75
 New Brown Calf Strap Pumps at $6.75
 New Sports Oxfords; white with black calf trimmings; also white Suede with chestnut calf trimmings at $6.50 and $7.50

It Always Pays to Stop and Shop at

WARNER'S

Many new things are here that will assist you in making your Spring and Summer frocks.
 18 inch Net and Lace Vesting, cream color; per yard $3.00
 Same in maroon; per yard $1.19
 21 inch Organdie Tucking; fine grade; white; per yard $2.75
 Pleatings; an excellent selection in qualities and widths; per yard 35c, 50c, 60c and 89c

The New Laces Are Charming
 Original and unique designs in Filet and Venice Laces are here in a good range of qualities; yd. 60c, 75c, 98c, $1.25, $1.50

The new Irrescent Bead Girdles are here and priced at $1.98

See the New Lace Vests and Collar and Cuff Sets
 A new and beautiful assortment just received. Vests are priced at $1.39 to $3.95
 Collars at 49c to $2.25
 Collar and Cuff sets at 65c to $2.95

MANY PLANNING TO ATTEND SHOOT HERE

Scores of Northwest sportsmen are planning to attend the state trap-shooting tournament in Bend in June, declared R. N. Buchwalter yesterday on his return from a trip to Portland, during which he talked with a number of men who expect to be present. Business conditions are considered by wholesalers to be improving, Buchwalter stated. Much better stocks of fishing goods are available than could be secured last spring, he said. Prices of these goods have not been reduced, although other sporting goods are much lower.

BURDICK WILL ASK HOUSE SPEAKERSHIP

If reelected to the state house of representatives, Denton G. Burdick of Redmond will seek the speakership, he declared here Tuesday. He will base his candidacy on the fact that he will be the second oldest member of the house in point of service. Burdick will not formally announce his candidacy for the republican nomination for two or three weeks, he said.

Bulletin Want Ads bring results—try them.

BUSINESS BETTER SAYS O. T. OFFICIAL

Livestock Available For Shipping Largely Cleaned Out, J. T. Hardy Notes.

Business is improving steadily, was the declaration today of J. T. Hardy, traveling freight and passenger agent for the S. P. & S. on his arrival here Friday on one of his official trips to the Central Oregon country. Cattle for shipment are pretty well cleaned out in the section tributary to Bend, Hardy said, but there is still some business in this line.
 Hardy will send out a 10 car stock train from Prineville this evening, he said.

BLACKLEG VACCINE IS FURNISHED FREE

Fifteen hundred doses of government blackleg vaccine were received last week by Supervisor H. L. Plumb of the Deschutes National forest, and will be distributed free of charge to stockmen making application. As the result of thorough vaccination of young stock for the last three years, the disease has largely disappeared on the Central Oregon range, Plumb states.