

What's Doing In The Country

COMMENCEMENT TO BE HELD APRIL 23

GRANGE HALL, April 20.—The school commencement will be held Sunday, April 23, at 2:30 p. m. at the hall.

Those attending the Lutheran services in town Sunday p. m. were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. H. Helgesen and daughter, Katherine, George Erickson and family, O. P. Dahle and family, P. J. Young and family and Julius Pedersen.

Joe Peschka and M. M. Carter were helping with the wood saw at Bratt's on Tuesday.

Mrs. C. L. Smith spent the day Tuesday with Mrs. Fred Reynolds, Bennett and Edward Young bought two young kids from the Ream ranch, Tuesday.

H. Helgesen brought his daughter, Katherine, from town Saturday evening to spend the week end at her home.

Mrs. Fred Hettman and daughter Violet visited at the Julius Pedersen home Friday evening.

Roy Wornstaff of the Richardson district attended the box social at the Hoeh school Saturday evening.

Roy Boardman and family were dinner guests at the O. Armstrong home in Bend Sunday.

Joe Peschka spent Sunday at the Fred Hettman home.

A water meeting was held at the hall Friday evening.

Mrs. George Erickson will entertain the Lutheran Aid from town Thursday evening, April 20.

Mr. Coyner called on M. Carter Sunday afternoon.

S. A. Dutt has purchased a cow from E. Crow of Alfalfa.

Helene Selde accompanied Ethel Slaughter to the community dinner at Deschutes on Easter Sunday.

George Erickson and family and Fred Reynolds and family attended the program and box social at the Hoeh school Saturday night.

Rev. S. A. Stenseth of Bend has announced that he will organize services at the community hall three miles north of Deschutes next Sunday afternoon, April 23, at 2:30 o'clock.

Glady's Dahle was a visitor at the O. Lawson home in Bend Saturday night.

Mr. Golden and wife moved on the Charlie Lowe place last week.

The annual school picnic will be held Friday, April 21, at the Horse Cave.

Miss Ruth Sontum, from Portland is visiting her cousin, Miss Esther Erickson, near Grange hall.

Steve Pavick hauled hay from the C. M. Rasmussen ranch Thursday.

C. E. Dickey bought a wagon from C. L. Smith Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Young and Alvin Carter accompanied Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rasmussen to church in town Sunday afternoon.

K. A. Nelson sold a load of potatoes to J. A. Melvin last week.

Mrs. Charles Williamson called on Mrs. David Staer Monday.

Mrs. Pattie and Miss Tress A. Wells were shopping in Bend Saturday.

Mrs. John Crandall and daughter are recovering from the automobile accident which happened on the road to Bend last Tuesday. Mrs. Crandall and daughter are visiting Mrs. Crandall's brother, Bob Crandall of this vicinity.

Edward Carroll's cousin is visiting him this week.

Julius Pedersen and family were dinner guests at the Moan home Sunday.

K. A. Nelson was in town on business Friday.

P. J. Young is trying orchard heaters in his orchard this spring.

William Mead spent Sunday with his family in this neighborhood.

DANCING IS ENJOYED AT PLEASANT RIDGE

PLEASANT RIDGE, April 18.—A social gathering was held at the community hall on Saturday evening. Dancing and cards were enjoyed by those present after which a lunch consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served by the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hutchins, Mrs. George Roberts, Glen Roberts and Mrs. John Gray were shopping in Redmond on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanson of Tumalo were callers at the J. W. Peterson home on Sunday.

A large number from this neighborhood attended the Easter program and community dinner at the school house at Deschutes on Sunday.

Mrs. F. S. Stanley of Deschutes accompanied Mrs. O. E. Anderson to Redmond on Monday afternoon.

Antone Ahlstrom, Andrew Nelson and Mrs. W. H. Gray were business visitors in Bend on Monday.

Those attending the C. E. Parks sale near Deschutes on Tuesday from this neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg, Mrs. O. E. Anderson, W. J. Shannon, Alfred Pederson, Watt Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley and Mrs. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gray and daughter Margaret and Bert Moore of the Shevlin-Hixon camp were callers at the W. H. Gray home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. B. S. McKay is ill with flu. Mrs. Henderson is taking care of her. Nels Nelson came up from Portland this week on business connected with his ranch here. He was the guest of Rasmus Peterson during his stay here.

Alfred Mikkelsen returned home Friday after spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cox of Deschutes.

Mrs. John Gray and baby of Shevlin-Hixon camp are visiting for a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray.

Mr. Lewis of Deschutes was a caller in this neighborhood on Friday.

Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg spent Thursday and Friday visiting friends and relatives in Redmond.

W. H. Gray and W. B. Hutchins have been helping Cooke Bros., several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Myers of Bend were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson Monday afternoon.

Rasmus Peterson went after lumber to the Mickles mill near Plainview on Friday.

Ray Miller made a business trip up to Shevlin-Hixon camp on Wednesday.

Miss Edna Paulson and sister Paulina of Madras came down Friday evening to visit for a few days at the Rasmus Peterson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley attended the school program and community dinner at Tumalo on Friday.

Mrs. C. W. Nelson and son Warren, Mrs. Walter Lowe and children, Mrs. Ed Swalley, Mrs. Lavina Jones, Mrs. McMamon and Mrs. W. H. Gray were callers at the Anderson home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. B. Hutchins taught the Pleasant Ridge school Monday and Tuesday of this week during the absence of the teacher, Mrs. Marie Wood.

Mrs. H. T. Mikkelsen entertained a number of ladies at her home on Friday afternoon, in honor of her birthday. Those present were Mrs. W. H. Gray, Mrs. John Gray, Mrs. W. B. Hutchins, Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. Alfred Pedersen, Mrs. O. E. Anderson, Miss Hilma Nelson, Mrs. Catherine Johansen, Mrs. J. W. Peterson and Mrs. A. Teater. A delicious supper was served by the hostess.

Antone Ahlstrom made a business trip to Redmond on Saturday.

The Paulson family of Madras were Sunday visitors at the home of Rasmus Peterson.

GREAT FOR "FLU" AND "GRIP" COUGHS

"I had an awful cold that left me with a dreadful cough," says Mrs. M. E. Smith, Benton, La. "Bought Foley's Honey and Tar of our druggist and it cured me completely." This grand remedy should be in every household at this time, when influenza, grip, coughs and colds are so prevalent. Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

EYE IS INJURED BY FLYING WOOD CHIP

LOWER BRIDGE, April 18.—Mr. Maddron sustained a bad injury to his eye caused by a chip flying from a block of wood he was chopping. He is slowly improving.

Floyd Stanton and Darwin Walters are now working at the Diatomite Company plant.

W. Jack has turned his property over to the Squaw Creek Irrigation district and expects to move soon.

Mr. Delany was badly injured when a horse stepped on his foot. He went to Grandview for medical treatment.

Mrs. Churchman's mother and brother from Portland are visiting her. Jake Book made a shipment of pork to Portland.

Charles Hancock and Russel Chapman and wife motored to Redmond Saturday.

The Lower Bridge school held a declamatory contest Sunday. The contest was in preparation for the Central Oregon school day. The students who won out in the contest are: Dorothy Holmes and Friday Holmes. They will represent the Lower Bridge school in the county tryout.

Lower Bridge served its monthly community dinner Sunday. There was a large crowd and an excellent dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Mackey and children from Terrebonne were guests at Lower Bridge community dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams and family and Bill McCuing from Terrebonne were guests at the Lower Bridge community dinner.

Lower Bridge baseball association wants games with outside teams. Tom Maddron manager is putting into shape a fast nine.

SHE FINDS THEM VERY GOOD

Middle-aged men and women who have symptoms of kidney trouble will find Foley Kidney Pills a splendid help, for they relieve kidney ailments and bladder weakness. "I have tried Foley Kidney Pills and find they are very good," writes Mrs. A. Lechner, 1129 Main Ave., Clifton, New York. Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

CLOVERDALE SUNDAY SCHOOL IS OPENED

CLOVERDALE, April 20.—Thomas Arnold went to Redmond Monday evening to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' Warehouse Co.

Lois Kilgore who has been very sick with tonsillitis is much better the last few days.

A fair sized crowd attended the opening of the Sunday school here Easter Sunday. Special Easter music was sung and a solo by Mrs. Corus which was very much enjoyed. Superintendent C. Corus would like to have a larger crowd next Sunday as Rev. Hillis will preach at 3 p. m. Sunday school will be at 2 p. m.

Ray Armstrong and P. A. Scoggins of Plainview were business visitors in our community Thursday.

Thomas Harrison was a dinner guest at the home of Albion Peck Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Foley and party from Bend were Saturday afternoon callers at E. M. Peck's.

Vernon Partin treated a number of his boy friends to an egg hunt at his home Sunday.

Mr. Richardson from Bend was a Sunday visitor at G. Reiling's home.

S. E. Kline was a Redmond visitor Sunday.

Mr. Lewis of Drain, Oregon, the new proprietor of the Lyle ranch spent several days here last week looking after business interests. Esther Cyrus was unable to attend school last week on account of sickness.

Mrs. G. F. Cyrus spent the week end in Redmond with her sister, Mrs. Laura Waymire who has been quite sick with grippe for several days.

George H. Brewster and G. F. Cyrus went to Lower Bridge last Thursday on business in connection with the Squaw Creek Irrigation district.

Vern Skelton was in Redmond Tuesday for repairs for his father's car which he is overhauling.

Sterlie Fryrear, G. McAndrew and Rollie Clark went to Bend Tuesday.

E. M. Peck and Mr. Lewis of Drain, Oregon, were business visitors at the ranch of H. Scoggins in Plainview Wednesday.

Ed Spoo hauled a load of oats from H. Kilgore's ranch Saturday evening for Max Wurweiler to his ranch on the slough.

Mrs. Lund received word from her son Claud who is in the Portland eye and ear hospital, that bright hopes are entertained for the complete recovery of his eye which was so badly injured last week by a flying staple.

Several of the farmers have been hauling sulphur and land plaster from Redmond the past week. Sterlie Fryrear and Rollie Clark attended the round up in Redmond Sunday.

J. Black was in Bend several days last week having dental work done.

W. F. Fryrear was a Bend visitor Saturday.

Mrs. H. C. Miller, who has been visiting her daughters in Bend and Redmond returned here Friday.

Byron Peck, who has been quite sick the past week is reported to be improving.

Quite a number from here attended the auction sale in Plainview Monday at the ranch of L. Fox.

HE HAD THE GRIP

David Thompson, 135 Morris Ct., Scranton, Pa., writes: "I had the grip. I took Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it made me well." Druggists' sales reports show more bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar sold than of any cough medicine. Children like it. Quickly relieves colds, coughs, croup. Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

POTATOES SHIPPED TO YAKIMA, WASH.

DESCHUTES, April 20.—The Farmers' association of Tumalo is shipping a car load of potatoes this week to Yakima, Wash.

Walter Lowe was a business visitor at the J. R. Lowe ranch in Deschutes Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Myers of Tumalo purchased a new Willys-Knight car of the Deschutes garage at Redmond Saturday.

Mrs. W. Lowe and children were visitors at the Alfred Moore home in Deschutes Friday.

Arbor day was celebrated in Tumalo Friday, the children cleaning up the school yard. A community dinner was given after a program as follows: Song by Pauline Lundberg; Arbor day play, duet by Elma Clarke and Henry Lundberg. Several other plays and recitations were given and several songs by the school.

Murry M. McRae of Deschutes made a business trip to Bend Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Debing of Deschutes were Bend business callers Saturday.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson entertained the following ladies Thursday afternoon: Mrs. E. M. Swalley, Mrs. W. Lowe and children, Mrs. Gray and Mrs. McMannon.

Mrs. G. M. Holten and little daughter of Deschutes made a business trip to Bend Friday.

Mrs. W. C. Cooley and Mrs. C. W. Twet were visitors at Mrs. Martin's home in Tumalo Monday.

G. W. Jones of Deschutes was a Tumalo visitor Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Swalley and Mrs. M. E. Rogers of Tumalo were Bend visitors Tuesday.

Robert Moore of Deschutes is working for Alfred Wright of Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harvey and children of Bend were visitors at the Swalley home in Deschutes Sunday evening.

Miss Marguerite Debing was a business visitor in Deschutes Monday.

Mrs. O. E. Anderson of Pleasant Ridge was a Deschutes visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Jackson and Mr. Shannon of Bend were visitors at the Debing home Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Lowe of Deschutes visited Mrs. W. Lowe Monday.

Bill Bergstrom and Carl Lively of Deschutes attended the auction sale at Gist Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Parks of Deschutes left Sunday night for their new home in Monroe, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Swalley and Mr. and Mrs. W. Lowe and children were dinner guests at the G. M. Holten home Sunday evening.

Misses Edith and Lois Swalley of Deschutes spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Thelma Harvey of Bend.

A large crowd attended the services and community dinner at Deschutes Sunday.

Miss Genevieve Nelson of Deschutes spent Monday night with Miss Elda Jones of Tumalo.

A. Scobey of Tumalo was a visitor in Bend Saturday.

P. B. Gile of the Deschutes wood camp is confined to his home in Bend with an attack of grippe.

Fred Stephenson, who has been suffering with blood poison in his leg, is improving.

Mrs. C. W. Nelson of Deschutes was a Bend visitor Wednesday.

D. D. Stanton of Tumalo was a business caller at the Debing ranch Friday.

L. A. Brandenburg of Deschutes is going to move a house in Redmond this week. Joe Bucholtz of Bend is moving L. A. Brandenburg's house moving outfit to Redmond Sunday.

Harry McGuire and C. V. Taylor of Tumalo were business visitors in Bend Saturday.

"POLLY LOW" TO BE GIVEN AT SISTERS

SISTERS, April 20.—S. C. Bartrum, state agent for the Idaho Life Insurance Co., stopped over Sunday with Norman Jacobson and family.

The high school play, "Polly Low," will be held on the evening of April 29, at 8:00 p. m. in the school building.

A progressive card party was held Saturday evening by the American Legion. Ten tables were played and light refreshments served. Howard Hartley received the first prize, and the consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. H. K. Allen.

A dancing party will be held in the Allen hall on Saturday evening, April 22 by Whittelsay post, American Legion.

Earl Robbins went to Crooked river last week where he has a position for the summer.

Mrs. Ed Spoo spent the week end in town from their homestead on lower Squaw creek.

Misses Rose and Ruth Spoo spent Saturday evening with Mrs. Grogan at her home on the lower desert.

Mr. A. Dryden arrived in Sisters last week to will work on the highway this summer.

Misses Velma Graham and Addie and Mabel Montgomery spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Ruby South.

G. H. Brewster, superintendent of the Squaw Creek Irrigation district went to Salem on business last week.

M. W. Kniekerbocker was a business visitor in Bend Saturday.

Messrs. Edgington and Harrington are working on the Bend-Sisters highway this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Kling expect to leave Thursday for Eugene.

Vern Skelton is driving the mail stage this week as Ed Spoo is in Bend as a witness.

J. J. Wilt who is in Bend as a jurymen this week took a load of witnesses in with him Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Arnold and Miss Thelma Oiler of Claverdale attended the card party given by the Legion Saturday evening.

HER HACKING COUGH IS GONE

In these days of "flu," coughs, colds, croup, it is well to know that every year there are more bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar used than of any other cough medicine. Mrs. S. L. Hunt, 515 W. 6th St., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me of a hacking cough." Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

FIRST AUTO COMES IN FROM LAKEVIEW

Road To South Becomes Passable—Winter Continues In Other Parts of The State.

The first automobile to make the trip to Bend from Lakeview was that of M. L. Frather, who arrived here last week on his way to Portland, accompanied by his wife. They had intended to drive to Portland, but the car had to be left here for repairs.

Frather says that winter continues just as steadily at Lakeview as at Bend. Roads north from Lakeview are barely passable, he stated.

REID TEAM WINS BY 37 TO 3 SCORE

Terrific battling on the part of the Reid school baseball team resulted last Wednesday in a 37 to 3 victory over the Kenwood team. It.

Brown scored two home runs and Rollins one. Batteries were: For Reid, R. Brown and James, E. Brown; for Kenwood, Whitehead and Hanson.

CAR IS BATTERED BUT FIVE UNHURT

Although the car in which they were riding was badly battered, none of a party of five returning from a tour east of the city, was hurt when the machine, driven by L. A. W. Nixon, struck a rock at a point about 14 miles from here. With Nixon were R. P. Kuoncke, Jack Cassidy, Frank R. Prince, and Jack Herbert. The car was brought into Bend under its own power.

Pat it in The Bulletin.

This Month Only
OREGON JOURNAL
Weekly
From now until February 1, 1923
50c
Send Subscriptions to
R. D. Lehnerr,
Box 337, Bend, Ore.

Expert Tire Repairing

Cord Tire repairing our specialty. We repair cords the factory way.

SEE WILLETTS
For Satisfaction

KING BROS.

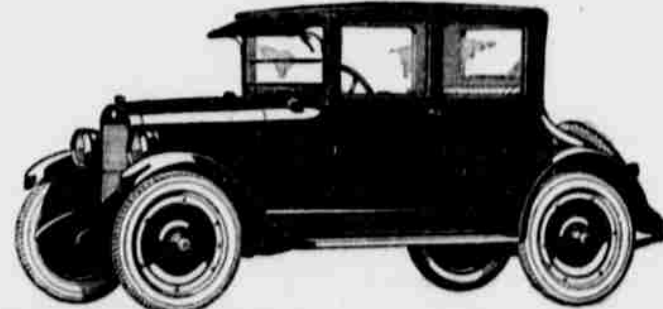

Batteries and Vulcanizing

The Good MAXWELL The High Grade Motor Car With a Low Price

The Five Passenger Sedan affords every desired comfort and convenience.

The New Maxwell line offers these four models from which to choose. Every model is finely finished and completely equipped, rendering performance that will win the favor of all who know them.

We have a Coupe here which we invite you to see and go for a ride in.

The more you investigate this little car the better you will like it. It will stand up to every test you can give it. Come and try it out then you will know for yourself.

The accessive motor power renders it pleasing to drive and lengthens it's life.

You will find the Good Maxwell the logical light car for Central Oregon. See one today. Touring and Coupe models are here for demonstration. Be convinced that the Maxwell is the greatest motor car value on the market.

THE BEND MOTOR SERVICE CO.

835 Bond Street

M. O. WILKINS, Mgr.

Phone 93J R. D. SULLIVAN, Asst. Mgr.