What's Doing In The Country

LAMBSING SEASON IS LATE AT MILACONIC

MILACONIC, May 25.—One and a half months late is the lambing season on Ora Jones's farm near here. Mrs. Jones said he has been busy all week in the corral penning ewes and superintending. He has already sold his entire flock for sale in California. Mrs. Jones said he is the only one in the vicinity to have lambs this year. Mrs. Jones said he is the only one in the vicinity to have lambs this year.

POWELL BUTTER, May 30—

Sheep market. A large number of sheep were sold in Powell today. The market was quite active, with prices ranging from $1.00 to $1.50 per head. The market was quite active, with prices ranging from $1.00 to $1.50 per head. The market was quite active, with prices ranging from $1.00 to $1.50 per head.

PROGRAM PLANNED FOR SCHOOL CLOTHES

TERREBONNE, May 24—The program for the last day of school at Terrebonne High School will be held tomorrow at 2:00 p.m. The program will feature a variety of talents, including music, drama, and dance. The program will feature a variety of talents, including music, drama, and dance. The program will feature a variety of talents, including music, drama, and dance.

NOTES FROM HOMES AT GRANGE

GRANGE BID, May 25—

Mrs. Wright and family welcomed the children and family members from Grange to their home on Tuesday. The children were happy to see their friends and had a great time. The children were happy to see their friends and had a great time. The children were happy to see their friends and had a great time.

PROGRAM DUE AT HOME AT GRANGE

GRANGE BID, May 25—

Mrs. Wright and family welcomed the children and family members from Grange to their home on Tuesday. The children were happy to see their friends and had a great time. The children were happy to see their friends and had a great time. The children were happy to see their friends and had a great time.

Lambing season is late at Milaconic. Lambing season is late at Milaconic. Lambing season is late at Milaconic. Lambing season is late at Milaconic.