

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

F. F. Beaulieu left last night for a short trip to Portland.

A. M. Pringle reports a good catch of trout at Elk lake yesterday.

John Noah was a passenger to Fort Rock on the stage this morning.

George Sedgwick of Redmond is a business visitor in Bend today.

H. D. Hamilton went to Portland last night to spend several days.

E. Pearl returned this morning from a short business trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoelscher of Prineville were in Bend yesterday on business.

W. H. Staats, local real estate man, is in Portland for a few days' business trip.

Everett Quigley left last night for Yamhill and coast towns, to visit with relatives.

Ralph Lucas has accepted a position with the Union Oil Co., at its new plant here.

Frank Sheffeld left yesterday for Canyon City, to attend the celebration there this week.

Vernon Gould of the Bend post-office is leaving for Bear Creek Buttes to spend his vacation.

Carl A. Johnson and Ernest Dick are in The Dalles on business for the Bend Transmission Co.

Miss Jewel Oxy of Metolius spent yesterday shopping in Bend, returning last night to her home.

Miss Nellie Clayton, nurse at a local hospital, left last night for Portland to visit for a short time.

L. B. Baird, manager of the Bend Brick Co., and Joe Albright, contractor, spent yesterday in Prineville.

Dr. Barney Ferrell is in charge of the Lumberman's hospital during the absence from the city of J. D. Donovan.

County Commissioners M. W. Knickerbocker of Sisters and M. C. Conlon of Redmond were in Bend yesterday.

J. H. Meister, logging superintendent for the Shevlin-Hixon company, left last night for a short business trip to Portland.

William T. Simmons sustained a badly bruised leg yesterday when he was struck by falling lumber at the Shevlin-Hixon plant.

E. J. Catlow and E. Turnmire will be given the first rank by the local Knights of Pythias lodge at tonight's meeting at Sather's hall.

Mrs. Wayne Chase of Redmond visited Bend yesterday with her husband, who is in a local hospital following a recent operation.

John Steidl went to Portland last night to return with his wife, who has been ill for several months in the Portland Medical hospital.

Miss Helen Titzel returned this morning from Portland, where she has been attending St. Helen's Hall, to spend the summer at her home here.

Mrs. L. E. Barger and daughter, Geraldine, arrived in Bend last night from their home at Forsyth, Mont., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. Lindenberg.

Mrs. H. K. Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weinhardt Wagner Jr., of Portland, who have been her guests here, left yesterday to drive to Portland.

Ralph Hauser returned last night from Portland, where he has been attending Columbia university. He will be employed in the county clerk's office for the present.

The body of Mrs. H. R. Ackerman of Silver Lake, which was brought to Bend Monday night, was shipped last night to Portland for burial today. Mr. Ackerman accompanied his wife's remains.

Miss Helen Mahoney, a member of the senior class which was graduated last week from the Bend high school, has taken a position as stenographer in the office of the Deschutes County Abstract Co.

Good catches of fish at the Cove Sunday were reported by a party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Cassie Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loree, I. J. Bell, Cortley Allen and A. J. Morse.

W. T. McNulty, principal of the Sisters high school for the past year, was in Bend yesterday on his way to his home in Seattle, where he will spend the summer. He does not contemplate returning to Sisters.

A. G. Cholick, cashier of the La Pine State bank, Mrs. Cholick and children were in Bend yesterday on their way to Portland to spend several days. Mr. Cholick on business and Mrs. Cholick visiting with friends.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Arnold that their 11-year-old son Robert, who left here Saturday morning to make the trip to Chicago alone, arrived there yesterday and was met by his grandmother and his aunt.

Charles Loster and Joseph Hill went to Lamb's camp, near Kirk, on the Klamath Falls stage this morning.

K. M. Phillips and James Spiros were passengers to Chiloquin, F. E. Olson and John Goodall to Madoc, and H. E. Smith to Klamath Falls.

Mrs. E. R. Ryan left last night for the east to visit for some time. Her husband, who has been visiting here from McCloud, Cal., started on the return trip to that place at the same time. Mrs. Ryan will return to Bend before going to McCloud to make her home.

A. W. Lewis of Silver Lake was in Bend yesterday, leaving last night for Portland on business, and to visit his partner, J. O. Diemer, who is in a hospital there, suffering from internal injuries sustained when his truck went into a ditch on the road in Lake county. Diemer being thrown against the steering wheel.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Stephens and Dr. C. H. Sull arrived in Bend this morning from Monroe, Wash., to visit with Mrs. Stephens' sister, Mrs. J. C. Rhodes. Dr. Sull was formerly a practicing physician here. They will leave Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes for San Francisco, to attend the Shriners' convention.

Tuesday—

M. L. Hinds of Millican is in Bend today on business.

W. C. Hollinshead of La Pine is in Bend today on business.

Harry J. Fissell returned last night from a trip to Prineville.

T. J. Quigley of Redmond is spending today in Bend on business.

Mrs. Fred Shintaffer of La Pine is visiting with Mrs. M. L. Beasley.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Fisher of 236 St. Helens are parents of a baby boy, born Saturday evening.

Arthur Vandever has returned from Kentucky, where he has been attending a medical school.

Mrs. Alta C. Cullison, who was operated on recently at a local hospital, is reported to be doing well.

Mrs. C. W. Nelson, who was operated on recently at a local hospital, is reported to be doing well.

Miss Marjorie Money left yesterday for Paisley to take a position as assistant cashier in the bank there.

E. Pearl went to Portland last night to spend one day, expecting to return to Bend Wednesday morning.

John Sather, who has been visiting with his parents here, left last night for Portland, where he is in business.

Mrs. May Hill, E. Hill, Mack Ling and M. Tiftson were passengers to Silver Lake on the stage yesterday.

Dr. W. G. Manning and J. E. Rand made a good catch of trout at Heising's ranch on the Metolius Sunday.

N. G. Davis, who spent the week-end visiting with his son here, left yesterday for his home at Prineville.

M. W. Chase, who was operated on at a local hospital several weeks ago, will be able to return to his home soon.

Mrs. J. P. Keyes and daughters left last night for Seattle, where they will visit for a week with Mrs. Keyes' sister.

Rev. S. A. Stenseth left last night for Minneapolis, to attend the conference of the Norwegian Lutheran church.

Rev. J. Edgar Purdy, A. J. Erickson, Robert Keyes and Claire Payne left yesterday to drive to Yosemite park, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Prater are parents of a nine-pound baby boy, born Monday morning at their home on Columbia avenue.

Ferdinand Hagedorn of Sisters returned to his home yesterday after spending a week in a local hospital, following an operation.

C. T. Holm has taken a position as linotype operator for The Bulletin, succeeding James O'Neil, who left Sunday for Walla Walla.

Mrs. H. E. Beach and daughter Jean and sons, Pierce and Stanley, left last night for Santa Cruz, Cal., to visit with Mrs. Beach's parents.

Earl Tucker of Madras is visiting in Bend today with his mother. Tucker played on the Madras baseball team in the game here Sunday.

Lyman G. Rice is spending a few days in Bend, recuperating from his work on the state bonus commission during the winter and spring months.

Mrs. Marvin Pearce and little son left last night for their home in Portland, after visiting with Mrs. Pearce's mother, Mrs. C. E. Greison, for some time.

L. Parks and Steve Cramer for Kirk, J. E. Moore to Klamath Falls and H. C. Gizan to Chiloquin, were passengers on the Klamath Falls stage yesterday.

C. Camphome, A. Cossalton and L. Franks were passengers to Silver Lake this morning on the stage. John Menzies and J. F. Kirtheim went to La Pine.

Leland Casey, cattleman of Powell Butte, was in Bend last night on his way from his ranch south of Bend, to Prineville, his former home, to view the ruins of last week's fire.

Rev. F. H. Beard, pastor of the Baptist church, and son, Clyde, his brother, J. E. Beard, and Charles Wells, both of Pendleton, are on a fishing trip to Crane Prairie.

Mrs. C. Hall and little daughter arrived in Bend this morning from McMinnville to join Mr. Hall, who is manager of the new Union Oil Co. tank and warehouse plant.

Mrs. Thurlow M. Gordon, who has been visiting in Bend for several days with her brother, Robert W. Sawyer, left last night for her home at Forest Hills Gardens, Long Island.

A. J. Teeple, a civil engineer, has brought his family to Bend to live, from Okanogan, Wash. Mrs. Teeple expects to open a music studio here, teaching both vocal and instrumental music.

Mrs. W. J. Sproat, formerly of Bend, who visited here over the week-end, left last night for Prineville, where she is visiting with her father. Her home now is at Republic, Wash.

H. A. Cleveland, caretaker of the Bend camp ground, returned this morning from a trip to Portland, where he was given an examination in connection with his disability claim with the Veterans' bureau.

A. J. Welton, A. J. Derby of the United Contracting Co., and C. M. Redfield of the Tumalo irrigation project went to Crescent lake yesterday on business in connection with the proposed storage dam there.

S. R. Barker arrived in Bend last night from Liberty, Wash., where he is a sawyer in a lumber mill. He recently suffered a smashed foot, and is here to visit with his cousin, A. J. Welsh, while recovering from the injury.

Mrs. William F. Tromblee returned to her home at Wyet today, after visiting for two weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hoover. Her sister, Mildred Hoover, went with her to Wyet, to visit for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Dart and daughter have returned from Portland, where they were 19 days ago. Mrs. Dart was delegate from the Woman's Civic league of Bend to the state convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, at Tillamook last week.

Miss Laura Rand, music teacher in the Bend schools during the past school year, left last night for her home in Hood River, accompanied by her parents, who visited her here over the week-end, and Mrs. A. Whitehead, who was here as a guest of Mrs. F. Demont.

Larry Hagen, adjutant of Jerce A. Stevens Post, American Legion, who has been employed by the Deschutes County Abstract Co., has taken a position in the freight office of the D. W. and Oregon Trunk railways here. Agent J. C. Wright says that Hagen will also be adjutant at the station. He takes the position recently created as a result of increased freight business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Simpson left this morning for Canyon City, their former home, to attend the 50th anniversary celebration of the discovery of gold in that vicinity. A celebration which will recall the frontier days is planned, including pony express races. Prizes will be in gold dust. It will be a unique celebration in that no concessions have been let to anyone, according to Simpson.

Monday—

Mrs. H. C. Chapman of Prineville visited in Bend Saturday.

C. H. Knowles reports a good catch of trout at Suttles lake yesterday.

Chris Tweedt of Tumalo had his tonsils removed at a local hospital on Saturday.

J. D. Donovan and family are on a trip to Los Gatos, Cal. They expect to be gone for several weeks.

J. O. Gibson and family drove to Prineville yesterday to look at the ruins left by Thursday's fire.

Arno Drew, Boston wool buyer, left yesterday for Eastern Oregon, after spending several days here.

John Sather, formerly of Bend, now in the grocery business in Portland, is a visitor here with his parents.

Myrl Hoover, fire department engineer, severely injured his right hand in cranking a car at the fire station yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hoover and family drove to Prineville yesterday to look at the ruins left by the fire of last Thursday.

C. P. Niswonger made a good catch of trout at East lake last week. He reports a six mile hike is still necessary to reach the lake.

T. H. Foley, manager of the Bend Water Light & Power Co., left this morning for Boise, accompanied by his family, to visit for some time.

Wild hay will give way to a grain crop on 80 acres of meadow land on the Vandever ranch at Harper this year. Plowing is now under way.

Miss Emily Miller, domestic science teacher in the Bend high school for the past two years, left on Saturday night for her home in Portland.

Steve Brooks lost the third finger on his left hand Saturday in an accident at Shevlin-Hixon Camp No. 1. He is at the Lumberman's hospital.

Miss Virginia Stewart, teacher in the Bend high school for the past two years, left on Saturday night for her home in Kansas City, Mo., to spend the summer.

Mrs. S. A. Lucas and son Russell left Saturday night for Spokane, where they will visit for a short time, then going to Omaha, Neb., to visit with Mrs. Lucas' parents. They will return to Bend in two months.

Chester A. Klink, manual training teacher in the Bend high school during the past year, and Homer Sibley, who has been visiting with Klink for several days, left yesterday to drive to their homes in Portland, to spend the summer.

June Suggests Silk Hosiery--

and Hosiery suggests this, the Hosiery Store of Bend

Women everywhere are now diligently matching beautiful, lustrous Silk Stockings with the best of their lovely summer wearables. Mannheim's has long ranked first as the Hosiery Store of Bend by virtue of the broad variety of unfailing quality of our Hosiery stocks.

And now we are ready as never before to answer your every hosiery need.

Pure Silk Stocking—Fine quality and unique designs that are decidedly unusual. Pair, $1.20.

At $2.98 and $3.50 you'll find an assortment of New Novelty Full-Fashioned Silk Hosiery; some with Persian colored tops; some with clocks; the newest shades.

At $1.55 are fine quality Pure Silk Hosiery, in white gray, flesh, mouse and beaver.

Heavy thread Silk Hosiery—featuring exquisite Summer shades and an unusual wearing quality.

At $4.50 exquisite new Lace Clocked Silk Hosiery.

Holeproof Lisle Hose at 50c pair.

Holeproof Lisle Extra Stretch Top Hose at 75c pair.

Holeproof Lisle Extra Stretch Top Hose, outsizes, at 85c pair.

Holeproof Silk Extra Stretch Top Hose at $1.65 pair.

Holeproof Silk Extra Stretch Top Hose, outsizes, at $1.95 pair.

For the June Bride--

Here you will find all those things down even to the finest accessories which any store can carry with a view to serving properly and in a complete way, the wants of the pretty brides-to-be in June. Your happiness is to lie in the future surely, and we wish to outfit you happily. Don't fail to secure unto yourself the greatest store of pleasure and happiness possible, which may come from your wearing faultless attire for your wedding and on your honeymoon.

It Always Pays to Stop and Shop at

SUNNY SMILE SALE

Ends Saturday, June 10

We List Here a Few Extra Specials for Saturday Only:

Curtain Remnants Half-Price

A big lot of short lengths will be sold at half price.

Kute Kuts--Play Suits, 95c

Limit, two suits to a customer.

Bathing Suits, 99c

Three dozen Suits will be placed on sale at 99c. Sizes 10 years to 44 bust.

Children's White Ribbed Hose, 7 pairs $1.00

A big value. Sizes 6 1/2 to 9 1/2. Limit seven pair to a customer.

Men's Unions, 49c

Sizes 34 to 36 only. Saturday only, per suit.....49c

James O'Neil, who has been employed for nearly two years by The Bulletin as circulation manager and linotype operator, left Sunday for Walla Walla, where he will be associated with his brother, Hugh O'Neil, also a former Bulletin employe, in newspaper.

Rev. S. A. Stenseth, pastor of the Lutheran church, will leave tonight for Minneapolis, Minn., to attend the triennial conference of the Norwegian Lutheran church of America, to be held there June 15 to 25. He will also visit his mother at Starbuck, Minn. Rev. Edward Hecker of Hope, Idaho, will conduct the absence services in Rev. Stenseth's absence.

Saturday—

E. H. Ordway of Redmond is in Bend today.

L. C. Gist of Sisters is spending the day in Bend.

Mrs. Mary Bollinger of Silver Lake was in Bend yesterday.

C. E. Johnson of Alfalfa is in Bend on business today.

Mrs. H. Burton and daughter of Silver Lake were in Bend yesterday.

M. L. Hinds and Howard F. Dyer of Millican are in Bend today on business.

G. Evringham and P. Evringham went to La Pine on the stage this morning.

Mrs. Mary Bonnall returned this morning from a visit of several days in Portland.

Father Francis of Burns arrived in Bend this morning from Portland, on his way home.

Mrs. Catherine Manny left last night for Berkeley, Cal., where she will spend the summer.

Mrs. Wilma Ballantyne has accepted a position as cashier in the J. C. Penney Co. store here.

Mrs. Ivan G. Thatcher and children will leave Sunday evening for Billings, Mont., to visit for a month.

W. G. Fordham, A. G. Cholick and several other men from La Pine were expected to come to Bend this afternoon.

Miss Wanda Keyt, who has been a teacher at the Reid school for the past two years, left last night for Portland.

Miss Mary E. Cody, who has been teaching in the Bend high school during the past year, left last night for Seattle.

Miss Lorena Phelps left for Portland last night. She has been a teacher at the Reid school for the past two years.

Miss Lois Kellogg, who has been teaching at the Kenwood school, left last night for her home in Eugene, to spend the summer.

Miss Eva Howard, who has been teaching in the schools here, left last night for her home in Portland, to spend the summer.

Miss Helen Abel, high school teacher here during the past year, left last night for her home at Portland, to spend the summer.

Mrs. Thurlow M. Gordon, of Forest Mills, N. Y., arrived last evening for a few days visit at the home of her brother, Robert W. Sawyer.

Miss Avis Fisher, teacher in the Reid school during the past year, will leave tomorrow for her home in Spokane, to spend the summer.

Misses Mabel Yensen and Mary Ellen Yensen left last night for their home, after spending the past school year as teachers in the Bend schools.

Miss Alberta Dryden, teacher in the local schools during the past year, left last night for her home at Peck, Ida., to spend the summer.

Mrs. Jack Horton and little daughter returned today from a visit to Pendleton. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wells, accompanied her.

Miss Lena Deeg left last night for Portland, to spend the summer. She has been English instructor in the Bend high school during the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Leston Linebaugh of Silver Lake arrived in Bend last night. Mrs. Linebaugh being here to

(Continued on last page.)