

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Claude Kelley is in Portland for examination by the veterans' bureau.

Mrs. E. L. Clark of La Pine, with her two children, is visiting in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Jacobson left last night for Chicago to be gone for several weeks.

Mrs. Anna Bryant and daughter are visiting for a few days with friends in Redmond.

T. H. Fenlason of Shevlin-Nixon Camp 1, is in Portland for treatment by an eye specialist.

Mrs. J. Charles Smith will leave tonight for New York on a buying trip for the Parisian store.

My and Mrs. Charles Haines have gone to Portland where Mr. Haines will receive medical treatment.

F. F. Hubbard and family are leaving this evening by auto for the Willamette valley where they intend to locate.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Lutheran church will meet this evening with Mrs. Edwin Johnson at her home at 294 Jefferson Place.

J. W. Foster, formerly of Bend, arrived in the city this morning driving in from Portland. He will spend several days fishing in the vicinity of Bend before returning to his home.

After conferring with the engineer and director of the Tumalo Irrigation district, and the state engineer relative to the water and power rights situation on the Deschutes, T. H. Foley of the Bend Water, Light & Power Co., returned to Bend this morning from Salem.

Mrs. C. Edgar Titzel and daughters have returned from Baker, where Mrs. Titzel went to meet her daughter, Mary Elizabeth, who was returning to Bend from a trip east. Previous to the trip to Baker, Mrs. Titzel and her daughter, Helen, had enjoyed several weeks of motoring to various points of interest about the state.

Tuesday—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Percival of Millican, are in the city today.

D. T. Carmody was on a business trip to Redmond and Prineville this afternoon.

Miss Helen Downing, stenographer in the law office of H. H. DeArmond, is on her vacation.

Tom Connolly, Maupin sheepman, started two bands of sheep for their summer range in the Cascades today.

F. B. Stanley, timber cruiser, is leaving soon on a trip to Spokane, intending to be gone for several weeks.

Mrs. Fannie W. Palmerton, of 45 Greeley, will leave this evening for a two weeks' visit in Seattle and Bellingham.

Francis X. Arens of Hood River, arrived this morning with Mrs. Arens to spend the summer at Elk lake. This will be the third summer spent by Mr. Arens at this spot.

The body of Ernest Fulton, smothered to death in the shavings bin at the Brooks-Scanlon fuel house Sunday evening, was shipped to Enterprise this morning for burial.

W. E. Lawrence of the bureau of plant industry, left this morning on a trip to Lower Bridge. He is investigating the possibility of white pine blister rust infection in the timber in Central Oregon.

Louis Bennett, Cassie Flynn and L. M. McReynolds planned to drive to Redmond this afternoon on business in connection with the D. O. K. K. ceremony which is planned for Bend later in the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Allen returned to Bend Sunday night from Crater lake, where they went to meet Mrs. Allen's mother, Mrs. E. D. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson returned to Bend with them to visit for several months.

T. H. Foley went to Salem yesterday to confer with directors of the Deschutes county municipal improvement district and the state engineer in regard to possible damages to the local power plant by the storage of water for irrigation.

J. H. Jeffries and family spent Sunday at Spring river.

Mrs. Charles W. Thornthwaite of Anaheim, California, a former resident of Bend, is visiting at the home of Mrs. George D. Gove.

Dr. John Besson returned Sunday from Portland, accompanied by Dr. P. E. Hale of that city, who that night left again for his home.

Monday—

John Cronin of Powell Butte was in Bend Saturday.

T. J. Quigley of Redmond, is in Bend today on business.

C. L. Glet, Sisters merchant, was in Bend on business today.

W. F. Tromblee and family fished on the Deschutes above Bend yesterday.

John H. Bucholtz made a good catch of trout at Pringle Falls Sunday.

J. D. Davidson and family and L. A. W. Nixon and family spent Sunday on the Metolius.

R. N. Buchwalter and E. J. Finnegan made a good catch of trout on Little river Sunday.

Frank Owen, who has been in Portland for some time, returned to Bend Saturday night.

Frank Kulp, who has been at Seaside for his health for several weeks, has returned to Bend.

Joe Steringer and family and Frank Perry and family spent Sunday afternoon at Spring river.

The morning train was an hour late this morning, due to engine trouble between Redmond and Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron H. Symons and children left Sunday to drive to Cannon Beach to spend their vacation.

A. A. Warner was in the city today from Silver Lake conferring with Deschutes National forest officials.

Claude Vandever and Mrs. C. J. Catlow are visitors in Bend today from the Vandever ranch at Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. George Short, formerly of Bend, have returned from Wyeth, where they have been for several months.

Robert Laherty returned to Bend last night after a month's outing. He accompanied Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bower of Vancouver.

J. E. Johnson, who sustained a broken arm on the Fourth, when he was kicked by a horse, went home from the hospital today.

Charles Haines will leave tonight for Portland with his wife, who will receive medical treatment. She has been ill since in February.

Dr. Barney Ferrel and family and Miss Margaret O'Shea visited Todd lake yesterday, driving to Dutchman's flat and walking on to the lake.

William Hanley of Burns, president of the State Chamber of Commerce, arrived in Bend this morning from Portland, on his way to Burns.

E. L. Thompson, insurance adjuster, is in Bend today from Portland to adjust the loss on the L. W. Leverett car, damaged in a fire last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Janssen and children left this morning for Washington and British Columbia on an auto camping trip, to be gone for three or four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Kane and Mrs. E. J. Wright will drive across the McKenzie pass Wednesday on their way to Seaside, where Mrs. O'Kane will spend a month or more.

Superintendent Cannon of the Hood River schools, and C. G. Cornelius, Hood River man who has a ranch near Redmond, were in Bend today on their way to the lakes, for an outing.

C. E. Olson and Lonnie Belshe, prominent Sherman county wheat growers, arrived in Bend this morning on their way to their summer homes at Camp Sherman on the Metolius.

J. L. Ross, formerly of Bend, now proprietor of a pool hall in Lodi, Cal., and J. L. Rogers, L. P. Lively, and L. M. Welch, are in Bend on their way to the Central Oregon lakes on a fishing trip.

A meeting of the Woman's Civic league is announced to be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the city rest room in the Miner building. All members are urged to attend as important business is to come up for discussion.

Eileen Alice Tierney, 22 months old girl who was burned last week, is recovering rapidly at the St. Charles hospital, in spite of the fact that she has pneumonia in addition to having been badly burned. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tierney.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Olson left today to drive to Spokane, where Mr. Olson will spend several weeks. Mrs. Olson will go from there to Fairmont, Minn., to visit with her family, whom she has not seen for fourteen years. The Olsons expect to return to Bend in about two months.

Sales of Ford cars are reported by the Central Oregon Motor Co. to O. Peterson of Tumalo, Scott Beeler of Fort Rock, Ralph Woster of Fort Rock, the Bend-Silver Lake Stage Co., Earl Weymouth, L. W. Franks and James Emtaker. Another consignment is expected to arrive about July 16.

Louis Bennett and his father, S. L. Bennett, made a satisfactory catch of trout on the river near Twin lakes Sunday, Bennett reported on his return to Bend. Other members of the party, including H. H. DeArmond, M. A. Palmer, L. M. Foss and J. H. Haner and his sons, Frank and Ralph, fished on the river and at the lakes. Swimming at Suttle lake is now good, according to H. C. Ellis, who was a member of a party who made the trip to the Metolius river and to the lake Sunday. The road to Blue lake is now completed, and turnouts have been built. Mountain lilies are almost a thing of the past for this season on the Metolius as those not already picked are fading, according to Ellis. Members of the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lawlor, Mrs. Ethel Tilman, Mrs. Margaret Bozorth, Miss Juanita Gillis, Miss Nell Markel, Miss Ethel Buntin, C. T. Terril and Dr. Grant Skinner.

Saturday—

George Currie of Tumalo was in Bend on business Friday.

W. B. Dagggett, Redmond attorney, was in Bend on Friday.

James Cram, Prineville pioneer, is spending the day in Bend.

Frank Bogue of La Pine was in Bend yesterday to buy a Jewett car.

Miss Hortense Wells of Ontario is a guest of Mrs. Emma U. Broderick.

George Bates has purchased a Maxwell from the Bend Motor Service Co.

Donald M. Graham and Samuel Stein of Prineville were in Bend yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hamlin and Roy Hamlin of Tumalo were in Bend yesterday.

L. Anties and R. S. Hamilton left this afternoon to drive to Burns on business.

The frame of the American Express building was completed yesterday, with the exception of the roof.

C. W. Woodruff, resident engineer for the state highway commission, was in Bend yesterday from Prineville.

W. L. Coffey has purchased a new Olds car and will start with his family next week on a trip to North Carolina.

Miss Margaret Spaulding left on Friday for Portland, to visit there for a short time before going to Snohomish for a stay of several months.

Mrs. Cyril Stuffed of Seattle is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hayes, for two or three weeks. She arrived in Bend Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ward, who were married here a week ago, returned on Friday from their honeymoon trip to Portland and the beaches.

L. N. Rouse went to Portland last night, called by the serious illness of his wife, who went there several weeks ago.

H. H. De Armond, Louis Bennett and his father, S. L. Bennett; L. M. Foss, M. A. Palmer and J. H. Haner and his sons, Frank and Ralph, left this afternoon to spend Sunday at Twin lakes.

Jack Horton, grazing examiner for Eastern Oregon, left last night for Portland, for a conference on range appraisal with the Portland forest office. Later he will go to Dufur and Cascade Locks.

Miss Carol Boyd returned from Corvallis yesterday. She attended O. A. C. during the past year and has been working in Corvallis since. She expects to spend the summer in Bend with her family.

Mrs. A. Z. Dorris of Berkeley, Cal., is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Walter G. Coombs. Mrs. Coombs met her cousin on the way to Bend, at Klamath Falls. Miss Helen Johns accompanied her on the trip.

K. C. Kaufman of the Union Central Life Insurance Co., which has considerable money loaned in Central Oregon, was in Bend yesterday on business, returning last night to Portland. His father is western financial representative of the company.

Friday—

W. N. Ray of Tumalo is in Bend today on business.

Mrs. Viola Ashe left last night for Portland, to visit for three weeks.

Mrs. C. J. Dugan left last night for Portland, to visit for two months.

P. B. Johnson left today to drive to Newport to spend the summer.

Mrs. Walter Gilbert of Portland is visiting at the D. B. Stuart home.

Carl Meister left last night for Woodland, Washington, on a vacation.

A. R. Jackson left last night for Portland, after spending yesterday in Bend.

A. D. Foster of Prineville, Crook county assessor, was in Bend yesterday on business.

D. H. Wood and family have returned from Crater lake, where they spent the Fourth.

Robert Shaefer was operated on yesterday afternoon at a local hospital for appendicitis.

Mike Mayfield, prominent cattleman of the upper Deschutes, is in Bend today on business.

Miss Elsie Anderson, who has been visiting here from Seattle, left last night for her home there.

C. E. Cleveland and family of Portland were in Bend today on their way to Elk lake on a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Haines caught 19 trout averaging two pounds in

Half-Price On All Our Spring and Summer Coats and Suits

To Move Them Out Quickly

Every coat in stock is involved at figures by far the most sensational values of the season. Long coats, short coats, all kinds of coats, comprise the assortment in various colored fabrics and styles that will prove popular for fall wear. It is necessary at this time of the year to reduce our stocks, so these must go regardless of their actual worth, and you will find here savings too big to miss. ALL AT HALF PRICE

WOMEN'S BAGS

Vanity bags and novelty purses display a newness that is certain to arrest your attention. Styles are good, all are expertly made and from good materials—many are fitted. Priced at $1.25 to $4.95

If you a-Traveling Must Go, Choose One of These Hand Bags

as a friendly companion. Many times on your trip you will thank yourself for making the investment.

These bags of heavy leather and keratol welcome the knocks of the baggage man or porter. Good selection $3.75 to $9.50 Suitcases $1.75 to $6.95

Co-Operative Shoes Give Satisfaction

That's What Makes Men Ask for Them

Leadership in any field is not a matter of one man's opinion, or of another man's prejudice. It is the verdict of the deciding majority. The recognized leadership of Co-operative shoes is not due to any claims we have made for them, but to the satisfaction they are giving those who are wearing them.

They are shown in vici kid, Havana brown calf and tan or brown calf in several new, smart lasts with regular or invisible eyelets with Goodyear welt soles in light or medium weight. All sizes. Oxfords at $7.75 Shoes at $8.50, $9.00, $9.50 Other makes from $3.95 up weight, this week at Elk lake. Flies were used.

MANNHEIMER'S

THE QUALITY STORE OF BEND

Mrs. Alfred Forden and Mrs. John Hagen left last night to visit a sister at Everett, Wash., and a brother at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Thompson, who have been visiting with relatives here, have returned to their home in Portland.

Miss Winifred Nelson, who has been visiting with Miss Frances Thompson, has returned to her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank May have returned from a wedding trip spent at Foley Springs. Mrs. May was formerly Mrs. Leota Davis.

David Lynes of Crescent is visiting his son, Pearl Lynes, at the Tumalo fish hatchery, of which the younger Lynes is superintendent.

C. P. Niswonger, Jared Wenger and C. K. Norcott left this afternoon for Gold lake on a fishing trip. They will return tomorrow night.

James E. Bodett, McMinnville attorney, is in Bend on a combined business and pleasure trip. He will return to his home this evening.

Theodore Funk and his daughter, Mrs. Jack Sangston, and her child, of Tacoma, are visiting at the home of Mr. Funk's son, Harry J. Funk.

Pete Harris, formerly proprietor of the Silver Grille, leaves tonight for Newcastle, Pennsylvania, where he will go into business with his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Caldwell are parents of an eight-pound baby boy, born at 3 o'clock this morning at the Caldwell ranch, three miles east of Bend.

Dr. Besson and Woerner have taken an additional office room in the Deschutes Investment Co. building, the office being now located in room No. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Bennett of Medford, parents of Louis Bennett of this city, are here for a few days, intending to leave to spend the summer at East lake.

E. A. Brown and family, who left Bend Wednesday to cross the McKenzie pass, found the road easy to travel, according to a wire received today by Brown's sister, Mrs. E. O. Stadter.

Mrs. F. S. Stevens left last night for Granite Falls, Wash., to visit her son for a short time. Later she will go to Cannon Beach, where she will spend the summer with Mrs. Frank R. Prince, her daughter, who will leave Bend next week.

J. B. Gaudin, lookout last year at the Pine Mountain station, is leaving for Bachelor mountain, where he will have charge of the construction of the new lookout station at that point. On its completion he will be lookout for the balance of the season.

The name of Edward P. Valitchka was overlooked in yesterday's list of Bend students at U. of O. He is a sophomore in the school of journalism, his grades being: Reporting and copyreading IV, advertising IV, advertising laboratory II, first year Spanish IV, military science III, physical education IV, practical ethics III.

Thursday—

W. R. Lawson of Redmond is a visitor in Bend today.

George E. Aitken, druggist of Sisters, is in Bend today.

Frank Jeske was operated on Monday at a local hospital.

L. M. Foss returned this morning from a trip to Portland.

J. E. Johnson is at a local hospital, suffering from a broken arm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wilt of Sisters are spending the day in Bend.

W. F. Vandever of Harper is in Bend for a visit of several days.

Mr. and Mrs. James McLubkey are parents of a baby girl, born Monday.

Mrs. Chet Springer will leave tonight for Seaside, to spend the summer.

Mrs. R. A. Smith left last night for Portland, to visit for a week or ten days.

Will Carver of Salem, who was in Bend yesterday, left last night for Madras.

I. H. Ward and A. L. Yancey of Prineville were in Bend today on business.

Miss Florence Curry has returned from Portland, where she visited for two weeks.

A. R. Jackson, Portland salesman, arrived in Bend this morning for his regular visit.

Charles Sipchen of the Arnold district was operated on at a local hospital this week.

N. S. Olson and family returned to Redmond last night after spending the Fourth in Bend.

Mrs. Maude Hodge, who has been a patient at the St. Charles hospital, went home yesterday.

George Campbell, son of J. W. Campbell of Bend, was operated on yesterday at a local hospital.

A. M. Pringle and Tracy Fairchild returned this morning from Seaside, where they have been for several days.

W. L. Wright, local expressman, cut his forearm this morning, five stitches being required to close the wound.

Harold Saylor left last night for The Dalles, where he will be employed in the Walther-Williams auto repair shop.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Tromblee and son, formerly of Bend, have returned from Wyeth to make their home here.

M. H. Horton of the Horton Drug Co. left yesterday with his family to drive to Gold Hill and Medford on a two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Dart, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hansen, and Miss Helen Johns drove to the head of Spring river to spend the Fourth.

Mrs. Catherine Martin and daughter, Miss Margery Martin, of Renton, Ontario, are guests at the home of Mrs. Martin's nephew, J. P. Hennessy.

J. Levy, special agent for the Hartford Insurance company, is in Bend today. He plans to leave tomorrow on a fishing trip to the lakes of Central Oregon.

Merle Moore, formerly manual training instructor here, has gone into the hatchery business in Corvallis. He will specialize in the production of white leghorns.

Harry Reingold, former Bend merchant, is proprietor of a jewelry store in Los Angeles, according to word received here by friends. Reingold was for years a part owner in the Golden Rule store.

E. A. Brown and family, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Stadter, left yesterday to drive home to Salem across the McKenzie pass. Brown, who is a brother of Mrs. Stadter, is advertising manager of the Salem Capital Journal.

Fred N. Wallace, R. H. Bayley and A. J. Gonnason of Tumalo were in Bend today on business in connection with the Deschutes County Municipal Improvement district. Work on the dam for the Tumalo project, supplying water to this district, will begin soon.

Rev. S. A. Stenseth, pastor of the Lutheran church, returned this morning from Enumclaw, Wash., where his wife died last week. Previous to going to Enumclaw, Rev. Stenseth was in the east for a national conference of the Norwegian Lutheran church. Hastening west on receiving word of his wife's critical illness, he reached Enumclaw and was with her for three days before her death.