

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

I. M. Ward of Prineville is a visitor in Bend today.

Darvin T. Gilson has gone to Portland for a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Eleanor Adist of Portland is visiting with Mrs. F. V. Horton.

J. Norman Elliott was operated on Monday at the Lumberman's hospital.

W. K. E. Lange of Sisters has taken a position as cook at the Silver Grille.

Mrs. J. B. Moll, formerly of Bend, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Horton.

The Baptist ladies will hold a food sale Saturday morning at the Heyburn hardware store.

M. F. Hawthorne left today for Hot Lake, to spend two weeks for rheumatism treatment.

J. W. Klein of Cloverdale, secretary of the Sisters Farm Loan association, was in Bend today.

Mrs. Margaret Wick is leaving Thursday to make her home with her son, A. L. Barmettlor, in Los Angeles.

C. H. Hatfield of Baker passed through town today with his family, on his way back from a visit at Seaside.

Civil service examinations to fill the position of postmaster at Port Rock are announced to be given here on September 2.

John Oltmore, who has been employed at the Brooks-Seanlon plant for some time, left last night for Portland, to make his home.

Mrs. H. R. Palmer, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Beebe, left last night to return to her home at Bremerton, Wash.

Mrs. Pat Lee and two children arrived in Bend today from Seattle, to make their home here. Mr. Lee is a railroad man employed on one of the Deschutes lines.

W. G. Grant, auditor for the Union Oil Co., was in Bend Monday and Tuesday on business with the local plant of the company. He left last night for Portland.

F. V. Horton, grazing examiner for the forest service for Eastern Oregon, left this morning on a two weeks' inspection trip of the ranges in the Deschutes and Cascade forests.

T. M. Word, federal agent and formerly sheriff of Multnomah county, left last night for Portland after spending yesterday in Bend in connection with the Rosengarth case.

Miss Marie O'Brien, formerly an operator for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. here, arrived in Bend today for a week's vacation. She is now employed in the Portland office of the telephone company.

C. W. Wanzer, division highway engineer, has been in town today on highway business. After an inspection of the work near Sisters and a visit to Prineville he will return for consultation on local road matters tomorrow.

George W. Duke of Crescent, in Bend today, announced that he will start immediately to rebuild the garage which was burned last week, a satisfactory adjustment having been made by the insurance company with which he held a policy on the garage.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ivy of Portland will arrive in Bend Friday to visit with friends. Ivy was formerly manager of the American Express Co. office here for several years. He is now express messenger on the Shasta Limited between Portland and Ashland.

Dr. Fred Thompson of Salem, physician for the state accident insurance commission, accompanied by Mrs. Thompson and her sister, Mrs. George Forbes of Portland, arrived in Bend today to visit with Dr. J. C. Vandever, with whom Dr. Thompson was formerly associated here, and his family. They have spent several days at the Vandever ranch, coming here from a trip through Idaho. They will leave tomorrow for Salem.

Tuesday—

E. Williams was operated on yesterday at a local hospital.

Mrs. John V. Steidl has returned from a short visit in Prineville.

Mrs. J. Charles Smith returned this morning from a buying trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoamer have returned to Bend from the Willamette valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray are parents of a six-pound baby girl, born on Sunday night.

Manager T. H. Foley of the B. W. L. & P. Co. went to Portland last night on business.

Mrs. J. J. Hogan and Miss Esther Bales left yesterday for Seaside to be gone for three weeks.

Dr. J. H. Rosenberg of Prineville was in Bend last night, attending the D. O. K. K. ceremonial.

Mrs. M. G. Rainey left on last night's train for a month's visit with her parents, near Billings, Mont.

Mrs. Minnie Santry, who lives on a homestead near Crescent lake, was in Bend last night on her way to Vancouver, Wash., for a visit.

T. E. J. Duffy and family will start tomorrow morning to drive to Portland and Rainier-national park. They expect to be gone for 10 days.

Miss Carlin Degermark of the Elk lake girls' camp was in Bend yesterday on her way to Portland. She will return before the end of the week.

Clarence Mannheim has returned to Bend from an auto trip to San Francisco, on which he was accompanied by his brother, Claude, of Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Magill and son returned Sunday from an auto trip of three weeks to Idaho and Washington points, coming home by way of Portland.

Mrs. A. M. McKinley and daughter left last night for Tacoma to visit for two weeks. Mrs. McKinley's son, who has been at Tacoma for several weeks, will return with them.

J. M. Regan, formerly night clerk at the Pilot Butte Inn, returned to Bend yesterday from Tacoma, where he has been operating a beach hotel, to take a position as day clerk at the Inn.

Mrs. James Riley of Portland, who has been visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hoover, has gone to La Pine, to visit there and in Crescent for a week.

C. P. Dorian left this morning on a business trip to Silver Lake and Paisley. He was accompanied by Mrs. A. J. Witham of Portland, who will visit her daughter, Mrs. Melva Jeffries in Paisley.

Clyde M. McKay and E. L. Vinal have returned from a stay of several days at Crater lake. McKay reports the road between Bend and the lake to be in the best condition he has ever seen it at this season.

H. H. Harwood and C. C. Moore, of the Portland branch of the Mack truck company, have been here today completing arrangements for establishing an agency for the Mack truck with the Bend Garage Co.

Frank B. Ingels of Dufur was in Bend Sunday, accompanied by his father, E. S. Ingels of Lexington, Ky. The elder Ingels has spent his vacations in past years in the Adirondack, but is finding that Oregon also has charms. They will visit the lakes on the Century drive, then go to Crater lake and later to the Camas country to hunt.

Monday—

S. T. Fox has returned from a two weeks' vacation.

C. L. Gist of Sisters is spending the day in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Slate spent Sunday at Suttle lake.

W. C. Hollinshead of La Pine is in Bend today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coombs and daughter spent Sunday at Suttle lake.

Mrs. V. A. Smith returned this morning from a short trip to Portland.

A. J. Welch is leaving this afternoon to spend several days at Shaniko and Grass Valley.

H. C. Ellis and a party of friends drove to Spring river and the Mitchell cabin yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith and daughter Isabel, and Alfred Hunnell hiked to Tumalo falls Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Barney Ferrell, Ronald Sellars and Miss Margaret O'Shea drove out on the Broken Top road Sunday.

R. M. Sanders, formerly of Bend, has located permanently at Los Angeles, Cal., according to word received here today.

G. W. Hofson, president of the Deschutes county municipal improvement district, was in Bend today on business for the district.

Jay H. Upton of Prineville was in Bend today on business for the Deschutes county municipal improvement district, for which he is attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Staats spent Sunday at Suttle lake, bringing back with them some of the young people who attended the institute there last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver announce the arrival of a daughter, Helen Louise, born at The Dalles hospital on August 1. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver formerly lived in Bend.

H. F. Bangs, janitor of the Kenwood school building, left today on a week's fishing trip to the lakes. F. G. Clement, janitor at the Central, will take care of the Kenwood this week.

S. H. Stockmon left Sunday for Portland by auto to attend buyers' week. He also expects to visit Seattle and perhaps San Francisco to purchase a line of toys and holiday goods.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Niswonger left Sunday morning to drive to Portland, where Mr. Niswonger will attend the annual meeting of the Oregon Funeral Directors' association, of which he is a director.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Thompson of Portland arrived last night to visit at the home of J. A. Eastes. Mr. Thompson is manager of the Bank of Kenton. They will go with Mr. Eastes to Diamond lake next Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Burke and son, Edwin, of Portland, and Mrs. J. P. Hamilton and little daughter, Helen Louise, of Hollywood, Cal., have returned to their homes after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. James W. Ashe of Bend.

Darrel J. Whittaker, Franklyn Toomey, Frank H. Haner and Ralph E. Haner, all of Bend, are reported to be doing excellent work in the citizen's military training camp at American lake. The boys have just finished their first week at camp.

John Carmody of Anchorage, Alaska, is in Bend for a few days, visiting his brother, D. T. Carmody. The two were members of the firm of Carmody Bros. here 10 years ago, when John Carmody sold his interest in the business and moved north.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Coan drove in yesterday from McCloud, Cal., and are visiting here for a few days. Mrs. Coan is a daughter of the late E. J. Carpenter of Minneapolis, and her husband was formerly employed at The Shevlin-Hixon Company mill here.

George T. Sellars of the Pilot View ranch left Saturday with his mowing machine to cut hay at Crescent on the ranch of Fred Storer, who has returned from Chicago where he spent two years and a half. Howard Sellars, a nephew of George T. Sellars, went to Crescent a week ago, and Mrs. Sellars will join them later. They expect to go the mountains to pick huckleberries before returning home.

Saturday—

T. J. Quigley of Redmond visited in Bend on Friday.

Mrs. V. A. Smith went to Portland last night to spend today.

W. P. Vandever of the Old Homestead was in Bend Friday.

H. S. Cram of Prineville was operated on at the St. Charles hospital this week.

Mrs. L. E. Shipley, who has been a patient at a local hospital, returned to her home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Knowles and son will leave Sunday morning for Klamath Falls to spend a week.

Joe Thompson, merchant of Burns, was in Bend yesterday on his way to Portland, to attend Buyers' week.

Mrs. J. Codomo and children, who have been visiting Mrs. R. S. McClure in Bend, left this morning for their home in Ashland.

Dr. Fred D. Stricker, state health officer, who visited Bend Thursday, returned to Portland last night after visiting Prineville yesterday.

Frank Gallagher, who has been day clerk at the Pilot Butte Inn for several months, left last night for Salem, where he will take a similar position at the Marion hotel.

Miss Rae Knickerbocker of Sisters was in Bend today, leaving again for her home shortly after noon, accompanied by her sister, Miss Connie Knickerbocker, who went home for the week end.

L. H. Hilsabeck, who has been visiting for a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hilsabeck, left last night for his home in Portland, accompanied by his nephew, who was with him on the trip.

Sales of Ford cars made by the Central Oregon Motor company, Bend agents, were made during the past week to the North Canal Co., B. B. Moore, Willis S. Chase, F. W. Finley, R. J. McCann, Gottfried Benson and John Runge, all of Bend, and to the Inland Auto Co. of Prineville and H. A. Scoggin of Tumalo.

Friday—

Roy W. Hukill of Kerry is in Bend on business.

C. P. Becker of Tumalo is a visitor in Bend today.

N. S. Olson of Redmond is visiting in Bend today.

T. W. Bracken, merchant of Crescent, is in Bend today.

J. W. Brown of Tumalo is spending the day in Bend.

W. B. Daggett of Redmond is in Bend today on business.

Antone Ahlstrom of Deschutes is a visitor in Bend today.

Final Clearance of All Wash Dresses

Two Wonderful Groups of Dresses to Close Out at $4.95 and $6.75

Wonder values indeed. Dresses that formerly sold at $8.50 and up to $11.50, now $6.75. Women will be quick to take advantage of these wonderful bargains. The fabrics are Gingham and Ratines. A wide range of colors and styles to choose from. Come early.

EARLY FALL DRESSES

Unusually Attractive Values at $13.75 $19.75, $26.75

Included here are those trim, neat looking styles for which we might command a much higher price, but in order to have you become better acquainted with our wonderful stock of Dresses, they are priced to you at these exceptional prices.

Other Dresses at $29.75 to $37.50

The service this store affords is indicated by the activity you see. People wouldn't keep coming in ever increasing numbers, swelling volumes of sales with such regularity, unless we provided values that can be found nowhere else. Every department is now overflowing with new goods. Have you looked through the store lately? If not, drop in and get posted. A cordial welcome awaits you. It is not a question of buying—not at all. We wish to show you new things. We want you to pass judgment on them.

It Always Pays to Stop and Shop at

The Store of Superior Service

Scene from "The Storm," Liberty, August 15, 16 and 17

$1.00 SALE $1.00

HIGH GRADE

ALUMINUM WARE

Don't class this ware with the cheap, light weight ware, so often put on special sale. We buy this direct from factory. Every piece is guaranteed by us to be satisfactory. This is the best buy we have ever made in this high grade ware. You can't afford to miss this sale.

10:30 SATURDAY 10:30

Sale starts 10:30 Saturday. None reserved. None sold to children. One of a kind to a person.

- |                       |                              |
|-----------------------|------------------------------|
| 2 qt. Rice Boiler     | 10 qt. Preserving Kettle     |
| 1 1/2 qt. Rice Boiler | 10 in. Fry Pan               |
| 8 qt. Convex Kettle   | 5 cup Percolator             |
| 6 qt. Convex Kettle   | 5 piece Combination Cooker   |
| 4 and 6 qt. Stock Pot | 10 piece Combination Roaster |
| 10 1/2 in. Roaster    | 6 qt. Covered Sauce Pan      |
| 5 1/2 qt. Tea Kettle  | 3 qt. Water Pitcher          |
| 14 qt. Dish Pan       | 6 qt. Sauce Pans             |

FAIR STORE

(EBERLY'S)

E. J. Finnegan went to Portland last night to spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brandenburg of Deschutes visited in Bend yesterday.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kulstad of Arizona avenue is reported ill.

Miss Mary Dugan left last night for Portland and Seaside to spend a three weeks' vacation.

T. W. Terril and his sister, Mrs. Ethel Buntin, left early this morning to drive to Portland.

Mrs. W. G. Manning returned this morning after spending several weeks at the beach and in Portland.

Ernest Frederick and Frank Allen were employed today by the forest service as road construction men.

Miss Irene Hawks of Walla Walla, who has been visiting Mrs. O. C. Henkle, left this morning for Seaside.

Art Manning of Kennewick, a recent arrival in Bend, has been employed by the forest service as a truck driver.

F. Marion Wilkes, topographer at the Klamath Indian agency, was in Bend over night, leaving this morning for the agency.

Elder G. M. Thorp, formerly pastor of the Adventist church here, is in Bend from Vancouver, Washington, for a few days.

Mrs. Norman B. Chapman, who has been visiting for two weeks with friends in Bend, left this morning for her home in Portland.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church will hold a candy sale all day Saturday at the Oregon meat market.

Mrs. Maude Stevens returned this morning from Portland and Oregon City, where she has been for several weeks on her vacation.

A. J. Harter was in Bend today to take a load of cement to his ranch west of Tumalo, to be used in building a large concrete cistern.

B. T. George, father of Mrs. C. B. Gaines of Bend, Miss Greta Looney, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Gaines, and Representative and Mrs. D. H. Looney of Marion county, are guests at the Gaines home on Georgia avenue. Mrs. Looney is a sister of Mrs. Gaines. The party is on an auto tour of the chief scenic sections of the state, having already visited the Josephine caves and Crater lake, and intending to stop at the more important points of interest in Central Oregon before returning to Jefferson.

Mr. Looney is one of the largest breeders of registered Guernsey cattle on the Pacific coast.

Thursday—

C. L. Olson of Madras is spending the day in Bend.

Howard F. Dyer of Millican is in Bend today on business.

R. H. Bayley of Tumalo is a visitor in Bend today.

T. J. Quigley of Redmond was a visitor in Bend yesterday.

Frank Tatti and Henry Ruffe of Alfalfa are in Bend today on business.

Barney Roadside of Redmond was operated on at the St. Charles hospital today.

Matt Clark of the Rogers Timber Co. was in Bend yesterday from Portland.

Dr. Charles F. Bloom has rented the house on Sixth street and Drake road formerly occupied by John A. Dron. He moved in today.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Horton and children returned to Bend last night after an absence of a month, largely spent in California.

John C. Todd, local postoffice employee, will leave tomorrow on his two weeks' vacation, going to Portland and later to his ranch near Madras.

Franklin Jay Filz and Irene E. Anderson were married by County Judge R. W. Sawyer Wednesday evening.

G. R. Webster, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, was in Bend yesterday on business.

Mrs. A. F. Burke, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Theodore Aune, returned last night to her home in Portland.

Dick Hunter, who has been associated with his brother, Frank Hunter, in the Silver Grille for several weeks, left last night for Portland on a short vacation.

H. J. Law, Shevlin-Hixon auditor, arrived in Bend yesterday from Minneapolis to spend several days at the local offices of the company.

Travel on The Dalles-California highway is heavier this year than ever before, according to George W. Duke, garage proprietor of Crescent, who is in Bend today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Sprague, formerly of Bend, who have been visiting here with their daughter, Mrs. Leo Fisher, and son, T. T. Sprague, left last night for their home in Los Angeles.

Charles W. Erskine, Bend Legionnaire who was reelected to the position of Oregon national committee man of the Legion, returned to Bend this morning after attending the convention at The Dalles and afterward visiting the seashore.