

What's Doing In The Country

FAREWELL PARTY AT TERREBONNE GIVEN

TERREBONNE, Sept. 20.—A farewell party was given Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jorgenson at the J. C. Wyman home. Mr. and Mrs. Jorgenson will leave for Portland Tuesday morning. A pleasant evening was spent and some excellent music was enjoyed, with Mrs. Garlock at the piano. Mrs. Jorgenson pleased with vocal selections. A lunch of ice cream and cake was served, and the young folks danced. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Rodeside and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Parr, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Wallenburg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gates and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Garlock and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wyman and son, Robert, Frank Montgomery and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Jorgenson and children.

Fred Ruffner, a successful stock raiser of Grizzly and Mrs. Ruffner spent Wednesday at the Wallenburg home. They took a load of apples and elder home with them.

B. G. Churchman and wife were Opal City visitors Sunday. Mrs. Churchman is teaching the seventh and eighth grades in the Terrebonne schools this year.

Mr. Krewson of Drain is visiting with his mother and sister, Mrs. Krewson and Mrs. Olin Vestal.

George Junker and family went to the Cove Sunday and brought back a load of fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cyrus were Prineville visitors Monday. Mr. Cyrus has discontinued his meat market here.

W. R. Churchman and family went to the Cove Sunday on a business and pleasure trip. They brought back a load of fruit.

The Rev. Hillis and family have returned home, after spending several weeks in Portland.

Mr. McVey and Jack Miller of Boise, Idaho, have been visiting at the Wimp home. Mrs. Wimp returned to Boise with them and will visit with relatives for two weeks before returning home.

The Ladies' Pioneer club met last Wednesday and sewed for a needy family. Many articles were donated and made over. The ladies would be glad to receive donations of clothing, anything suitable for children from 11 to 14 years. The club will meet again next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knorr, who are working near Madras, spent Sunday at their home, returning to Madras Sunday evening.

Mrs. Newbold of Redmond was a visitor at the W. R. Churchman home Monday. Mrs. Newbold formerly lived at Lower Bridge, but has moved to Redmond on account of her daughter being in school there.

George Gates and family and Grandma Davidson of Redmond spent Sunday at the D. H. Gates home.

Miss Edna Morse of Prineville is teaching the Butte Bailey school. Miss Morse lives in the C. G. Gurrin house and will look after the ranch while Mr. Gurrin has gone east to spend the winter with his mother.

Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, the teacher of the Wilson school, reports 22 pupils enrolled the first day and some children are still working in the hay fields and will enter school later. Mrs. Johnson has a room in the William Peterson home, where she keeps house.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. De Armond and children, of Bend, were recent guests at the J. A. Riggs home.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sears of The Dalles are guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Otto Pauls. The Sears are former residents of this section and have many friends here.

A number of Powell Butte young people are students at Redmond union high school this year. They are Edgar Peterson, Charles Charlton Jr., Elma Peterson, Grace Pauls, Gail Parrish and Thelma Cronin.

Elof Johnson will go to Portland the last of this week. Miss Shobert will have charge of the store and post office while Johnson is away.

Miss Fay Elliott is the teacher at Shepard school. She reports several children out on account of work.

The thresher owned by A. Hirschel of Tumalo has been doing some good work in this community.

George Whitsett has returned from a trip to the Willamette valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Riggs went to Redmond to take their little daughter, Alys, to the doctor. The little one is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Ina Foster and son, Oran, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hobbs last Sunday.

Mrs. Rudolf Wellpott has returned from nursing a case at Prineville.

Frank Doulay of Vancouver, but formerly a resident of Central Oregon, visited recently with his friends, George C. Truesdale and family. Mr. Doulay plans to spend the winter in Redmond, as his health is much better there.

Harry Mertz is hauling his wheat to the McKieckle warehouse in Redmond.

Fred Brown and Miss Sexton of Hood River visited at the E. A. Bussett home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nelson of Deschutes were business callers in Bend on Wednesday.

Mrs. F. S. Stanley of Deschutes was a business visitor in Bend on Wednesday.

Tumalo school was closed the latter part of the week on account of the teachers' institute.

Henry Dunn of Tumalo was a business caller at the S. Debing home Wednesday.

Mrs. C. Wiley visited the Tumalo school Tuesday.

W. Jones of Tumalo was in Deschutes Wednesday.

Walter Lowe is hauling wood for Jack Bruia of Deschutes.

Mrs. G. M. Holten and Mrs. McKnight of Deschutes were business callers in Bend on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Debing and two sons were in Bend on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Rogers of Tumalo were in Bend on business Friday.

Mr. McHoney and Lowney Scott of Deschutes were business callers in Bend Saturday.

T. R. Benham and Mrs. Leo of Deschutes picked fruit at the Cove on Saturday.

Misses Marguerite and Elzetta Debing of Deschutes spent Friday picking choke cherries at Little Falls.

A dance was given Saturday evening at Jack Bruia's ranch. A large crowd attended. Lunch was served by the ladies.

Mrs. A. Scobey of Tumalo underwent an operation at the Mountain View hospital for appendicitis. She is reported to be recovering.

ALBANY MAN BUYS LOWER BRIDGE FARM

LOWER BRIDGE, Sept. 20.—R. L. Brewster of Albany has bought what is known as the Jack ranch. Brewster shipped a carload of personal property to Redmond, and came with teams across the Safflam pass, arriving Thursday. Brewster is the brother of Gasey Brewster, superintendent of Squaw Creek irrigation district.

Charles Kruger and Hugh Gardner of Metolius were Lower Bridge visitors Friday.

The Lower Bridge school started with an attendance of 10. Mrs. Brown, instructor, has been in attendance at institute.

POWELL BUTTE TRIES MEMBERSHIP CONTEST

POWELL BUTTE, Sept. 20.—The boys of Powell Butte community met recently at the home of Mrs. E. A. Bussett, organized, and elected officers and secured a teacher for their class in the Powell Butte Sunday school. They then issued a membership challenge to the girls' class for a contest to run six weeks, the class winning to be given a supper by the losing class. Officers of the boys' class are: President, Charles Charlton; vice-president, Glen Kissler; secretary-treasurer, Edgar Peterson; teacher, Mrs. E. A. Bussett.

Lloyd Bussett left Monday in his car for the roundup at Pendleton. He was accompanied by Jay Shively.

Born September 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Ora C. Foster, a daughter, weight nine pounds. Her name is Frances May.

Miss Edna Morse of Prineville is teaching the Butte Bailey school. Miss Morse lives in the C. G. Gurrin house and will look after the ranch while Mr. Gurrin has gone east to spend the winter with his mother.

Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, the teacher of the Wilson school, reports 22 pupils enrolled the first day and some children are still working in the hay fields and will enter school later. Mrs. Johnson has a room in the William Peterson home, where she keeps house.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. De Armond and children, of Bend, were recent guests at the J. A. Riggs home.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sears of The Dalles are guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Otto Pauls. The Sears are former residents of this section and have many friends here.

A number of Powell Butte young people are students at Redmond union high school this year. They are Edgar Peterson, Charles Charlton Jr., Elma Peterson, Grace Pauls, Gail Parrish and Thelma Cronin.

Elof Johnson will go to Portland the last of this week. Miss Shobert will have charge of the store and post office while Johnson is away.

Miss Fay Elliott is the teacher at Shepard school. She reports several children out on account of work.

The thresher owned by A. Hirschel of Tumalo has been doing some good work in this community.

George Whitsett has returned from a trip to the Willamette valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Riggs went to Redmond to take their little daughter, Alys, to the doctor. The little one is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Ina Foster and son, Oran, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hobbs last Sunday.

Mrs. Rudolf Wellpott has returned from nursing a case at Prineville.

Frank Doulay of Vancouver, but formerly a resident of Central Oregon, visited recently with his friends, George C. Truesdale and family. Mr. Doulay plans to spend the winter in Redmond, as his health is much better there.

Harry Mertz is hauling his wheat to the McKieckle warehouse in Redmond.

Fred Brown and Miss Sexton of Hood River visited at the E. A. Bussett home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nelson of Deschutes were business callers in Bend on Wednesday.

Mrs. F. S. Stanley of Deschutes was a business visitor in Bend on Wednesday.

Tumalo school was closed the latter part of the week on account of the teachers' institute.

Henry Dunn of Tumalo was a business caller at the S. Debing home Wednesday.

Mrs. C. Wiley visited the Tumalo school Tuesday.

W. Jones of Tumalo was in Deschutes Wednesday.

Walter Lowe is hauling wood for Jack Bruia of Deschutes.

Mrs. G. M. Holten and Mrs. McKnight of Deschutes were business callers in Bend on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Debing and two sons were in Bend on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Rogers of Tumalo were in Bend on business Friday.

Mr. McHoney and Lowney Scott of Deschutes were business callers in Bend Saturday.

T. R. Benham and Mrs. Leo of Deschutes picked fruit at the Cove on Saturday.

Misses Marguerite and Elzetta Debing of Deschutes spent Friday picking choke cherries at Little Falls.

A dance was given Saturday evening at Jack Bruia's ranch. A large crowd attended. Lunch was served by the ladies.

Mrs. A. Scobey of Tumalo underwent an operation at the Mountain View hospital for appendicitis. She is reported to be recovering.

Charles Kruger and Hugh Gardner of Metolius were Lower Bridge visitors Friday.

The Lower Bridge school started with an attendance of 10. Mrs. Brown, instructor, has been in attendance at institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Monarch, and Mr. and Mrs. V. Clevenger were to the Cove for fruit Sunday.

Fred Walters moved to Tacoma to join his family Wednesday.

A. S. Holmes begins riding for cattle Monday.

R. P. Clevenger celebrated his 62nd birthday by inviting his neighbors in to eat musk melon and watermelon. The melons were of excellent quality and much enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Stadig, Mr. and Mrs. L. Monteth, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Book and Mrs. Julie Parrott spent Sunday at Blue lake.

Rev. C. M. Brown of Redmond visited his son and daughter Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Newbolt and daughter visited the week end with her husband and Mrs. Milburn.

Miss Elizabeth Reynolds visited at F. Hettman's Friday.

George Wallace of Sisters went to the Cove orchard for fruit Friday.

Herbert Nelson, Misses Elizabeth Reynolds and Katharine Helgeson were home on a vacation last week.

George Barclay helped Mr. Ledgerworth hay Thursday.

Mrs. Hettman and Violet were staying with Mrs. J. Pederson and children until Mr. Pederson came home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds and Charles were Bend shoppers Saturday.

Mrs. W. Bratt visited her farm Friday.

Miss O. Reed attended institute last week in Bend.

George Spindler, E. Kirkham, J. Pederson and F. Hettman went on a hunting trip Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carol and daughter visited Mrs. Carroll's mother in Terrence last Sunday.

Mary McClain visited a week with Mrs. Reams.

The Young school opened last Monday with 21 pupils, five of them new.

Mr. and Mrs. Erickson and Esther motored to the Cove for fruit a week ago Sunday.

Mrs. Hunter and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Vera, and Mrs. Hunter called at the Barclay home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Dahle took their daughter, Mabel, to Hempstead valley, where she will teach school.

Edward Young is on the sick list. The Henry Seide family called at the Fred Reynolds home Sunday.

Mr. Helgeson lost one of his valuable cows.

BRIDGE FINISHED OVER SQUAW CREEK

SISTERS, Sept. 20.—The new bridge over Squaw creek on the McKenzie-Bend highway is now complete and is open for travel.

C. N. Robbins was a business visitor at the home of R. J. Skelton in Cloverdale last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Arnold of Cloverdale were visitors in Sisters Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Bailey were visitors at the C. N. Sorenson home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Irel Harrington was absent Monday from school on account of sickness.

Mr. Ladd was in Sisters last Monday with a load of home grown melons from his ranch on the lower desert.

Mrs. F. Zumwalt and children returned Sunday evening from their ranch, where they went during the three days' vacation. They brought back a load of household goods with them.

Van Wilson has purchased a new car.

Walter Fullerton was in town last Monday with a load of fruit from his ranch on the lower Squaw creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Templeton spent Sunday afternoon in town.

Mrs. J. P. Duckett and Masters Freddie and Stanley Bowlin and Elizabeth Bowlin spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. N. Robbins.

Paul Schmitter of Plainview was in Sisters on business Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed Leithauer and Mrs. Hazel Spoo and children spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Templeton at the Duckett sawmill camp.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Robbins were shopping in Sisters last Tuesday evening.

Miss Florence Royal is moving to rooms over the Leithauer store.

J. Berry was shopping in Sisters Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Scarth were shopping in Sisters Thursday afternoon.

F. Jacquot helped C. N. Robbins with his hay last week.

Mrs. William Wilson and son, Johnny, picked strawberries at the George Cyrus place in Cloverdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leithauer motored to Redmond last Saturday to meet Mrs. Leithauer's parents, who were expected to arrive from Colorado.

The fire on Trout Creek mountain took a number of men out of Sisters last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. E. P. Fryrear has returned to her home here after spending several weeks visiting in Cloverdale and Bend.

James Elkins of Plainview sold a beef to the Sisters butcher, J. Hagen, Sunday.

Mrs. Batley of Cloverdale was shopping in Sisters Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Millan and little Cecil Seaman were visitors in Sisters from the McKinley mill.

Warren Farthing from the road camp spent Sunday at his home in Sisters.

The dance given at H. K. Allen's hall last Friday night was well attended. Every one reports a good time.

N. Kimpsey was a visitor in Sisters Monday afternoon.

Richard King returned to his home in Vida last Wednesday after spending a few days in Sisters.

Jack Stedham of Prineville spent a few days in Sisters last week.

Charles Griffith was in Sisters with a load of vegetables last Tuesday from his ranch on lower Squaw creek.

Mrs. R. Grogan and son, Dewey, were visiting in Sisters last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Huntington were callers at F. Arnold's of Cloverdale Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wilson were in town Sunday from the Duckett sawmill camp. They took out a load of lumber to finish their new house.

Mrs. William Wilson and Van and Johnny Wilson were shopping in Sisters Thursday.

The Try Sewing club meet again

Mr. and Mrs. John Myers of Tumalo, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Baas of Silver Lake, were callers at the Anderson ranch on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Earl Woods attended the teachers' institute in Bend last week.

Gust Nelson is working for H. T. Mikkelsen during haying.

Mrs. A. M. Petty is packing up preparatory to moving to Portland the first of the week to spend the winter.

Ed Burdette of Redmond, is helping O. E. Anderson with his hay.

A dance was given by Jack Bruia at his ranch near Deschutes on Saturday night. Those attending from this neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley and children, Mrs. Lavina Jones, Harold Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray.

W. H. Gray was cutting hay for O. E. Anderson the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson attended the dance at the open air pavilion in Redmond on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Myers of Tumalo, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Baas of Silver Lake, were callers at the Anderson ranch on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Earl Woods attended the teachers' institute in Bend last week.

Gust Nelson is working for H. T. Mikkelsen during haying.

Mrs. A. M. Petty is packing up preparatory to moving to Portland the first of the week to spend the winter.

Ed Burdette of Redmond, is helping O. E. Anderson with his hay.

A dance was given by Jack Bruia at his ranch near Deschutes on Saturday night. Those attending from this neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley and children, Mrs. Lavina Jones, Harold Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray.

W. H. Gray was cutting hay for O. E. Anderson the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson attended the dance at the open air pavilion in Redmond on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Myers of Tumalo, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Baas of Silver Lake, were callers at the Anderson ranch on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Earl Woods attended the teachers' institute in Bend last week.

Gust Nelson is working for H. T. Mikkelsen during haying.

Mrs. A. M. Petty is packing up preparatory to moving to Portland the first of the week to spend the winter.

Ed Burdette of Redmond, is helping O. E. Anderson with his hay.

A dance was given by Jack Bruia at his ranch near Deschutes on Saturday night. Those attending from this neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley and children, Mrs. Lavina Jones, Harold Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray.

W. H. Gray was cutting hay for O. E. Anderson the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson attended the dance at the open air pavilion in Redmond on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Myers of Tumalo, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Baas of Silver Lake, were callers at the Anderson ranch on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Earl Woods attended the teachers' institute in Bend last week.

Gust Nelson is working for H. T. Mikkelsen during haying.

Mrs. A. M. Petty is packing up preparatory to moving to Portland the first of the week to spend the winter.

Ed Burdette of Redmond, is helping O. E. Anderson with his hay.

A dance was given by Jack Bruia at his ranch near Deschutes on Saturday night. Those attending from this neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley and children, Mrs. Lavina Jones, Harold Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray.

RELIEVES KIDNEY TROUBLE

"For two years," writes Mrs. Sarah E. Bennett, Anderson, Indiana, "I tried most everything for my kidney trouble, but had no success until I got Foley Kidney Pills." Foley Kidney Pills quickly relieve backache, rheumatic pains, dizziness and blurred vision, kidney and bladder trouble. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

NEWS ITEMS FROM PLEASANT RIDGE

PLEASANT RIDGE, Sept. 19.—Mrs. O. E. Anderson and Mrs. W. H. Gray were shopping in Bend on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hutchins and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Churchill attended the dance in Redmond Saturday night.

Albert McCormick is helping J. A. Chase put up his hay.

Word has been received here by relatives of the birth of a son on September 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neslund at Blackfoot, Idaho. Mrs. Neslund was formerly Miss Edith Gray, who lived here with her parents for several years on the place now owned by Dr. A. M. Petty. They later moved to Montana where she was married to Mr. Neslund a year ago.

Rasmus Peterson returned Monday from Crescent where he went to dip his sheep.

Rev. J. E. Williams was here the first of the week looking after his property. Rev. Williams and Mrs. Williams are located now at Spokane, Wash., where he will be pastor during the coming year.

Alfred Mikkelsen went to Redmond Tuesday where he will attend high school this year.

Ed Burdette of Redmond, is helping O. E. Anderson with his hay.

A dance was given by Jack Bruia at his ranch near Deschutes on Saturday night. Those attending from this neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley and children, Mrs. Lavina Jones, Harold Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray.

W. H. Gray was cutting hay for O. E. Anderson the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson attended the dance at the open air pavilion in Redmond on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Myers of Tumalo, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Baas of Silver Lake, were callers at the Anderson ranch on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Earl Woods attended the teachers' institute in Bend last week.

Gust Nelson is working for H. T. Mikkelsen during haying.

Mrs. A. M. Petty is packing up preparatory to moving to Portland the first of the week to spend the winter.

Ed Burdette of Redmond, is helping O. E. Anderson with his hay.

A dance was given by Jack Bruia at his ranch near Deschutes on Saturday night. Those attending from this neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley and children, Mrs. Lavina Jones, Harold Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brandenburg and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray.

W. H. Gray was cutting hay for O. E. Anderson the last of the week.