

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Alfred McKeown is ill at a local hospital.

Mrs. B. P. Royce is reported to be ill at her home.

Allan Wilcox was in Bend today from Elk lake.

George Pearce of Madras was in Bend last night on business.

Mrs. L. E. Shipley was operated on yesterday at the St. Charles hospital.

Miss Maybelle Hoyer, who is employed at Mannheim's store, left yesterday on her vacation.

Miss Myrtle Rice will leave on Thursday for Eugene, where she will be a sophomore at U. of O. this year.

Gordon Sammons, an attorney who has recently located at Madras, was in Bend Tuesday and today on business.

G. Olson and family left last night for St. Johns to make their home. They have been living on Jefferson Place.

Dr. Grant Skinner and Dr. W. G. Manning will leave Thursday morning for Pendleton to attend the roundup.

W. E. Robertson, pharmacist for the Magill & Erskine drug store, left last night for a few days' visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hix of Wasco county are in Bend today, planning to go on a hunting trip in the Deschutes forest.

The Woman's Civic league reception to the teachers will be on September 29 instead of September 22 as announced yesterday.

Shannon Bond, who has been attending a business school at Seattle, is in Bend for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bond.

Miss Florence McQuay, who has been visiting with relatives and friends in Bend, left last night for the Willamette valley, where she is a teacher in a high school.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Miller of Lakeview were in Bend today on their way to the Pendleton roundup, also planning to spend several weeks touring Oregon and California. Miller is cashier of the Commercial National bank of Lakeview.

Fred N. Persley of the United States marine corps left last night to report for duty on the battleship California, stationed at San Pedro, after spending his furlough visiting with his brother, H. A. Persley, in Bend. He killed a deer near Odell lake, while on his furlough here.

Mr. and Mrs. George V. Ely and daughter, Eloise, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. McKenzie, have returned to their home in Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. Ely are Mrs. McKenzie's parents. While here they made a number of trips to a number of the Central Oregon lakes.

Tuesday—

W. A. Pickett of Terrebonne is in Bend today.

Frank Stanley is ill at the St. Charles hospital.

H. F. Dyer of Millican is in Bend today on business.

Levi Ernst of Powell Butte is a visitor in Bend today.

Mrs. Richard Doran is a patient at the St. Charles hospital.

Mrs. L. E. Shipley is a patient at the St. Charles hospital.

E. A. Sather returned last night from a trip to Portland.

J. W. Kennison is in Bend today from his ranch at Alfalfa.

F. K. Garnett of the Bend Garage has gone to Ontario on his vacation.

Ed Christofferson was operated on at the St. Charles hospital on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ellis and a party of friends visited Cultus lake Sunday.

J. C. Wright, local station agent, left last night for Portland on a business trip.

John Bechen Jr. of Hillsboro arrived in Bend yesterday to spend the winter here.

William and Kenneth Lowell, sons of J. W. Lowell, had their tonsils removed today.

Miss Grace Anderson of Seattle is visiting with her cousins, Misses Martha and Eleanor Bechen.

Miss Opal Olson left last night for Spokane, where she will resume her studies at Spokane university.

The Pythian Sisters lodge will hold a special meeting Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Sather's hall.

J. M. Meany, who has been on a hunting trip with J. H. Meister, left last night for his home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Povey of East Third street are parents of an 8 1/2 pound boy, born Sunday morning.

Miss Mildred Dodds will leave Friday for Albany, to resume her work as an instructor in the high school there.

Miss Esther Bechen of San Francisco is here for a week's visit with her sisters, Misses Martha and Eleanor Bechen.

Gilbert W. Allen of the state fire marshal's office, Salem, is in Bend today on business with local insurance agents.

Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald left last night for Bemidji, Minn., where they will visit before going to Minneapolis to make their home.

Mrs. Charles Thornthwaite, who has been visiting in Bend, left last night for Seattle, where she will visit before going to her home at Anaheim, Cal.

Miss Alice Stockmon, who was graduated from the Bend high school last spring, will leave on Thursday for Eugene, where she will enter U. of O. this fall.

Mrs. L. Wickersham, who has been visiting with her son, G. M. Wickersham, at Brothers, was in Bend last night on her way home to Centralia, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Wickersham came with her to Bend.

Mrs. Charles Haines, who has been ill in a Portland hospital for several weeks, was sufficiently recovered to leave the hospital today. She will spend two weeks more in Portland before being able to return to Bend.

Mrs. Carrie Byberg and son, Nelson Byberg, who have been visiting here for over a week from their home at Missoula, Mont., left last night for Corvallis, where they will visit Mrs. Byberg's son, Captain E. F. Bloomquist.

Miss Ruth Garske, formerly of Bend, left last night after a short visit here, for Seattle, where she will attend Lincoln high school this year. She has been with her family on a ranch at Hampton butte during the summer.

Monday—

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Symons made the Century drive Sunday.

Dr. Charles F. Bloom has returned from a business trip to Portland.

Ralph Hauck and a party of friends drove to Elk lake Sunday.

Ed Axtel and P. A. Grabler of Millican were Sunday visitors in Bend.

Miss Mildred Hoover left Saturday night for Salem, to enter Willamette university.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Ferrell and a party of friends drove to the Metolius on Sunday.

Miss Ina Johnson of Prineville visited in Bend Saturday with Miss Marjorie Fulton.

Dr. W. G. Manning spent Saturday duck hunting at Crane Prairie, making a good bag.

Jack Cox, son of Cecil Cox of Shevlin-Hixon Camp No. 1, had his tonsils removed this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Runge and Mrs. M. E. Pearl, Mrs. Runge's mother, made the Century drive Sunday.

* Mrs. L. A. W. Nixon will leave tonight for Port Townsend, Wash., called by word of the death of a niece.

Henry M. Grant, former principal of the Bend high school, returned to his home in Portland Sunday after a visit here.

Mrs. George Newell, Mrs. Stanley Campbell and Mrs. Tucker of Prineville were in Bend Saturday, shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fowler of Highland boulevard are the parents of a baby boy born early Sunday morning. The new arrival has been named Freeman Reavis.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil F. Seiffert of Brooks-Seanlon Camp No. 1 are parents of an eight pound girl baby, born at a local hospital Sunday morning.

Rev. J. Edgar Purdy and family left Sunday night for Portland, where they will make their home. Rev. Purdy having been transferred to the Sellwood church there.

Miss Mary Ullman returned last night to her home at Lower Bridge, after spending last week in Bend, visiting with Miss Romaine Nicholson.

Removal of a finger nail, necessitated by infection caused by a silver, is causing Mrs. L. J. Cody to be absent for her work as a teacher in the Bend schools for several days this week.

C. G. Seward has returned from Eugene, where he has been for the past month, visiting with relatives. His sister, Miss L. M. Seward of Chicago, who has been visiting at Eugene, returned with him across the Cascades, stopping at a number of the lakes. She will visit here for two weeks.

Saturday—

W. E. Bogue, La Pine rancher, was in Bend yesterday.

Mrs. Joseph Widmaier of Brothers, was in Bend yesterday.

Fred Brothers of Tumalo was a visitor in Bend yesterday.

T. J. Quigley of Redmond was a visitor in Bend yesterday.

Mrs. Ada Jordan left yesterday for Sisters, to make her home.

Miss Mary Meister went to Redmond last night to attend school.

Miss Mary Ullman of Lower Bridge is visiting with Miss Romaine Nicholson.

Cassio Flynn left last night for Portland for a few days' business visit.

Clarence Orr left Thursday for Los Angeles, to enter the Tory Bible institute.

Leroy Coyner left last night for Corvallis, to resume his studies at O. A. C.

William Hanley of Burns was in Bend today on his way home from Portland.

L. J. Noonchester left last night for Portland, to spend several days on business.

Miss Priscilla Fly was in Bend last night on her way from Burns to San Francisco.

Bill Williams left last night for Corvallis, where he will attend O. A. C. again this year.

Mrs. S. Simonson and Mrs. H. J. Daoust left last night for Tacoma, to visit with relatives.

W. P. Myers has returned from Klamath Falls, where he was on business early this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Parsons have returned from Portland, where Mr. Parsons has been for medical treatment.

Miss Mildred Hoover will leave tonight for Salem, where she will enter Willamette university as a freshman this year.

Paul Reynolds left this morning for Walla Walla, to enter Whitman college, where he will be a freshman this year.

J. M. Meany of Portland arrived in Bend yesterday, leaving that afternoon with J. H. Meister on a hunting trip to Summer lake.

Mrs. Glenn H. Slack of the Arnold district took her daughter, Miss Hilma Slack, to Portland last night for medical treatment.

Miss Nedra Plummer is expected to arrive tonight from Seattle, to live with her grandmother, Mrs. C. O. Myers, and attend school here.

Miss Helen Teal, a sister of Hon. Joseph N. Teal of Portland, former member of the United States shipping board, is visiting in Bend.

Mrs. H. G. Churchman and Miss Myrtle Iverson, teachers in the Terrebonne schools, left last night for that town after attending the county institute here.

Smart Wear for Fall

is now featured in our interesting display of Fall Apparel

Winter Coats

Embracing all that is new and smart in fabrics and modeling. Coats that will instantly appeal to those who are looking for style, combined with comfort. Many set off with rich furs, collars and cuffs.

Especially Good Values at

$29.75 to $59.50

Individual Model Dresses

An exceptionally complete collection of highest quality dresses in widely varied expressions of this season's newest authentic styles; no two of them alike; rich satin crepes and fine cady crepes are predominant as to materials, although several others are included in the collection.

Choice at $25.00

CORSETS

The fit of outer apparel depends on the fit of the corset. The corset fitting provides you with "your" corset instead of "an" or "any" corset, and only the best known brands are included in our selection.

See the New $2.00 Corset

The biggest value Corset ever shown.

Other Models, just in, $2.50 to $7.50

It Always Pays to Stop and Shop at

The Store of Superior Service

NOTIONS!

The little things you need every day are here in an excellent variety.

- Needles—Milward's Imp.—10c
- Snap Fasteners—Good ones—5c
- Hooks and Eyes—Brass, card—10c
- Thumbtacks—A big line 5-10c
- Pearl Buttons—Dozen on card—5c
- Pearl Buttons—Fish eye style, dozen—5c
- Dressing Combs—Celluloid 25c
- Curling Irons—10c, 15c
- Hair Pins—Wire or Celluloid, box—10c
- Justite Hair Nets—Good ones, double mesh, 2 for—25c
- Ric Rac Band, mercerized 15c
- Bias Tapes—Black, white, colors—15c
- Darning Cotton, 2 balls—5c
- Shinola Shoe Polish—10c
- Dexter—Crochet Cotton, ball—10c
- O. N. T. Lustre Crochet Spool—5c
- Cones' 6-Strand Embroidery Cotton, 2 skeins—5c

YARNS

- MAYPOLE Silk o'Wool Knitting, per Ball, 59c
- MAYPOLE Silk o'Wool Shetland, per Ball, 29c

KNITTING YARNS, Twelve Colors, per Hank, 49c

FLEISCHER'S KNITTING YARN A big range of colors, ball, 43c

FLEISCHER'S ZEPHYR YARN, All the good colors, ball, 33c

Oceans of Notions

WARNER'S

H. E. Mitchell, who has been working with the highway location crew near Crescent, was in Bend yesterday on his way to Eugene, where he will continue his work at U. of O.

C. H. Knowles is expected to return tomorrow morning from a business trip to Spokane. On Monday, he and his family expect to leave for Klamath Falls, to make their home.

Arthur Benedict, of the bureau of public roads surveying party which is relocating the old military road through Willamette pass, arrived in Bend yesterday afternoon from Crescent lake.

Professor Ira Richardson of the U. of O. extension department left last night for Eugene, after attending the Deschutes county teachers' institute, giving a number of addresses and lectures.

Mrs. M. E. Houghton, district manager of the Fraternal Brotherhood, will arrive in Bend next week to join her husband, H. H. Houghton, and to organize a chapter of the brotherhood in Bend.

Mrs. B. A. Forbes will leave tonight for Pendleton, to attend the district convention of the American Red Cross. She will return Wednesday. The home service office will be kept open as usual during her absence.

T. H. Foley, manager of the Bend Water, Light & Power Co., left last night for Portland, to meet K. H. Miller, one of the directors of the company, who is returning from California, where he went recently with his family.

R. W. Sawyer left last night for Portland to attend a meeting of the Seaside Preservation association of Oregon, to be held this afternoon at the Portland Chamber of Commerce rooms. Sawyer is a director of the association, representing Deschutes county.

J. E. Calavan, in charge of boys' and girls' club work for the state department of education, left last night for Portland after attending the Deschutes county teachers' institute here yesterday. He will return to Bend later in the fall to supervise some of the club work being done here.

M. R. Davis and Oliver Currie have taken a year's lease on the Hippodrome, planning to hold weekly dances, the first to be a week from tonight. Previous to that date, the interior will be repainted and decorated, the floor varnished and electric heating apparatus installed. Molitor's orchestra is expected to play for the first dance.

Friday—

L. C. Roberts of the Arnold district was a visitor in Bend yesterday.

Assessor August A. Anderson is spending a few days in Redmond.

T. J. Evans and wife, of Paisley, were in Bend yesterday on business.

Forest Supervisor H. L. Plumb is on an official trip to Diamond lake.

B. O. Morgan of Paisley passed through Bend yesterday on his way to Portland.

Misses Florence and Helen Downing left this week for Corvallis, to enter O. A. C.

Lester Sanders left last night for Corvallis, where he will enter O. A. C. as a freshman this year.

Earl Farra of Paisley was in Bend yesterday on his way to Corvallis, where he will enter O. A. C.

Guorden Dutt left last night for Corvallis, to enter O. A. C., where he will be a freshman this year.

Mrs. Carl Long and baby left last night for Yoncalla, to visit with Mr. Long's parents for several weeks.

Dalmer Reeder of Silver Lake was in Bend last night on his way to Corvallis, where he will enter O. A. C.

Hugh Hayden left last night for Corvallis, to resume his work at O. A. C., where he will be a junior this year.

Miss Jennie Noren left last night for Corvallis, to resume her studies at O. A. C., where she will be a junior this year.

Miss Connie Kuickerbocker left this morning for Corvallis, where she will begin her sophomore year at O. A. C.

Loyde Blakely left last night for Corvallis, to enter O. A. C. He was graduated last spring from the Bend high school.

Mrs. Mary Superant of Buffalo, N. Y., who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. N. F. Seitz, will leave on Saturday for her home.

Miss Eva Whittington will leave early next week for New York City, where she will take a course in costume and millinery designing at Hartman's fashion academy.

Miss Marjorie Baird left last night for Portland, where she will visit for two weeks, later going to Eugene to resume her studies at U. of O., where she will be a sophomore this year.

Mrs. W. J. Sturdevan and daughter, Crystal, arrived in Bend last night to spend the winter with Mrs. Sturdevan's sister, Mrs. A. J. Morse. Miss Sturdevan is here for her health.

Dr. H. A. Schaeffer of the Bend Dental Co. will drive to Portland tomorrow, planning to return next week with his family. He will also bring back new equipment for the company's offices.

Mrs. R. A. Dunlap of Hood River is in Bend, visiting at the home of her father, Dr. H. W. Barr. Her brother, John G. Barr of Portland, and her husband, will arrive tomorrow to spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Thompson, formerly of Bend, will arrive in the city within the next few days from Portland to make their home here. Thompson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Alton Thompson of Bend.

Miss Opal Olson will leave tonight for Portland, to visit for a short time, after which she will go to Spokane to resume her studies at Spokane university. Miss Olson has been employed during the summer vacation at the Savoy cafe.

Mrs. W. C. Barker, who has been visiting for two months with her sister, Mrs. A. J. Veitum, left this morning for her home at Buffalo, N. Y. Miss Elizabeth Veitum, her niece, who was graduated from the Bend high school last spring, accompanied her to the east, where she will resume her education.

Mrs. Carrie Horner left last night for Portland, to attend the quarterly meeting of the American Legion Ladies' auxiliary executive committee for Oregon, to which she was elected at the recent convention at The Dalles. Important business will be transacted, said Mrs. Horner, this being the first session of the executive committee since the convention.

Thursday—

Arnold Raingstead has returned from his vacation.

Dr. Charles F. Bloom went to Portland last night on business.

H. J. Overturf left last night for Portland on a business trip.

Mrs. E. G. Benson of Millican was in Bend yesterday, shopping.

H. C. Ellis left last night for Portland for a short business trip.

Glenn H. Slack of the Arnold district is spending the day in Bend.

R. S. Hamilton left last night for Portland, expecting to return Friday.

J. P. Dye, a University of Oregon student, is spending several days in Bend.

Mrs. J. E. Smith was taken to Portland last night for medical treatment.

James Smith returned this morning from Portland, where he has been for some time.

U. Koenig and daughter, of Pendleton, were in Bend last night on their way to Portland.

(Continued on Page 6.)

Put it in The Bulletin.