

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Shaw spent Sunday at Sparks lake.

Miss Dorothy Dodds will leave tomorrow for Eugene, to enter U. of O. as a freshman.

A social meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow at the church parlors.

Mrs. F. V. Smith of Silver Lake was in Bend last night on her way to Portland for treatment for blood poisoning in her hand.

Mrs. E. S. Hamil went to Redmond last night to make her home, her husband having moved his dental equipment there, to set up an office.

S. W. Hubble, local service station proprietor, and C. Hall, manager of the Union Oil plant, left today on a duck hunting trip to Silver Lake.

Miss Hazel Hakes, who has been visiting with Mrs. Hattie Mayne and family for several weeks, returned last night to her home in Portland.

E. R. Ryan, who has been spending some time at his home here, left last night for McCloud, where he is employed in the office of the McCloud River Lumber Co.

Mrs. S. P. Dicks of Lakeview was in Bend last night, coming this far with her daughter, Miss Mabel Dicks, who was on her way to a school in the Willamette valley.

Misses Margaret and Louise Inabitt will leave tomorrow for Eugene, where they will attend U. of O. this year. Margaret will be a sophomore, and Louise will enter as a freshman.

Miss Nettie McCullough of Prineville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dudley Shaw, for several weeks, has returned to Prineville. She expects to leave soon for Portland, where she will spend the winter.

Walter A. Dutton, grazing examiner on the Minam national forest, was in Bend yesterday conferring with Jack Horton, examiner on the Deschutes forest, on range appraisal matters.

Mrs. M. E. Houghton, district manager of the Fraternal Brotherhood, arrived in Bend last night to begin the work of organizing a lodge here. She is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Larrabee.

The Rebekah lodge will entertain the Odd Fellows at a social meeting at Sather's hall on Friday evening, following the Rebekah business meeting. The Odd Fellows are asked to come at 9 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

The clock presented by the class of 1921 to the Bend high school is being moved from the hall to the auditorium. The relief, "Spirit of 1917," presented by the 1922 class, will be placed on the wall in the hallway soon, announces Principal Arthur S. Taylor.

Mrs. E. B. Little of Eugene was in Bend last night on her way home from Burns, where she has been visiting. She was accompanied by Misses June Dalton and Gwendolen Lampshire, who were on their way to Eugene to enter U. of O.

M. J. Higgins left last night for his former home in Washington, taking his small daughter there. The family came here for Mrs. Higgins' health. She is in a local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eastman of Gateway stopped in Bend today to visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Cashman, on their way to Ashland.

Warren Topping, son of Sheriff Topping of Jefferson county, is recovering after a critical operation for appendicitis, performed in Bend Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Heyman of New Orleans are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mannheim. Mrs. Heyman and Mrs. Mannheim are sisters.

Dr. E. S. Hamil, who has been practicing dentistry in the offices of the Bend Dental Co., is moving his equipment to Redmond, where he will locate.

Miss Frances Heyburn left last night for Seattle, to resume her work at the University of Washington, where she will be a sophomore this year.

Miss Esther Bechen left last night for Hillsboro to visit with her parents before returning to her home in California. She has been visiting with her sisters, Misses Eleanor and Martha Bechen.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Dron are in Bend from Prineville today. They expect to return to Bend to make their home within two weeks. Dron, formerly an engineer for the Bend Water, Light & Power Co., has been connected with the forest service at Prineville this summer.

County Superintendent J. Alton Thompson left this morning to drive to Monmouth, accompanied by his daughters, Misses Frances and Mary Thompson, who will enter the Oregon Normal school there.

John C. Hill, shipping clerk for The Shevlin-Hixon Company, will leave tomorrow with Mrs. Hill to drive to Emmett, Idaho, for a two weeks' vacation. George Pauly will fill Hill's position during his absence.

Mrs. George H. Prince of St. Paul, Minn., is in Bend for a three weeks' visit with her son, Frank R. Prince. She is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln. They came here from Portland, where they attempted the Episcopal convention. Mrs. Prince was elected to represent Province No. 5, Minnesota, on the executive board of the woman's auxiliary of the church.

Friday— Roy L. Newell of Prineville was a visitor in Bend today.

C. E. Johnson of Alfalfa is in Bend today on business.

Clyde M. McKay has returned from a short business trip to Portland.

W. C. Hollinshead of La Pine was in Bend today on business.

Hugh Thompson returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland.

Miss Alice Eaton of La Pine was in Bend last night on her way to Portland.

Francis E. Lee and Valley Dykstra of Millican were in Bend on business today.

J. R. McKenzie and family have come to Bend from Portland to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sparks left this forenoon to drive to Pendleton, where they will attend the roundup.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Campbell of St. Helen's place are the parents of a six and one-half pound baby girl, born yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Freeland and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Devaul of Long Beach, Cal., are visiting with H. R. Shanno for a few days.

T. C. Merchant, who has a ranch in the Arnold district, left today for Fort Rock, where he will be employed at the ranger station.

B. L. Riedel, formerly in the insurance business here, is now associated with E. L. Vinal in the office of the Bend Investment Co.

Superintendent G. W. Ager of the Bend schools left this morning for Portland. Ager's two sons will go from here to Eugene, to enter U. of O.

Mrs. F. B. Clark, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Johnson on a ranch near Bend, returned last night to her home in Portland.

Miss Myrtle Rice left yesterday morning for Portland, later to go to Eugene to resume her studies at U. of O., where she will be a sophomore this year.

Mrs. T. C. Church left last night for Portland to visit with friends. With her went Miss Bernice Haines, who will visit with her mother, Mrs. Charles Haines, who has just left a hospital there after a protracted illness.

Vaiborg Gribskov left last night for Aleska, where she will teach domestic science in the high school. She has been associated with her

Monday— E. Ballah of Deschutes is in Bend today.

J. L. Parberry of Cloverdale is in Bend today.

E. B. Tomes of La Pine is in Bend today on business.

William Horsell of Alfalfa is a visitor in Bend today.

H. K. Brooks left last night on a business trip to Portland.

S. R. Purcell left last night on a business trip to Portland.

Pearl Lynes of the Tumalo fish hatchery is in Bend today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reeder of Silver Lake were in Bend on Sunday.

Mrs. W. L. O'Donnell left last night for San Diego, to be gone six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pickett of Terrebonne are spending the day in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sparks have returned from Pendleton, where they attended the roundup.

Louis Bennett returned yesterday from a hunting trip in the Silver Lake and Summer Lake district.

Dr. Grant Skinner and Dr. W. G. Manning have returned from Pendleton, where they attended the roundup.

Mrs. W. G. Fordham, wife of the postmaster at La Pine who has been seriously ill, is reported to be improving.

H. H. De Armond left yesterday for Portland, planning to go to Salem later in the week before returning to Bend.

Miss Gene Schwartz of Burns was in Bend yesterday on her way to Seattle, where she will attend U. of W.

A social meeting of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters lodges will be held on Wednesday evening at Sather's hall.

A number of candidates will be initiated into the Modern Woodmen of America lodge at the meeting Tuesday night at Sather's hall.

Douglas Johnson, publisher of the La Pine Intermountain, and his family spent the week end in Bend, returning today to their home at La Pine.

Hans Zimmerman of Crescent, who is in Bend today on business, reports that work on the Crescent lake dam is being rushed in anticipation of winter weather.

Mrs. J. H. Corbett, who has been visiting with relatives here, returned last night to her home at Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Corbett was formerly a student at the Bend high school.

Mrs. Mabel K. Stringer and her daughter left this morning to drive to Yakima, Wash., where they intend to make their home. Mrs. Stringer has lived in Bend for 10 years. Her husband, who was a locomotive engineer, died three years ago.

Saturday— Glenn H. Slack of the Arnold district is in Bend today.

Donald Stuart has gone to his ranch on Crooked river.

John Tuck, Redmond grade school principal, is in Bend today.

Mrs. J. Seifert went to Madras last night to visit for a short time.

Mrs. C. A. Warner went to Portland last night to visit for several days.

George P. Gove, superintendent of the Brooks-Scanlon mill, went to Portland last night for a short business trip.

Harry Godney was expected to arrive in Bend today to visit with his mother, Mrs. Charles La Kocque. He has been living at Red Wing, Minn.

Mrs. F. W. Palmerton left this week for a visit at Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston, planning to return in six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Daughenbaugh of Millican have gone to California for a month's visit with Mrs. Daughenbaugh's parents.

Miss Eva Whittington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Whittington of this city, left yesterday for New York, where she will enter a school in millinery and designing.

Joe H. Miller, construction foreman for the Larkin & Green Lumber Co. near Astoria, left last night for his home after spending several days in Bend.

Alice Riggs, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Riggs of Powell Butte, was operated on last night at the St. Charles hospital for appendicitis.

Oscar F. Sells and Miss Linnie May Butler, both of Bend, are the principals named in a marriage license issued from the office of the Deschutes county clerk this morning.

Pilgrim Commandery, Knights Templar, will hold its first meeting following the summer recess, tonight at the Masonic hall. In order to allow the Eastern Star lodge to meet with the grand worthy matron, the commandery meeting will be brief.

W. A. Millican of Wällerville, on the McKenzie highway, was in Bend today on business. He is a son of George Millican, a pioneer settler of Central Oregon, who brought the first band of cattle to this part of the state in 1843.

Ducks are plentiful at all of the lakes in Harney and Malheur counties which were visited by R. S. Hamilton, J. Antles and J. O. Felker, they reported on their return last night after a trip of several days. William Hanley of Burns accompanied them on the first two days of their trip.

Thorson Bennett, who has been visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Paul Woerner, for six weeks, left last night for Forest Grove, where he will attend Pacific university, where he has been awarded a scholarship. He will be on the university football squad this fall. He was graduated last spring from the high school, Milton. His mother, Mrs. Homer Bennett, is also visiting with her sister, Mrs. Woerner.

To meet with the Ladies' Aid society of the Redmond Baptist church, 20 members of the Bend Aid society left for Redmond on the morning train, planning to return this evening.

Star Values!

Prices that interest your Pocketbook on things you need now.

- COTTON BLANKETS—Double bed size, pair ..... $2.39
- WOOLNAP BLANKETS—Fancy plaids and large size, pair ..... $4.65
- COMFORTERS—See the big values at $3.45
- JAP CREPE—Eight colors. Special yd. .... 29c
- DRESS GINGHAM—27-inch; yard ..... 19c
- CHALLIES—For comforter covers, yard wide ..... 19c
- PERCALES—A big line; a yard ..... 19c
- OUTING FLANNEL—Yard wide, fancy stripes; heavy weight; yard ..... 25c
- ROMPER CLOTH—32-in. fast colors; yd. 25c
- WOMEN'S UNION SUITS—Winter weight, cotton; all styles; all sizes; garment ..... 98c
- MEN'S UNIONS—Heavy ribbed cotton; a star value; garment ..... $1.49
- BOYS' KNEE PANTS—Another star value; pair ..... $1.25
- BOYS' SHOES—Black or brown calf; all solid leather and big values ..... $2.98
- GIRLS' SCHOOL SHOES—For big girls, sizes up to 7; brown or black calf; special, pr. $3.95

SEE OUR BARGAIN TABLE FOR CHILDREN'S SHOES

Your Money's Worth on Every Purchase

WARNER'S

Dresses Arrived Today!

Greatest Offer of the Season

Poiret, Canton Crepe and Satin Faced Canton Dresses

$18.75

A very special purchase that enables us to offer these Fine Dresses at $18.75; a price that enables you to refresh your fall wardrobe economically right at the beginning of the new season.

SALE NOW ON

We regret very much that these dresses did not arrive Saturday as we expected. They are here now and are all most beautiful garments.

Come early to get best choice, as only 25 dresses are included in this lot.

It Always Pays to Stop and Shop at

MANNHEIMER'S
THE QUALITY STORE OF BEND

The Store of Superior Service

Thursday— Clyde M. McKay went to Portland last night to spend several days.

Mrs. R. M. Doran was operated on at a local hospital this morning.

A. C. Kirtis of Tumalo is in Bend today on business.

George W. Duke of Crescent was in Bend this morning on business.

Barney Madsen was in Bend today from his ranch on the Metolius.

J. J. Wilt of Sisters was a visitor in Bend today.

Charles H. Graffenberger of Millican was in Bend today on business.

The ladies of the St. Francis church will hold a food sale Saturday at the O'Donnell market.

Miss Melba Bode went to Redmond last night for a visit of several days with her mother.

Gordon Sammons, Madras attorney, left last night for his home after spending two days here on business.

H. A. Miller, manager of the Miller Lumber Co., went to Portland last night on business.

Walter Coombs, manager of the Bend Garage, went to Portland last night on business.

Tom Murphy returned to Bend this morning after a trip to middle western points.

F. E. Hunter was initiated into the rank of page by the Knights of Pythias lodge at last night's meeting.

Elmer Ryan, formerly auditor in the Shevlin-Hixon office here, is in Bend for a few days from his home in McCloud, California.

S. A. Blakley, logging superintendent for the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co., left last night for Portland on a short business trip.

To meet with the Ladies' Aid society of the Redmond Baptist church, 20 members of the Bend Aid society left for Redmond on the morning train, planning to return this evening.

George P. Gove, superintendent of the Brooks-Scanlon mill, went to Portland last night for a short business trip.

Harry Godney was expected to arrive in Bend today to visit with his mother, Mrs. Charles La Kocque. He has been living at Red Wing, Minn.

Mrs. F. W. Palmerton left this week for a visit at Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston, planning to return in six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Daughenbaugh of Millican have gone to California for a month's visit with Mrs. Daughenbaugh's parents.

Miss Eva Whittington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Whittington of this city, left yesterday for New York, where she will enter a school in millinery and designing.

Joe H. Miller, construction foreman for the Larkin & Green Lumber Co. near Astoria, left last night for his home after spending several days in Bend.

Alice Riggs, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Riggs of Powell Butte, was operated on last night at the St. Charles hospital for appendicitis.

Oscar F. Sells and Miss Linnie May Butler, both of Bend, are the principals named in a marriage license issued from the office of the Deschutes county clerk this morning.

Pilgrim Commandery, Knights Templar, will hold its first meeting following the summer recess, tonight at the Masonic hall. In order to allow the Eastern Star lodge to meet with the grand worthy matron, the commandery meeting will be brief.

W. A. Millican of Wällerville, on the McKenzie highway, was in Bend today on business. He is a son of George Millican, a pioneer settler of Central Oregon, who brought the first band of cattle to this part of the state in 1843.

Ducks are plentiful at all of the lakes in Harney and Malheur counties which were visited by R. S. Hamilton, J. Antles and J. O. Felker, they reported on their return last night after a trip of several days. William Hanley of Burns accompanied them on the first two days of their trip.

Thorson Bennett, who has been visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Paul Woerner, for six weeks, left last night for Forest Grove, where he will attend Pacific university, where he has been awarded a scholarship. He will be on the university football squad this fall. He was graduated last spring from the high school, Milton. His mother, Mrs. Homer Bennett, is also visiting with her sister, Mrs. Woerner.

To meet with the Ladies' Aid society of the Redmond Baptist church, 20 members of the Bend Aid society left for Redmond on the morning train, planning to return this evening.