MAYOR OFFERS TO RESIGN ON BASIS OF VOTE

Council Against Move Suggested in Secret Session

SEEK TO ADD MEMBER

Members of Outgoing Administration Name A. O. Schilling to Succeed Fox—Budget Meeting Friday Night.

Because of the small vote cast for him in last Tuesday's election, Mayor E. D. Gibson, in a special secret session of the Bend council held shortly before noon Thursday in his offices in the O'Kane building, offered to resign as city executive.

Pick Councilman-Elect

To fill the vacancy in the council which has existed for months, caused first by the illness, and later by the death of Lon L. Fox, A. O. Schilling, a member of the newly elected council, was chosen to start his official duties at once.

Because of the inability of J. P. Hennessy to serve on the city budget advisory committee, E. A. Sather was designated for the position.

Windshield Yields Before Engineer's Sturdy Nose; Glass Smashed by Impact

Robert B. Gould, city engineer, is entitled to claim that his nose is more durable than plate glass. When that feature collided with the windshield of Gould's car last Friday, it was the glass that broke and not the nose.

DISTRICT GETS THREE AWARDS

Central Oregon First in All Nettle Gem Classes at Portland Show

Central Oregon Nettle Gem potatoes took first places in all three classes at the Pacific International livestock show, according to Deschutes County Agriculturalist A. T. McDonald, who had charge of the county's exhibits there.

Deschutes county entered no five bushel display; but S. D. Mustard of Powell Butte, just across the line in Crook county, took first place in this event, and in the competition on 10 specimens, in which Deschutes county took second.

The stock show in general was more than usually successful, being featured by close competition in all departments, particularly in the dairy cattle exhibits.

BEND-BURNS ROAD IS STILL PASSABLE

The trip from Bend to Burns can still be made easily without chains, although there is some snow along the route and a large portion of the road is frozen and rough, according to William Fraser, driver of the Bend-Burns stage.

"ARMY" TO OPEN ITS WORK HERE

Captain and Mrs. Broadbent to Start Mission Next Week

Salvation Army work will be begun in Bend next week in charge of Captain and Mrs. Thomas Broadbent, it was announced Wednesday by Brigadier John W. Hay, commander of the Oregon division.

Captain Broadbent has recently left his employment as a railway shop machinist, to enter the Salvation Army work with his wife, who had many years of experience as an officer previous to her marriage.

Salvation Army work throughout the state is advancing rapidly, a number of new missions being opened recently, Hay says. One at Baker was opened this week.

BEND'S BUDGET IS INCREASED AS CITY GROWS

Gain Is Seen in Majority of Departments

$77,790.00 SET AS LEVY

Estimated Receipts Cut Down the Amount to Be Raised by $5800 —Uncollected Taxes Keep City in Warrant Hole

A 1923 budget increase for Bend of $2,169.70 over that in effect during the present year will involve a levy of $9,799.70 in excess of that made to finance 1922 city expenses, it was made known Monday in the report of the city council and the advisory committee which fixes the 1923 budget at $83,590, and the amount to be raised by taxation at $77,790.

Check against these is the estimate of expected receipts, totaling $5,800.

Items appearing in the new budget making up the $83,590 total are: Bonded debt, $20,000; legal department, $750; recorder, $2,500; treasurer, $1,225; auditing, $1,200; police department, $5,510; fire department, $10,130; health and sanitary department, $2,580; street and bridge department, $14,000; sewers, $800; cemetery, $2,500; parks and grounds, $1,400; library, $5,000; rest room, $240; woman's protective division, $900; property and improvements (principal and interest payments on camp ground), $1,180; interest on warrants, $2,000; to retire outstanding warrants, $5,136; estimated tax loss, $5,000; emergency, $1,000.

Checking against these is the estimate of expected receipts, totaling $5,800.

Figures taken from the office of the recorder show that unpaid taxes are responsible for the city still being saddled with a warrant indebtedness. Unpaid taxes are $21,361 in excess of paid taxes.
