"SALLY" PROMISES TO BE COMEDY HIT
Musical Numbers Add to Enjoyment of Farce to Be Presented on Friday by B. H. S. Juniors

Irresistible comedy from beginning to end is what audiences Friday at the high school auditorium will see and hear, when the high school junior class presents "Who Has Seen Sally?" under the direction of Miss Helen B. Warnes. The play resembles in its clever arrangement of situations and lines, a comic opera rather than the usual farce comedy; and as a matter of fact there are a number of songs to add further to the enjoyment. A musical novelty will be the work of the "newsboy chorus," members of which are Harold Darling, Gerald Hicks, Henry Calder and Leo Harryman.

A large share of the comedy falls to "Cholley Choplin," played by Stuart Rae, who reveals in rehearsal that he is well suited to the part. Other members of the cast are Vincent Clarno as Ah Sin, Leo Harryman as Muggsy, Homer Epperson as Hogan, Phil Philbrook as Fatty Hires, Donald Hudson as Mr. Clark, Ruth Garner as Miss Sourapple, Sarah Davis as Mary, Elsie Johnson as Mrs. Hayseed, Elizabeth Stauffer as Hanner Hayseed, Florence Pattle in the title role as Sally Clark, Gladys McConnell as Vida Vamp, Lillian Brown as Molly, Lola Whitmore as Lollie, Katherine Dugan as Dolly, Katherine Bond as Polly, Alma Jaeger as Folly.

A matinee for grade school pupils will be given at 2:30 o'clock on Friday, and the performance for adults will begin at 8:15 o'clock in the evening. The matinee will be at the Grand theater, the evening performance at the high school.

GARAGE CREDITORS HOLD MEETING SOON
Trustee to Be Appointed for Bend
Motor Service Co.—Owl Pharmacy Bankrupt

Creditors of the Bend Motor Service Company, adjudged bankrupt, will hold their first meeting on Monday, December 11, according to notices received by them from G. C. Morgan, referee. The meeting will be at 10 o'clock a. m. at Morgan's office. A trustee will be appointed.

The Bend Motor Service Company suspended operations late in August, when creditors raided the garage, removing automobiles, parts, tires and office equipment.

Announcement that the Owl Pharmacy is in bankruptcy was made Friday. Its liabilities are estimated at $12,000 and its assets at $7,000.

SUPREME OFFICER OF K. OF P. TO BE HERE
For the first time since the organization of Deschutes Lodge No. 103, Knights of Pythias, one of the supreme officers of the order will be in Bend, on Thursday, December 21. Harry M. Love, supreme keeper of records and seal, will be here, accompanied by Grand Chancellor W. F. Hardesty, and Walter G. Gleason, grand keeper of records and seal of Oregon, and other grand officers.

A "Bible class" in the first rank will be initiated at that time, the Pythians exchanging meeting nights that week with the Moose lodge. The Bible used in early initiations by Justice Rathbone, founder of the order, will be used. A number of candidates are being held for this occasion.

ALBANY NEUTRAL ON P. & S. ROUTE PLAN
While favoring a Hogg pass railroad route across the Cascades rather than the Natron cutoff, the Albany

Chamber of Commerce has decided to remain neutral on the matter of the Portland & Southeastern claims, according to word received by the Bend Commercial club.

FARM BUREAU FOR RETAINING AGENT
Unanimously favoring the continuation of the office of county agriculturist, the Deschutes County Farm bureau executive committee decided at a meeting held last Wednesday at Redmond to do everything possible to see that the office is retained. President E. M. Eby reported on the state convention.

station a few minutes before Hollinshead and had unlocked the house.

Woman Patient in Hospital
Sunday morning Mrs. Nichols knew definitely for the first time that she had killed Greer, being informed by her attorney. She took the news calmly. When she arrived in Bend at 3:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon, bringing the first news of the shooting which had occurred at 11 o'clock the same morning, she believed that the shot had been fatal, but said that she had not stopped to make sure.

Mrs. Nichols, who Saturday was in a state of acute nervous breakdown, necessitating her removal to a hospital, is greatly improved, it is stated by hospital attendants, Saturday, after her confession to Sheriff Roberts and her statement to Deputy Sheriff Terril that she had shot in self defense, she became violently hysterical. "My God, my baby, my baby; don't let her know of this," she moaned, when an attempt was made to interview her in the jail. She begged piteously that no mention be made of her relatives in Seattle and Ellensburg, fearing that they would refuse to come to her assistance.

The final chapter in the Greer death case, so far as Bend is concerned, was written this Wednesday afternoon, when funeral services were held here from the Newswinger chapel for the man who Saturday morning was shot to death by Mrs. Nichols. The funeral had been unannounced, arrangements having been completed only Tuesday by J. M. Greer, a brother who arrived Tuesday from Ellensburg, and the attendance was not large. Rev. F. R. Sibley of the Methodist church had charge of the service. Burial was in Pilot Butte cemetery, but the body may later be moved, the brother says.

The body was brought here Tuesday night from Crescent, where, following an inquest conducted by Klamath county authorities, a verdict was returned stating that Greer came to his death as the result of a gunshot wound inflicted with criminal intent by Mrs. Nichols, on December 2 at the Summit stage station.

Woman Taunted
Taunting her with lack of nerve, and daring her to shoot, Robert Greer went to his death Saturday morning at the hands of Mrs. Nichols. Unafraid even when the woman stood with his automatic pistol pointed at him, Greer made the threats to force her to support him, which caused her to fire the fatal shot. The quarrel had started when Mrs. Nichols declared that she wanted to go back to her baby, a request which Greer had flatly refused.

This was the information secured from Sheriff S. E. Roberts, following his return from Crescent, where he went to turn Mrs. Nichols over to Klamath county authorities.

WIDOW GETS BOOZE BOND
ELLENSBURG, Wash., Dec. 6.—Five hundred dollars bond posted by Robert Greer on his conviction of moonshining a few days before he left Ellensburg with Mrs. I. A. Nichols some six weeks ago, will be given to Mrs. Greer, widowed when Mrs. Nichols shot Greer to death at the Summit stage station in Klamath county, Oregon, last Saturday.
