

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Coyner are parents of a baby boy, born Monday afternoon.

W. R. Coleman of the Central Oregon Furniture Co. left last night for Centralla on business.

Mrs. Gladys Pepper, who has been visiting in Bend, left last night for her home at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Lindsay are parents of a baby girl, weighing 11 1/2 pounds, born this morning.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid society will hold its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the church.

Charles Boyd, local butcher, left last night for Cle Elum, Wash., to spend several days on business.

Thomas Going, Jr., two years ago a student at the local high school, is seriously ill with Bright's disease in Portland.

Misses Margaret U'Ren and Elsie Grant returned to their homes at Madras last night after spending the day in Bend.

The Thimble club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold a bazaar and food sale at the Oregon market on Saturday, December 16.

Mrs. J. H. Corbett, formerly of Bend, and her daughter, left last night for their home at Vancouver, Wash., after visiting with relatives here for several days.

Mrs. H. C. Dodds, who has been visiting in Wisconsin with relatives, is expected to return to her home here tonight. She has spent several days in The Dalles on her way home.

Tuesday—

E. G. Rourke, Crescent merchant, is in Bend today.

L. M. Foss went to Portland last night on business.

H. B. Gould, city engineer, went to Portland last night on business.

D. G. McPherson left last night for Portland, to spend today on business.

Misses Margaret U'Ren and Elsie Grant of Madras visited in Bend today.

W. R. Cravens left last night for his home in Vancouver, Wash., after a short visit here.

Mrs. S. R. Peoples, who was operated on yesterday at St. Charles hospital, is reported to be improving.

Miss Eileen Elliott of The Dalles is visiting with her father, R. M. Elliott, proprietor of the Wright hotel.

Gus Schroeder of Silver Lake is in Bend on his way home from Portland, where he went last week on business.

Mrs. F. P. Stewart of Redmond visited in Bend yesterday with Mrs. Valley Gile. She returned last night to her home.

P. M. Stephens and his daughter, Miss Marie Stephens, left last night for Portland, where they expect to make their home.

Erwin Kohfeld and P. Kohfeld will return soon from Reedley, Cal., where they have been for several weeks on business.

Tom George, Dan King, J. A. Thomas, Kary Nyman and John McEwen, patients at St. Charles hospital, are all reported to be doing well.

J. E. Hellenius, traveling representative of the Four L organization in the northwest, arrived in Bend this morning for one of his periodical visits.

Mrs. Ellen Robideaux left last night to return to her home at Everett, Wash., after visiting in Bend with her daughters, Mrs. A. Prater and Mrs. P. E. Chase.

County Commissioners M. W. Knickerbocker and M. C. Conlon left last night for Portland, to attend the annual convention of county commissioners and judges.

Dr. George H. Young of Portland, Baptist state worker, left last night for Portland after coming here yesterday from Redmond, where he conducted a B. Y. P. U. rally Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church will meet on Wednesday with Mrs. A. E. Bostic, 606 Federal street. Mrs. Bostic will be assisted in serving by Mrs. F. H. Gallagher.

Maurice Langston, who has been employed as a pharmacist at Horton's drug store for several months, left this morning for San Francisco. After visiting there for a short time he will go to Montana, where he will take a position as travelling drug salesman.

W. M. McPhail, president of the Warren Construction Co., was in Bend last night, coming here after spending the day at Redmond on business in connection with the presentation of a bid on the C. O. I. flume reconstruction. He left on the night train for Portland.

Dr. E. E. Gray, dentist, has moved his offices to Rooms 2 and 4, O'Kane building. The rooms have been redecorated, and the waiting room fitted with new furniture. The offices which Dr. Gray formerly occupied in the same building will be used by Dr. George Vandeventer.

Monday—

Frank Lowell of Brothers is a visitor in Bend today.

Jack Long of Paisley is spending several days in Bend.

Mrs. Lee Putnam is visiting with her parents at Stanfield.

Mrs. A. J. Tucker went to Portland last night, called by the serious illness of a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Nelson were in Bend today from their home in the Grange hall district.

Elaborate Christmas decorations have been arranged at the Bend Water Light & Power Co. office.

The Woman's Civic league will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley T. Craig left last night for Metolus. Mr. Craig was to go to Madras today as a witness in circuit court.

Herschel Coy of Vancouver, Wash., was in Bend over the week end, visiting with Mrs. Coy, who is a teacher at the Central school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Egli of Suntey are in Bend on their way home from Portland, where they have been visiting since the stock show.

Mrs. John Thomas of Redmond spent Sunday visiting with her husband, who is in a hospital here. Her sister, Miss Edith Ripley, accompanied her.

Robert Schaefer, employed in the dry kiln department at the Shevlin-Hixon plant, suffered the accidental amputation of the tips of two fingers while at work Saturday.

Captain and Mrs. C. W. Woodward and child, of the Presidia, San Francisco, are visiting with Mrs. Woodward's father, Fred Stanley, at Deschutes. Captain Woodward has been stationed at Fort William, Manila, P. I. for three and one-half years, being recently transferred to the Presidio.

Saturday—

J. Chesley Redifer of Redmond was in Bend today on business.

George Roberts of the Arnold district is a visitor in Bend today.

Miss Marjorie Wells, school teacher at Deschutes, is spending the day in Bend.

Blaine Devers of Tumalo was in the city this morning on his way home from Portland.

Miss Hazel Blalock, who has been ill with scarlet fever, was released from quarantine today.

Frank R. Prince, who has been in Portland for several days, returned on this morning's train.

R. C. Craat, who has been ill with scarlet fever at the Lumberman's hospital, left today for his home.

Miss Naomi Hoskins of the high school faculty went to Redmond last night to spend the week end with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Olson of Olson's dairy, east of Bend, are parents of an eight pound baby girl, born this morning.

Jack O'Keefe and Jack O'Callaghan, prominent Central Oregon sheepmen, arrived in Bend today from Portland.

F. A. McNorton, auditor for the Audit Bureau of Circulation, is in Bend today, inspecting the circulation records of The Bulletin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Livingston are the proud parents of an 8 1/2 pound baby boy, born Friday. Livingston is a sawyer in the Brooks-Scanlon mill.

W. A. Loche, employed at Shevlin-Hixon Camp No. 2, is at the Lumberman's hospital, recovering from an injury to his head sustained this week.

Members of the Bend high school senior class cleared over $11 at their candy sale held last night at the high school auditorium, at the time of the junior class play. Their entire stock of candy was sold.

Friday—

John Cook of Alfalfa is a visitor in the city today.

W. B. Daggert of Redmond is in Bend today on business.

The Baptist ladies will hold a bazaar Saturday at the Oregon Meat Market.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hethorn were in Bend today from their ranch at Alfalfa.

A. E. Frieberg went to Portland last night to spend two days on business.

Mrs. H. S. Royce left last night for Chicago, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. George Borrowman and son left last night to spend two weeks in Portland.

Jack Snodgrass left last night for Leavenworth, Wash., where he will make his home.

Where You Will Find The Best Gifts for Men

While on your shopping tour, be sure to stop in at the Men's Gift headquarters and see the remarkable display which we, through weeks of diligent searching and buying, have gathered for your early viewing. Everything in the haberdashery line is on display.

First of all, any one of the hundreds of Men's Shirts in various fabrics is sure to make "him" delighted. To see is to appreciate them.

- New Broadcloth Shirts in individual boxes ..... $3.75
- Silk Stripe Woven Madras Shirts ..... $2.50
- Silk Shirts ..... $3.50 to $6.75

No matter how many Ties he now has, you will agree after seeing our Neckwear suggestions, that he can use one or two more.

Knit Ties, 50c, 65c, 75c, 95c
Cut Silk Ties ..... 50c to $2.25
All the new shades and many designs.

If he is in need of a Belt, this is the place to get it. We can provide it in the most durable leather and with a plain or fancy buckle.
Bridal Leather Belts 50c, 65c
Initial Buckles ..... 50c
Lodge Buckles ..... 65c
Silver Front Buckles ..... $1.00
Fancy Belts, in Boxes ..... $1.15, 1.50, $1.75

Give him something he always wants but seldom buys for himself—A House Coat or a Bath Robe. We have some splendid styles.

- House Coats ..... $8.50 to $12.50
- Bath Robes, of Beacon Cloth ..... $5.95 to $7.75

A Sweater Coat is a dandy Gift—especially if you choose from our big stock.
Sweaters ..... $2.50 to $8.50
Sport Coats ..... $4.50 to $7.50

Smart Silk or Cotton Hose in Gift boxes—an ideal and sensible Gift for men.
Interwoven Lisle Sox, pr. 40c
Interwoven Silk Sox, pr. 75c, $1.25, $2.25

Be Sure to include Gloves in your Gift list.
Lined Gloves ..... $1.95 to $3.95
Wool Gloves ..... 50c to $1.00
Kid Gloves ..... $2.25 to $3.50

A GIFT CERTIFICATE FOR A SUIT OR OVERCOAT MAKES A SPLENDID GIFT

SHOP EARLY IN THE SEASON AND EARLY IN THE DAY

MANNHEIMER'S

THE QUALITY STORE of BEND

When You Select GIFTS From Our Stock You Are Sure of Quality

FORMER BEND COACH LOSER IN BIG FIRE

Ted Sexton, athletic coach and manual training instructor in the local high school several years ago, now teaching at Astoria, was one of the many who lost a large share of their household goods in the fire last week. He and his wife and daughter were living in the Stradan apartments, which were burned. An early warning made it possible for them to save some of their property. Sexton is a brother of Mrs. George J. Childs of Bend.

Put it in The Bulletin.

TOYS! TOYS!

A most wonderful collection of the very latest creations in Mechanical Toys, just received from Santa Claus' Work Shop.

There is one or more toys for every good boy and girl in Bend.

The stock is all displayed on tables and counters so it may be easily selected.

Come and pick out the toys you want NOW. A small deposit will hold them for you until just before Christmas. This will save you the inconvenience of the last minute rush.

TOY LAND (Fair Store)

ASKS CONTRIBUTIONS IN A. R. C. CAMPAIGN

Enrollment in the Red Cross may still be made, and those who may have been missed in the membership canvass are urged to make their contributions to Mrs. V. A. Forbes, Frank R. Prince, or Rev. F. H. Beard, in a statement issued by Rev. Beard as chairman of the Christmas roll call. He asks for prompt action on this point as reports to northwest headquarters are already overdue.