SMALLFOX PREVENTS COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

COUNTY TO PAY SMALLER LEGI

Larger Receipts Estimated Shaved County Taxes Less

The total tax levy of $37,893.45 was approved by the Board of County Commissioners at its regular meeting last Monday. The levy is $1,500 less than the levy in 1938 and $1,100 less than the levy in 1937. This reduction amounts to two-thirds of a mill reduction in the tax rate.

Mrs. H. J. Smith, who has been ill for several weeks, returned home from the hospital last Monday.

Ina, Mrs. Foster’s daughter, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. M. D. Foster, Mrs. M. C. Sherrill and Mrs. M. E. Foster, all of whom have been ill for some time, are improving.

Will Peterson and Edgar Winkles were out from Redmond last Saturday.

Many people were surprised to see Mrs. Mary E. Tierney and Mrs. H. H. Tierney out from Portland on Saturday.

GONZAGA LOSES CHRISTMAS GAME

In the game of basketball played last night, Gonzaga was led by the score of 20-17 in the first half, but the Nevada team came back in the second half and won the game by the score of 38-25.

Selling by Proved Measurement

Throughout the United States and Canada, newspapers and magazines in the country, and practically every newspaper and advertising agency in the country, are willing to have the facts about their circulation known—holds membership in the organization.

An auditor would no more accept the press run, or the mailing list, or the audit, any more than he would accept an aircraft manufacturers’ specification.

The Audit Bureau of Circulations is a non-profit organization.

The Audit Bureau of Circulations

Practically every advertiser and advertising agency in the country, and practically every newspaper and magazine in the country, are willing to have the facts about their circulation known—holds membership in the organization.

An auditor would no more accept the press run, or the mailing list, or the audit, any more than he would accept an aircraft manufacturers’ specification.

The Audit Bureau of Circulations is a non-profit organization.