ON RETURN TO BELGIUM

Germany is far from being down and out.

This was the statement made by Father Barry, of the Franciscan church, just returned from a four months' visit to Germany and Austria. Both of these countries were spent working in Germany and Austria, and he found Leopold in the tenement housing blocks, and the mass of the people apparently in a favorable circumstance of want.

The people are not well dressed, but from all he heard from them there was not real distress. The suffering man is better in his Breslau, according to his father.
