Edward Street, of Effe, is a Bend visitor today.

J. J. Gagen is reported to be ill with the grip.

J. E. Lane left this morning on a business trip to The Dalles, Enterprise and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Knutsen expect to move into their new home in Bend View about December 29.

P. A. Wooley is confined to his room by a severely cut foot, sustained while working on the new Pilot Butte hotel.

J. W. Murray, special agent for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co., arrived yesterday to assist Manager Crotter during the illness of his little girl.

Joseph Young, who sustained a badly crushed foot a few days ago while working in the Wilkinson mill, is reported to be improving nicely at the Bend Surgical hospital.

The Baptist Women's Union will hold its regular monthly business meeting at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Cheney, Louisiana street in Park addition Thursday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

Ansen Brooks, of Minneapolis, treasurer of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co., arrived in Bend this morning and will be the guest of his nephew Harry K. Brooks for a few days. Mr. Brooks will also inspect the operations at the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co.'s plant.

MORE BURNS PRAISE

News Says Treatment of Football Team Cements Bonds.

Now comes another Burns paper, the Harney County News, and says more kind things concerning the treatment accorded the Burns football team on its recent visit here.

Says the News: "So well did the Bend people treat the Burns team that all disappointment regarding the failure of Prineville to stay with their agreement, majestically disappeared. All clubs and social functions in the city were lavish in their deference and showering of courtesies upon the visitors from this city."

"Burns has always considered Bend a very considerate business neighbor, but now the social bonds have been cemented solidly. Burns' team of football players were made up of young business men and those interested in the business life of our city, and this consideration by the sister city has amalgamated the business issues and there will always be the kindest of feelings in Burns for Bend and her wide awake citizens."

At the Movies

The Grand Theatre will have a galaxy of Fox stars this week, and Charlie Chaplin on its list for the coming week. Charlie Chaplin will appear in "The Pawnshop," and it represents just what Chaplin thinks is propriety in a "private banking house." This film will be shown Saturday at a matinee at 2:30 p. m. and evening. Jose Collins, one of the best of the Fox film company's stars, will appear in "A Woman's Honor," a beautiful Italian film, without a blush, at the Grand Sunday and Monday. Clara Kimball Young is probably one of the best known stars representing this film company on the screen, and will appear in the clean, wholesome and absorbing play "The Rise of Susan" at the Grand Tuesday evening.

BEND THEATRE

Ann Pennington appears for the last night in "Susie Snowflake" tonight at the Bend. This film is one of the cleverest of the Paramount pictures' showing. This well known star of the Follies is clever and as Susie she startles the country community in which she lives with her Broadway ways. The fifth chapter of the Lass of the Lumberlands will be shown Thursday and Friday. This chapter is entitled "The Burned Record." On Sunday and Monday Pauline Frederick will appear in "The World's Great Snare." In this photo play Miss Frederick has an opportunity to display her wonderful art and charming personality.

J. Ryan & Company this morning report the following real estate transfers: to E. D. Boylan, house and lot in Highland addition, and to Lester Calloway, lot 7, block 11, with modern four room house in Staats addition.
