OFFICERS ELECTED FOR WOODMEN CAMP

Institution of Branch Here Will Probably Be Delayed Until Second Week in January.

Election of officers for Bend Camp, No. 316, Woodmen of the World, which is to be instituted here in January, was held last night, and it is expected that the officers named will continue after the institution has actually taken place. Although originally listed for this month, it is now thought probable that the ceremonies ushering in the new camp will not be held until January 12, because of the intervening of the holidays.
The new officers are as follows: past consul commander, Joseph T. Boesley; consul commander, Clyde M. McKay; advisor lieutenant, James B. Anderson; clerk, Edgar D. Gilson; banker, Samuel C. Caldwell; escort, Louis Bennett; watchman, Marshal Macklin; sentry, Nolan H. Gilbert; managers, Frank Inabnit, Nicholas P. Smith and J. A. Eastes; physicians, Dr. Dwight F. Miller and Dr. G. L. Cousineau. The managers are elected for six, 12 and 18 months, in the order named.
