NEWLYWEDS ARE IN DOUBT

(Oregonian.)

SALEM, Or., Jan. 5.—(Special.)—An inquiry has been made of George Palmer Putnam, secretary to Governor Withycombe, as to what will become of the Deschutes County brides in event the proceedings which brought that county into existence are declared invalid and the county is wiped from the map. It is understood that a dozen or more couples have been married by the County Judge of the new county. The question arises as to the legality of the marriages by the judge in event it is found his appointment to such office is void from the beginning. Some lawyers say that the marriage still would be legal, as the judge would have been acting as a de facto officer.

Mr. Putnam says he will make no attempt to answer the question. "The county is a legal entity and will never be declared otherwise," he says, "so what's the use?"

WESTERN UNION EQUIPMENT

A large part of the equipment for the city office of the Western Union Telegraph company arrived in Bend yesterday morning and officials and linemen who will have charge of the establishment of the office are expected to arrive in Bend within the next few days.

FARMER BURNS WILL TACKLE BILLY GEORGE

Echo Favorite Willing to Meet Idaho Bearcat Any Date After February 2.

Farmer Burns, now resident at Echo, Oregon, will be ready to meet Billy George in Bend at any date subsequent to February 2, according to a letter received by The Bulletin last night in response to a challenge published in this paper a week ago. In his letter Burns says:

"Editor Bulletin, Bend, Oregon, Gentlemen: In reply to the challenge of Billy George for a return match with me at Bend, would say, that it can easily be secured, for the Farmer is always ready to go. I have a match February 2 in Echo, with Earl Newquist, of Pendleton, and then will be ready for the Idaho Bearcat. Yours truly,
J. A. SWINTON, (Farmer Burns).
Echo, Oregon."

In all probability Billy George will issue a formal challenge to Burns, stipulating the date upon which he will take on the Echo favorite.
