TO START PLAY GROUND FUND

Through the collection of old papers and magazines in Bend, later to be sold in carload lots to Portland paper manufacturers, it is hoped by Superintendent Franklin Thordarson, of the Bend public schools, to develop a fund for the purchase of play grounds in Bend for the school children. The collection of the old papers and magazines will begin at once, and the cooperation of the community is asked in this work.

SCHOOL DISTRICT FIRST CLASS

School District No. 12, of Deschutes county has met all the requirements necessary to be in the classification of first class districts. There are only 19 other first class districts in the state of Oregon. The necessary reorganization of the affairs of the district is expected soon to accompany the rise in the classification.
