Programs due on state geology

The Central Oregon College radio program, to be heard on area stations this week, is the first in a series about the geology of Oregon. The introductory program deals with the divisions of the state and serves as an outline for those to follow.

The information about the geology of Oregon represents many hours of field work by many outstanding geologists. Source authorities for the series include Ewart Baldwin, professor at the University of Oregon; Howel Williams, University of California; Don Wilkinson and Ira Allison, Oregon State University, and Phil Brogan of The Bulletin.

The tape will be heard tonight at 6:30 on station KBND, Bend. The schedule for other broadcasts is as follows: Friday, May 17, KPRB, Prineville, 12:45 p.m.; Monday, May 20, KRCO, Redmond, 4:45 p.m.; Wednesday, May 22, KGRL, Bend, 2 p.m.

Court selection due Thursday

Five Bend High School senior girls, to comprise the court for Bend's 1963 Water Pageant, will be selected at a tea Thursday afternoon at the Pine Tavern. The court will be chosen from a field of 13 candidates.

The tea will be at 3:30 p.m. Voting, by members of the Pageant committee and their wives, will follow at the Chamber of Commerce office. Announcement of the finalists will be made Friday morning.

There are 15 members on the Pageant committee, and it is expected that the number of members and wives able to attend will be around 20. Gary Raper is the newest member of the committee, named recently.

tomorrow. The youngsters are to ride to school on the early bus.

Regular meeting for the Bend Scroptimist Club will be at noon Thursday, in the Superior Cafe dining room.

Bob Thomas of Bend is a new member of the executive committee of the University of Oregon Alumni Association. He was named at a May 10 meeting. Lester E. Anderson, Eugene businessman, is the new president.

Gist boy named for institute

Donald Gist, junior at Bend High School, has been accepted for the Junior Engineers' and Scientists' Summer Institute (JESSI) to be held at Oregon State University June 9-22. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gist, 1588 Aubrey Road.

The JESSI Institute is a two-week exploratory and orientation session in the science and engineering areas of learning. The one in Corvallis is one of 12 around the country.

Classes are held six hours daily, in groups of 25 to 30 students. Each group attends three hours of classes in the morning, two in the afternoon, and a general session in the evening. Students are encouraged to arrange private conferences with the JESSI staff members during their free afternoon hours.

JESSI is designed to broaden the students' intellectual horizons and enable them to choose careers that will interest them, and is not intended to proselyte students for the sciences or engineering, it is pointed out.

Overseas study due for youth

A total of 42 students, one of them from Central Oregon, have been accepted for a year's study overseas at the Italian Studies Center in Pavia.

James McWilliams of Prineville, a political science major at Oregon State University, is the Central Oregon youth accepted for the overseas study. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. McWilliams, 1090 Lookout Avenue. The youth's father is manager of the First National Bank of Oregon branch in the Crook County city.

The group selected for studies in Pavia represented five Oregon State System of Higher Education institutions, and will leave Portland by air on September 25.

Police report staff changes

The city police department has hired two employees as replacements for police secretaries who are leaving the force to take other jobs.

New members are Irene Dandridge, 31 Tumalo, who began her duties the first of this month, and Donald Frederick Leaders, Route 1, Box 608, a retired Air Force man who started Tuesday night.

Mrs. Dandridge, formerly with Alpine Industries, replaces Mrs. Glen W. Millard, police employee since October, 1960. Mrs. Millard will take a job with the U.S. Forest Service.

DOROTHY BURMEISTER

Parents report of engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Burmeister, Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Ann, to Arthur Donovan Hitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hitt, Gilchrist.

Miss Burmeister will graduate from Southern Oregon College this June, and will be teaching in the Medford School District next fall.

Hitt, a junior at Southern Oregon College, is majoring in humanities. He will be employed this summer by the U.S. Forest Service in Crescent, as an engineering aide.

The wedding will take place on Saturday, July 20, at the Gilchrist Methodist Church.

State Welcome chairman named

Governor Mark Hatfield announced today the appointment of community chairmen to coordinate local participation in the Oregon Welcome program.

Serving as chairman for Bend is G. E. Wiley, manager, Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Co.

Governor Hatfield pointed out that the statewide program has received considerable impetus under the direction of the state Oregon Welcome Committee with Richard J. Turner, Portland advertising executive, serving as chairman. State headquarters for the program are at 322 Pittcock Block in Portland with Phil Hunt, Portland public relations counselor, serving as state coordinator.

The Governor urged local citizens interested in participating in the program to contact the local chairman or write to the committee's office in Portland for a brochure outlining the full program.

GETTING GOOD REST

LONDON (UPI)—The Daily Express said today the Marquis of Bath, 58, has "spent a good deal of his time" in bed since attempting a 50-mile hike inspired by President Kennedy's fitness plea earlier this year.

The newspaper quoted the Marquis as saying, "It was terribly cold that night and I have not been very well. I have just spent six weeks in bed with pneumonia, and I am still not in top form."

Bath dropped out after 13 1/2 miles of the walk, held last February.

Conservation fireside set

A conservation fireside program, second in a series, will be held Thursday evening, May 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stenkamp, 727 East Marshall Avenue, with LaSelle E. Coles, secretary-manager of the Ocoee Irrigation District, Prineville, to be the guest speaker.

Coles is president of the National Reclamation Association and recent winner of a national award for his long interest in conservation.

Attending the fireside meeting at the Stenkamp home will be members of Charles Beckley's Bend Senior High School agriculture classes. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m.

At the first meeting, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Langman on April 25, Ted Thorsen, SCS work unit conservationist, was the speaker.
