

Long session held by board

Special to The Bulletin

PRINEVILLE — In a long session, that lasted until 1 a.m., the Crook County School Board mulled over numerous problems in county school administration at their regular meeting Monday night.

The board accepted the apparent low bid of $96 entered by Les McKay, Prineville, for remodeling the office area at the Crooked River primary school.

A discussion was also held on maintenance of the high school football field, with the board seeking a way to maintain the field in top condition. The field, at the Crooked River Roundup grounds, is owned by the roundup association, and is used for the annual rodeo. It is also used by the county fair board during county fair time. No decision was reached.

The resignation of Mr. and Mrs. George Down, both teachers in Prineville schools, were accepted. Down has taught English and social studies in the junior high school, and Mrs. Down has taught second grade.

Two new teachers were elected. Stanley Johnson, from Michigan, was hired to teach industrial arts at the junior high school, and Mrs. Patricia Walker was elected as a first grade teacher at Crooked River school.

The school board is continuing its visits to the communities of selected applicants for the position of Crook county school superintendent, and expects to complete these visits within a week, after which time a superintendent will be chosen to replace Cecil Sly, who retires June 30 from that post.

Van Allen gives report on trip

A report in colored slides on his recent 36,000 mile, three-month trip into Asiatic waters was made for members of the Bend Lions Club Tuesday noon by W. L. Van Allen, who, with his wife, recently returned from a "slow cruise to China."

Introduced by Glenn Gregg, Van Allen showed some of his pictures taken in Thailand. They included views of temples, golden statues, ancient buildings, street navigation and pictures of sunsets on the ocean.

Van Allen took hundreds of colored pictures on his Asiatic journey aboard a freighter, the President Taft.

Part of the luncheon program was devoted to tentative reports on the Lions 1963 Home Show, held this past weekend. The report was made by Frank Bockhold, general chairman for the event.

Glenn O. Ratcliff reported on a survey he made of merchants who participated in the Home Show, relative to suggestions for further improvement in next year's show.

Observance set by 4-H clubs

Special to The Bulletin

REDMOND — Annual 4-H Club Sunday will be observed May 19 in Deschutes County, reports Club Agent Mrs. Janet Barry.

A number of churches have indicated they will make special observance of the day and all churches are invited to arrange particular recognition as they wish, she says.

Bulletins are being prepared at the county extension office to be included with regular church bulletins Sunday. They are available upon request. Mrs. Barry says pastors who wish to do so may consult 4-H enrollment rosters in the extension office to determine who are 4-H members in the congregations and suggests these members be assigned some part in the Sunday services.

Four-H club Sunday is an outgrowth of Rural Life Sunday, first established in 1929 and adopted by numerous religious bodies in the United States.

Four anglers pay fines

Special to The Bulletin

LAPINE — Four fishermen paid fines of $50 apiece, recently in Justice Barney Martin's Lapine justice court, for angling in the closed area below the Wickiup Dam, Chemult.

The fines were assessed to Laurence Joseph, Jack Richard, William Chester and George Allen.

MISS KATHRYN CRESON

Creson-Edwards engagement told

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Creson, 150 Vail Avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn, to Darwin Dean Edwards. He is the son of Mrs. Robert R. Edwards, Bend, and the late Mr. Edwards.

Miss Creson is a 1962 graduate of Bend Senior High School and is now employed at St. Charles Memorial Hospital.

Edwards is employed at Oregon Trail Box Co. He was graduated from Bend Senior High School in 1961.

The wedding is planned for June 29, at the First Methodist Church in Bend.

English teacher named for meet

Among educators from throughout the United States to attend San Francisco's National Council for Teachers of English this fall will be Mrs. Lorena B. Rich, instructor in the Bend Junior High School.

Mrs. Rich, representing the western region, will be one of three chairmen on the junior high school level in attendance. Others are George Hillocks, Euclid, Ohio, and Edward Gordon, of Yale University. Her committee's specialty is the English composition — how it is taught and improved at the junior high school level.

Assembly activities, scheduled during Thanksgiving week, will occupy a four-day agenda, with three days of pre-assembly preparations. Mrs. Rich said she intends to spend the entire week in San Francisco.

Students visit college shops

High School students from most of the high schools in Central Oregon visited the Automotive Technology Shops of Central Oregon College during an open house Monday.

Robert Maxwell, head automotive instructor, demonstrated equipment in the laboratory. Between 30 and 40 high school students interested in auto mechanics were present. One student made the trip from Burns.

The automotive technology program includes the basic two year associate degree in auto mechanics plus an optional sequence in body and fender work.

Duncan offers Rogue measure

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Robert Duncan, D-Ore., Tuesday introduced a bill to authorize the Interior Department to construct and operate the Merlin division of the Rogue River Basin project.

The bill was introduced simultaneously in the Senate by Sens. Wayne Morse and Maurine Neuberger, D-Ore.

Duncan said the principal works of the Merlin division would consist of Sexton Dam and Reservoir, diversion and distribution facilities and drainage facilities.

The completed project would provide irrigation water for about 9,300 acres. It also would provide flood control, conservation and development of fish and wildlife and recreation benefits.

The measure calls for an authorization of $14,750,000. Reimbursable costs of the project would be repaid over an extended period of 50 years. However, Duncan said certain costs would not be repaid. These would include costs of investigation, planning, operation and maintenance plus an appropriate share of the joint costs of the project.

Art work shown at Bend library

An exhibit of 23 original paintings by Cascade Artists is being shown at the Deschutes County Library, under auspices of the Sagebrushers Art Society. The exhibit was put up Monday night, to stay for an indefinite period, probably several weeks.

The artists are Margaret Akers, Newport; Colstance Cole, Portland; Lois Goodfellow, Santa Rosa, Calif.; Ruth Grover, Roads End; Thelma Pearson, Richland, Wash., and Herbert Rydell, Wilamina.

Most of the pictures are transparent watercolor. There are also some in opaque watercolor and oil, and two in a new medium, encaustic. This is pure pigment and beeswax.

The exhibit came here from the University of California, Los Angeles.

Work session held by group

SISTERS — The Ladies Council of the Sisters Church of Christ held the May meeting on Thursday afternoon in the fireproof room of the church. In the morning the group had held a work session preparing materials for the Daily Vacation Bible School which is to be held from June 3 through June 14, with all of the children in the community invited to attend.

Mrs. Bill Bacon, president of the Council, presided. Mrs. Delbert Hardin gave the lesson for the day on famous mothers of the Bible. Mrs. James Lowe gave devotional thoughts; and Harvey Brandon reported on the McKinley Indian Mission at Tappanish, Wash., and other missions.

Because of the conflict of dates for the regular meeting in June with the Daily Vacation Bible

School, it was decided to postpone the June meeting of the council until the third Thursday, June 21.

Others present were Mrs. Vernon Miller, Mrs. John Newman, Mrs. Henry Stabe, Mrs. Bryan Shaw, Mrs. Loyd Hewitt, Mrs. Doug Miller, Mrs. Wilbur Bulkley, Mrs. Albert Demaris, and Mrs. Keith Sorenson. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wilma Brandon.

SENT TO GOVERNOR

SALEM (UPI) — The Senate Tuesday approved and sent to the governor a measure strengthening regulation of debt consolidation agencies. Sen. Ward Cook, D-Portland, said the measure was needed as "there have been some problems. He said the new regulations would protect debtors and creditors."

"More than normal rain, mostly after Friday."

This is the meat of the five-day forecast for Central Oregon and it indicates that sunny days are not yet here.

The 24 hour forecast calls for partly cloudy skies, with high temperatures in the 60-65 range and lows down near the freezing point.

Bend recorded a sprinkle of moisture last night.
