

ALL OF COLTON'S POINTS—Elliott Lewis garnered all of Colton's 20 points Saturday during the state Class B prep track meet. He captured first in the high jump and the 100-yard dash. (Nate Bull photos).

JUST LIE DOWN—Dan Hunt of Knapka displays his unusual style of pole vaulting during the prep state Class B track meet. Odd as it may seem, he won the event with a 12' 5" vault. It was a new record.

They've taken the "kid prodigy" label off pitcher Mill Pappas of the Baltimore Orioles because this year he's become a man.

Immaturity of outlook has been the only rap against the 6-foot-3, 200-pound right-hander from Detroit, Mich., since he started American League hitters with his pitching savvy as a 19-year-old rookie in 1958. Pappas compiled a 65-49 record from 1958 through 1962 but he still was regarded as

Davis' body lying in state in gymnasium

ELMIRA, N.Y. (UPI) — The body of this city's greatest sports hero, halfback Ernie Davis, lay in state today in the community gymnasium where he got his athletic start.

City officials expected thousands of persons to pay their respects to the 23-year-old All American who died Saturday of a acute leukemia. Among the mourners was Arthur Modell, president of the Cleveland Browns football club for which Davis never got to play under an $80,000 contract.

Davis' illness was discovered last summer after he was graduated from Syracuse University.

U.S. senators in Washington Monday heard tributes to the 1961 Heisman Trophy winner from Sens. Kenneth B. Keating and Jacob K. Javits of New York. Authorities here said the two lawmakers plan to be at the funeral Wednesday, along with three congressmen and a representative of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Keating called Davis a "legendary hero to sports fans of all ages," and said he may have been the "greatest halfback of all time."

Flags flew at half staff here Monday in silent respect for the modest athlete. Students at Elmira Free Academy, where Davis attended school and played his first football, circulated a petition to name a new high school being built this summer after their famed alumnus.

First prep football death

MIAMI (UPI) — A tall high school junior who had just made the first string collapsed and died Monday on the football practice field.

Robert Kirby, 17, had just run out from his left end position on the second play of a scrimmage and ran 20 yards downfield when he stopped, started back and collapsed, according to Miami Senior High Coach Vince Schaefer.

Schaefer said he and another assistant coach, Bob Carlson, tried to talk to the felled youth but "there was no response. We

Five 4-minute milers to run

MODESTO, Calif. (UPI) — Five trackmen who have cracked the four-minute mark will compete in the mile run at the California Heilays Saturday, according to meet director Tom Moore.

The quintet includes Peter Snell of New Zealand and Americans Jim Beatty, Jim Grelle, Bobby Seaman and Cary Weisiger. Also running in the event will be John Carnien of Kansas State, who has a 4:02 to his credit.

a "problem child."

But so far this season, all the problems are being encountered by rival hitters.

Pappas turned in his second shutout and his fourth straight victory of the season Monday night in a 6-0 win over the Detroit Tigers that enabled the Orioles to move into a first-place tie with the Chicago White Sox. Pappas allowed only one run in each of his other two victories, has struck out 26 batters while walking only nine and has a 1.17 earned run average.

Pleasingly Cocky

Known in the trade as "pleasingly cocky," Pappas has been labeled for stardom since he vaulted into the majors virtually direct from American Legion ball. Only four pitchers have won more big league games at his age and his shutout Monday night set a club record of 14 for a career.

The Orioles backed his five-hit pitching with a salvo of four home runs that produced all their runs and dealt Phil Regan his fifth loss against two victories. Jim Gentile and Jerry Adair hit solo homers and Jackie Brandt and John Powell each slammed one with a man on base.

The Orioles have won six of their last seven games during which Baltimore pitchers have allowed a total of 11 runs and 33 hits.

The White Sox nipped the Washington Senators, 5-4. The Minnesota Twins knocked the Boston Red Sox out of first place with a 6-3 triumph and the Cleveland Indians downed the Los Angeles Angels, 7-5, in other AL games.

Colts Beat Pirates

Dick Drott pitched a five-hitter as the Houston Colts defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-0, in the only National League action.

The White Sox overcame an early 3-1 lead held by Tom Cheney and snapped a 3-3 tie in the sixth inning when Floyd Robinson singled, Joe Cunningham doubled and both scored on sacrifice flies by Dave Nicholson and pinch-hitter Charlie Maxwell. Eddie Fisher went 5-13 in innings for his third victory although he needed the late-inning relief help of Frank Baumann and Jim Brosnan. The loss was the fourth in a row for Cheney, the league's early-season pitching sensation.

A three-run homer by Earl Battey and solo homers by Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew paced the Twins' 10-hit attack. Camilo Pascual was tagged for five runs and seven hits in 6-13 innings but gained credit for his fifth win. Earl Wilson suffered his third loss.

Wagner Blasts Two

Leon Wagner drove in all five Los Angeles runs with his 12th and 13th homers of the season but homers by Willis Kirkland and Tito Francona plus a two-run double by Johnny Romano enabled Cleveland's Jack Kralick to win his second game. Kralick was kayoed by Wagner's three-run ninth inning homer—the .00th homer of his career—and Gary Bell closed out the game.

Pendleton Buckaroos win district baseball crown

Special to The Bulletin

PENDLETON — It was a gallant effort, but The Dalles High School didn't have enough guns to do the trick. Host Pendleton High School picked up the District 7-A-1 baseball title when they tore apart the visiting Indians in two of three playoff games.

Pendleton's Buckaroos thus have gained a clean sweep in major sports for the Intermountain League and in District 7-A-1 competition for the 1962-63 school year.

Pendleton has emerged champions in football, basketball, track and baseball.

The Dalles, the representative of the conference's western division, lost the first one 7-2, won the second 5-4, and then lost the last encounter 7-1. All three were played this weekend.

The Dalles had a big moment in that second tie. In the top of the first inning, Paul Duss, Steve Huff and Bill O'Gorman all got aboard to fill the bases before
