Nikita appears to have scored diplomatic win

MOSCOW (UPI) — Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev today appeared to have won a diplomatic victory over Communist China by gaining Cuban Premier Fidel Castro's public endorsement of the Soviet position in the ideological dispute with Peking.

In return, Castro got a new pledge from Khrushchev that "an attack on Cuba would be considered an attack against the Soviet Union." Western diplomats said he apparently got more during his four week stay in the U.S.S.R. They believe Khrushchev promised new economic and possibly military aid.

The public pledges were exchanged Wednesday at a mammoth farewell rally for Castro at Lenin Stadium. Today, the two leaders were believed planning to head for the Black Sea for a rest before Castro's flight back to Cuba, expected early next week.

Castro's support was all the more significant because China used the Cuban crisis of last October to ridicule Khrushchev's policies of peaceful coexistence and demand a more militant stand against the West.

The Russians, Peking charged, are "as timid as mice" before the American "paper tiger." Castro did not refer specifically to the Soviet missile pullout in his speech. But he lavishly praised the Russians for their willingness to risk nuclear war and imperil the achievements of the Russian revolution for the sake of tiny Cuba.

Refutes Peking Charges

This was a direct refutation of what Peking charges. It says Russia has abandoned its revolutionary radicalism now that it has some of the comforts of an established society. According to Peking, this means the undeveloped nations seeking revolutionary guidance must turn to China.

Thus Castro's pledge is likely to have important repercussions among the Communist parties in the poorer Latin American countries. Peking has been trying to woo these parties, but they can be expected to follow the line of Castro, the one Communist in power in the hemisphere.

Western diplomats pointed out that Castro had little choice, whatever his feelings about the Chinese cause, for which he has indicated some sympathy in the past.

He can hardly survive without extensive aid. The Russians are in a position to supply this. The Chinese are not.

MATCH TOUCHES BLAST

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — Robert Auston, owner of an eight-room apartment house, struck a match to light a cigarette Thursday while checking a leak in the gas stove of a tenant.

A gas fume explosion ripped out one side of the frame building and inflicted second and third degree burns upon Auston and Mrs. Joyce Westerfield, according to Fire Chief Gordon Keel.

The program concluded with a short address by President Don Pence, with "Pursuit of Excellence" as his topic.
