

ONE OF 12 ERRORS — Errors were the main reason Bend's Legion baseball team lost their second game last weekend to Sweet Home. The score was 13-2. Bend shortstop Jerry Wetle attempts a put out at second base on an unidentified Sweet Home player. Wetle came right back, however, and made two legs of a triple play.

Errors costly...

Bend Legion opens season at home, winning 1, losing 2

Bend's American Legion baseball team opened its season at home this weekend, giving sizable local crowds more than their money's worth. The locals split two close ones, and dropped a howitzer.

Sweet Home was the opponent, and they went home with two wins and a single loss.

Bend won the opener 5-4 on the strength of relief pitching by Mike Metke. Down 4-3, Bend exploded for two runs in the bottom of the eighth inning for the win.

Jerry Wetle, Bend short stop, took a base on balls and Derald Parsons rapped a single. Catcher Val Lewis then sacrificed Parsons to second and Dick Watrous hit a hard drive to the Sweet Home short stop, Chuck Allison, who decided to try and stop the scoring play. Dick Watrous got aboard on the fielder's choice. Wetle and Parsons scored anyway.

Bend got eight hits in that first one, with Parsons going two for three at the plate and Lewis doing the same. Little Larry Barnes, Bend's short stop from Madras, went two for four.

In the second encounter, Bend saw the bottom fall out. Coach Bill Bauer's nine at moments simply couldn't do anything right, or at least until the eighth inning when Jerry Wetle caught a line drive to account for two legs of a triple play.

Bend made 12 errors, and allowed 14 Sweet Home base hits. Sweet Home had a giant fifth inning when they tallied eight runs. Bend mustered their tallies by crossing the plate once in the third and once in the sixth.

Though the first eight outs of the game were strike outs, Bend's tatter Bill Bauer from Madras was the losing pitcher. Field support thus collapsed. Bend's reliever Williams could do little for the Bend cause.

In the final contest, Bend lost a squeaker, 6-3, as the locals failed to score tallies in the final four innings. Sweet Home got its six runs in the first three innings, and Bend (down 6-2) began chipping away at the lead in the fourth and fifth frames.

Bend got one in the fourth and two in the fifth, but that was all she wrote. Parsons was the loser in the last one. Bend began hitting in the finale, though, garnering 12 base hits and not making a single error.

Bend will play two more this week. Coach Bill Bauer's nine will play a Memorial Day double header Thursday when the Clackamas nine comes to town. Clackamas has had better-than-average Legion nines in the past.

Then, this weekend, Bend takes to the road and will play four games against Sweet Home again, this time at the Santiam city.

probably was the glamor event, the mile.

It was supposed to be a match between Snell and America's Jim Beatty. But two others got into the act. Cary Weisiger of the Marines finished second in 3:57.5. Next came Beatty, then Jim Grelle. The latter two each timed in 3:58.

"I was flat for the race," said Beatty without offering an alibi. "I don't know what happened. Maybe I trained too much for the 5,000 meters. I can run 3:58 any time. I should have done better."

Snell said he ran the race he had planned—mainly keeping an eye on Beatty.

"So I was surprised with the showing of Weisiger," said the New Zealander. "But I was all worked up for this race for a long time. Then, when they played the New Zealand national anthem, I became inspired."

For the first time in history, two men bettered the 200-foot mark in the discus in one meet: Al Oerter won it with a powerful heave of 202 feet, 11 inches, and Jay Silvester finished only second with a great toss of 201 feet, 10 1/2 inches.

John Thomas cleared 7 feet, 3/4 inches in the high jump.

The two-mile relay world mark was set by Oregon State with a clocking of 7:18.9, knocking over the old mark of 7:19.4, set by a United States national team in 1960. Running on this club were Jan Underwood, Jerry Brady, Norm Hoffman and Morgan Groth.

'Full-routers' nearly commonplace in the Pacific Coast League

By Ron Supinski
UPI Staff Writer

Call it savvy or savoir faire, but route-going pitchers are becoming commonplace in the Pacific Coast League while separating the boys from the ballplayers. No one felt the impact of the "Full-routers" more yesterday than Hawaii and Salt Lake City, both last-place teams in the northern and southern divisions.

Eight pitchers hurled complete games yesterday in the triple-A loop and five of them won their ball games. Scott Breeden and Ted Willis each went the route for San Diego in the Padres' 11-2 and 4-1 twin conquests of Hawaii, making the Cincinnati farm club the winningest team in the league with 26 victories.

Padres Score Early
Hawaii's Fred Newman matched Willis' distance stint in the nightcap which was settled by San Diego's three-run spurge in the first inning and Art Shamsky's insurance four-master two innings later.

In other contests, pitchers Connie Grob (2-5) and Dave Giusti (4-3) of Oklahoma City hurled complete games in sending Salt Lake to its 10th defeat in a row 5-0, 6-3; Lou Klimchok's 10th-inning homer gave Denver an 11-8 win over Dallas-Ft. Worth but the Texans captured the opener 13-7; Seattle scored all its runs in one inning for a 5-2 victory over Tacoma after the Giants nipped Seattle 3-2 in the opener, and Spokane edged Portland 5-1 after losing 11-3.

Other route-going pitchers were Bob Heffner of Seattle who lost to Tacoma by one run that scored when the Rainiers failed to complete a double play with the bases loaded.

Big Inning
Seattle's Pete Smith came back in the seven-inning nightcap to beat the Giants with no relief help. The Rainiers tallied all five of their runs in the third on singles by Dalton Jones, Dave Hall, Archie Skeen and Russ Gibson, plus doubles by Bobby Gene Smith and Jim Rivera, and Billy Harrell's triple.

Bob Flynn pitched all seven innings for Portland in its second-game loss to Spokane. Norm Koeh opposed him and became Spokane's winningest pitcher (5-2), though needing help from reliever Ken Rowe in the sixth. Dick Green's three-run homer and six

OSU relay team shatters record

MODESTO, Calif. (UPI) — Oregon State's crack two-mile relay team ran off with the world's record with a 7:18.9 clocking in the California Relays Saturday night.

Half-milers Jan Underwood, Jerry Brady, Norm Hoffman and Morgan Growth shattered the old record of 7:19.4 set by the U.S. National team in 1960.

Times were 1:50.2 for Underwood, 1:52.0 for Brady, 1:48.4 for Hoffman and 1:48.3 for Groth. Oregon State's Gary Stenlund captured the javelin event with a throw of 251.9. John Burns of Oregon was third in 244.9'.

Doug Parker and Gary Baker, freshmen at Oregon State, finished second and fourth in the 880-yard run in 1:50.2 and 1:51.1, respectively. Ex-Oregon half miler Sig Ohtlemann was fifth.

Oregon's Paul Stuber came in third in the high jump at 6-9 1/2 and Mel Renfro of Oregon was third in the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.2.

Lynn Eves of Oregon State ran sixth in the 220-yard dash.

doubles by his teammates helped Portland to its easy first-game win.

Two bases-empty home runs by Oklahoma City catcher Hal Smith paved the way for Giusti's five-hit shutout of Salt Lake in the opener. In the other game, Grob spaced eight Bee hits and weathered a three-run fourth inning to get the victory.

First Sweep
San Diego's sweep of the Islanders was the first doubleheader won by the defending PCL champions this season.

Padre catcher Jim Saul hit a bases-loaded home run in the opener. Shamsky, who hit a home run in each game, poled a two-run blast off ace Hawaii reliever Hugh Pepper in the first game. Shamsky now has eight round-trippers.

ON DISABLED LIST

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Catcher John Romano of the Cleveland Indians was expected to be placed on the disabled list today after breaking the small finger of his throwing hand Sunday.

Romano was injured in the first game of a twin bill against Baltimore when he tagged Jackie Brandt out at the plate.

Brazil wins basketball world title

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI) — The United States, which invented the game of basketball and never has lost an Olympic or Pan-American court championship, still is looking for its first world title.

Brazil won its second straight world crown Saturday night by beating the Yanks, 85-81, after Yugoslavia downed Russia, 69-67, in the fourth annual round-robin series.

The U. S. squad which appeared here was virtually the same team that swept unbeaten through the recent Pan-American games at Sao Paulo. However, it was not considered up to U. S. Olympic standards.

Some 25,000 fans went wild Saturday night after Brazil avenged a Pan-American loss to the Yanks. The United States and Brazil were tied 39-all at halftime but Wlamir Marques and Amaury Passos paced the South Americans to their sixth straight victory without a defeat in the tourney.

Marques had 24 points, but Passos led all scorers with 27. Jerry Shipp was tops for the U. S. with 22 points and Don Kojis had 13. The Yanks finished with a 3-3 mark in the tourney.

JOHANSSON RETIRES
STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI) — Ingemar Johansson claims he has fought his last fight—and this time he insists "I won't change my mind."

The former heavyweight champ said in a television interview Sunday night he has made enough money and has had all the "glamour and honor" he wants.
