Mr. Williams died Friday at Central Oregon District Hospital after a four-day illness. Born August 19, 1897 in Galveston, Tex., he moved to Redmond seven years ago from John Day.

Among survivors are his widow Eva, Redmond; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Mary Wynn, Grangeville, Idaho; and Mrs. Emma Hall, Boise, Idaho; and Mrs. Myrtle Frazier, Union; eleven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Law library fund story clarified

George H. Brewster, a Redmond attorney, has personally contributed $300 to the Deschutes County law library fund. As a member of the Central Oregon Bar Association law library committee, he has also been instrumental in past years in obtaining county monies for the fund.

A story in Friday's Bulletin erroneously stated that Brewster was given $300 to bring the file of Pacific Reporters up to date. The sentence should have read that he "has given" the amount.

NEWLYWEDS LOSE BED

LONDON (UPI) - Newlyweds Barry and Maureen Slater went out today to find a bed after spending their wedding night on the floor. The couple's bed, a gift from Barry's parents, was delivered when no one was home and left in the backyard beside a discarded bath tub left for rubbish men.

The rubbish collectors took the bed and left the tub. A reception will follow in the Fellowship Hall with the Women's Association in charge.

Ceremonies to set aside cave slated June 22

Special to The Bulletin FORT ROCK - Ceremonies to set aside Fort Rock Cave as a national monument will begin at 12 o'clock noon, June 22, with Dr. Luther Cressman, head of the department of anthropology, University of Oregon, as featured speaker.

Dr. Cressman will recall the excavation of the cave more than 25 years ago. The cave yielded sagebrush bark sandals later carbon dated to be more than 9000 years old. He will bring for display some of the artifacts taken from the cave.

W. Ward Yeager, superintendent of Crater Lake National Park, will represent the national park service in presenting the certificate of registration and the bronze marker to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Long, owners of the land on which the cave is located.

Setting aside the cave will take place at the site, according to Mrs. Maurice Ward, local program chairman. The cave is approximately a mile and a half from the landmark, "Fort Rock." Representatives from Oregon's organizations specializing in the study of anthropology and archaeology are expected to attend.

Acceptance of the certificate and marker by the Longs charges them with the responsibility of "preserving, so far as practical, and to the best of their ability, the historical integrity of this important part of the national cultural heritage."

Long acquired the property after the cave had been excavated. During the period of discovery it was owned by the George Menkenmaier family and was then known as the Menkenmaier Cave. It is believed locally that discovery of the artifacts, and their recovery in a scientific manner, can be credited to Gerry Wolf who visited the Menkenmaier regularly with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolf of Chilquin to hunt arrowheads. Gerry, a student of Dr. Cressman, recognized the potential value of such a discovery.

Until recently it was felt that this cave yielded the oldest evidence of man's dwelling on the North American continent. New discoveries, pointed out by this dedicated and distinguished scientist, indicate, by the same carbon test method, that the Pacific Northwest was inhabited as long as 35,000 years ago. A rude knife fashioned of basalt has been found in the gravels of the Spokane flood of the last glacial period, deposited at the mouth of the John Day.

At the conclusion of the dedication ceremonies here the assembly will move to the picnic area adjacent to "Fort Rock" where ladies of the Fort Rock Grange will serve lunch.

Each will receive a copy of the Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible. Mrs. Owen Panzer of the Evangelism committee will make the presentations.
