Special to The Bulletin

SISTERS — Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wayne Tackitt (Feggy Darlene Syddall) are at home in Redmond, after a honeymoon trip to the coast. They were married May 13 in Reno, Nevada.

The bride, a 1962 graduate of Sisters High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gray. Sisters, Tackitt, graduated from Sisters High School in 1960, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Tackitt, Redmond.

The Reno ceremony was performed by the Rev. William R. Beemer.

The bride was honored at a shower party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lowery in Sisters.

Pool will not open at least until Saturday

Bend city workmen were still working on the drains at the municipal swim pool late last evening, and Vince Genna, city recreation director, said that the pool will not be open at least until Saturday.

Once the drains are in order, the tank must be filled. A department spokesman explained today that it takes from one and a half to two days to fill the pool, and get the water temperature at the right level.

In the meantime, Bend's summer swim team sign-up is in progress. Hopfuls may pick up forms at the pool, fill them out and return them. The city recreation office suggested that 5 p.m. is the best time for candidates to sign up.

Joint memorial services held

M. L. Shepherd and Mrs. Erwin Carpenter conducted joint memorial services for the Loyd Order of Moose and Women of the Moose, last Wednesday evening at Moose Hall. Some 20 members of the organizations were present.

Red carnations were pinned on a wreath, in memory of members who died in the past two years.

Assisting with the services were Robert Akins, Gene Tabor, Erwin Carpenter, Leslie Smyth, Fred Carter, Mrs. Earl Macey, Victoria Brown, Mrs. Earl Wood, Mrs. Leila Edwards and Mrs. George Firkus.

Sum allowed in claims case

Les V. Linville, represented by the Oregon Bureau of Labor in a wage claim case, was allowed a total of $386.87, on three causes of action, yesterday in Deschutes County District Court.

The suit was filed by N. O. Nilson, labor commissioner, against Ralph Smith, who operates a feed mill near Redmond. Linville was employed there.

The case was heard by a jury consisting of R. W. Thomas, Myrtle V. Frelinger, Marie Sanowski, William E. Wood and Harry Herland, all of Bend, and Elmer L. Mahaffey, Terrebonne. Judge Joe Thalhofer presided.

Wedding vows taken by couple

The bride and groom were married at the home of Mrs. Jack Lowery in Sisters.

Repeat of host school due tonight

The Bend Chamber of Commerce will repeat its tourist host school tonight at 7:30 in the Allen School auditorium. Last night's session, acclaimed as highly successful, was attended by some 45 persons representing 28 firms.

The highlight of the program was a slide story depicting the geologic and scenic areas in the Deschutes National Forest. The presentation was made by Ed Parker, recreation specialist on the headquarters staff of the Deschutes National Forest, and Walter Meyer, assistant.

Persons attending were given samples of brochures and folders about the local area that are available at the Chamber office, and placards welcoming tourists, to be exhibited in their places of business.

Gordon Randall, Chamber president, greeted the group and pointed out the values of the tourist business to all local area business firms. Frank H. Loggan, long-time secretary of the Deschutes County Advertising Committee, outlined the program of that group and noted that out-of-state tourists brought 20 million dollars to Central Oregon last year.

Marion E. Cady, Chamber manager, stressed the need to sell the many visitors on "staying another day in Bend." Mrs. Peggy Sawyer, Chamber assistant, gave some pointers on how to interest the visitors in seeing all of the scenic attractions, and the value of friendliness in dealing with them.

Attending the meeting last night were representatives of Bend restaurants, motels, trailer parks,

Pageant court, band to appear in 'Merrykhana'

Bend Water Pageant princesses and six members of the Bend Chamber of Commerce pageant committee will ride a float Saturday in Portland Rose Festival's Merrykhana Parade.

They will leave Bend at 9 a.m. The parade, as it has been throughout the past, is the opening event of the Rose Festival.

Bend's high school band, under the direction of Don Goodwin, also will appear in the parade. They will march ahead of the float.

According to Marion Cady, chamber manager, the float is being built for the Bend contingent by Huserik and Son of Portland, the firm which builds all the floats for the Bend Water Pageant. It is a gift from the firm.

Albert J. Wood dies at age 66

Albert J. Wood, 66, Bend resident since 1922, died this morning at St. Charles Memorial Hospital.

He lived with his wife Viola at 365 State Street.

Mr. Wood was born on March 5, 1896, in Washburn, Wis. In Bend he was employed by the city as a maintenance man for 14 1/2 years before his retirement in 1961. He was a World War I veteran and a charter member of the Knights of Columbus, Bend Council 1872, for the past 41 years.

Surviving, in addition to his widow, is one sister, Mrs. Mary Hemmingson, Duluth, Minn.

Services will be held Saturday, with 10 a.m. requiem mass, in St. Francis Catholic Church. The Rev. Albin Cullen will officiate and burial will follow in P.I.O.T. Butte Cemetery. Recitation of the rosary will be held Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel of Tabor's Bend Funeral Home.

The following members of the Knights of Columbus will act as pallbearers: Val Allen, William J. Baer, Lowell A. Jensen, Wilfred Joanis, John Massart and Herbert Wilcox.

Suspect sought in cafe theft

A Deschutes County Court warrant has been issued for the arrest of John Duncan, 56, a suspect in the larceny of some $410 and a check from a till at the B C Cafe.

Duncan has been employed as a dishwasher and cleanup man at the cafe for approximately five months. He reportedly lived at a trailer court here.

Cafe proprietor Bernice Coombs told police she discovered the money missing when she opened up Wednesday morning. She said Duncan was in the cafe Tuesday night after the other help had left.

About $500 of the money was in cash and $110 in six pay envelopes. Amount of the check was unknown.

The larceny warrant has been filed for the amount of $2,500 bail. Police have issued an all-points bulletin on the suspect.

KISS INJURES THREE

BLOOMINGTON, Calif. (UPI)—Richard F. Thomas, 17, kissed his 16-year-old girlfriend and wound up with a cut lip and several broken teeth.

Police said Thomas lost control of his car and crashed into a pole while kissing. His girlfriend and another teen-age passenger also were slightly injured.

CITATION ISSUED

Jesse Jack Jones, 524 E. Emerson, was cited Wednesday by city police on a charge of failing to operate a vehicle to the right of the roadway. His bail is $12.50.
