

Weyerhaeuser, union ink pact

KLAMATH FALLS (UPI) — Weyerhaeuser Co. and the International Association of Machinists Friday reached agreement on a three-year contract.

However, the company shut down its big plant here because of a strike by the International Woodworkers of America and the Lumber and Sawmill Workers unions.

The machinists union picketed the plant for about eight hours last Saturday after their contract expired but called off its pickets in favor of resuming negotiations. It has 165 members who work for the company at Klamath Falls.

The contract, which is retroactive through last Saturday, calls for 8 1/2 cents more an hour in wages and benefits for the first year, 5 cents the second and 2 1/2 per cent for the third year.
