

2 Bend girls at Girls' State

Two Bend High School senior girls joined 260 girls from all parts of Oregon at the annual Girls' State encampment being held at Willamette University in Salem. Sue Langworthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Langworthy of 304 Hunter Place and Terri Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Todd, 299 E. 10th Street were taken to Salem by the Langworthys yesterday for the week's convention.

3 cars involved in 97 accident

Three cars were involved in an accident on U.S. Highway 97 a short distance south of Deschutes Junction last night, but no one was injured and all three vehicles moved away under their own power, investigating Oregon State Police said.

Municipal court cases reported

Jesse Jack Jones, 524 E. Emerson, paid $10 and court costs in municipal court session Friday for failing to operate on the right side of the street.

Also fined $10 and costs was Roger A. Gant, 734 Norton, for a basic rule violation.

the duties of citizens by electing officials and setting up their own city, county and state governments. Two girls will be selected to attend Girls' Nation in Washington, D.C.

Part of the session will be held in the State Capitol Building, an experience that will be long remembered. The inauguration of the newly elected Girls' State governor will be held in the House of Representatives on Thursday June 13. Governor Mark O. Hatfield will be the guest speaker. Other government officials are scheduled to address the girls.

Bend. Behind him was a car operated by Wayne Hamilton, Bend, also south bound. Hamilton was passing the truck when a car operated by Lester Murrell King, Redmond, pulled out of a drive way and made a left turn north on U.S. 97, in front of the approaching truck and car.

Two of the vehicles suffered some sideswipe damage.

5 zone change requests to be heard tonight

Planning commissioners will consider five zone change requests when they assemble at 8:00 tonight in city hall.

Asking permission to build multiple family dwellings are Seaton Smith and Al Bell. Smith wishes lots 1, 2, 3 and 4 in block 6, Pine-lyn Park, changed from their current designation as a single-family dwelling. Bell is requesting a similar change for lots 1, 2, 3 and 4 in block 12, Keystone Terrace.

Contractor Walter Marken has filed a request to rezone the area between E. Third and Fourth streets between Vale and Xerxes for commercial use. Also petitioning for rezoning is Ed Shaver, to accommodate a drive-in restaurant at lots 3 through 8, block 35, Riverside Addition.

A request to change from lot to multiple-family dwelling district is being requested by Jan Ward, for a portion of block 29, in the first addition to Kenwood.

Chester Starr services Tuesday

Special to The Bulletin
REDMOND — Funeral services for Chester Williamson Starr, 90, Redmond, will be held Tuesday at Free Methodist Church at 2 p.m., with the Rev. Mark Schockey and the Rev. Byron Jacobson officiating. Burial will be in Juniper Haven cemetery in Prineville.

An 83 year resident of Central Oregon, Mr. Starr was born Feb. 4, 1873, in Junction City. He came to Powell Butte with his parents at the age of seven and had made his home in Redmond since his retirement from farming 20 years ago.

Survivors are his widow Katherine, Redmond; three sons, Virgil of Lake Grove; Vernon and Eldred, both of Redmond; six grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Rider suffers neck fracture

REDMOND — Bob Koch, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Koch of St. Paul, received a fractured neck Sunday while riding a bareback bronc at the Central Oregon Junior Championship Rodeo in Redmond.

He was taken in the Redmond ambulance to the Central Oregon District Hospital, where he was said to be progressing satisfactorily today.

Daryl Leavitt, 15, Lakeview, was given out-patient treatment for minor injuries suffered Sunday in a calf riding event.

New honors won by basset hound

A Bend basset hound, Musciland's Troubador, won the best-in-match title at the annual spring dog show sponsored by the Cottage Grove Kennel Club in that Oregon city Sunday afternoon.

Troubador, the 16 months old mascot of the Redmond Kiwanis Club, made the best showing of his career as he swept top honors over some 100 other dogs of all breeds that competed in the show.

After winning the Basset Hound classes Troubador, shown by his owner, Helen Weeks, took the hound group to win a place in the finals.

The victory at Cottage Grove added three trophies and a pawful of ribbons to Troubador's growing collection.

Class of 1913 holds reunion

Two former Central Oregonians, Mrs. Robert B. Moore, now of Portland, and Walter S. Hodge, who for a number of years was stationed in Redmond as Oregon State Highway Department division maintenance engineer, were represented in the half century class honored at the University of Oregon alumni reunion in Eugene over the weekend.

Both were members of the class of 1913, headed at the reunion by Ralph Cake, Portland, who spent part of his boyhood in the Bend area.

Another member of the half-century class, which marched into the reunion hall in caps and gowns, was Pat Cecil of Burns, a cattleman well known in this area.
