

Kralick tossing Cleveland nine into contention

By United Press International
 Jack Kralick is one of those fellows who is always being under-rated.
 He's a fidgety, frail sort of fellow who was once placed on a vitamin diet to beef up his body and his fast ball. The Washington Senators gave up on him after two years and so did the Minnesota Twins despite the fact that he pitched a no-hitter for the Twins last Aug. 26.
 Now he's with the Cleveland Indians and one of the big reasons why the Indians have surged into American League flag contention with five straight victories and 15 in their last 17 games.
 "We just put him on the firing line and turned him loose," said Cleveland pitching coach Mel Harder. "We haven't done a thing to change him."
 The Indians acquired the 28-year old native of Youngstown, Ohio, May 2 in a deal that sent Jim Perry to the Twins. At the time Kralick's record was a mere 1-4 and it became 1-5 with the Indians before it started to get better.

Raised Season Mark
 Now Kralick has won six in a row and raised his season mark to 7-5, including a five-hit, 1-0 victory over the Senators Monday night. In his last 44 1/3 innings, he's allowed only five earned runs and at the rate he's going he's quickly being recognized as the most effective lefty the Indians have had since Herb Score.
 The victory and Baltimore's 7-2 win over Boston in the only other AL game Monday night put the Indians, Orioles and the Red Sox in a virtual three-way tie for third place. Only four percentage points separate the three teams, who all are three games behind the first place New York Yankees.

In the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the San Francisco Giants, 2-0, the St. Louis Cardinals beat the New York Mets, 8-1, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Cincinnati Reds, 4-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates topped the Milwaukee Braves, 9-3.
 Kralick allowed five hits, struck out five and didn't allow a walk as the Indians continued to take advantage of a schedule quirk that has enabled them to beat the Senators eight out of nine games in the last 11 days. Kralick has scored four of the Indians' 15 wins since June 2 when they were in eighth place, eight games out of first place.

Balk, Error Help
 The Indians scored the only run of the game in the eighth inning with the help of an error and a balk by Washington pitcher Jim Duckworth.
 Duckworth, who suffered his fifth loss, threw wildly past first base on a bouncer back to the mound enabling Dick Howser to reach second base. Howser moved to third on Jerry Kindall's sacrifice and scored when umpire John Flaherty called a balk on Duckworth for stopping halfway through his windup and stepping back off the mound.
 The Orioles gained their fourth win in their last 18 games behind the strong pitching of Mike McCormick, who also homered in his own behalf during a six-run Baltimore rally in the fifth inning.
 Big blow of that decisive frame was a three-run homer by Joe Guines.
 Luis Aparicio weighed in with two other hits for the Orioles, who snapped the Red Sox' six-game winning streak.

Lewiston pads league lead

By United Press International
 Lewiston took the occasion to pad its Northwest League lead a little Monday night with a 6-2 victory over Eugene in one of the two games played.
 Salem edged Yakima 6-4 in the other contest. Lewiston's victory gave the Broncs a three-game bulge over second-place Tri-City.
 Ron Tomkins went the distance for Lewiston and Eugene's two runs came on solo homers by Dick Kenworthy and Bob Pearson. Hoss Bowlin and Louis Rodriguez countered with solo homers for Lewiston and the Broncs wrapped it up with a three-run outburst in the sixth.

Lindgren tourney medalist

EUGENE (UPI)—Paul Lindgren of Eugene fired an even-par 72 to capture medalist honors in qualifying for the junior division as the Oregon Golf Association Junior Tournament began Monday.
 Five players shot 72s. They were Scott Smith of Lake Oswego, Dave Hamaer of Eugene, Tom McPherson of Portland, Steve Dunning of Astoria and Mark Gustafson of Corvallis.
 John Krogh of Portland took medalist honors in the qualifying for the boys' division with 77.
 Other low scorers were Peggy

Conley of Spokane with 83 in the girls' division, Wayne Laurila of Coos Bay with 45 in the pee wee division and Stacie Young of Lake Oswego with 71 in the pee wee girls' division.
 Match play began today. The tournament ends Friday.
CHISOX SIGN ROOKIE
 CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago White Sox have signed Keith Sieck, who pitched for the University of Nebraska this year, to a bonus contract and assigned him to Middlesboro, Ky., of the Appalachian League. Sieck is a resident of Lincoln, Neb.

TOP QUARTER HORSE—Pawnee Cee, a local quarter horse that has been making a name for itself, poses after some winning efforts in Eugene last weekend. Peggy Coats, daughter of the horse's owner, rode Pawnee Cee in youth barrel racing and got third place at Eugene. Peggy, 15, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Coats, 656 E. Eighth St., Bend.

London: Cassius vs Henry Cooper for title shot

LONDON (UPI)—In an appropriately splendiferous setting, Kentucky's "G-r-e-a-t" unbeaten Cassius Clay and England's British Empire champion Henry Cooper fight here tonight for a September shot at the world heavyweight crown.
 A half-dozen historically clad trumpeters, six American soldiers and six English soldiers will escort Cassius, the "Louisville Lip," and Cooper, London's former house plasterer, into the canopied ring amid the cheers from a police-limited crowd of 55,000 at London's outdoor Wembley Stadium.
 The stadium can hold 100,000 for a soccer game but the police will not permit more than 55,000 tonight.
 There will be band playing, community singing and other folderol arranged by promoter Jack Solomons for this richest fight ever staged outside the United States—a show for which the gate is estimated at $448,000.
 The comes the scheduled 10-round fight between Clay, 21, and Cooper, 29—a bout in which "Gaseous Cassius" will try to make his fists live up to the boast loudly shouted by his mouth: "I'm not talkin' jive: Cooper falls in five."
 Manny King, one of Britain's outstanding bookmakers, announced that Clay is favored at 4-1 in man-to-man betting.
 Clay is a prohibitive favorite because he seeks his 19th consecutive victory as a professional and his 16th knockout. Also because he is ranked second among contenders, just below former champion Floyd Patterson. Cooper is rated fourth.
 Many British experts believe that Cooper's aggressive style, featuring a good left hook, and his comparatively weak defense—coupled with quick-bleeding brows—provides a "made-to-order" victim for Cassius.
 Clay, with the nimble legs and fast hands, usually keeps circling an opponent and spearing him with left jabs and slinking him with sneaker rights until he is ready to be bombarded and knocked out at close quarters.
 Cooper, a good puncher, scored 19 knockouts while winning 27 of his 36 bouts. He lost eight and had one draw. Those eight defeats include five kayoes—three because of brow cuts.

Many errors Bend turns avenger, beats Falcons, 12-8

Though they made many mistakes in the fielding department last night at the municipal ballpark, Bend's American Legion baseball nine came through the storm to gain its sixth straight victory and beat the tough Klamath Falls Falcons, 12-8.
 Coach Bill Bauer's crew thus avenged a 1-0 setback at the hands of the visitors two weeks ago on the same field. It didn't look anything like the earlier one, however.
 Bend got 11 hits, but made six errors, twice as many as the Falcons. The amazing part of it is, Bend was down 7-0 after 2 1/2 innings of play.
 Heading never-give-up words by Coach Bauer, the Bend Legionnaires returned to the plate time and time again to chip away at the lead. Two big innings, however, put Bend in the ball game. Bend got home for three runs in the third and for six in the fourth.
 Of the 11 base raps, Larry Barnes, Bennie Hamilton, Don Watrous and Val Lewis got two apiece. Lewis slammed a ball into right center field for triple with the bases loaded in that fourth inning. Dave Shelton followed with another three-bag blast to almost the same spot and slid home safely on a throwing error by the Klamath Falls center fielder.
 Bend faces Corvallis tonight at Corvallis in an effort to pick up its seventh straight victory.

 Coach Bauer disclosed today he will have Madras' protege Bill Bauer on the mound tonight. Bend then comes home to play Jefferson of Portland on Friday and Saturday.

UO golfer NCAA meet qualifier

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI)—John Hedlund of the University of Oregon fired a 38-36-74 Monday in the first round of qualifying for the National Collegiate Athletic Association golf tournament.
 Hedlund finished seven strokes behind the leader, George Hixon of Oklahoma State, who had a three-under par 67.
 Slowly drying greens and fairways appeared to be only a slight handicap to 196 golfers who teed off Monday. Wichita University golfer Coach Bob Kirkpatrick estimated the cutoff point for qualifiers after today's round would be about 150.

Wild pitching features Murray Bros. Rookie win

It wasn't a real hitter's field day for the Murray Brothers Rookie League baseball team last night, when the nine overwhelmed Oregon Equipment, 12-2, at Harmon Field.
 Wild pitching and bases on balls provided the impetus with Murray Brothers Rookie squad overpowering its rivals.
 Murray Brothers did get some base hits. Brian Metke, the first man up in the top of the second inning, whacked the first pitched ball deep into left for a double. Tossor Strom, who started on the hill, came to bat in the top of the third frame and lambasted a triple.

 It was that third inning where the Oregon Equipment hurler Shoemaker went wild, enabling the Murray Brothers nine to score four in the second, more on the strength of base hits.
 Murray Brothers scored another in the fourth, and two more in the fifth. Oregon Equipment found the road to the base paths easier via the four ball route, too, and in so doing, managed to score one each in the third and fourth frames.
 Metke led the hit parade, going two for two in the batter's box.

Moose Little Leaguers win in wild 22-17 fray

Two clear-cut decisions and one wild slugfest marked Little League play in Bend Monday evening.
 Batters just kept batting with no apparent end to the hitting parade at Harmon Field, when the Moose Little Leaguers managed to squeeze out a wild, 22-17 victory over the Dairy Queen in a lengthy American League go.
 Don Houck went five for five at the plate to lead the Dairy Queen squad in batting, while Steve Halligan hit the ball at a four for five clip for the Moose mallet swingers.
 Moose Little Leaguers managed to score five more than their rivals when they got moving out of site during the fifth inning. The frame saw 10 runs.
 Dairy Queen clubbers came right back, however, to put a good scare in the Moose team, when they turned their bats on the Moose tosser in the sixth and clobbered home nine runs, to bring them within five of the Moose's 22.
 Over a Marshall Field, the Lelco nine kept up its winnings ways, taking the Elks into camp to the tune of 8-4.
 Lelco wasted no time getting started, connecting for four tallies in the first frame, and two in the fourth. Lelco then added one apiece in the third and fifth frames. The Elks had its scoring spread out. Elks baseballers got one in the second, another in the third, and two more in the fifth. It was a National League fray.
 In the meantime, over at Juniper Park, the Shoop & Schulte team got back on the win trail, subduing the VFW 3-1. The Shoop & Schulte men did it all in the sixth frame.
 VFW Little Leaguers picked up their lone tally in the third inning.

Record turnout greets rodeo

Special to The Bulletin
SILVER LAKE—The third annual jackpot rodeo sponsored by the Silver Lake Roping Club had a record turnout here Sunday. The newly built grandstand was packed and the fences lined with viewers. Cars were parked everywhere in this north Lake County town.
 Forty-two pairs of team ropers competed, with J. P. McAuliffe and Dell Smith, Klamath Marsh, as winners. Second were Jack Defoe and Bob Morris, Bend, with Fred Hall of Redmond and Morris, Saddle Brook, third.
 Saddle bronc entries in the top three spots were Earl Carson, Burns; Bob Rogers, Lakeview, and Jim McAuliffe, Fort Klamath.
 Carson was also top bareback rider, followed by Bob Wishart, Paisley, and Jim McAuliffe.
 Jack Defoe led out in calf roping, with Bob Morris, second. Ambrose McAuliffe, Klamath Marsh, was third.
 Henry Cook of Silver Lake was top in reined cow horse competition, followed by Ambrose McAuliffe. Melvin Rosebrook, Silver Lake, and Johnny Wise, Bend, tied for third and fourth.
 Henry Cook displayed his skill with his cutting horse as the event's only entry.
