

Bend sorbailers host K-Falls for 2 games tonight

Bend's travelling softball team will find themselves playing at home tonight, but the squad could be in for more than it bargained for.

Appearing tonight at the senior high school softball diamond will be a Klamath Falls aggregation which boasts a win streak of 13. Tonight's action will be a twin bill.

Both squads are looking ahead to the state softball tournament which will be held later this summer, and both teams are out to gain some tough experience before entering into their respective district playoffs.

Klamath Falls will be perhaps as tough as any competition Bend could face in the state tourney.

Although lacking the experience of Klamath Falls, Bend will field a well balanced squad.

In last night's Bend city softball action, the Bend "Scrubs" whacked the Sisters Merchants, 3-1, in the first game of a doubleheader. The Sisters squad bowled again in the nightcap, this time to the Bend Bombers, 11-3.

Cincinnati's lefty O'Toole views 20 wins

By United Press International

Cocky Jim O'Toole, who once won 20 games without even bothering to run, figures to do it again this year without any sweat.

The swaggering Cincinnati southpaw reeled off his 13th victory of the season and his seventh in a row Thursday night by beating Philadelphia 11-1 to boost the Reds within three and a half games of the National League lead.

O'Toole struck out six batters and gave up only five hits but developed blisters on his pitching hand after eight innings and gave way to Jim Owens in the ninth.

Although his 19 wins for the Reds in 1961 represent his top one-season total in the majors, O'Toole won 29 games for Nashville in the Southern Association during 1958 and was rather proud of the accomplishment when he reported to Cincinnati the following spring.

One of his teammates prodded him about not doing any running in spring training that year and O'Toole blithely replied:

"I've got news for you. I won 20 at Nashville last year without running at all."

Majors' Biggest Winner

O'Toole does some occasional running now but he certainly has nothing to sweat about with a 13-3 record that makes him the biggest winner in the majors so far.

He was the beneficiary of a three-run homer by John Edwards Thursday night and another solo homer by Bob Skinner.

The Reds had only a 2-1 lead until the fifth inning when Edwards' homer featured a five-run rally at the expense of Art Mahaffey, who suffered his ninth loss in 12 decisions.

The Milwaukee Braves defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-1 and the Chicago Cubs blanked the Houston Colts 5-0 in the only other NL games scheduled.

Southpaw Denny Schlemmer of the Braves held the Pirates to five hits and then won his own game with an eighth inning homer.

Brand Hits Homer

Rookie Ron Brand put Pittsburgh ahead with his first major league homer in the third inning and Don Schwallier nursed that 1-0 lead until a back cramp forced him out of action in the sixth. Eddie Mathews tied the score in the same frame by connecting for his ninth homer off reliever Tommy Sisk.

Larry Jackson limited the Colts to four hits and posted his eighth victory for the Cubs with the aid of Billy Williams' ninth and 10th homers.

In the American League, the first place New York Yankees ran their winning streak to seven games with a 5-4 win over Washington, the Minnesota Twins downed the Chicago White Sox 9-4, the Cleveland Indians bounced the Baltimore Orioles 11-8, and the Boston Red Sox dealt the Detroit Tigers their 10th straight defeat 8-3.

Cassius' victories supplying ringland with renewed fervor

By Web Rubla
Bulletin Staff Writer

Well "gaseous" Cassius is in the driver's seat for a shot at the world's heavyweight fistie crown.

But Clay, who likes to write poems about himself and his opponents and make predictions about what round he'll put them away, had to pick himself up off the canvas in London Tuesday to gain his TKO victory.

His fifth round battering of the eye of Britain's Henry Cooper, enabled the "Louisville lip" to win in the round he predicted. Needless to say, it was the oddest development. Nevertheless, Clay did

Two tilts called in Rookie action

Rookie League's baseball slate was more than full last night, as Bend city ballparks saw plenty of action.

Three games were played with two of them being called in early innings.

Oregon Equipment was ahead of Gordon Randall, 17-6, when the contest was called after 4 1/2 frames, a second one saw Leico trailing the AFL-CIO, 8-7, at the bottom of the fifth, and a third Oregon Roofers takes the measure of Murray Brothers, 5-3, in a full-length tilt.

Roofer Rookies pushed across two runs in the fifth in the latter contest, providing the winning margin over the Murray Brothers nine. Murray Brothers tallied a lone run in the fifth to knot the tilt at 3-3.

A fourth inning spurge saw the Murray Brothers squad gain its first two tallies. The Roofers got three in its half of the fourth. There was no scoring in the first three frames.

In AFL-CIO's 8-7 decision over Leico, most of the work was done in the last two innings. The union team scored five in the fourth and four in the fifth to overtake the Leico clubbers who went berserk in the first inning, collecting four runs.

All six of Gordon Randall's runs were scored in a giant fifth inning, but the squad went for naught during the rest of the game. Oregon Equipment, however, had four field days, and soared away from the Randall Rookies. When the dust cleared and the game was called, Oregon Equipment held a 17-6 margin.

Bob Gajda leads U.S. Open field in 2nd round

By Lee H. Petersen
UPI Staff Writer

BROOKLINE, Mass. (UPI) — Bob Gajda, who decided to become a professional after he won a caddy championship and hasn't won anything since, led the field into the second round of the U.S. Open golf championship today ahead of such favorites as Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

Gajda, a perennial also-ran, surprised everyone, including himself, when he shot a two-under-par 69 over the exacting Country Club course of Brookline to take first round lead by one stroke over Jacky Cupit.

They were the only players in the star-studded field of 150 who were able to break Brookline's par of 35-36-71.

One of the reasons was that they were able to play the treacherous back nine better than most of the others. A lot of them faltered in that 3,645-yard stretch of a course which most of the field considers one of the worst layouts on which the Open ever has been played.

Palmer Cards 73

Palmer, whose driving, approach and putting was off, carded a two-over-par 73, Nicklaus soared to a 76 while Player had a 74.

Two strokes off Gajda's pace, with even par 71's, were two of the pre-tourney favorites — Tony Lema and Julius Boros — along with 28-year-old Dave Love and former PGA champion Lionel Hebert.

At 72 came former Walter Burkemo, Don January, Paul Kelly and Dean Rehrman. In the 73 bracket with Palmer were Dow Finsterwald, Al Balding, former British Amateur champion Richard Davies, Billy Maxwell, Dow Finsterwald, Jay Hebert, Tommy Jacobs, Art Wall, Bill Ogden, Bob Harris and Stan Thirk.

Former Open champions Ed Furgol and Dick Mayer were among those at 74 along with the 50-year-old Sam Snead, trying for the 24th time to win this biggest one — and the only major one he never has won.

Face Cut Today

But it looked like there would be a lot of casualties because of that exacting back nine with the field to be cut to the low 50 and tie after today's second round.

In jeopardy were such as former U. S. Open king Cary Middlecoff with 80, Chick Harbert and Bob Rosburg with 81, Stan Lennard with an 82 and a host of others. In all of their cases, it was the back-breaking back nine which they couldn't overcome.

"I was trying to pin point my drives and was just a little off line on some of them," said Nicklaus.
