

Herculean, pint size Albie Pearson gives Angels needed boost

By Fred Down
UPI Staff Writer

Little man, what now?

It's a good question American Leaguers ask about Albie Pearson, the pint-sized outfielder who performs Herculean feats for the Los Angeles Angels.

Five-foot, 5-inch, 141-pound Albie is a cinch to be one of the American League's starting outfielders in this year's All-Star Game because if his rivals can overlook his tiny physique they can't overlook his .313 average.

But what's more important to the Angels, struggling to surge back into the thick of the American League pennant race, is that 22-year-old Albie from Alhambra, Calif., delivers when the team needs it most.

Like Wednesday night when the Angels whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1 and 3-2, in a two-night doubleheader and vaulted past Cleveland and Baltimore into fifth place, 6½ games off the lead. Pearson singled and scored the Angels' first run of the opener and then tripled home the tying run and scored the winning run in the eighth inning of the nightcap.

Paul Foytack, making his first start since acquired from Detroit, went 8 1-3 innings to win the opener and then Ken McBride pitched a three-hitter and struck out seven to score his ninth victory in the second game.

The New York Yankees took a one-game grip on first place as they beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, the Minnesota Twins downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-1, and the Boston Red Sox nipped the Cleveland Indians, 6-5, in other American League action. Washington at Kansas City was rained out.

Bob Rodgers homered for the Angels in the first game and Leon Wagner hit No. 16 of the season and his first at home for Los Angeles. Pearson, who's had his ups and downs since winning the AL rookie of the year award in 1958, is batting .313 with 82 hits and 37 runs scored.

Prep wrestlers begin training for Japan mats

Special to The Bulletin

PORTLAND — The strongest schoolboy wrestling team ever assembled in Oregon will gather at Clackamas High School Sunday to begin training for international competition.

A 10-man squad will leave July 9 aboard a Pan American jet flight for a three-week tour of Japan in a cultural exchange program that will include nine competitive stops.

A rugged, two-day tournament earlier this month at Corvallis thinned a field of 48 qualifiers down to the chosen 10 for the trip. They will be accompanied to Japan by Coaches John Dustin, Marshfield, and DeLance Duncan, Klamath Falls.

This contingent includes seven past or present state prep champions and six winners from the high school division of an AAU freestyle wrestling tourney at Corvallis in March.

One of the wrestlers is of Japanese descent and two are foreign-born. Rich Henjyoji, representing Oregon at 110 pounds, is the son of a Buddhist bishop of Portland. Grant Humphrey, 130, son of a Klamath Falls railroad engineer, was born in England. Henk Schenk, a rugged 180-pounder, is a native of Holland and son of a Silverton-Mount Angel area dairy farmer.

Lebanon boasts the only double representation. The state team co-champions landed Don Dykstra at 150 pounds and Don Kauffman at 190. There are three wrestlers from the Portland Interscholastic League, one from suburban Portland and others from Rainier and Canby.

None has ever been to the Orient and few have wrestled internationally. Schenk was one of few Oregon wrestlers to claim a win over his Japanese opponent last winter, when a team of national champions toured this state.

Linfielder signs

PORTLAND (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers Wednesday signed former Linfield catcher Bill Wallin, released recently by the Milwaukee Braves' organization.

First Of Season

The Yankees beat the White Sox for the first time this season after four straight losses with the help of homers by Roger Maris and Tom Tresh. It was No. 16 of the year for Sir Roger, and Tresh also contributed a double to the Yankees' seven-hit attack on Gary Peters and Jim Brosnan. Whitey Ford, aided by Hal Reniff in the last 2 1-3 innings, got his 11th win of the season against three defeats.

Bob Allison of the Twins hit a pair of homers to take over the AL leadership with 19 homers, 82 runs batted in and 53 runs scored, and Earl Battey hit his 16th homer of the season in an attack that enabled Dick Stigman to score his sixth win. Gus Triandos homered for the Tigers' run.

Eddie Bressoud's second homer of the night came in the ninth inning and lifted relief pitcher Jack Lamabe to his fourth win without a loss for the Red Sox. Russ Nixon and Chuck Schilling also homered for the Red Sox while Joe Adcock connected for the Indians.

Soldier Herman gets top seeding

CORVALLIS (UPI) — Paul Herman of the U.S. Army, the 1961 champion, Wednesday night was seeded No. 1 in the National AAU Decathlon championship here this weekend.

The former Westmont College athlete will lead a field of 26 into the competition starting Friday morning at Oregon State University. At stake in addition to the championship are two places on the U.S. team which will compete in Russia and other European countries next month.

Steve Pauly of Oregon State was seeded second, followed by Dave Edstrom of the Air Force and Phil Mulkey of Birmingham, Ala.

The large entry list has forced meet officials to run the competition in four flights, two in the morning and two in the afternoon.

Lucky iron gets 2 holes-in-one

STAUNTON, Va. (UPI) — Jim Trimble, a 58-year-old weekend golfer from Staunton, Va., believes his seven-iron brings him luck.

Don't debate the point with him today because Trimble accomplished a feat against which the odds can be calculated in astronomical figures: two holes-in-one on one 18-hole round.

Trimble shot the first hole-in-one on the 170-yard eighth hole on an Augusta County course Wednesday and clicked for the second one on the 179-yard final hole.

He said most golfers don't realize the things you can do with a seven-iron.
