

Softballers win doubleheader

Bend's softball traveling team picked up two victories this weekend.

Playing "The Snack", a Bend league softball team from Gilchrist, Bend's chucker Chuck Miles gave up four runs in the first inning and then held on and tossed a shutout in the remaining six frames for a 9-4 Bend win.

Lew Homme toiled on the hill for the Bend squad in the second game of the doubleheader. He had troubles at first, too. "The Snack" scored seven runs in the first inning, but once again Bend came back to win it. This time the score was 10-9.

In other action, Sisters Merchants let fly in a slug fest to overpower a tough Crescent team, 15-13. It also was a special non-league go.

CAPTURES BIG RACE

PARIS (UPI)—Jean Ternynck's Sanctus outran 18 rivals Sunday to win the 600,000 francs ($120,000) Grand Prix de Paris horse race at Longchamp. Signor finished second but stewards placed him third for interfering with Duc de Guedre.

Getting richer. . .

Rookie Jim Hall providing Minnesota Twins with muscle

By Fred Down
UPI Staff Writer

The rich get richer, the poor get poorer and the muscular Minnesota Twins apparently have developed a new muscleman.

He's rookie Jimmie Hall, and as far as their American League rivals are concerned the Twins need him like Sonny Liston needs karate.

The Twins have reeled off seven straight victories, including Sunday's 6-2 win over the Washington Senators in a drive that has carried them to within 2½ games of the first-place New York Yankees. They've done it with power — personified mostly by Bob Allison, Harmon Killebrew and Earl Battey—but given impetus in the last few games by the 25-year-old Hall from Mt. Holly, N.C.

Hall slammed a three-run homer and two singles Sunday, giving him seven hits in his last nine at-bats and enabling relief pitcher Mike Fornieles to pick up his first victory of the year. The Twins have been traveling at a 32-12, .727 clip since mid-May when they were in ninth place.

Yanks Pad Lead

The Yankees lengthened their AL lead to two full games when they beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-2 and 11-4, the Detroit Tigers shaded the Los Angeles Angels, 6-5, the Chicago White Sox won, 4-0, after an 8-4 loss to the Cleveland Indians, and the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 4-3, after a 3-1 loss in other American League games.

In the National League, the San Francisco Giants beat the Cincinnati Reds, 7-3, the Milwaukee Braves shut out the Los Angeles Dodgers, 7-0, the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the New York Mets, 3-0, the Philadelphia Phillies edged out the Chicago Cubs, 3-2, and the Houston Colts tripped the St. Louis Cardinals, 1-0.

Hall's homer climaxed a five-run third-inning rally during which John Goryl doubled and Zolo Versailles had his ninth loss compared with three victories.

Yogi Berra's three-run homer gave the Yankees their opening-game victory and the world champions took the nightcap with the aid of the steady five-inning relief pitching of Bill Kunkel, who won his second game. Roger Maris and Joe Pepitone homered for the Yankees in the nightcap.

Come From Behind

Dick McAuliffe's ninth-inning homer enabled the Tigers to climax an uphill struggle from a 4-0 deficit and give Phil Regan his fourth victory of the season. Leon Wagner, Norm Cash and Bill Bruton also homered during the game. Julio Navarro suffered his second defeat against four wins.

Two-run homers by Max Alvis, Mike De La Hoz and Woody Held paved the way for Cleveland's Dick Donovan to win his fifth game, but the White Sox earned a split on the strength of Gary Peters' seven-hit pitching in the nightcap. Rookie Pete Ward homered in the fourth and rookie Jim McCraw drove in two runs with a single in the fifth to lead the White Sox' six-hit attack in the second game.

Doc Edward's two-run 14th-inning single enabled the Athletics to win the first game of their doubleheader with Baltimore, but the Orioles took the 12-inning nightcap when Bob Saverino singled with the bases filled and none out. Bill Fischer won his eighth game for the Athletics in the opener and dropped his fourth game in the nightcap.

8 Oregon juniors in national fray

ROSEBURG (UPI)—Eight Oregon junior tennis players won trips to the National Junior Chamber of Commerce tournament at the Oregon State Jaycee tournament here Sunday.

They are Dave Shuford and Craig Cooley, Salem; Kathy Smith, Ken Myers, Mary Gardner, and Joanne Salade, all of Medford, and Sherry Sevall and Bob McKee, Roseburg.

Shuford won the junior men's title with a 6-1, 6-0 decision over Mike Naumes, Medford. Cooley, defeated Ted Brown, Albany, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3 for the boys' title.

Miss Smith swept past Beth Kenward of Portland, 6-1, 6-0, to take the junior women's title and Miss Sevall topped Jill Izett, Springfield, for the girls' championship, 6-3, 6-4.

In novice competition, McKee went three sets before beating Nick Rasmussen, Medford, for the junior men's title; Myers fought an uphill battle to beat Mike McKay, Albany, in the boy's division, 0-6, 7-5, 6-3; Miss Gardner defeated Kathy Murch, Beaverton, 6-1, 6-0 for the girls title, and Miss Salade defeated Pat Byrne, Springfield, 6-3, 7-5 in the junior women's class.

The national tournament will be held at Provo, Utah, July 14-20.

Salt Lake City now is 1½ games away from third place San Diego. Denver won its sixth and seventh straight games, coming from behind against Seattle in the first to win 5-4 and having to hang on for dear life in the nightcap, winning 8-7.

Demeter Wins It

Ethan Blackaby scored the tying tally in the seven-inning first game and Steve Demeter singled in the winning run moments later.

Noel Mickelson collected his first victory in relief while starter Jerry Stephenson was nicked for his ninth loss against two wins.

In the second game the Bears blew an eight run lead and only fine relief work by Johnnie Seale put the damper on the Rainiers. Dennis Ribant had held Seattle scoreless for six innings but then the visitors exploded for three runs in the seventh and four in the eighth.

Ribant got his sixth victory against three losses and Bill Spanswick was the loser and now has a 6-3 mark.

Salem man gets to OGA semis

PORTLAND (UPI)—Bob Prall of Salem defeated medalist Stew Schroeder of Medford 2 and 1 Sunday to reach the semifinals of the Oregon Golf Association's match play tournament at Riverside.

The victory avenged a defeat handed Prall by Schroeder in the finals of the 1961 Southern Oregon tournament.

Prall defeated Mickey Shaw 3 and 4 in a Sunday morning match, and met Chuck Fisk of Columbia, Edgewater in a 36-hole semifinal today.

Defending champ Dick Price of Longview faced Virg Mitchell of Portland in the other semifinal.

Price defeated Leighton Tuttle 2 and 1 on the 20th hole and Jerry Cudari 2 and 1 Sunday. Mitchell defeated Bob Norquist 3 and 2 and Bob McReynolds 1-up.

Women were idle Sunday. Sue Jennett of Lake Oswego played Mrs. R. L. Borst in one semifinal and Mrs. Lon Stiner Jr. played Pam Stacey of Medford in the other today.

On Saturday, Schroeder defeated Bruce Cudd 2 and 1.

Dick Barrett of Portland took care of 1959 winner Dick Yost of Portland 2-up and last year's runner-up and two-time winner, Don Krieger of Portland, was ousted by Virg Mitchell of Riverside 4 and 3.

George Brochler, Prineville was defeated by Tuttle 6 and 4. Beecher was the 1953 title winner.

In women's championship play Miss Jennett took a 1-up over Mrs. Richard Grubbs of Portland.

Miss Stacey defeated Mary Wolfe of Portland 2 and 1. Mrs. Stiner was a 3 and 1 winner of Mrs. Robert Gill of Portland. Mrs. Best won over Mrs. Harry Stepp, Portland, 3 and 1.

TRANSFER

Ed Cecil, ex-Lava Bear baseball and former Linfield College pitcher, left for Winnipeg, Man., Canada, this morning to play baseball for an undisclosed Canadian team.

He was playing for Burnswick, Ga., in the Georgia-Florida League. He was new there this season. Cecil was transferred by the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

Okla pushing Texas nine for PCL lead

By Dave Rowe
UPI Staff Writer

Rainouts and Oklahoma City's recent spurge are giving southern division leader Dallas - Ft. Worth some uneasy moments in the Pacific Coast League.

Oklahoma City pulled within one-half game of the Rangers yesterday by tripping Portland 5-1 in a single game while Dallas-Ft. Worth was rained out of its double header with Spokane.

The rains also hampered Spokane's chances of moving up on northern division leader Tacoma. The Giants split with Hawaii, winning the first game 5-1 but falling 4-1 in the second.

Salt Lake City and Denver won doubleheaders. The Bees edged San Diego 6-4 and 4-0 while the Bears squeezed past Seattle 5-4 and 8-7.

Four Straight Wins

Jerry Nelson led Oklahoma City to victory with a five-hit pitching performance. It was the fourth straight win for the Bees. Nelson had held the Beavers to two hits going into the ninth.

Offensive weapons for the Bees were outfielder Carroll Hardy and first baseman Dave Roberts. They drove in two runs each and Roberts banded a home run with one man aboard in the third.

Ted Newman hurled Hawaii to a 4-1 verdict in the second game after the Islanders lost to the Giants in the opener 5-1. Tim Hunt slashed a 350-foot home run for the Islanders in the second inning and then the Hawaiians moved in front for keeps in the fifth when they tallied a single run, adding two more in the next frame for insurance.

Herbel Wins Eighth

Ron Herbel gained his eighth decision against seven reversals in the opener.

Wayne Carlander of Salt Lake City fired a shutout against San Diego while Gordon Seyfried gave the Bees a 6-4 victory in the first game. It was Seyfried's fifth straight win, although he needed help from Fred Brudette in the
