

He proposes that July 9th be called 'Deliverance Day'

By Dick West
UPI Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Some clock watcher at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce did a little figuring the other day and came up with a timely calculation.

He ascertained that precisely at 7:12 p.m. on July 9 the 1963 calendar year will be 52 per cent over. Putting it another way, only 48 per cent of the year will be left.

By a stunning coincidence, 52 per cent also happens to be the tax rate on corporation income. Therefore, Edwin P. Neilan, president of the chamber, has proposed that July 9 be designated as "Deliverance Day."

At that time, statistically at least, "the federal government moves out of the top taxpaying corporations and turns them back to the owners for the rest of the year," the chamber noted.

Urges Celebration

Neilan recommended that "Deliverance Day" be suitably celebrated by the nation's businessmen, but he neglected to suggest ways that this might be done.

This being the outdoor season, I should think that a cook-out would be appropriate. Perhaps business leaders could get together and barbecue Mortimer Caplin, the revenue commissioner.

Or they could run Chairman Wilbur Mills of the House Ways and Means Committee up a flagpole and fire a 21-gun salute.

Regardless of what mode of celebration is chosen, it seems to me that "Deliverance Day," if it is to become a tradition, calls for an exchange of gifts among those emancipated.

In this connection, I happen to have at hand the latest catalog published by a company that manufactures a line of toys for executives. Some of them would make ideal gifts for the occasion.

For example, almost any liberated tycoon would appreciate receiving an "executive decision-maker" to help him form snap judgments.

Confronted with a problem, he can arrive at a solution simply by flicking an arrow that spins around a board and finally stops on a square marked "sell out quick," or "go golfing," or "lie about it" or some other logical decision.

Another item that caught my eyes is an "executive jigger" that shows the proper amount of liquor to pour for special occasions. Recommended dosages include 1 1/4 ounces upon being promoted to vice president, 1 1/2 ounces upon being awarded a key to the executive washroom and 3/4 of an ounce to get up courage to ask for a raise.

The jigger does not specify what amount to pour for a toast to "Deliverance Day," but there is a related entry. It prescribes 1 1/4 ounces when tax agents are checking the books.

Bus accident takes 8 lives in New Jersey

By United Press International

Eight persons were killed in a New Jersey bus accident in the worst of a series of weekend traffic accidents.

Four persons died in each of three different accidents. Six persons lost their lives in two others.

In the New Jersey accident, a bus and two cars collided on rain-swept Route 3 at Rutherford early Saturday. The bus was en route from the Port Authority terminal in New York City to Paterson, N.J. Its driver, Wilbur Parker, 30, had been driving for the bus lines only two days.

Sunday morning on Route 15 at Wharton, N.J., two cars collided, killing four persons. One car carried seven persons and four of them were killed.

Four young people were killed late Saturday night on an interstate highway near Indianapolis, Ind., when their speeding compact car slammed against a bridge rail and ended up in almost unrecognizable shape.

A pickup truck crashed into the rear of a large truck-trailer east of Baker, Calif., on "notorious Baker Grade" Saturday and killed four persons.

Three members of one family died in a three-car crash in Arizona, Saturday when their car apparently crossed the center line, collided head-on with a second car which then struck a third auto.

A drag race between two cars on Chicago's Dan Ryan Expressway ended in death for three persons, one an expectant mother. They were Walter Fleming, 24; Cora Williams, 22; and Mrs.

Hazel Woods, 22, who was eight months pregnant.

Mrs. Woods' husband was one of the drivers. He was not hurt.

2 hospitalized after accident

KLAMATH FALLS (UPI)—Two persons were hospitalized here late Saturday with serious injuries following a two-car collision in California 18 miles south of Tulelake.

California officers said a car driven by William Hayes, 56, Portland, and one driven by Ray M. Jones, 38, Empire, Ore., collided. Jones and Mrs. Janice Hayes, 48, were hospitalized.

U.S. personnel now subject to German courts

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI)—American G.I.'s and other Allied troops who commit crimes in Germany became subject today to West German legal jurisdiction.

The change means that U. S. soldiers stationed in West Germany can be tried in West German courts rather than by U.S. court martial as in the past.

The new arrangement is the result of a pact that went into effect today. Though the pact was signed in August, 1959, after long negotiations, it was ratified by all countries involved only this month.
