

Annual summer Pow Wow of rockhounds under way

Special to The Bulletin
PRINEVILLE — The county fair and rodeo grounds opened officially Monday morning for registration of rockhounds arriving for the annual summer All Rockhound Pow Wow, a national organization of rock hunters and collectors.

11th annual picnic set by pioneers

Cove Palisade State Park, deep in the gorge of Crooked River in the area soon to be flooded by the Round Butte dam, will be locale of the Jefferson County Pioneer Association's 11th annual picnic Sunday, July 14.

The picnic will start at 10 a.m., with the lunch to be at noon and the program to start at 2 p.m. A highlight of the program will be the crowning of the queen, Mrs. Mary Williams, who, with her husband, the late Anderson Williams, and baby son settled on a homestead a mile north of the town of Metolius in 1904. Seven children, plus several foster children, were raised there.

The retiring queen of the Jefferson pioneers is Mrs. Dena Cleason, currently on a visit to Belgium.

Honored as Pioneer will be James P. Read, son of Perry and Hattie Read, who was born at Grizzly in 1882. He married Florence (Belle) Landers, Read has farmed in the Culver area for many years.

William Barber, Culver, is the retiring association Pioneer.

A program is being prepared, and there will be a speaker.

"The public is invited to come and bring lunch and meet old friends," Mrs. Hazel McCoin, Torrebone, secretary-treasurer of the association, said.

This will be the group's last picnic at the old picnic grounds in the Cove gorge.

camped, some having arrived as early as Saturday evening to "rest up," as they said, for the arduous week of rockhunting which they have planned.

The Pow Wow is to close Sunday, July 7. During this week, numerous escorted caravans to agate beds and places where other minerals may be found have been planned. Many rockhounds will also take maps, furnished at the registration office at the fairgrounds, and strike out on their own.

By noon Monday more than 100 cars or camper vehicles had registered at the grounds. Rockhounds, upon entering the grounds, found several innovations designed to improve the functioning of the Pow Wow program. A number of signs were in place giving clear directions. A visitors' area had been set aside, marked with blue ropes, to prevent cars from driving through the tailgate area on sightseeing expeditions.

Busy greeting early arrivals, checking the loudspeaker and doing many other chores on Monday was C. H. Robinson, Pow Wow chief.

The Rotana restaurant opened with the breakfast today, and this facility for rockhounds and visitors will be open until Sunday. The first evening program for rockhounds and any interested visitor is planned for tonight at 7 p.m., and the first field trip caravan of the scheduled tours will leave the fairgrounds tomorrow morning at 7 a.m. for Glass Buttes in search of choice specimens of obsidian.

The hall, closed last week, will remain closed to dances for an indefinite period, the chief said.

In other police business, the board reached no decision on whether to have city officers deputized by the county sheriff's office. This action would enable officers to travel outside the city limits if emergency conditions arise. Right now one officer on each police shift is deputized.

City Manager Hal Puddy reminded city fathers that the fiscal budget hearing will be held Wednesday evening during the regular commission meeting. He asked them to consider possible wage increases for city employees before meeting time.

Puddy also reminded that Bend horse owners have until July 15 to present to the commission their model revision of an ordinance which imposes restrictions on the keeping of horses and other livestock. Six weeks ago, objecting horse owners were advised to draft an ordinance more to their liking, and submit it for consideration.

Tour planned in Model T

PORTLAND (UPI) — Mr. and Mrs. Willard La Barre of Portland are going to tour Alaska in a 40-year-old Model-T Ford.

La Barre has rebuilt the shiny vehicle, for which he has turned down more than $4,000.

La Barre said they would make a leisurely trip, taking two weeks to cover the some 3,000 miles to Fairbanks.

"We're not in any hurry," he said. "We drive 25 to 30 miles an hour. That's the only way to see the country."

Terminal bid opening set

EUGENE (UPI)—Bids will be opened July 12 on the proposed $500,000 terminal building at the Eugene municipal airport.

The 25,000 square foot structure will provide office space for United and West Coast Airlines, a passenger waiting room, a lounge and a restaurant.

Report issued

SALEM (UPI)—More than $22 million was credited to the state's general fund during the 1962-63 biennium by the state treasurer's office, Treasurer Howard Belton announced today.

Belton explained $14,139,330 was received from inheritance and gift taxes, $8,705,588 represented earnings from investments, and $1,346,802 was remitted by district, justice and municipal courts representing one-half of various criminal and traffic violations in which the state participates.

City revokes license for dance hall

Bend city commissioners Monday gave Police Chief Emil Moen their wholehearted backing after hearing his reasons for revoking the Domino dance hall license.

Moen told the board during a luncheon meeting that his department has received numerous complaints of law violations during dance sessions, including a raffle, traffic violations, vandalism and too much "age spread."

He also said his officers frequently have found empty beer bottles in the vicinity following dances.

The hall, closed last week, will remain closed to dances for an indefinite period, the chief said.

In other police business, the board reached no decision on whether to have city officers deputized by the county sheriff's office. This action would enable officers to travel outside the city limits if emergency conditions arise. Right now one officer on each police shift is deputized.

TIMED TO TOMORROW—Space-age thinking is geared to jet-age travel for a not-too-far-distant tomorrow, as charted on News-Graphic, above. President Kennedy has announced that the United States will try to build an even faster plane than the six supersonic-type jets now on order by Pan American Airways for 1968 operation. Planes on order are to be built by a British-French combine.
